On the other hand, Elaine shed tears at the camera while carefully throwing the eye drops into a blind spot where the video could not capture.

At the other end of the video, Claire saw her mother crying because she was lonely, and she felt distressed, and said subconsciously, "Mom, why don't you go on a trip first? Didn't Charlie give you half a million dollars? High-end tour groups go out and have fun for a while, and when you've had enough, it's time for us to go back."

When Elaine heard this, she said in her heart, "The idea of a girl is very good. The key point is how can I still have money to travel..."

Thinking of this, she wiped away her tears and choked up and said, "Claire... Mom doesn't want to go out to play now... Mom just misses you..."

Claire said helplessly: "Mom, I still have more than 20 days in the course, and I won't be able to go back for a while..."

In fact, Claire never thought about whether Elaine could come to the United States.

But she subconsciously felt that it would not be very convenient for her mother to come to the United States.

The first is to apply for a visa. The US visa is a little more troublesome. You have to go to the embassy for an interview, and there is a certain risk of being rejected.

Besides, she also knew her mother's noisy personality. If she came to the United States, she and Charlie might not have a safe life.

Claire can say it herself, after all, Elaine is her mother, even if it is a little noisy and miscellaneous, she can accept it.

But she was afraid that charlie would feel uncomfortable.

Therefore, she did not dare to ask her mother to come over without permission.

However, charlie came over very readily at this time, smiled at the video and said, "Mom, if you feel too lonely at home, apply for a visa to come and play in the United States."

When Claire heard this, her face was incredulous. She really did not expect that charlie could agree to let her mother come over without thinking.

Elaine didn't expect charlie's promise to be so straightforward, and immediately exploded with excitement here, and cheered excitedly: "Oh, good son-in-law! Is what you said true, good son-in-law?!"

"Of course." charlie said with a smile: "We have enough rooms here, and you will have a place to stay when you come."

Elaine immediately blurted out: "That's great! I happen to have a friend who has a channel in the embassy, saying that the visa will be obtained soon!"

Claire asked in surprise: "Mom, do you still know friends who have channels in the embassy?"

Elaine smiled unnaturally, and said, "Hey, it's Mayou who used to play mahjong. Her daughter works in the embassy, and she said she can help you go through the back door!"

Claire didn't have any doubts and said, "Mom, tell me if you get your visa, and I'll buy you a plane ticket."

Elaine hurriedly said: "Oh, no, no need, my good son-in-law gave me so much pocket money, how can I let you buy a plane ticket for my mother, then I will buy it myself, you just wait to pick me up at the airport!"

charlie reminded: "Mom, if you are afraid of the trouble of connecting flights, you can fly directly to New York. We will pick you up in New York. If you want to be faster, you will transfer to Providence in New York."

Elaine said: "I must have let the private jet I won the lottery fly directly to Providence, who would go to New York to toss around..."

However, she naturally couldn't say it clearly, so she quickly said, "You two should wait for me in Providence. I will transfer to the plane at that time, so you can go all the way to New York to pick me up."

"Okay!" charlie said without hesitation, "Then we'll be waiting for you here!"

Claire was also very happy, and hurriedly said, "Mom, after you have set your schedule, remember to tell us that we will pick you up at the airport in advance!"

"Okay!" Elaine was very proud of his wit and said with a smile, "Mom will tell you when it's done!"

After hanging up the phone, Claire hurriedly asked charlie: "Husband, mom won't cause you trouble when she comes to the United States? She has a lot of things to do, and I'm afraid your mood will be affected."

"No." charlie said with a smile: "It's good for Mom to come to the United States to play, and I can accompany you by the way. You've been away from home for so long, you must miss her very much."

Claire nodded lightly and said, "I've grown up so much, and I haven't been so far away from home for so long. I must be worried about it."

charlie smiled and said, "Our hotel room in Providence is so big, it's really too much space for two people to live in, and it's a little more lively when Mom comes."

Seeing that charlie really didn't mind, Claire was relieved and said softly, "Husband, thank you!"

the next morning.

Elaine has already obtained a visa to the United States.

The person from the jewelry company confirmed to her that the departure time of the plane was this afternoon, so Elaine changed into her most beautiful clothes at noon, carried the Hermes from Charlie, and took the commercial car provided by the jewelry company to Jinling Airport. .

At the airport, Elaine experienced the high-end courtesy of boarding in the VIP building for the first time. The luxury business car took her to the apron alone. Two beautiful ground staff helped her carry her luggage and escorted her to board the plane. on a private jet to the United States.

This Gulfstream G650 is a business jet owned by the Moore Group. This time, Jasmine Moore specially transferred this plane to Elaine to fly alone.

