Chapter 64 secret skill, soul of the ink stamp

Due to the suppression of the blood-refining array, the ordinary soldiers and Warriors couldn't do anything to dugu Luo and the cloaked man.

But the blood refining formation couldn't suppress the meches.

Meches weren't living creatures. They were mechanical creations.

The blood refining formation only had a suppressing effect on living beings.

A few hundred meches attacked dugu Luo. With the addition of Dong Lin, dugu Luo was forced to retreat. He was in danger.

Clang clang clang clang

The flexible sword in dugu Luo's hand danced like a thin snake twisting in the air, knocking away the incoming bullets and making a crisp sound.

Pfft!

She couldn't Dodge in time and was hit in the shoulder by a bullet. Blood splattered. She staggered and retreated as fast as she could, avoiding Dong Lin's spear.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

but ...

The cold weapon mech threw his alloy dagger at her, covering several vital parts of her body.

"Break!"

Shua!

Dugu Luo gritted his teeth and his face flushed. He forcefully activated his inner force, which contained the power of the water attribute.

The soft sword drew a semi-circle, forming a curtain of sword light that blocked the alloy dagger that was coming at him.

“Deacon, quickly think of a way to break out of this encirclement. If this continues, we will all die Here,” stop! dugu Luo shouted.

“No!”

The man in the black cloak gritted his teeth. He had to defend against the sniper meches and the other perfected-stage level one meches while blocking Wang Gang.

Buzzzzzz! Buzzzzzz!

The black mist surged, and a huge octopus appeared on his body. The black tentacles finally blocked the attacks.

“The blood refinement bead will be completed soon. We can’t waste all our efforts.”

The man in the black cloak shouted.

“I’d like to see how long you can last,”

Jiang Li sneered.

At the same time.

Jiang Li looked up at the formation in the sky. Under the influence of the formation, he couldn't move at all. He couldn't even mobilize his qi and blood.

In the center of the formation.

The blood refinement bead gradually solidified.

Shua!

jiang li opened the dominator panel and looked at the energy points. there were only a thousand points. it wasn't enough to upgrade the sniper mech to the middle stage of level two.

if I can upgrade the sniper mech to the mid-stage of level two, I should be able to kill the man in the black cloak. But without Wang Gang holding him back, the sniper mech will be in danger if he gets close.

jiang li thought to himself.

Bang Bang Bang Bang!

At this moment.

The sniper mech seized the opportunity and fired several shots. The armor-piercing bullets contained powerful kinetic energy and destructive power, tearing the air.

Bang!

several octopus tentacles were shattered, and an explosion rang out. black mist filled the air, and the black-cloaked man retreated repeatedly. he had used up a lot of energy.

“Shake!”

BOOM!

Wang Gang took the opportunity to attack. His fists landed on the cloaked man, creating a violent vibration with a strong destructive power.

Bang!

The protective black mist exploded.

“Ah!”

The man in the black cloak screamed and spat out blood.

da da da da

The machine gun bullets shot wildly. Without the protection of the black mist, the machine gun bullets hit the man in the black cloak, and blood splattered everywhere. His body twitched as if he had been electrocuted.

The black cloak was torn into pieces by the bullets. Jiang Li saw the man's face. He was a middle-aged man with a square face.

Jiang Li didn't know her.

Never seen before.

* Cough cough *

The black-cloaked man coughed up blood. His eyes were bloodshot as he squatted down. The black-cloaked man had half a barbarian's bloodline, so his life force was unusually strong.

...

There were so many bullet holes all over his body, and he was bleeding so much blood, but he was still alive and still had strong combat power.

Jiang Li, you forced me to do this.

” jiang li. ” the man in the black cloak stared at jiang li. the hatred and killing intent in his eyes seemed to have become real. ” i didn’t want to use this. ”

“Now that things have come to this, we can only do this.”

“barbarian’s secret technique.”

As soon as he finished speaking.

the black-cloaked man let out a long roar and forcibly mobilized all the power in his body. pitch-black patterns appeared on the surface of his body and then crawled all over his face.

In an instant.

It formed a lifelike octopus totem.

“The soul of the ink stamp!”

boom!

As the black-cloaked man let out a furious roar, an invisible aura spread out, creating a terrifying wave of air that sent everything in the surroundings flying.

The cold weapon meches and combat meches that were charging at the cloaked man were all knocked back more than ten meters and fell to the ground.

At this moment.

The black-cloaked man seemed to have truly transformed into a giant octopus. The tentacles spread out, and the octopus was at least five meters tall.

it was a huge creature.

“die!”

you’re courting death! the black-cloaked man roared. The ink stamp totem left his body and charged at Jiang Li with great power.

he was going to kill jiang li.

“!!!”

jiang li’s pupils also contracted. he felt a fatal threat.

Obviously.

Jiang Li didn’t expect the Man in Black to have such a secret move.

“All meches, block it!” He ordered.

let’s go! Jiang Li calmed himself down and shouted.

Shua! Shua! Shua!

All the meches gave up on their original enemies and rushed to Jiang Li. They used all their skills to block the attack.

Bang!

The totem octopus showed its fangs and brandished its claws. It smashed away the early-stage level one meches at the front. At least a dozen early-stage level one meches were scrapped. The remaining meches were getting more and more damaged. They were at a critical point.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

More than a hundred perfected-stage level-one meches attacked. All their attacks landed on the totem octopus, and loud rumbles echoed.

The meches were knocked away one by one, and the totems and octopuses became smaller and dimmer.

“Shake!”

die! Wang Gang roared. He jumped up and punched the totem octopus with both fists. The powerful force pierced through the octopus.

Bang!

Finally.

the sniper mech fired the last shot, and the armor-piercing bullet shattered the giant totem octopus into pieces in the air.

“Ah!”

the black-cloaked man screamed and spat out blood. his face was pale and he kept retreating. he staggered and sat on the ground, paralyzed. he had suffered a violent backlash.

“No! This was impossible! How could my secret skill lose? no!”

The black-cloaked man cried out in grief.

“!!!”

Jiang Li? “dugu Luo’s pupils constricted and he was extremely shocked. Yingluo, Deacon Zhang lost. Deacon Zhang, who’s at the mid-stage of level two, lost to Jiang Li.

“Once Deacon Zhang is dead, I won’t be able to survive either.”

“Run!”

Shua!

Without the slightest hesitation.

Dugu Luo took advantage of the fact that there were no meches around to force Dong Lin and the others back. Then, he turned around and ran away as fast as he could.

Bang! Bang!

The sniper mech fired at dugu Luo, who was trying to escape. Dugu Luo instinctively felt the danger and dodged to the right.

boom!

The huge tree in front of them was broken by the bullets and exploded into pieces of wood.

“.....”

dugu Luo’s face turned pale, and he stopped in his tracks.

He couldn’t escape.
