Although long Chongzhen was injured, he was still at the perfected stage of level one. However, he was killed by the black-cloaked man with one finger. No one could react in time.

faction leader!!!

The members of the White Dragon Gang cried out in grief.

"Ah!"

On the battlefield.

ah! hei Zong screamed as he was injured by Zhang Ling again. His chest was hit by Zhang Ling's palm and he flew backward, spitting out blood.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

dong lin's spear trembled and blossomed into flowers. dugu luoheld the soft sword in his hand. the sword's body was like a thin snake as it wriggled and extended, gradually suppressing dong lin.

"Kill!"

More than a thousand demons rushed over, trying to help hei Zong deal with Zhang Ling.

"Suppress!"

"Whoosh!!!"

the black-cloaked man made a hand seal, and the blood refining formation started to work. it formed a blood-red light, which suppressed all the living beings present.

Da da da da

The firearm mech opened fire and killed the black-cloaked man.

"You're looking for death."

BOOM!

Humph! the black-cloaked man snorted and waved his hand. Black mist surged and knocked all the bullets away. The perfected-stage combat meches and cold weapon meches formed a team and attacked together.

"Sky-shattering palm."

Kachaa!

The cloaked man struck out a black palm print and killed a combat mech. The damage was more than 90%.

One palm!

He had destroyed a perfected-stage level-one mech with one palm!

"Mid-stage of the second rank! He's at the mid-stage of the second rank!"

Dong Lin's pupils contracted as he exclaimed.

"Sky piercing finger!"

Whoosh!

The black-cloaked man pointed out his finger, and a black finger light condensed. Like a sharp arrow, it pierced through the air, and contained a strange totem power.

The black-cloaked man was not a half-demon, but a barbarian.

Bang!

wang gang rushed forward and smashed the finger radiance with his fist.

upgraded to firearm mech QX01.

" wang gang! " jiang li quickly retreated and put more distance between them. wang gang had already rushed out and attacked the man in the black cloak. the battle broke out in an instant.

Shua!

I'll upgrade it. Jiang Li quickly opened the soldier type interface and used a level-two soul Tinder and 100 energy points to upgrade to firearm mech.

Buzzzzzz!

The level-two soul Tinder was merged into the firearm mech QX01's body, and he was upgraded with 100 energy points.

several rays of light flickered on his body.

A few seconds later.

the promotion was complete.

It could be seen.

the firearm mech qx01 had undergone a huge change. the bullet box and machine gun on its back had disappeared, and so had the submachine gun and automatic rifle.

He only had two handguns left.

other than that.

It was a sniper rifle.

That's right.

After it was upgraded to Rank 2, the machine gun, submachine gun, and automatic rifle were all gone. It had become a sniper rifle. The body of the gun was painted black, and the style was similar to the Barrett M82a1 sniper rifle.

At the same time.

It was also equipped with three types of sniper rifle bullets.

They were 500 ordinary rounds, 300 armor-piercing rounds, and 200 armor-piercing rounds.

His military rank was promoted from Sergeant to Sergeant First Class.

Kachaa! Kachaa!

On the battlefield.

wang gang was only at the early stage of the second level. he was completely suppressed by the black-cloaked man, who was at the middle stage of the second level. in addition, the black-cloaked man had the enhancement of the blood refining formation.

He was stronger.

After only a few moves, Wang Gang was still sent flying even though he had used all his skills. His left arm was broken, and there were electric sparks.

the damage had reached 50%.

Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz!

As the blood-refining formation absorbed more blood and corpses, the blood-refining bead in the center of the formation became more and more solid, and the suppressive force it produced became stronger.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

rays of blood-red light fell from the formation and began to attack everyone present.

"repair."

Jiang Li waved his right hand and used some energy points to repair Wang Gang.

"Restored the Kasaya."

what? " the black-cloaked man was stunned. He didn't expect Wang Gang to recover so quickly. He immediately looked at Jiang Li. it's your doing.

"Then I'll kill you first."

Shua!

The black-cloaked man abandoned Wang Gang and the meches around him. He used all his abilities and approached Jiang Li as fast as he could.

"shoot!"

Jiang Li's pupils constricted.

Kachaa!

The sniper rifle with the number JJ01 was aimed at the black-cloaked man. He pulled the trigger and made a loud sound. The powerful sniper bullet pierced through the air.

"Thump!"

The bullet hit the black-cloaked man, and the powerful force sent him flying, making a huge explosion.

What is this?!

The black-cloaked man steadied his body, and his voice was a little shocked. Just now, his protective gang Qi was almost pierced through, and the powerful kinetic energy even shook him back.

"Deacon!"

Zhang Ling was also shocked.

"What kind of weapon is that?"

Dugu Luo was shocked. What other cards does Jiang Li have? The deacon is at the middle stage of the second rank, but he was actually forced to retreat."

normal bullets are not powerful enough, and armor-piercing bullets are probably not enough either. We'll just use armor-piercing bullets.

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

Sniper mech JJ01 immediately changed the clip from the normal one to the armor-piercing one and aimed at the black-cloaked man.

Bang!

He pulled the trigger, and the armor-piercing bullet shot out of the muzzle with a red flame, piercing through the air.

"Whoosh!!!"

"Touch of black mist!"

" attack! " the black-cloaked man shouted, and the black mist gathered to form a huge black tentacle. it was like an octopus 'tentacle, and it blasted toward the incoming realm-breaking bomb.

With a boom, the two sides collided in the air. The black tentacle exploded, and the armor-piercing bullet was blocked.

"Shake!"

boom!

Wang Gang rushed over and punched the cloaked man. The cloaked man was sent flying dozens of meters away, breaking several trees.

Shua!

Jiang Li opened the Dominator panel.

In the energy points column.

3210 points.

Jiang Li had lost three hundred and ten early-stage level one meches. Ten of them had self-destructed and failed to recover any energy points.

The three hundred early-stage level one meches had recovered 1500 energy points.

He lost ten perfected-stage meches and two self-destructed. In the end, he only recovered 600 energy points, which was 2100 points in total.

Plus ...

Jiang Li already had 3378 points.

In total, it was 5478 points.

After repairing the damaged meches and upgrading two perfected-stage level-one meches, the most important thing was to replenish the ammunition of the firearm meches.

It consumed 2268 energy points.

"Upgrade combat mech Wang Gang."

"okay." jiang li took the chance while the black-cloaked man was sent flying and used 2000 energy points to upgrade wang gang.

Shua! Shua!

Several rays of light flashed on Wang Gang's body, and the promotion was completed. There seemed to be no change on the surface, and his rank was promoted from Sergeant to warrant Lieutenant.

Vaguely.

The aura on Wang Gang's body became stronger, and his murderous aura was extremely threatening.

" troop type: combat mech

[rank: mid-stage of rank two]

[No.: GD01 (Wang Gang)]

skill 1: level-one Ultimate Fighting technique " skill 2: stage two mid-grade vibration "

"Equipment: level two mid-grade combat gloves"
