

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4723 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4723)

Mia (Liu Manqiong) almost collapsed at this time.

Now she is powerless to care about being held by charlie, she just wants to get herself into trouble and solve it quickly.

Pulling other men to do things like shields, she has seen many times on TV, but she has never done it herself.

Just as charlie made a joke just now, she couldn't help but think of a prank.

But she really didn't expect that charlie could turn things into such an out-of-control situation step by step.

This also made her feel scared for the first time because she was joking, and even her voice was a little choked up, and she pleaded, "charlie, I beg you, you leave Hong Kong Island first, and you can come back later, but If you don't leave today, it will be very troublesome!"

charlie saw that her eyes were flushed, and she was about to cry, so she stopped, let go of the hand that was holding her, and said seriously, "Miss mia , you don't have to worry about me, I'll tell you the truth, I came to Hong Kong Island this time just to find trouble!"

He said indifferently, ignoring Mia (Liu Manqiong)'s surprised eyes, "I came to Hong Kong Island, someone provokes me, I I want to play him; no one provokes me, I will find a group of people to come out and play a game!"

"If that Pankaj has nothing to do with Hongmen, then I may not be too lazy to know him in general, but since he has a close relationship with Hongmen Shen, even if he doesn't provoke me today, tomorrow, the day after tomorrow, and the day after tomorrow, I may come to the door and make Hongmen clear!"

"Are you crazy?!" Mia (Liu Manqiong) was stunned and blurted out: "You If you don't talk about a good business, what do you do when you come to Hongmen?! Do you know what Hongmen exists? On Hong Kong Island, no matter how rich the richest man is, he doesn't dare to fight against Hongmen, it will kill people!"

charlie naturally couldn't tell Mia (Liu Manqiong) that he had read the information given by Abbas before getting off the plane. This time, there were many forces on Hong Kong Island who wanted to kill Arman and take 30 million US dollars, and the name of Hongmen was listed. .

Therefore, before Arman was sent back, he had to touch Hongmen himself, so he smiled and said to Mia (Liu Manqiong), "It's alright, I like to seek excitement."

After that, he intentionally ended the topic, He dragged the cardboard box in his arms and asked her, "Aren't you going to send something? Let's go?"

Mia (Liu Manqiong) was helpless, sighed, and said, "I'll call my dad to see if he's good. The way."

charlie frowned, turned around, walked out, and said, "If you tell your dad about this, then I won't go back to your house at night, I'll ask when I go out.

to find out where Hongmen's nest is, and go directly to them to chat. "

You..." Mia (Liu Manqiong) was speechless in anger. She had been completely broken down by charlie's indifferent attitude, so she could only grit her teeth and say, "Okay, since you don't want to leave, then from now on Start, I will follow you wherever you go! "

"OK. " charlie agreed casually, and said, "You are my guide anyway, just follow.

Mia (Liu Manqiong) was speechless and could only sigh, ran two steps to keep up with charlie, and said, "Then we won't eat out tonight and go home early. " "

"Don't. charlie waved his hand: "If you want to go back to yourself, I really want to experience the nightlife on Hong Kong Island. "

Mia (Liu Manqiong) is helpless: "Okay, okay...I'm with you..."

charlie nodded, took out his mobile phone, and called Abbas. Once the call was made, Abbas said respectfully, "Mr. wade, What are your orders?"

charlie glanced at Mia (Liu Manqiong) and asked, "Have you investigated Pankaj before?" " "

"Mr. wade, my subordinates have investigated." "Abbas said: "Pankaj is the eldest son of Hong Kong Island's richest man Huzaifa. Huzaifa's assets can make it into the top five but not the top three in Hong Kong Island, but he has a deep relationship with Hongmen. The current head of Hongmen is him. 's foster father.

With

that said, Abbas said again: "By the way, Hongmen is very interested in Arman's secret flowers this time. The legal system of Hong Kong Island has been getting better and better in recent years. They are afraid that their business will shrink. It is also more serious, and there are many younger brothers, and the expenses are huge, and the overall financial situation is relatively tight. charlie asked him, "

Hongmen is so poor, doesn't Huzaifa help him out?" "

"Help me." Abbas said, "If Huzaifa didn't help, Hongmen would have already started laying off staff. Huzaifa made his fortune and Hongmen did a lot of help, so Hongmen also relied on this point and kept reaching out to him. Later, Huzaifa became bigger. Now, I also want to get rid of some ties with Hongmen, so I helped Hongmen start its transformation. Hongmen now has four main income channels, one is to open pawn shops, one is to open nightclubs, one is to smuggle frozen meat, and the other One is an underground casino, except for the casino, the first three businesses were all started by Huzaifa."

charlie snorted and said, "Which is the biggest nightclub in Hongmen?"

Abbas replied: " It's called Inspur club, in Lan Kwai Fong."

