After listening to Orrin sun's voice message, charlie was very surprised.

If it is as Orrin sun said, combined with his father's recognition of this Arman back then, it is enough to see that Arman must have a strong ability to excel.

And charlie is also very clear in his heart that his biggest development constraint at present is the scarcity of talents.

Although the Wanlong Palace is strong, it is not visible after all, and what the Wanlong Palace can solve is the problem of force.

In the future, to make the wade family's strength continue to rise, force is only a small part of it, and more is management.

At this point, even charlie himself is far behind.

In the future, the wade family will not only need a leader to point out the course, but also an experienced trader who will use the safest and most efficient way to help the giant ship of the wade family sail more stably, faster and farther.

Perhaps Arman is a suitable candidate.

However, charlie also knew very well in his heart that he was not familiar with Arman, and knew very little about his past, and he must be the same with himself.

It would undoubtedly be a bit abrupt to make an invitation directly at such a time.

So, he planned to take this opportunity to get acquainted with Arman.

Soon, Arman and the guy downstairs began to walk upstairs with carefully prepared Cantonese-style meals.

After Arman was busy and filled the long table with food, he finally stopped busy, took off his apron, and came across to charlie and Stefanie sun.

After some courtesies, the three sat opposite each other.

Arman took out a bottle of yellow wine that was quite old, and said to Charlie, "Master wade, if you have Yaxing, you might as well have two glasses together."

Charlie said without hesitation: "Okay Uncle Arman, I'll accompany you to have a drink."

Arman nodded and smiled, opened the yellow wine, and was about to pour the wine for charlie, but charlie took the yellow wine first and said with a smile, "Uncle Arman, are you an elder, or I will pour you a bar!"

As he spoke, he first poured the wine glass in front of him half-full.

Arman seemed a little frightened, and stretched out his hands to protect the wine glass. After charlie finished pouring it, he said gratefully, "Thank you, Young Master wade, if you don't dislike it, just like Miss sun, call me Uncle Arman."

charlie said politely, "Okay Uncle Arman, but I don't know which zhōng you are?"

Arman smiled and said, "Master wade, it's the clock of the clock."

charlie nodded and asked again, "By the way, Uncle Arman, are you from Hong Kong Island?"

"No." Arman shook his head and said, "My ancestral home is in Duanzhou, Guangdong Province. My father came to Hong Kong Island during the war, and I was born on Hong Kong Island. My father relied on the ancestral roasting goose skill on Hong Kong Island, and he was born on Hong Kong Island. Root, and later my family became wealthy, so I was sent to study in Europe and the United States."

charlie asked curiously, "Then how did you know my father?"

Arman said: "I met your father when we were hiking in the United States. At that time, we were both students, and we happened to meet each other when we were hiking on vacation. In addition, our itinerary plans were almost the same, so we went together. Well, we have become friends since then, and in those days, we often talked together and discussed the current and the wrong, and it was very easy to talk."

Having said that, Arman paused for a while, and then said, "However, because our two schools are far away, although there have been letters and phone calls since then, we haven't seen each other much."

"Afterwards, your father returned to China with your mother. Before leaving, he left me a contact information. I hope I can go to Eastcliff to find him after graduation, but I was worried, so I went back to Hong Kong Island."

When charlie heard this, he nodded slightly.

He actually wanted to know how Arman was later ordered to kill by the big boss on Hong Kong Island.

But after thinking about it, generally the parties involved are more sensitive, and it is really not suitable to ask them face to face, so I gave up and said with a smile: "So you and my father met because of hiking."

Arman nodded with a smile, looked at charlie, and asked with a smile, "Master Ywade, do you want to know how I was ordered to kill me in Hong Kong?"

charlie was stunned for a moment, and then said smoothly, "Uncle Arman, to tell you the truth, I'm really curious..."

"Haha!" Arman smiled heartily and said, "This matter was known to almost everyone on Hong Kong Island back then... I am not afraid of Young Master wade's jokes. After I returned to Hong Kong Island, my father was in poor health because of his poor health. , so I hope I can take over his roast goose shop. Although I helped him a lot when I was young, and I didn't learn his secrets, but I was an advanced person who came out to receive higher education at that time, and I was arrogant. , so I cashed out the store without authorization, took the money to start a business, and specialized in asset management for the rich."

