

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4599 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4599)

charlie saw Uncle Arman wink at himself. Although he didn't know the specific situation, he also understood what he meant, and knew that the woman whose phone had been robbed must be deceived.

However, charlie didn't leave immediately, but swaggered behind the woman and walked into Uncle Arman's roast goose shop.

After entering, charlie deliberately found a corner with his back to the door and sat down, then greeted Uncle Arman and said, "Please have a roast goose meal."

Arman originally didn't want charlie to come in now, but seeing that he was sitting in a relatively hidden position, he didn't say much, and agreed, "Okay, wait a moment, I have to help this girl call the police first."

After that, Arman took out his mobile phone, entered the three numbers of 911, then looked at the girl and asked, "Girl, did you tell the police yourself, or should I tell you?"

The girl looked at Arman gratefully, and said, "Just lend me your cell phone, I'll tell the police myself."

"Okay." Arman directly handed her his mobile phone. After the other party took it, he called 911.

On the phone, the girl told the operator that her mobile phone had been robbed, and then informed the other party's address. After the other party finished registering, she hung up the phone, handed the phone back to Arman, and thanked: "Thank you, boss, I The police have already been called, and the police will come in a while."

"You're welcome." Arman smiled slightly, put away his phone, and said, "Would you like something to eat? I'll invite you for this meal."

The girl hurriedly said: "No need, no need, I just had dinner, thank you, boss."

"You're welcome." Arman nodded and said to the man, "Pour a glass of water for this lady."

Without saying a word, the guy immediately came over with a glass of lemonade and handed it to the girl.

The girl said gratefully: "Boss, thank you so much."

Arman smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, they are all Chinese, and they should help each other."

After saying that, Arman said, "You sit down for a while, and I'll go prepare meals for the guests."

The girl said repeatedly: "You are busy with your business, don't worry about me!"

About ten minutes later, a police car stopped at the door. Two New York police officers got out of the car and entered the store, asking, "Who called 911 just now?"

The girl quickly raised her hand and said, "It's me."

One of the policemen looked at the girl and asked, "The head office told us that your mobile phone was robbed. What happened?"

The girl then introduced: "About 10 minutes ago, I was talking to a friend at the door of this restaurant, but suddenly a man came and took my phone."

The policeman nodded and asked, "Is there only one person on the other side?"

The girl said, "There was only one person who grabbed my phone, but he quickly got into a car and left."

The police asked again, "Have you seen what the person who robbed your phone looks like? What race and how tall is he? Is he fat or thin?"

The girl thought for a while, and said, "His speed is too fast, I didn't react at once, so I didn't see his appearance clearly, but what is certain is that the man is of the yellow race, medium height, thin, and moves very fast. Sensitive."

The policeman said helplessly: "A large number of yellow people of medium height and thinness are caught in Chinatown. If there is no detailed appearance, it will be more difficult to catch people."

After speaking, the other party explained: "Actually, you also know that there are at least thousands of cases of robbing mobile phones, laptops, and women's backpacks on the streets of New York every day, and it is difficult for most people to catch them."

Another policeman looked around the store at this time, pointed to one of the surveillance cameras facing the door, and said, "Since the incident happened at the door of the store, this surveillance sensor must be able to capture it? With the image data of the criminal suspect, it will be relatively easy to arrest someone."

After that, he looked at Arman and said seriously, "Boss, we need to bring back the hard disk in your hard disk video recorder and retrieve the surveillance video to help solve the case."

After he finished talking to Arman, he immediately said to his colleague: "You go and remove the hard drive, we will go back directly, and by the way, we will also take this girl back to make a record."

"Okay!" The man nodded without hesitation, and immediately asked Arman, "Boss, where is the DVR of your surveillance system? Where is it?"

Arman said with an embarrassed expression: "Officer, there is a hard disk video recorder, but there is no hard disk inside..."

"No hard drive?!" The policeman frowned and asked, "I see that the work indicator of your surveillance camera is on. How could there be no hard drive?"

Arman took out a connected hard disk video recorder directly from the counter and said, "Look, there really is no hard disk, my hard disk has been broken long ago, and I have never bought a new one. It's small, and there are no ulterior motives to care about, so it doesn't matter if there is surveillance video or not, so I didn't change it at all, just powered on the camera, just for bluffing."

The policeman walked up to him quickly and found that the hard drives of the DVR were indeed empty, his face immediately collapsed, and he said with a gloomy expression, "I said boss...you...you are too rude! How much does a hard drive cost? A large capacity will not exceed two or three hundred dollars! How can you save even this amount of money?"

Arman said helplessly, "To tell the truth, police officer, business in Chinatown is really not easy to do. Usually, I have to manage every aspect. I work hard to earn some money, but I really can't afford a few."

The policeman was speechless, unable to speak for a long time.

However, anger is anger, and he is very clear in his heart that there is nothing he can do about this kind of thing.

Since there is no hard disk in the hard disk video recorder, it is naturally impossible to store any surveillance video, so this trick formulated by the boss basically declared an abortion.

Since that's the case, it doesn't make sense for him to stay here, so he said to the woman, "Ms., why don't you go back to the precinct and make a record with us. We will try our best to find other clues to help solve the case."

The woman was also quite helpless, so she nodded and said, "Okay, then I'll go with you."

The policeman turned around and walked out. When he was about to reach the door, he turned around and said to Arman, "Go and buy a hard drive tomorrow!"

Arman nodded quickly and said, "Yes, yes, don't worry, I must buy it tomorrow!"

The police turned around and left, and soon saw the two of them come to the police car at the door, let the woman sit in the back of the police car, start the car and leave the scene.

At this time, there were only the man and Charlie left in the store, and Arman asked the man to hang a suspending sign on the door.

After the guy finished hanging up, he went to the basement alone to rest. Arman sat opposite Charlie and said, "Master Wade, the police have already targeted me, I don't know the specific reason, but I guess it must have something to do with you."

"It's about me?" Charlie frowned and asked, "Uncle Arman, do you mean that the two policemen came after me just now?"
