Chapter 87 Long snake marching army formation

“Ha.”

The snake-biting man laughed mockingly. He did not bother explaining anything to Qing Wenling as it would be meaningless. He simply said, city Lord Qing Wenling, I know that you want to avenge your daughter. I understand and agree with this very much.

“I remember that in the battle of Qingshan Valley, the green scale city lost 10000 monster soldiers. There should be about 5000 left.”

this time, in order to ensure that nothing goes wrong, I need Governor Qing Wenling to lead 5000 soldiers of the green scale city to follow me in addition to the single-line snake Army. We'll launch a surprise attack and destroy the great Xia city as soon as possible.

“This bi an, snake commander, the 5000 monster soldiers of the green scale city are my last assets.”

Qing Wenling frowned.

In reality.

He had originally only wanted to take 2000 with him.

if city Lord Qing is unwilling, then I can only withdraw my troops.

the ouroboros said in a low voice.

As soon as he finished speaking.

With a wave of his hand, the Ouroboros clan truly intended to retreat.

“Wait a moment.”

“I agree,” Qing Wenling shouted.

“But, commander Naga, what do you mean by ‘surprise attack’?”

Qing Wenling asked again.

“The single-line serpent Army can form the ‘long serpent marching formation’, which can increase the marching speed by three times. It can cross the Green Mountain Range and reach the great Xia city in half a day.”

we’ll use the ‘long snake marching formation’, ” snake-Hunter explained. we’ll launch a surprise attack before Jiang Li and the other cities in the Black Dragon County can react. We’ll take down the great Xia city and kill Jiang Li.

then, we’ll leave the Black Dragon County and return to the red eyebrow Yao Kingdom.

“Alright!”

Qing Wenling’s eyes lit up. when do we move? ”

“Now.”

“With the marching speed of the ‘single-line snake Army’, they should be able to reach the great Xia city before dawn. This way, they can launch a surprise attack on the great Xia city when the humans are drowsy,” the snake-biting man said.

good, good. As expected of the ‘strongest commander’. I’m impressed.

Qing Wenling said respectfully.

“Mayor Qing, hurry up and get ready.”

The Ouroboros waved his hand.

The demon Army of the green scale city had finished gathering. This time, it was led by Qing Wenling personally and joined with the long snake formation. With the support of the long snake marching formation, the marching speed was doubled.

I hope the city Lord can return in victory.

don't worry. This time, we have the commander with the snake. He's known as the strongest commander. It's just a city of the great gan Lord dynasty. It's a piece of cake.

"That's right,"

"Let's just wait for the news of the city Lord's victorious return."

In the green scale city.

Many of the monster race residents discussed among themselves as they watched the Army leave. Their voices were filled with confidence, and they felt that Qing Wenling would definitely return victorious.

Late at night.

In the hinterlands of the Green Mountains.

Roar!

In the surroundings.

there were the low growls of wild beasts and the roars of ferocious beasts. in the pitch-black night, the forest environment was so dark that one could not even see their own fingers. it was extremely dark.

the forest was dense, and the leaves blocked the moonlight.

Rustling

Dozens of meches moved forward quickly, recording and exploring the surrounding terrain and the distribution of fierce beasts in the Green Mountains. They drew a map.

BOOM!

One of the combat meches was attacked by a beast. He punched out and shattered the beast's skull, killing it in one blow.

"There's movement."

Suddenly.

Xx02 stopped and rushed to a higher place. He looked into the distance. that's Yingluo.

it was about a thousand meters away.

A large number of monster soldiers formed an army formation and marched through the green Mountains like a huge, winding snake. The spiritual Qi of heaven and earth surrounded them and they moved very fast.

"Demon race!"

Xx02 reacted.

"It's the demon race."

...

“there are a lot of them.”

we’re no match for them with our military strength. Don’t get discovered.

In the surroundings.

The meches gathered.

“Whoosh!!!”

contact information mech xx01. There’s an important matter to report to the Lord.

Xx02 immediately activated video communication and contacted xx01. A projection appeared in front of them.

The communication was connected.

On the screen.

Xx01 appeared.

“Xx02, what’s the matter?”

...

xx01 asked, ” the lord is currently resting. if there isn’t any urgent news, it’s best not to disturb him.

“i know, turn the camera around.”

Xx02 turned the camera and transmitted the scene of the demon Army marching to xx01. A clear image appeared in the communication projection.

“This Suan ni is actually a demon Army.”

xx01’s tone was slightly surprised.

“a large number of monster soldiers have appeared in the green mountain range. with the marching speed of these monster soldiers, they will be able to reach the great xia city before dawn.”

Xx02 said.

I understand. Intel mech xx02, don’t hang up. I’ll inform the Lord immediately.

Xx01 rushed to Jiang Li’s place as fast as he could.

Thump! Thump!

there was a slightly urgent knock on the door.

“Who is it?”

Not long after Jiang Li laid down, he was woken up.

Intel mech xx01 reporting to master. Intel mech xx02 found a large number of monster soldiers in the Green Mountain Range and is marching toward the great Xia city.

Outside the door.

Xx01 said loudly.

“The demon Army.”

come in. Jiang Li woke up. He immediately sat up. come in.

“Yes.”

Xx01 pushed open the door and walked in.

“what’s the exact situation?”

Jiang Li asked.

“Chief sovereign, please take a look.”

Xx01 projected the communication screen in front of Jiang Li.

In the projection.

thank you, Jiang Li. xx02 saluted to Jiang Li, then turned the camera to the monster army that was moving quickly.

On the communication screen, there was a large number of demon soldiers in a military formation. They were like a huge Python, shuttling through the dense forest.

what’s going on? “Jiang Li looked at the image in the projection solemnly. these monsters are so fast. How did they do it?” With the speed of these monster soldiers, they will arrive at the great Xia city by midnight at the latest.”

if we launch an attack in the early hours of the morning, the great Xia city will definitely be breached. That’s because the city guards guarding the city walls are probably still half-asleep at this time.

the meches are all staying in the city Lord’s mansion.

” fortunately, i sent my meches to the green mountain range in advance. otherwise, i would have been caught off guard. ”

Intel mech xx02, I order you to follow this demon Army with all the meches around you and report the situation and direction of this Army from time to time.

follow me from a distance. Don't be discovered. Jiang Li gave an order.

"Yes."

Xx02 nodded respectfully.

Soon after.

Jiang Li observed the monster army through the projection again. There were more than 10000 monster soldiers, and they were well-disciplined and had a strong military aura. They were obviously not an ordinary monster army.

He was very powerful.

There were many level-one demons.

Furthermore ...

The Army's strange speed also meant that they had some special means that Jiang Li didn't know about. They had to be careful.

inform Hong Tianqi, Hu Dong, Wang Pingyuan, Wu Zong, Xu Ya, and pang kui to gather at the main hall of the castellan mansion.

go! Jiang Li ordered.

"Yes."

Xx01 nodded, hung up the communication, and left the room.

Jiang Li got up, put on his clothes, and left the room. He went to the main hall of the castellan mansion. Wang Gang, the giant hammer mech, the sniper mech, and the biochemical mech SH01 followed him.