"Later, I helped a well-known wealthy businessman surnamed Liu on Hong Kong Island manage his assets, and his assets increased fivefold within three years. He was very happy and called me to his company and said to me: you have helped me earn so much money, and I don't know how to repay you, so let's see if you have any wishes that you can't fulfill by yourself, tell me, and I will help you achieve them!"

Speaking of which, Arman shrugged his shoulders and said, "I saw that he was so sincere, so I said to him: that mistress raised by you in Shi Xun Dao's mansion is my first love girlfriend in middle school. , I love her very much, and she loves me very much..."

"If it wasn't for my wholehearted study, I would definitely not have left her, and if she hadn't been desperate because of a sudden change in her family, she wouldn't have agreed to the pursuit of you, a married man, and become your captive canary... .."

"Now I have some abilities, and I boast that I can give her a happy life, so can you give her back to me because I have made so much money for you..."

Both Charlie and Stefanie Sun were stunned. Unexpectedly, Arman was ordered to be chased and killed because of a woman.

At this time, Arman sighed and said with emotion: "I thought he didn't look at the monk's face to look at the Buddha's face, and at least he had to look at the money face if he didn't look at the Buddha's face, and there were many women around him, and it was only the young man who was regarded as a goddess. Hong Kong and Taiwan actresses, I don't know how many are obsessed with him, and he has always been messing around with flowers, and he is a well-known playboy in Hong Kong..."

Speaking of which, he changed his words and laughed at himself: "But I counted everything, but I didn't count, he is such a playboy, and his first love girlfriend turned out to be true love..."

"As soon as I finished saying this, he immediately asked his subordinates to arrest me and beat me up. After that, he put a gun on my forehead and forced me to ask if I had given him a cuckold..."

Saying that, Arman sighed helplessly: "I, Arman, have stood upright and walked right all my life, so how could I cuckold others? I just expressed my heart to my first love and asked her if she would like to leave that person and follow him. I was together, and after getting her approval, I told the truth to that Mr. Liu, and it was because of my guilt that I tried my best to help him make money, hoping that he could fulfill us..."

What did he say?" Arman repeated, sighed, and said helplessly: "Of course he doesn't believe me, he said that I must have put a green hat on him behind his back, and he would not be moved no matter how I explained it. "

"However, he later said that for the sake of money, he can forgive me this time, let me go back to recuperate, and give me time to think clearly;"

"If I recover from the injury and continue to help him make money, he will treat it like nothing happened, otherwise, it will kill me."

Speaking of this, Arman smiled and said, "However, he never dreamed of it. When I decided to tell him all this, I had already reserved my back-up. I asked my first love girlfriend to come out of the villa with her passport in advance. , wait for me at the hospital near the company surnamed Liu."

charlie asked in surprise, "You guessed that he would send you to the hospital?"

"Not at all." Arman smiled and said, "If I knew he was really like that, I would just eloped with my first love girlfriend, and I would be beaten less."

After speaking, Arman said again: "Actually, I thought at the time that there are only three outcomes;"

"The first one is that the surnamed Liu sees that I have helped him to make so much money and that it will still be useful in the future. In addition, there are too many women around him, so he doesn't care too much about one of them, so he directly fulfills us;"

"The second is that the surnamed Liu was furious when he found out, and directly killed me;"

"The third type is that the person surnamed Liu is very angry, but for the sake of me still having some use value, teach me a lesson, let me give up this idea, and continue to make money for him."

Speaking of which, Arman continued: "As for why I let my first love girlfriend go to the hospital ahead of time, it is mainly a consideration. If the situation is the first, everyone will be happy. I can walk to the hospital to see her and tell her the good news in person. And because it's close, you can see her faster;"

"If the situation is the second, then she will definitely not be able to wait for me at the door of the hospital. If she doesn't wait for me, it will prove that the surnamed Liu will not make her feel better, but at least she has escaped the clutches in advance and can report to the police. Let the police find my whereabouts, and at the same time use the police to protect her own personal safety;"

"If the situation is the third, then she will see me being beaten half to death and sent to the hospital, which also proves that the surnamed Liu does not intend to help us, then we will not do what he thinks, meet at the hospital immediately, and then look for opportunities elopement."

When charlie heard this, Arman was already in admiration.

Ordinary people do things, take one step at a time, smart people do things, take one step to see three steps, extremely smart people take ten steps.

Arman didn't know in advance what the outcome of this incident would be, but he made the most careful arrangements under the circumstances.

