At this time, the old lady has completely lost any perception ability, and her life breath is even very weak.

Arman and his mother hadn't seen each other for 20 years, but now they finally meet again, but he never thought that his mother was dying, and it became difficult to even look at him.

Recalling that in the past 20 years, he failed to perform filial piety in front of his parents. Arman's whole body was completely broken down, holding his mother's hand and crying like a child.

Affected by him, the younger brothers and sisters also cried together in front of the old mother's bed.

Seeing this, charlie deliberately took out a blood-healing pill from his body, stepped forward and handed it to Arman: "Uncle Arman, this pill should be able to cure your mother, you can feed her now. "

Arman looked at the medicinal pill and remembered something, so he subconsciously touched his pocket, took out a small wooden box, and said earnestly, "Young Master wade, I still carry the medicinal pill you gave me before, and this, Can you cure my mother?"

Arman immediately took off his mother's oxygen mask, and said to his younger brother, you help me get my mother up." The younger brother hurriedly followed suit and gently lifted the old lady's upper body.

Arman put the elixir that charlie gave him into the old lady's mouth, and then stared at the old lady, looking forward to a miracle.

And Sanxue Jiuxin Dan will never disappoint.

After just a few seconds, the old lady's sallow complexion turned bloody, and her originally weak breathing gradually became even and powerful. Then, she saw the old lady's eyelids tremble a few times and slowly opened her eyes.

Maybe it was because she didn't adapt to the light all of a sudden. The old lady couldn't see clearly for a while. She said vaguely, "Azu... I had a dream just now... I dreamed that your eldest brother came back..."

Several children Everyone was shocked and speechless. No one expected that charlie's medicinal pill would be so effective. In ten seconds, people would wake up from a deep coma!

And the first sentence of the old mother after waking up made Arman burst into tears instantly. He choked and said, "Mom, I am Arman, I am back!"

"A... Arman?!" The

old lady's body froze. Startled, he raised his hand and rubbed his eyes.

After her vision gradually recovered and the scene in front of her gradually became clear, she stared at Arman with wide eyes for a long time, and suddenly stretched out.

shot him and slapped him, scolding: "You bastard, who told you to come back!"

After speaking, she glared at her second son and two daughters, questioning Said: "Who asked you to call your eldest brother back? Didn't I say it, even if I die, I can't tell him! As long as he returns to Hong Kong Island, the surnamed Liu will kill him!"

Arman said hurriedly: " Mom, don't worry, I have reconciled with Mr. Liu, and no one will kill me!"

"How is that possible?" The old lady couldn't believe it and blurted out, "The last time Jiaxin came to see me, she even asked me to I tell you, don't go back to Hong Kong Island, saying that the surnamed Liu refused to let you go for so many years, you let him be ridiculed by the whole Hong Kong Island, he has always hated you to the bone, how can he reconcile with you?"

Arman turned around, Pointing at charlie, he said to the old lady, "Mom, thanks to Young Master wade for helping me mediate, Liu Jiahui also reconciled with me because of his face." After speaking

, Arman said again, "By the way, Mom, can you? I woke up thanks to the medicine that Young Master wade gave." The old lady looked at charlie, and she was very surprised when she saw charlie so young, but she said respectfully, "Master wade, on behalf of our whole family, thank you for your support. Great kindness!"

charlie hurriedly said: "Grandma, please don't be polite, Uncle Arman was my father's best friend before his death, and these are what I should do."

After speaking, charlie asked with concern, "You feel your body right now. How is it? Is there any obvious discomfort?" The old lady was stunned for a while, and said in surprise: "Oh, listening to you... I don't seem to feel any discomfort..."

After that, the old lady I tried to sit up and felt that my body was very light. Previously, because of the stroke, I almost lost half of my life, but now I can't feel any signs of stroke, and the state of the whole person is surprisingly good.

Several children were also shocked and speechless.

You know, since the old lady suffered a stroke, her physical condition can be said to have collapsed in a straight line. The doctor even thought that the old lady was dying and would die in a day or two.

However, the eldest brother Arman fed the old lady an unknown elixir. As a result, not only did the old lady have no symptoms of a stroke, but her whole face was radiant, which was unbelievable.

