

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4453 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4453)

Most of the masters sent by the Fei family were martial arts masters from all over the world.

In addition to the masters of Chinese martial arts, there are also many masters who have studied martial arts from other countries.

In the field of international martial arts, Korean taekwondo, Japanese karate, ninjutsu, Thai boxing, Brazilian jiu-jitsu, Western boxing and actual combat in Europe and the United States all have a place, and they are all very popular martial arts directions.

However, most of these martial arts of other countries do not have a complete inner strength mental method, and most of them just found a little inner strength by mistake.

And many Chinese martial arts sects have gradually lost their internal skills, so their actual combat ability has not opened a big gap with other martial arts.

At this stage, there are also many martial arts masters from other countries who can raise their own strength to the same level as five-star or even six-star martial artists in Chinese martial arts.

It is even said that among the martial arts of other countries, there are also top masters at the master level, and the real combat power may not be worse than Abbas!

In order to improve their own strength, the Fei family almost accepted all martial arts masters from all walks of life. Among the people sent today, there are nearly ten people who can reach the strength of four-star warriors, and the rest are also two-star. Compared with the rank of the Samsung Warrior, the overall combat effectiveness is still very strong.

After completing the customs procedures, the group did not dare to delay in the slightest, and immediately went to Iga by car.

According to their original plan, after arriving in Iga, they immediately launched an attack on the Iga ninja, and directly came to a thief to capture the king first. In any case, they had to control Hattori Hanzo, as a way to negotiate with Hattori Kazuo and exchange for it. Jamura's chips.

In fact, the Fei family had already arranged an evacuation plan in advance. After catching someone, they would immediately take them to the nearest port, and then smuggle out of Japan by boat to avoid the Japanese government's investigation.

In the field of martial arts all over the world, the strength of ninjas is not strong.

Only when the ninjas are in the dark can their advantages come into play. Once the ninjas are exposed in the light, their combat effectiveness will be greatly reduced.

Therefore, the masters of the Fei family are very sure of this action.

However, when they arrived in Iga City, they didn't know that the Iga Ninja's station was already empty.

And waiting for them here are hundreds of anti-terrorist troops who are armed with live ammunition and eager to make contributions.

The last time Xion escaped from prison and disappeared at sea has always been a great shame for the Japanese homeland security department.

If Xion's whereabouts are still unknown, the Japanese can barely use the reason that Xion is likely to be dead to comfort itself.

It's a pity that after the battle of Yeling Mountain, Xion suddenly announced in a high-profile manner that he would join the Wanlong Palace, which made the Japanese side lose face.

Although it is impossible to fight against the whole of Japan with the strength of Wanlong Palace, the mercenary organization of Wanlong Palace is not afraid of heaven and earth, and its penetration and destructive capabilities are very strong. Japan also uses such a huge mercenary The military organization has no choice but to hope that these mercenaries will never come to Japan to cause trouble.

Therefore, in this case, they did not dare to ask Wanlong Palace for someone.

In fact, they are also very clear in their hearts that Wanlong Palace is so well-informed that it is impossible not to know Xion's grievances and entanglements with the Japanese side, but even in this case, Wanlong Palace announced Xion's participation to the outside world. , that is to make it clear that Xion is to be covered.

If the Japanese side really asks Wanlong Palace to ask for someone, they will definitely form a relationship with Wanlong Palace.

Therefore, the Japanese side simply pretended to be deaf and dumb, and did not express any views on Xion's joining the Wanlong Palace.

However, in this way, Japan's homeland security department has also been condemned wildly by the domestic people.

The security department, suffocating, has always wanted to find an opportunity to fight a turnaround, but now Japan is peaceful inside and out, and there is no stage for them to play.

In China, the Ito family has become the No. 1 family in the country with an absolute advantage, and several major ninja forces are also attached to the Ito family. As a result, the infighting between the big family and the ninja forces has completely stopped;

In foreign countries, since Xion fled, few foreign forces have focused on Japan, and all of a sudden the entire security department has been placed on the pillar of shame.

So, this time the mysterious tip has become the key to turning over the entire security department!

Iga City itself is a very small city. Even though it has a city in its name, it is actually a combination of several villages. In terms of population and area, it is not as good as a town in China.

In such a small city with a population of 10,000, the vast majority of the population are still Japanese farmers who work hard in the surrounding countryside. There are only two or three thousand people who actually live in the city.

Among the two or three thousand people, the Iga family's own people accounted for a few hundred.

The rest, in addition to the civil servants, more than half of the other ordinary citizens served the Iga family.

Therefore, in the center of this small town, most of the mansions are the assets of Iga ninjas, and the Iga family is the master of this city.

Now, after the Iga family, who was the master, left, many people who served the Iga family in this small town have also been notified to take a temporary vacation at home.

The small town suddenly became lifeless.

Moreover, since this place is so small and its only selling point is Iga ninjas, the tourism industry in this place has little room for development both vertically and horizontally, so that there are very few tourists here.

In addition, it was already night, and there were very few people on the street, not even the shadow of a tourist.

