

Army 72

Chapter 72 appointment

“Hahahahaha!”

haha. Jiang Li laughed happily. I’ve failed so many times, but I’ve finally succeeded this time. Although I’ve used up a lot of energy from the blood refining bead, I’ve finally condensed internal force.

“From today on, I’m also considered a true martial artist.”

Buzzzzzz!

In his dantian.

the qi and blood in his body condensed into a thread of internal energy, like a thin snake, circling in his dantian. however, the internal energy was too thin. forget about opening up his meridians, he could only use it once or twice at most before his internal energy was exhausted.

After cultivating internal force.

The next step of cultivation was to open up the ‘12 principal meridians’. Opening up three or less of the principal meridians ‘would allow one to be at the early stage of level one. Those who broke through less than six ‘proper meridians’ were in the middle of the first level; Those who broke through nine meridians were in the late stage of level one; Those who broke through 12 meridians were at the great circle of level one.

After all 12 meridians were connected, the inner force would flow through the whole body and reach a complete state. Finally, after opening the eight extraordinary meridians, he would be able to reach grade two.

Jiang Li had just cultivated internal force and was far from level two.

The path of cultivation.

Jiang Li had just started.

congratulations on your breakthrough, young master!

Du Xiaohua congratulated him in a cheerful tone.

“Yes.”

okay. Jiang Li nodded. After the joy, he calmed down.

After getting used to his increased strength, Jiang Li stopped practicing Thunder Qi.

“Thunderous movement technique.”

shua! Shua!

Very quickly.

martial arts. Jiang Li began to practice his body techniques.

He did not expect himself to master any powerful martial arts. With a mechanical Army, the most important thing was to learn how to protect himself.

so,

Movement technique and speed were the most important.

The faster one's speed was, the faster one could run. The more agile one's body technique was, the more one could avoid the enemy's attacks.

Of course.

It wasn't easy to master a movement technique.

Jiang Li wasn't a martial arts genius. It was impossible for him to master a body movement in one or two days, not to mention that the Thunder body movement was a high-grade level one.

It was still alright.

the thunderous movement technique was very compatible with the thunder qi technique, so it was twice the result with half the effort.

It could save a lot of time.

He finished practicing his movement technique.

Jiang Li started to practice the 'violent Bear Paw'. The Thunder snake Fist was a level two martial art, but Jiang Li had just reached level one. He couldn't practice it without elemental internal force.

Furthermore ...

Jiang Li had already mastered the violent bear palm.

During this period of time.

jiang li had prepared quite a lot of 'bear strength pills' and he had almost mastered the 'violent bear paw'.

Every martial art was also divided into different levels.

From low to high, entry, small success, large success, and perfection.

For martial arts of the same rank, the higher the realm of cultivation, the stronger the power exerted.

It was noon.

“Violent Bear Paw.”

roar!

bear force! Jiang Li shouted. His internal force gushed out and turned into bear force. When his palm landed, a bear’s roar could be heard and he punched forward.

‘BOOM!’ There was a loud sound.

A fake mountain in front of him was smashed into pieces by Jiang Li’s palm.

“Hu ~~ Hu ~ Hu ~”

Jiang Li retracted his palm and was overjoyed.

“A bear’s roar comes from my palm.”

I’ve made some progress in violent Bear Paw. Jiang Li murmured.

“Not bad.”

okay. Jiang Li nodded in satisfaction.

“Gang leader, it’s time for lunch.”

Du Xiaohua reminded him in a low voice.

“Alright,” he said.

” okay. ” jiang li stopped and nodded. ” let’s go eat. ”

In the afternoon.

There were two guests at the headquarters of the Sirius gang. They were an Ambassador from the Qian dynasty and an Ambassador from the Black Dragon County. Jiang Li asked someone to take them to the hall.

“Chief Jiang,”

In the main hall.

Jiang Li sat on the leader’s seat and looked at the two people standing below. The one on the left came from the Qian dynasty and was holding the Imperial edict of the king. He was an Imperial envoy.

