

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4365 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4365)

Qiao Feiyun promised to pay the Iga family $80 million in two installments.

Pay 50% of the deposit first, and wait for the remaining 50% to be successfully completed.

Moreover, Qiao Feiyun also gave a promise that if anyone died, each person would give an additional pension of two million US dollars.

In order to ensure the successful completion of the task, Hattori Hanzo specially sent his only son, Hattori Kazuo.

This time, he specially asked Hattori Kazuo to lead the team to the United States to complete the mission, in order to ensure the smooth completion of the mission and a triumphant return as much as possible.

For this reason, he specially called Hattori Kazuo to his study, and after informing him of the situation, he exhorted: "Yiman, you will choose seven capable officers today and go to the United States as soon as possible!"

Hattori Kazuo said with some worry: "Father, since we have sworn allegiance to the Ito family, we should report this matter to the Ito family first, and also to the Ito family for approval? Otherwise, if they know that we acted without authorization, I am afraid There will be some trouble."

Hattori Hanzo waved his hand and said coldly, "Don't worry about the Ito family, the people of the Ito family don't look down on us Iga ninjas at all, we have sworn allegiance to them for so long, they only used us once, that is the time to go there. Chaina, going to Yeling Mountain in the wade family to face the Wanlong Temple, other than that, we have never been recruited. This is clearly to let us Iga ninjas sit on the cold bench. If this continues, we will starve to death sooner or later.!"

After speaking, Hattori Hanzo said with a resentful expression: "Ito Nanako, who is called Yamato Nadeko in the Ito family, is not a good kind in my opinion. When she set off for chaina, she never told us the enemy we were fighting against. Who is it? We didn't know until we got to Yeling Mountain. Our enemy turned out to be the famous Wanlong Palace! It's obvious that we lied to us to die!"

Hattori Kazuo hurriedly said: "Father, you don't have to understand this matter. When you went to Yeling Mountain, you also saw the sky-defying strength of the wade family's young master, and it is said that Miss Ito is his confidante. , Miss Ito must have some understanding of his strength, that day Miss Ito signaled that we were going to Yeling Mountain, it is very likely that Miss Ito knew that Young Master wade would definitely win, and just let us go to the field."

Hattori Hanzo snorted coldly: "Anyway, that woman has been hiding from us, and this matter makes me very unhappy!"

Having said that, Hattori Hanzo looked at Hattori Kazuo and said very seriously: "Yoshino, you have to know that the top family in China is no longer the era of three-legged confrontation..."

"When the three families stand against each other, the three families will restrain each other, guard against each other, and target each other, which will reflect the importance of our ninjas..."

"But now, the Ito family has the last laugh. Looking at the whole of Japan, except for the Yamaguchi group, no one is the opponent of the Ito family anymore. Under such circumstances, why does the Ito family need ninjas?"

"What's more, now the four major ninja families are all loyal to the Ito family, but the Ito family basically no longer needs ninjas, which makes everyone's current economy stretched, and if this goes on, everyone will starve to death, if no one Ninjas are needed, no one pays for ninjas, and ninjas will perish!"

"We... we can't apply for subsidies from the Japanese government to turn ninjas into intangible cultural heritage?"

"In that case, don't you descendants of great ninjas stay in tourist attractions every day and earn money by performing ninjutsu for those tourists?"

"In that case, how can we be worthy of our ancestors?!"

Hattori Kazuo was speechless for a while.

What my father said is not alarmist. The profession of ninja is very marginal in modern society, but the reason why it can still survive is because there are big families who are willing to pay for ninjas.

But once the big family no longer pays for ninjas, the profession of ninjas will lose the soil for survival.

Therefore, the current Iga family must find a way to be self-reliant.

Thinking of this, his expression also became serious, and he bowed and said, "Father, I understand your thoughts! Please rest assured, I will definitely go all out to complete this task!"

Hattori Hanzo nodded with satisfaction and said, "One man, when you go to the United States this time, you must be careful and low-key. When you enter the country, don't use your original identity, and don't let the Ito family know about this."

Speaking of this, Hattori Hanzo said again: "I want you to go to the United States this time, and I also want you to examine the situation in the United States. The living environment of ninjas in Japan is already very bad, but the United States will definitely be much better, if it is suitable. , we might as well bring the entire Iga family to America!"

"Go to America?!" Hattori Kazuo's eyes widened and he blurted out, "Father, the situation in the United States is very complicated... The local gangs are intricate, and the gangs formed by European, African and Asian immigrants are also extremely powerful, and the United States is also very powerful. The proliferation of guns, the advantage of our ninjas, will be greatly reduced in the United States."

"No." Hattori Hanzo shook his head and said: "Everyone relies on guns to solve problems, and only then will our ninja's unique advantages be reflected. Otherwise, the employers in the United States would not have spent such a high price this time. Let's go! This proves that there must be a market and demand for ninjas in the United States. After you arrive in the United States, you can study it carefully before making a decision."

Hattori Kazuo nodded respectfully: "Okay father, I get it!"

Ever since Charlie agreed to accompany Stefanie sun to the charity dinner, he has been thinking about what reason should be used to explain this matter to Claire.

Because not only did he want to accompany Stefanie sun to the dinner party on the 11th, but he also promised Stefanie sun that on the 15th and 17th, he would go to New York and Boston to support her concerts respectively.

The concert was simple. After all, his wife Claire also liked Stefanie sun very much. If she took her to the concert, her wife would definitely be very excited.

The difficulty is how to explain to my wife about going to New York on the 11th.

Just when charlie hadn't thought of the words yet, Claire told him cheerfully, "Husband! Stefanie sun is coming to the United States for a concert!"

charlie asked curiously, "You just know?"

"Yeah..." Claire said, "I've been busy with training for the past few days, and I seldom pay attention to these news. I just found out about it when I saw a poster at school today..."

After speaking, Claire continued excitedly: "Husband! Stefanie sun will have a concert in New York on the 15th and Boston on the 17th. Boston is the closest to us. Would you accompany me to see it..."

charlie followed her words and said with a smile, "If you really want to see it, then you might as well go to both."

"Ah?" Claire said in surprise: "Isn't it too greedy to go to both shows...and...and it's definitely not easy to buy tickets...especially New York Station, New York has a large population and rich people. There are also many, it is estimated that it is difficult to get tickets, and Boston may be easier."

charlie smiled and said: "Oh, then your luck is really good, Stefanie sun's team is saying that they want me to go to New York to inspect the feng shui of New York concert venues, I am hesitating whether to agree, since you want to see Her concert, then I will help you get the tickets for these two concerts by the way!"