For such a small town, hundreds of people pouring in in one go is a bit abrupt in itself.

When the Fei family arrived in Iga in dozens of vehicles, the Japanese anti-terrorist troops who had been ambushed in Iga City had already discovered their existence.

As a result, the anti-terrorist troops began to gear up, waiting for a suitable opportunity to wipe out this group of people.

The masters sent by the Fei family also discovered some anomalies at this time.

They originally thought that no matter how small Iga City was, it wouldn't be too conspicuous for hundreds of people to come in.

But looking at it now, the situation is very different from what they expected.

There were very few vehicles on the street. These dozens of vehicles drove into Iga from various intersections one after another, and the streets were almost full of their cars.

One of the vice-captains felt that something was not right, and said to the captain in the other car with his mobile phone: "Boss, why do I feel that this broken place is not quite right? It's dead everywhere..."

"Yes... I didn't either. Thinking that this city is so deserted..." The captain couldn't figure it out, so he simply ignored him and said, "Iga Ninja's mansion is in the center of the city, Iga County Castle, where most members of the Iga family live. There, including the leader of their generation, Hattori Hanzo, we must act as soon as possible later to catch people as quickly as possible. The small city also has the advantage of being a small city. The police here are estimated to be no more than fifty people in total. , there are probably not even 20 armed police officers, so basically don't worry, and the traffic conditions here are very good, and it's easier to retreat, in short, it's a good thing for us!"

Everyone heard him say this, I didn't think about it any more.

However, at this time, the huge Iga County Castle had lost even a dog.

However, at this time, the inside of the Iga County Castle was full of fire.

Just two hours ago, Koga Ninja was ordered by Ito Nanako to sneak into Iga County Castle quietly, disguising it as if it was inhabited, and carefully prepared a super gift for the masters of the Fei family.

The masters of the Fei family did not know that they were deceived. They spread out in the dark and effortlessly turned from the outer wall to the outer wall of Iga County Castle.

At this time, the anti-terrorist troops closely monitored the movements of this group of people through drones deployed at an altitude of hundreds of meters. Seeing that they all quickly sneaked into Iga County Castle, the person in charge of the scene immediately asked the commander for instructions: "Sir, the targets have all entered Iga County. Hejun Castle, all helicopters are ready and snipers have occupied all the commanding heights around Iga Castle, do you want to arrest them?!" The commander immediately said: "Don't worry! It seems that their target is Iga ninjas, since we have already set up a net, then you might as well wait for them to fight!" The subordinate said hurriedly: "Sir, if we start now, we can catch them all before they start, and minimize the losses!" The commander said coldly: "Start now, What are they going to do to punish them? Breaking into houses without permission?! When it is announced to the public that we have captured a group of criminals who break into houses without permission, the people will laugh! So we must wait for them to act first and make the situation bigger, we Catch up again!"

As soon as the voice fell, explosions suddenly sounded throughout the city of Iga County!

The violent explosion made the entire city of Iga seem to have suffered an earthquake, and the Iga County Castle, which covers an area of hundreds of thousands of square meters, was also instantly burst into flames!

Within the Iga County Castle, at least ten bomb sites exploded at the same time, and those wooden buildings with a history of at least three or four hundred years were instantly plunged into a sea of fire!

And the more than 100 Fei clan masters who had just sneaked into Iga County City quietly, suffered heavy casualties in an instant!

This group of martial arts masters from all over the world never dreamed that what awaited them was not the Iga ninja holding a long sword, but a powerful explosive!

More than half of the people who were seriously injured in the explosion alone, and the raging fire that ignited after the explosion put the rest of the people in a dilemma!

In the sea of fire, there are screams of despair from time to time, like purgatory, making the living people even more frightened!

The commander of the Homeland Security Department was watching the live broadcast through the drone screen. Seeing the violent explosion scene, the whole person was also stunned.

He didn't expect that Iga Ninjas didn't talk about martial arts so much.

Shouldn't the duel between martial arts masters be cold weapons? Why did it explode like this all of a sudden? ! How can this be good? !

Hundreds of counter-strikes got the news in advance, and they can let such a big thing happen under their noses. If this is spread out, the face of the homeland security department will really not want it!

While nervous, he had an idea, and immediately blurted out: "These terrorists dare to make such a horrific terrorist attack in our Great Japan, all the anti-terrorist troops will be dispatched immediately to arrest them all!" The men said quickly: "Sir, it doesn't seem like they did the explosion. You can see from the zoomed-in drone footage that they suffered heavy losses in the explosion! Maybe it was the Iga ninja!"

The commander immediately said, "Baga! Their original The purpose should be to create multiple terrorist bombing incidents in Iga City. Fortunately, we found out in advance and surrounded these terrorists in the city of Iga County, so that we forced the most vicious terrorists to detonate the bombs with the intention of perishing with us, and our counter-terrorist elite , Under the correct command of the Homeland Security Bureau, not only did he not suffer any damage, but also protected the ordinary people of the entire Iga City, this is definitely a perfect anti-terrorism operation!"