Arman quickly looked at Charlie and asked him, "Master Wade, can my mother be discharged from the hospital?"

Charlie nodded: "Basically, there is no need to stay in the hospital for observation."

Arman was very excited and said to the old lady, "Mom, let's go home!" "The old lady hurriedly said: "Don't rush back, you finally got home for a reunion, we have to go to Shaling first, you haven't come back for so many years, you must go to pay homage to your father first!" "

"Sand Ridge?" "Arman asked in amazement: "Dad is buried in Shaling? That place is too remote, I remember it was the place where the Hong Kong government used to bury unidentified bodies. ..."

The younger brother Vihaan quickly explained: "Brother, you haven't been back to Hong Kong Island for many years, and you may not know much about the situation on Hong Kong Island. Over the years, it has become difficult for ordinary people to buy a decent cemetery on Hong Kong Island. Now, for a slightly better cemetery, the price is in the millions, even millions, and now it costs 400,000 to 500,000 to buy a columbarium in a better cemetery..."

After speaking, Vihaan's eyes reddened and he continued: "Before my father left, the family spent almost all the money to treat him. After he left, the family couldn't afford a decent cemetery..."

"In fact, let alone the cemetery, we even had ashes at the time. We couldn't even afford the niches. It happened that the Shaling Cemetery was about to be developed, and a batch of new cemeteries was built. With the help of Miss Fang, we were able to buy a regular cemetery for Dad in Shaling. For the deceased in the columbarium, it is very rare for my father to truly be buried in the ground..."

Arman's little sister couldn't help choking, "I still blame those of us who are incapable of being children... Otherwise, there is no need to Miss Fang came forward to help, because of this incident, Liu Jiahui also scolded her badly..." Arman pursed his lips and asked subconsciously, "Jiaxin... oh no, does Mrs. Liu come here often?"

The little sister explained: "At the beginning, she came here often. When Liu Jiahui first married her, she was very fond of her, and basically everything was up to her, so she often came to see her parents. Later, after her father died, she didn't dare to be open. The number of visits is also less. A few days ago, my mother was hospitalized, and she came here specially and gave some money, but we confiscated it..."

She paused, and then said, "Big brother... In fact... In fact, the family has been able to come to this day thanks to Miss Fang's care over the years... So don't hate her too much..."

Arman's expression became a little complicated, and he couldn't help asking: "After so many years, Why haven't you told me about these things?"

The little sister hesitated for a moment and said, "Miss Fang won't let us tell you... She said that she has already hurt you badly, and she doesn't want to leave you, and you will be troubled by her again..."

At this moment, Arman's heart Mixed feelings.

Although he had already let go of the fact that the other party Jiaxin left him, but when he heard that the other party had not forgotten his parents and family for so many years, his heart suddenly throbbed.

Sometimes, if the other party is heartless enough, the injured party can come out in one go.

However, I am afraid that this kind of state of separation is not clear, and suddenly knowing that the other party has a little bit of their own position in the heart, that feeling is more likely to make people fall into it..

Meanwhile.

The Liu family has also returned to the mansion in Shi Xun Dao by car.

On the way back, Liu Jiahui and Fang Jiabin were in a car, and Mia was driving her own Tesla.

Liu Jiahui saw that his daughter was in a trance and seemed to be lost, so he wanted her to go back with him in the car, but Mia refused.

Mia was upset and wanted to be alone, but he didn't expect that on the way back, only Charlie was in his mind.

She always unconsciously thinks about the bits and pieces since she and Charlie met. The more she thinks about it, the more she feels that Charlie seems to have been branded in her heart.

However, when she thought that Charlie was deceiving herself from the beginning to the end, she couldn't help but complain to Charlie a lot.

Fortunately, although she was worried, she did not encounter any unexpected incidents on the way back, and drove the car home safely.

When she stopped the car, Liu Jiahui got out of the car as if he had lost his soul. He seemed to be recovering from a serious illness, and even had some inconvenience to move.

Seeing this, Fang Jiabin hurriedly supported him and asked with concern, "Jiahui, are you okay?"