"Inspur..." charlie whispered softly and said with a smile, "Okay, I see."

charlie hung up the phone and said

Mia (Liu Manqiong) next to him said: "Miss Mia (Liu Manqiong), how about this, after dinner in the evening, you can take me to a nightclub."

Mia (Liu Manqiong) listened to his head When it exploded, she asked subconsciously, "charlie, you asked about Hongmen's nightclub on the phone just now, shouldn't you be going?!"

"Yes." charlie smiled slightly: "Go and feel it. The famous nightlife on Hong Kong Island."

Mia (Liu Manqiong) blurted out: "Then you can't go to Hongmen's nightclub by name! You just offended Pankaj, it's very dangerous there!"

charlie smiled: "The danger is certain, But who is in danger, we have to look at this."

Seeing charlie's playful and understated look, Mia (Liu Manqiong) was even more puzzled about charlie's origin.

From charlie's phone call just now, she can conclude that charlie is by no means so reckless as he seems, and he may have already investigated the various forces on Hong Kong Island clearly, and he is confident.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but ask charlie: "Who the hell are you?"

"Me?" Charlie smiled and said, "It should be someone who no one can afford on Hong Kong Island."

Mia (Liu Manqiong) couldn't help frowning, and people also He became cautious and asked charlie: "What are you doing on Hong Kong Island?"

charlie raised his eyebrows and said calmly, "I will preside over a justice."

Mia (Liu Manqiong) was surprised for a while, she really couldn't figure it out charlie's routine, this person's words are true and false, and it is difficult to see through his character.

It was only two hours after we met, but her impression of charlie changed several times.

At first, she felt that charlie seemed to be quite humorous, and he also had a certain degree of control in his speech, and he could handle it with ease in front of his father.

When she met Pankaj, she felt that charlie seemed to be missing a bit of shrewdness, and he was somewhat reckless, not knowing how to judge the situation.

Moreover, the act of taking the initiative to grab her hand, in her opinion at the time, was a bit abrupt and Meng Lang.

Then, charlie's attitude of refusing to leave Hong Kong Island made her feel that this person was completely ignorant of the dangers in the world, and he had already said this, but he was still unmoved, he was simply fearless.

But until now, she felt that her previous views on charlie seemed wrong.

charlie is indeed fearless, but fearlessness is not because of ignorance, on the contrary, because he already knows himself and his opponent.

Thinking of this, she looked at charlie and couldn't help but ask, "Then...then can you tell me what justice you came to Hong Kong Island for?"

"What justice?"

Hearing Mia 's question, charlie smiled slightly, and said, "I can't tell you this for the time being, leave a sense of mystery."

Mia couldn't help frowning and asked him, "Then have you ever thought about what you would do if Pankaj were to target you? How can you beat Hongmen with your two fists on Hong Kong Island?"

charlie raised his eyebrows and said with a smile: "You look down on me too much, two fists can't beat four hands? Add a zero, and I don't care about forty."

Mia thought that charlie was running the train with his mouth full again, and his whole person had been schizophrenic by him, so he could only shake his head helplessly: "I really convinced you!"

After speaking, they could only walk out of the parking lot with charlie.

The two walked out of the garage and went to the most crowded shopping mall in Tsim Sha Tsui.

In addition to the crowded passenger flow, there are also many salesmen specializing in promotion and sales, as well as many commodity exhibition areas.

In the best part of the square, there are a number of neat booths, these booths are hung with the logo of Hong Kong Island University, and many students in school uniforms are busy in front of the booths.

Mia , who was in a complicated mood, took charlie straight to these booths, and this was the venue for her and her classmates to do charity bazaars.

Seeing Mia coming over, many students were very surprised, and many people gathered around to say hello to her.

One of the boys wearing glasses hurried forward and asked, "Sister Mia , why are you here today?"

Mia smiled slightly and replied, "I have something to do here in the afternoon, so I stopped by."

Speaking, Mia asked him, "How is the sales today?"

"It's not very good." The boy said a little decadently: "We have sold a total of about 30,000 Hong Kong dollars since 8:00 in the morning. I thought it could be sold for 50,000."

Mia encouraged: "It doesn't matter, more than 30,000 is already a lot, and it is worth encouraging."

Allen sighed: "Sister Mia , you have donated tens of millions by yourself. We have so many people who are busy with each other, and we only have such a small amount of money in total. I am really ashamed..."

Mia was too busy: "Aaron, don't say that, charity is not about giving more money than anyone else, but to let as many people as possible do what they can. The money I donate is not my own, but a generosity to others. Forget it, I myself can only do my best, just like you."

As she said that, she took the cardboard box from charlie and handed it to the boy: "Arun, these are some personal things I have left unused. I have marked the selling price. According to the label price, it is two in total. Thousands of Hong Kong dollars."

