

Army 93

Chapter 93 Breaking through the Army formation

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

JJ01 and sh01 started to fire from a distance. They used sniper rifles, rocket cannons, and Gatling cannons to bombard the long snake Army outside the line Canyon. More than seven hundred firearm meches were also firing continuously.

The formation of the long snake Army trembled continuously, as if it was about to collapse.

Buzzzzzz!

The biochemical toxins of the biochemical meches spread and eroded the blood-black mist.

“ah!”

Pfft!

There was a scream.

Sniper mech JJ01 fired several shots. Each shot was made with energy bullets. It broke through the defense of the Army and then killed a level-two demon general.

The head exploded.

Blood and flesh flew everywhere.

“Whoosh!!!”

Instantly.

The battle formation was on the verge of collapse.

“Damn it!”

The Ouroboros roared furiously.

“Commander!”

Ye zhanglin’s face was pale. Losing a 2nd rank general had caused the power of the battle formation to drop. With a missing corner, the giant python formed by the black mist flew out and let out a mournful cry.

“If this continues, I’m afraid we won’t be able to hold on.”

Ye zhanglin said.

At this moment.

jiang li’s mech corps also suffered heavy losses. more than 400 of them were destroyed. if the biochemical meches didn’t control a large number of ‘walking puppets’ to stop the attack of the army python, the losses would be even worse.

Of course.

Even more of the long snake Army had died, with only around 6000 remaining.

“Hu~~Hu~Hu~”

The snake biting man took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, it’s not about whether we can kill Jiang Li or not. It’s about whether we can go back alive.

all demon soldiers, follow behind me. I'll lead you out.

” commander!!! ”

“We pledge to follow you to the death!”

All of the long snake Army's demon soldiers shouted in unison.

his aura condensed.

“Roar!”

The Army formation rotated, and a blood-black mist filled the air, turning into a huge, lifelike Python. It sat cross-legged in the air and roared.

“Kill!”

the snake-biting man carried the ouroboros bow on his back and held the snake-shaped spear in his hand. his bloodline power gathered on the body of the spear, and a black mist of light spread out as the spear glowed.

Bang!

He thrust out his spear. The spear light was sharp and pierced through everything. It pierced through The Walking corpse puppet in front of him. His right hand shook and the long spear trembled. The Walking corpse puppet was torn into pieces.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The Ouroboros clan's full strength charged into the mech Army. No one could stop it. The battle strength of a perfected-stage level two wasn't something that a perfected-stage level one mech could stop.

bang! bang!

JJ01 opened fire but was blocked by the long snake Army. The giant python roared and blocked JJ01's attack. A hole was almost torn open in the mech Army's defense line.

"SH01, go and stop him."

I can't let him escape, " Jiang Li said in a deep voice.

"Yes."

Kachaa! Kachaa!

SH01 removed the rocket launcher from his right arm and the Rotary gatling cannon from his left arm. Both of his arms began to deform, with his bones and flesh twisting.

The sleeves of his leather jacket were torn.

His arms transformed into hideous flesh Sickles, and like a Mantis, he activated his biochemical physique skill, and a blood-colored mist gushed out from his body.

SH01 charged down the mountain like a ferocious Tiger. It was as fast as lightning, like a blood-red stream of light. In the blink of an eye, it had passed through the line Canyon.

hurry up!

it was extremely fast!

The biochemical mech was the last type of level one mech in the mech Army. It not only had the powerful firepower of the firearm mech, but also the powerful close-combat ability of the combat mech and the super-fast speed of the cold weapon mech.

It could be said that ...

It was a more perfect troop class.

It was only special after it had been upgraded to Tier 2.

It was even more perfect.

“What’s that?”

ye zhanglin saw a blood-red beam of light rushing toward him from the valley behind him. it carried with it a terrifying killing intent.

Bang!

SH01 had arrived in front of the formation.

“Roar!”

...

The huge Python formed by the Army roared and charged towards SH01.

Rip!

SH01 crossed his arms in an 'X' shape, and slashed forward with all his might. Like two blood-red beams, they sliced through the front, directly tearing apart the giant python formed by the Army formation.

BOOM!

SH01 charged into the formation and tore through the blood-black mist. Like a tiger entering a flock of sheep, the scythe of blood and flesh danced in the air as it sliced the demon soldiers in half.

Blood splattered everywhere.

“Ah!”

Miserable shrieks sounded one after another.

“Stop!”

Ye zhanglin roared and tried to stop SH01. However, he was sent flying by SH01's blade and knocked into a few monster soldiers, causing him to cough out blood.

“thump!”

SH01 cut through the entire long snake Army in an extremely domineering manner and arrived in front of the snake-biter, slashing out with his flesh scythe, accompanied by a blood-red mist.

Clang!

The snake-biting spear pointed out, and both parties collided. Energy exploded, creating a vast wave of air that swept out in all directions. Both parties retreated at the same time, neutralizing each other's power.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

SH01 charged forward once more, slashing out with his flesh scythe, forming a series of blood-red blade lights, dancing and flashing in the air with extreme speed.

“So strong!”

The snake-biting man was shocked. He brandished his spear and blocked SH01’s attack. The two sides were locked in a fierce battle.

At this moment.

The snake-biting mech was stopped by SH01. The remaining meches immediately charged at the long snake Army. The biochemical meches spread their biochemical toxins and corroded the demon soldiers.

“Kill!”

Ye zhanglin roared and rushed forward.

“Wang Gang, you go down too.”

Wang Gang! Jiang Li immediately sent Wang Gang after seeing the situation.

“Yes.”

Wang Gang nodded and jumped down from the top of the mountain. He stepped into a huge pit and the bodies in the valley were sent flying.

after that.

Wang Gang ran at full speed and rushed into the battlefield.

Thump!

Wang Gang punched out with both fists. The vibration burst out and produced a terrifying vibration power. It broke through the defense of the Army formation and killed its way into the demon Army.

Pfft! Pfft! Pfft!

With Wang Gang's strength, he could easily kill these demon soldiers with one punch. It was as if he was killing ants.

BOOM!

Wang Gang charged in front of a stage two demon general and attacked with all his might. He released his vibration skill and killed the stage two demon general in a few moves.

BOOM!

Wang Gang charged at ye zhanglin. The two sides fought with all their might. The power of his bloodline burst out, and the Tiger roared deafeningly.

However ...

Ye zhanglin was only at the late stage of the second level. Even if he tried his best, he was still not Wang Gang's match. If it weren't for the help of several level-two demon generals, ye zhanglin would have been killed by Wang Gang.

Time passed.

As the monster soldiers fell one after another, the Stage 2 General was killed by Wang Gang. The single-line snake army formation could no longer hold on.

There was a loud 'boom'.

The blood-black mist dispersed, and the Python let out a wail before dissipating in the air.

Da da da da

The firearm mech fired. Without the formation, he was able to use his full power and killed the demon soldiers one by one.

“Ouroboros!”

BOOM!

At this moment.

The Ouroboros displayed a powerful technique. The power of his bloodline condensed, forming a huge shadow of an Ouroboros. It was like a ring, and it spiralled behind him.

“he’s going all out,”

okay. Jiang Li watched calmly. He couldn’t be careless. He stared at the serpent warily, ready to let the hammer Mech Attack at any time.