Moreover, it can also be seen that his love for his first love girlfriend. Among these three possibilities, one of them may die and the other may be injured, but the three possibilities he leaves for his first love girlfriend are more than enough. There is basically no risk of injury.

It can be seen that this person's way of doing things is indeed much stronger than ordinary people, and it is also much stronger than himself.

At least, if the same thing was put on him, he would definitely not be able to be so meticulous.

At this time, Arman had a childish smile on his face, and said, "I was sent to the hospital with injuries all over my body. Who would have thought that half an hour later, I would sneak out of the hospital and run away with my first love girlfriend. ."

After speaking, Arman said again: "My plan at the time was to fly to Southeast Asia first, and then find an opportunity to smuggle from Southeast Asia to the United States, but I didn't expect that the surnamed Liu returned to the villa and didn't see my first love girlfriend. After my first love girlfriend took my passport, she immediately issued a killing order, offering a reward of 30 million Hong Kong dollars to kill me..."

"At that time, the two of us had just arrived at the airport, and before we got off the taxi, we saw a lot of young and dangerous boys looking around outside the airport. I saw that something was wrong, so I had to give up the original plan."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4378 ( The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4378 )

"Originally, I wanted to find an opportunity to sneak out of Hong Kong, but the 30 million reward was the biggest secret money in Hong Kong at the time. Although the major gangs on Hong Kong Island were fighting hotly at the time, in order to make this money, everyone We shook hands temporarily and sent all our subordinates out to look for the two of us. Even the young and the bewildered in Macau heard the news and came here to try their luck. In desperation, I called your father to ask for help..."

"Later, the young master Bruce flew over from Eastcliff on a special trip, met Liu, and made a lot of sacrifices and concessions before he agreed to let us live. For this, I have always been very grateful and agreed to him. After settling down my family and other matters on Hong Kong Island, I will go to Eastcliff to find him and help him saddle up..."

Speaking of this, Arman sighed: "But I never imagined that the young master Bruce died young... After he died, the surnamed Liu immediately turned his face. When I went to pay homage to the young master Bruce, he I took out another 30 million secret flowers to buy my life, I had no choice but to escape..."

At this time, charlie couldn't help but ask, "Uncle Arman, what about your first love girlfriend?"

Arman laughed at himself and said, "She also came to the United States with me at that time, because we still had some cash at the time, so when we arrived in New York, we would be in the dark here and open such a small restaurant with the money we had on hand, and the income was not bad. Yes, but it's really hard to get up early and stay up late every day. After a long time, she may not be able to adapt to the life here, so when I came back from a part-time job one night, I found that she had left without saying goodbye with her passport."

charlie really didn't expect that the end of the story would end like this, and he was speechless for a while.

He originally thought that if Uncle Arman gave up everything, he would finally reap a love for Mananshan, and achieve a story of a lover who ends up as a family.

But I never dreamed that it would turn out to be such a bleak ending in the end.

Arman also saw charlie's surprise, smiled slightly, shrugged and said, "I can understand what she did. After all, when she was on Hong Kong Island, she lived in a luxury villa with tens of millions of Shi Xundao, and came with me. After the United States, living in a basement of less than five square meters, that kind of dark life is really unacceptable to ordinary people."

charlie nodded and asked again, "So has she returned to Hong Kong Island?"

Arman smiled and said, "I think she must have returned, but I risked calling my friends on Hong Kong Island to ask, but no one knows her whereabouts."

Having said that, Arman said again: "Someone told me that she may have been looking for short-sightedness and asked me to go to the police station to check the information on the missing persons, but I don't believe it, because if she is really looking for short-sightedness, it is impossible for her to take her passport with her. , and we are illegal immigrants, the only purpose of her passport is to voluntarily reveal her identity and then be sent back to Hong Kong Island, so I knew at the time that she must have returned to Hong Kong Island."

"The state of her whereabouts was unknown for more than half a year, until after the death of her original spouse surnamed Liu, she suddenly appeared in the public eye as Liu's official girlfriend."

"It didn't take long for the two of them to get married. The wedding was very grand. The famous rich and famous on Hong Kong Island went there. I dragged people to buy some newspapers and magazines from Hong Kong Island that reported on her wedding. There were There are many photos of the wedding scene. Seeing that she is really happy in the photos, I am relieved. Since then, I have been running this small restaurant with peace of mind, until now..."