The interior of the plane is naturally extremely luxurious, making Elaine feel as if he has entered a palace in the sky as soon as he enters.

The huge and luxurious cabin, with only her as a passenger, made her feel that her vanity was infinitely enlarged.

Just as Elaine sat down on the extremely soft oversized reclining chair, three beautiful female flight attendants stepped forward.

The three of them bowed deeply to Elaine first, and then, under the leadership of the female flight attendant, squatted down in front of her in a half-kneeling posture and looked up at her.

The first flight attendant said: "Dear Ms. Elaine, welcome to take this flight, this flight is a direct flight from here to Providence, the United States. The flight time is about fifteen hours. I am the flight attendant on this flight. Sir, these two people beside me are the flight attendants of our flight crew, and the three of us will serve you alone during the next flight, and you can give any orders at any time if you need anything."

Elaine suddenly felt a sense of being out of the body, and said with a refreshing look: "Oh, it's really hard for you!"

The purser said very modestly: "This is what we should do."

At this time, in the cockpit, two pilots also came over, and the two bowed slightly to Elaine, and then one of them said, "Dear Ms. Elaine , I am the captain on duty for this flight, and this guy next to me said. It's my deputy. The two of us will do our best to ensure the safety, timeliness and comfort of this flight. The plane has applied for a VIP channel, and you can cut the queue to take off at any time. If you are ready , we can launch it at any time, and if you want to rest for a while, we are waiting for your instructions in the cabin."

Elaine couldn't close his mouth with joy, and blurted out: "No wonder I fly 1,200,000 at a time! It's an emperor-like enjoyment!"

Saying that, she quickly waved her hand and said, "I'm all ready, let's hurry up and take off!"

The captain nodded immediately and said, "Okay, Ms. Ma, we'll apply for the launch!"

Elaine suddenly thought of something, and quickly said: "Don't worry, don't worry!"

As she spoke, she took out her mobile phone from her bag and said to a few people, "Oh, I was so excited just now that I forgot to take a video and leave a souvenir, why don't you come back to me again? "

The captain said without hesitation: "Okay, Ms. Elaine , then I'll report to you again."

Elaine shook his head and said, "No, it doesn't start with you."

After she finished speaking, she pointed to the steward and said with a smile, "It starts with her!"

Elaine has a pungent personality, but the essence of pungentness comes from being strong.

She lived for fifty years, and was looked down upon most of the time, especially after she married the Willson family.

The contempt of her husband's family and the cowardice of her husband once made her self-esteem trampled, which not only made her character more aggressive, but also aggravated her ultimate pursuit of face.

Now, she has finally taken a private jet. She naturally wants to enjoy such a high-end feeling and leave a memory.

More importantly, she has to show off in the circle of friends.

And the crew members are naturally very cooperative. After all, they are flying such flights. The income of serving Elaine alone is several times that of serving a few hundred people on a whole civil airliner. Naturally, Elaine should be worshipped as a Lafayette. .

After filming the video contentedly, in order not to expose it in front of his family, Elaine specially organized a group to block Charlie, Claire and Jacob, and then posted a circle of friends with the text: "Take a private jet to travel. The feeling is different, there is an emperor-like noble atmosphere everywhere!"

After posting on the Moments, she subconsciously asked the flight attendant, "Hey, waiter, will there be no internet after we take off later?"

The purser hurriedly said, "There is no network during the critical stages of takeoff and climb, but after the plane is stable, I will turn on the cabin WiFi for you, and then you will be able to connect to the Internet."

Elaine nodded with satisfaction and smiled: "Okay, then tell the captain and take off quickly."

With that said, Elaine thought happily: "The circle of friends has already been sent out. After a while, I will connect to the Internet. It is estimated that many people will give me a thumbs up! Don't you envy them to death?"

Thinking of this, Elaine put the phone aside and looked at the scenery outside the window in a wonderful mood.

The plane quickly cut in line to take off, straight into the sky.

About half an hour later, the plane rose to a cruising altitude of 11,000 kilometers. The purser turned on the cabin WiFi and said to Elaine: "Ms. Ma, our WiFi has been turned on, you can now connect to the Internet, and the WiFi name is your name. ,without password.”

Elaine immediately took out his mobile phone, connected to WiFi, and then couldn't wait to open WeChat, wanting to see how big a number the red prompt in the circle of friends would show.

However, after she opened it, she found that the circle of friends didn't even have a prompt!

This also means that it has been so long since she posted it in her circle of friends, and no one has liked or commented on her.