Another person.

it was a messenger from the black dragon county who led the way for this ‘imperial envoy’.

“Yes.”

” okay. ” jiang li nodded. ” please get to the point. ”

Jiang Li, Lord han Liqi has the emperor’s imperial edict. He’s an Imperial envoy and has a high status. You’re just the leader of a third-rate gang, but you don’t even greet him.

jiang donglai, the envoy of the black dragon county, immediately rebuked him in an unfriendly tone, trying to stir up trouble. ” i think you have no respect for the imperial envoy and the great qian dynasty. ”

“Such an act should be punished.”

“.....”

Jiang Li narrowed his eyes, waved his right hand and said coldly, ” “Directly slap his mouth.”

“Yes.”

shua!

Wang Gang, who was standing on Jiang Li’s right side, immediately moved. He disappeared and reappeared next to Jiang Donglai.

“Pa!”

“Ah!”

Jiang Donglai let out a blood-curdling screech. His teeth were all knocked out, and half of his face was swollen. He was sent flying and slammed into the wall, looking rather miserable.

“You, you, you, you, you, you, you ...”

Jiang Li! Jiang Donglai pointed at Jiang Li with a trembling finger.

“If you dare to talk nonsense again, do you believe that this gang master will kill you immediately?”

” you’re right, ” jiang li said coldly.

“.....”

Jiang Donglai's pupils contracted, and he shut his mouth in fear.

Jiang Li is too brutal. He attacked me without any hesitation. I'm an emissary of the Black Dragon County, after all. I represent the county.

He actually made a move.

Jiang Donglai's heart could not help but tremble.

Speaking of this.

Jiang Dongxin promised the 'Duke' that he would ask for the blood refining bead from Jiang Li, but it didn't seem like it would be that easy.

"what a fast speed."

han liqi's pupils contracted slightly, and his expression was one of shock.

Just now.

when wang gang made his move, han liqi couldn't even see wang gang's figure clearly. his speed was too fast, and his eyes couldn't keep up.

One had to know.

Han Liqi himself was an early stage rank two martial artist.

In other words ...

Jiang Li's subordinate was a powerful martial artist who had surpassed the early stage of level two.

After coming to his senses, the Imperial envoy Han Liqi smiled and slowly took out the 'imperial edict' hidden in his sleeve. He opened the 'imperial edict' and said, "to be honest, before I came here, I didn't believe it.

but after seeing gang leader Jiang's men, I'm 90% convinced.

the leader of the Sirius gang, Jiang Li, found out about Dugu Huangcheng's rebellion because he knew about the conspiracy of the red-browed Monster Kingdom's Green scale city and the black snake barbarian Kingdom's barren city.

they also successfully destroyed the plans of the red-browed Yao Kingdom and the black snake barbarian kingdom. They even wiped out the troops of the monster race and the Barbarian race. In the end, they even stopped the plan of the 'half-monster Alliance' and saved the entire Yongan city.

"I've contributed a lot."

"according to the second of the three laws of the human race, from today on, Jiang Li, the leader of the Sirius gang, will take over the position of the city lord of Yongan city. he has the right to expand the territory. i hope you can do your part to strengthen the human race."

"It is everyone's responsibility to protect the human race."

"Chief Jiang, Oh, no, city Lord Jiang, please accept the decree."

Han Liqi closed the Imperial edict and handed it to Jiang Li with a smile.

"Oh, what's the meaning of this?"

huh? " Jiang Li was also stunned. He looked at Han Liqi suspiciously. so, I'm a city Lord now? " Also, what's with the three laws of the human race you mentioned?"

"City Lord, you don't know the three great laws of the human race?"

Han Liqi was also stunned.

Jiang Li shrugged.

“I see.”

Han Liqi returned to his senses and smiled. “then let me explain the ‘three great laws of the human race’ to you, city lord. after all, this is a very important matter.”

“Please speak.”

I’m all ears. Jiang Li nodded.
