Chapter 83 hong luan enters the city

First of all ...

the giant hammer mech grew to two meters tall and was as strong as the biochemical mech.

There was more.

After reaching level two, the giant hammer mech put on a black full-body armor that covered its entire body, only revealing its eyes, nose, and mouth.

The two giant hammers on the back of the giant hammer mech were one meter long. They were black and had faint golden patterns.

Furthermore ...

The two ends of these two giant hammers could be embedded together, turning into a two meter long giant killing weapon with two hammerheads at both ends.

It was definitely a powerful troop type that could attack cities and seize territories.

Just standing in front of Jiang Li, they felt a strong sense of oppression that made them short of breath and tremble.

unit Type: Giant hammer mech (elite)

[rank: early stage of rank two]

[no.: jc01]

skill 3: level two low-grade meteorite strike

“Equipment: special giant hammer of stage two inferior-grade”

advancement requirement: 4000 energy points ”

Jiang Li checked the message.

“Three skills.”

great. Jiang Li was happy. I was right. After the elite troop leveled up to level two, they have one more skill than normal troops.

“Continue to level up.”

Jiang Li waved his hand and continued to consume energy points.

Shua! Shua!

the giant hammer mech’s body kept flashing. it leveled up from the early stage to the middle stage, then to the late stage, and finally to the perfected stage.

The black full-body armor’s color became darker, and there was no reflection at all.

the rank of first lieutenant with the epaulet.

In order to upgrade the giant hammer mech to the perfected stage of level two, Jiang Li used up 28000 energy points. The total number of energy points decreased to 20620.

unit Type: Giant hammer mech (elite)

[rank: Grand completion of rank-two] skill 1: Level 1 ultimate cold weapon Mastery ”

skill 2: rank-one Supreme hammer technique ”

skill 3: Tier 2 ultimate meteorite strike

“Equipment: Tier 2 special giant hammer” advancement requirements: two level-three soul Tinders, 20000 energy points ”

Shua!

Jiang Li closed all the interfaces.

currently, I have 2806 meches, and they have all reached the perfected stage of level one. The military strength is almost the size of two whole regiments.

seven hundred and forty firearm meches, including sniper meches, seven hundred and thirty-four combat meches, and seven hundred and thirty-six cold weapon meches, including three elite meches, ” Jiang Li thought.

seven hundred biochemical meches and six Intel meches.

as the number of meches under my command increases, I can’t arrange them so randomly anymore.

I need to build a special ‘military camp’ for the meches, but I haven’t unlocked ‘mechanical engineer’ yet, so I can’t build a ‘army base’ with the game.

“Yes.”

I can ask the people in great Xia city to build ordinary barracks, but it’ll take a lot of manpower and resources.

After Jiang Li made the decision, he immediately sent people to make arrangements.

Jiang Li asked Xu Ya to build the military camp. Xu Ya passed on Jiang Li’s order to hire workers from all over the city. The pay was not low.

Half a day passed.

The workers for the construction of the military camp were all recruited.

Xu Ya asked for Jiang Li’s opinion. Jiang Li didn’t know much about the construction of military camps, so he asked Hong Tianqi to help.

after finalizing the construction blueprint, it was time to purchase the construction materials.

When the basic work was completed, the construction of the ordinary barracks would officially start.

The military camp was located next to the city Lord’s mansion.

For this reason, many houses were torn down.

Three days later.

the foundation of the military camp was laid, and the basic structure was built, but it was still far from completion. even with a large number of workers, it would take at least half a month.

before the camp was built, more than two thousand meches were living in the city lord's mansion.

On this day.

At the entrance of the great Xia city.

“Why did the city name of Yongan city change?”

It was a petite girl. She stood at the city gate, wearing a pink wide sleeve and a hat that covered most of her face. She raised her head to look at the stone plaque and murmured,”Why did Yongan city become ‘great Xia city’? what’s the meaning behind the name?”

“I’ll go into the city first.”

The young lady skipped into the great Xia city.

...

Because of the deception of her cute appearance, the guards at the city gate did not conduct a detailed examination of the girl. They only asked a few questions and let her through.

Furthermore ...

The flow of people at the city gate was very large, and it was impossible to interrogate everyone in detail. Time did not allow, either, unless something major happened.

for example, sealing off the city.

“I don’t know if that Silver Eagle guy is here yet.”

The young lady murmured softly.

Obviously.

She was elder Hong Luan of the half-monster Alliance, and she came from the wuzu plain.

After entering the city.

Hong Luan strolled around the streets and arrived at a restaurant that was packed with people. She eavesdropped on the discussions of the people around her and obtained quite a lot of information.

Jiang Li is the city Lord? ”

Hong Luan was surprised. that’s true. According to the ‘three laws of the human race’, Jiang Li’s contribution can indeed make him the Lord of Yongan city.

however, Yongan city, Oh, now great Xia city, has suffered heavy losses in Qingshan Valley. I’m afraid there are less than 3000 soldiers guarding the city.

with such a weak force, if the monsters or barbarians attack, they will definitely not be able to defend. The city will definitely fall.

rather than saying that Jiang Li became the city Lord, it’s more like he’s in big trouble.

if it were me, I wouldn’t be the Lord of the city. I’d leave the great Xia city right away. The great Qian dynasty is so big. I can go anywhere. I don’t know what Jiang Li is thinking. How dare he stay here? ”

“Or do you have something to rely on?”

He was curious.

After leaving Yongan restaurant, Hong Luan asked for the way to the city Lord's mansion and walked along the street. However, she was stopped halfway.

"Elder Hong Luan, elder Yin Ying would like to see you."

It was a small alley around the corner. A young man quickly walked out of the alley and knelt on one knee in front of Hong Ling.

He looked carefully.

One would discover that there were black snake scales on the young man's wrist, but they were not obvious and were hidden with his sleeves.

"why is he looking for me?"

"Didn't you say you didn't need my help?" Hong Ling pouted.

"This subordinate is only an errand boy for this Lao Ai."

the young man said.

"Alright," he said.

Hong Luan nodded. lead the way. Since the Silver Eagle came to the great Xia city before me, he must know more than me. I also want to ask him.

"Yes."

the young man nodded happily and walked in front.

"Pfft!"

Blood splattered everywhere.

Suddenly.

hong luan pointed out with her finger, and a red light flew out from her fingertip. like a sharp arrow, it directly pierced through the young man's heart and came out of his body. after flying a few meters away, it dispersed in the air.

“For Yingluo, why?”

The young man turned around stiffly and spat out a mouthful of blood. His face was filled with confusion as he asked this question before he died.

“I've only just arrived in the great Xia city, but the Silver Eagle immediately sent people to find me.”

Hong Ling's clear black and white eyes revealed a dangerous luster. he obviously sent someone to follow me and invite me over. Who knows what he's up to? ”