She couldn't help but murmured in her heart: “Is there a problem with this website? It's impossible for more than half an hour, and no one has liked and commented on me!”

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but ask the steward: “Is there something wrong with your wireless network? I show that it is connected here, but it seems that it is not actually connected to the network!”

The purser hurriedly said: “No, Ms. . We are all using satellite networks. Although the network speed is a little slower, the signal is very good and the connection is very stable.”

Elaine was about to speak when a red circle prompt popped up in the circle of friends, and there was a number 1 in the red circle.

She hurried to order, and the result immediately became the number 2.

She was instantly overjoyed and thought to herself, “Finally someone commented on the circle of friends of the old lady!”

So, she clicked in quickly, which didn't make her angry.

The two tips are from souna.

( The Charismatic Charlie Wade
Chapter 4700 )

One is souna's like, the other is souna's comment, the content is: Sister has a smooth journey!

she was suddenly very depressed.

Being able to receive likes and comments from souna proves that there is definitely no problem with the Internet on the plane. It also proves that no one else has commented on their circle of friends since they took off for so long.

This made Elaine very angry, and couldn't help but scolded in his heart: "Damn! I usually take pictures of broken flowers in the park, and I can't hold my hands firmly, and many people like them. Why is the old lady sitting today? On the private plane, why don't these people give me a compliment?! Damn, jealous! It must be because of jealousy!"

During the flight time that followed, Elaine was almost in no mood to sleep.

She would open her Moments every once in a while to take a look, but until the plane flew over the United States, her Moments still only had one like and one comment from souna.

This made her almost drop her phone several times, but in the end she had to accept the reality.

So she could only comfort herself in the bottom of her heart: "Hey, besides family members, how many good people can there be in the circle of friends? They are all good guys who can't see others! Hmph, if you don't give me a compliment, I will pull it down, my mother. Going to the United States on a private jet, do you still lack your praise? It's ridiculous!"

While thinking about it, she quietly opened her phone and took a look. When she found that there were still no likes and comments in the circle of friends, she was even more annoyed. She threw the phone aside and closed her eyes.

After more than ten hours of flight, Elaine's Gulfstream G650 finally landed at Providence Airport in the United States.

At this time, it was more than ten o'clock in the evening, American time.

charlie and Claire had just watched Stefanie sun's second concert in Boston and were driving back to Providence.

In fact, charlie knew about Elaine's movements for a long time, and he received the news as soon as the plane landed.

However, charlie also knew that Elaine dared not let herself and Claire know that she came by private jet, so she would definitely wait to get off the plane before contacting Claire.

charlie is not worried about Elaine going through the customs alone. After all, Elaine also went to university, and must have basic English conversation skills.

Half an hour later, Claire's cell phone suddenly received a call from the United States.

She didn't think much, just picked up the phone and said in English: "Hi."

On the other end of the phone, Elaine's excited voice came: "Claire! It's me! I'm here in the United States!"

Claire was stunned when he heard his mother's voice. It took a long time before he recovered and blurted out, "Mom, when did you arrive in the United States? Why didn't you tell us before you set off?!"

Elaine smiled and said, "I don't want to surprise you and charlie! Besides, the flight time is so long, if I told you in advance, you would definitely worry about me, so I flew over first!"

For the first time, Claire discovered that her mother has become sensible... I know that I think about others...

However, she didn't know that Elaine did this because she was actually afraid that she would be out of money.

So, Claire hurriedly asked her: "Mom, where are you? Is it the New York airport? charlie and I will pick you up now!"

Elaine said: "I'm not in New York, I'm in your Providence!"

"Ah?" Claire said in surprise: "Mom, did you come here by special plane?"

"That's right." Elaine said nonsense, "Didn't you say you want to fly to New York first, so I changed planes myself."

Claire asked again: "Have you gone through customs? Have you completed the entry formalities?"

"It's done." Elaine said: "I'm in the airport lobby, can you come and pick me up now? If it's inconvenient, I can take a taxi, but I came in a hurry, I didn't go to the bank to exchange dollars, I called The coin is still asked by the flight attendant, and you will pay for the fare for your mother when the time comes."

Claire didn't think too much, and blurted out and asked charlie: "Husband, Mom has arrived at the airport, how far are we from the airport? Is it convenient to pick her up?"

"Convenient." charlie glanced at the navigation and said, "Convenient, it takes ten minutes to get to the airport from here."

Claire hurriedly said: "Mom, charlie and I are on our way back, and it's only ten minutes away from you. If you wait for us at the airport for a while, we'll pick you up!"

Elaine was naturally overjoyed and blurted out: "Oh, that's really great! Mom is waiting for you here!"