Immediately, Mia spread out his hands and said again, "Look, I'm not very rich myself, and there are only so many things I can take out, so everyone should not feel ashamed because they take out less things, even if If you can't come up with anything, being a volunteer to contribute to charity is also very worthy of recognition!"

"So, please work hard. We will sell all the things we have raised as soon as possible. In addition, I have called on other students in the school to donate as many useless personal items as possible. , must be able to do many good deeds."

Encouraged by Mia , everyone cheered, and all of them were full of energy.

At this time, a girl who looked gentle looked at charlie and asked, "Sister Mia , who is this handsome guy? You haven't introduced us to it yet."

Mia looked at charlie and said to everyone, "This is Mr. wade, a guest of my family."

"Guest?" The girl said meaningfully: "Sister Mia , isn't this the fiance your family arranged for you?"

"How could..." When Mia heard the words "fiancée", she felt that her mentality was about to collapse in an instant, so she said without hesitation: "Don't gossip about this, Mr. Wade is my father's friend and happened to come to Hong Kong Island with me. My father talks about something, because he hasn't been to Hong Kong Island for many years, I'll be his guide temporarily and show him around."

"So that's the case."

The girl said regretfully, "Sister Mia , this handsome guy is actually a good match for you! You can actually consider it! I've known you for so long, and I haven't seen you dated before, everyone. I'm still looking forward to seeing who you will be with before graduation!"

Mia said helplessly: "Please take care of yourself. I heard that you broke up with your new boyfriend again? It's only been a few days since you dated this time."

The girl curled her lips and said, "I don't even want to mention him that scumbag! He was with me, and he just wanted me to help him with his graduation project. I helped him finish the graduation project, and he broke up with me..."

Mia sighed and said, "Please keep your eyes open the next time you see a boy."

The girl glanced at Charlie again and said seriously, "But then again, Sister Mia , I really think the man next to you is a good match for you!"

"Stop!" Mia hurriedly stretched out his hand to stop the other party, and said, "You have proven to yourself countless times that your vision is basically equal to nothing, so if you think he is a good match for me, then there is a high probability that he is not suitable for me at all. ."

After speaking, charlie couldn't help but give charlie a blank look.

charlie smiled slightly at this time, and said to the girl, "I am her fiance, and she said it herself."

When everyone heard this, they couldn't help but burst into exclamations.

The woman looked at Mia and said meaningfully, "Sister Mia ... I didn't expect you to lie to us!"

Mia said helplessly: "Don't listen to his nonsense, this kind of boy is not my thing at all."

After she finished speaking, she looked at everyone and said, "Everyone should get down to business first, don't gossip!"

Immediately, she opened the cardboard box she brought, took out a few personal items from it, and introduced to the people around her: "I eliminated this laptop at the beginning of the year. I checked the second-hand website, and most of them are at 4,000 yuan. About RMB 3,000, it should be easy to sell, and this game console, when I bought it, it was more than 2,000 Hong Kong dollars, and I listed it for 1,200..."

After briefly introducing the situation of personal belongings to everyone, Mia said to everyone: "Thank you for your hard work, I still have something to do, so I won't be here to accompany you."

After finishing speaking, he hurriedly said to charlie, "Let's go!"

charlie smiled and said, "You're leaving as soon as you arrive? I think this kind of charity sale is quite interesting. I happen to have a few Dali Pills in my pocket. Would you like to use it to support the scene for you?"

Mia looked at charlie helplessly, and said seriously, "It's illegal to sell Dali Pills on Hong Kong Island... Besides, if we don't leave, we will definitely be in trouble..."

charlie looked at a few sneaky men in the distance, and said with a smile, "Okay! Let's go after being persuaded to eat enough."

Seeing that charlie finally met and discussed it, Mia was relieved, and quickly said goodbye to everyone, and took charlie back to the parking lot.

What she is most worried about now is that Pankaj finds someone to take revenge on charlie. If more than a dozen people really come to block charlie, she can't help him if she wants to save him.

When the two came to the parking lot, Mia subconsciously went to the driver's seat, but charlie suddenly stopped her and said, "Miss Mia, if you don't mind, let me drive."

"Do you drive?" Mia asked: "You are not familiar with Hong Kong Island, and Hong Kong Island is a right-hand drive car, and the driving direction is opposite to that of the mainland. Can you get used to it?"

charlie smiled and said, "As long as the steering wheel is not turned upside down to be stepped on under my feet, I can drive it."

Mia shrugged and said, "Then go ahead."

After charlie got into the car, he didn't drive away in a hurry, but took out his mobile phone, opened the map and studied it for a while.

It wasn't until he saw the sneaky faces getting into different cars that he said to Mia, "I think Honghualing is a good place, let's go there for a walk."

"Honghualing?!" Mia said dumbfounded: "It's all the northernmost part of Hong Kong Island, it's far away, and it's in the mountains. What are you going to do there?"

charlie said with a smile: "Some things are done in places with fewer people!"