Liu Jiahui sighed, waved his hands weakly, and said, "Let's go home."

Mia also felt a little distressed about himself. Dad, hurried to the other side and hugged.

The three entered the villa, and Liu Jiahui asked them to take them to the sofa and sit down.

The moment he sat down, Liu Jiahui let out a sigh of relief and sighed to himself: "I, Liu Jiahui, have lived for more than fifty years, and today is the most terrifying day..." Fang Jiabin, who was on the side, wiped her tears and choked: "I'm sorry Jiahui. Blame me....."

"I don't blame you." Liu Jiahui waved his hand and sighed, "I have always been too arrogant. I always feel that a mere Arman is just a bug in front of me. As long as he appears, I can shoot him to death... ..But I never imagined that the all-powerful Bruce Wade back then had a son..."

Fang Jiabin said, "I heard Arman talk about that Bruce Wade before, if I remember correctly, he seems to be the son-in-law of the Anjia family in the United States."

"Yes..." Liu Jiahui said with lingering fears: "Bruce Wade was very famous in the Chinese field back then, but the most famous one was his wife, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)... That is really the light of the Chinese people. Ah... whoever speaks of her will have to give a thumbs up..."

After speaking, Liu Jiahui said again: "I used to use

All three members of his family died. After all, I have never heard of the news that their two sons are still alive. I didn't expect that their sons are not in the pool now. "Let's not talk about the giant An family, the Wanlong Palace alone has made people scared..." After a pause, Liu Jiahui sighed: "Arman has such a backer, I am convinced that I lost this time. Fang Jiaxin, who was on the side, said hurriedly, "Jiahui, if you go to Eastcliff in a few days, I will accompany you too." Liu Jiahui looked at her and said seriously: "

Going to Eastcliff is very hard, Charlie asked me to go to his father's grave to repent, and I can't leave for three months. I'm afraid that I will sleep in the wind and sleep, and I don't know how much I will suffer." "

"It's all right!" Fang Jiaxin said without hesitation: "Since it is a husband and wife, there must be difficulties. Liu Jiahui laughed at himself, and suddenly said, "

Actually, if you still have Arman in your heart, you can consider renewing your relationship with him. Now that he has a backer like Charlie, and his outstanding abilities, his future must be unbearable." Limited. Fang

Jiaxin hurriedly shook her head and said, "Ka Fai, I told you when I came back from the United States that he and I are over, and it is impossible to go back in this life. Over the years, I feel more guilty for him, after all. It was I who caused him to wander outside for so many years, so I have been quietly taking care of his family, in order to make myself feel better..."

After speaking, Fang Jiaxin burst into tears, looked at Liu Jiahui, and said sincerely: "Jiahui, After today's events, he can safely return to Hong Kong Island and reunite with his family. The hurdle in my heart is over. From now on, I just want to live with you, just like the vows when we got married. , no matter poverty or disease..."

Liu Jiahui, who had lived in a thousand flowers all his life, suddenly felt an unprecedented emotion in his heart. In the past, when he faced every woman, he had a high-level attitude. He felt that these women They are all the objects of his favor, and it is extremely lucky to get his favor.

It is because of such a detached mentality that he has been able to indulge in flowers for so many years.

Although Fang Jiaxin was his favorite among all his women, in his heart, he still looked down on Fang Jiaxin.

Fang Jiaxin followed Arman to the United States back then. In his eyes, it was like his favorite toy was stolen. After Fang Jiaxin came back, he just wanted to keep this lost toy by his side forever.

But to ask him if he really loves Fang Jiaxin, his answer must be no.

Even if he really liked it

Fang Jiaxin, but after Fang Jiaxin ran away once, he has always controlled himself, don't invest too much in this woman.

And over the years, he has been doing it very well.

Although Fang Jiaxin is expensive as Mrs. Liu, she has no chance to control his family property. Even if she gets married, she is just a canary being raised.

But at this moment, he suddenly felt that deep in his heart, he seemed to be touched by Fang Jiaxin's words just now.

He has been indulging in the flowers with full pride all his life, but when he knelt down in front of Charlie and begged for mercy, his pride was already gone.

Now, he is more like a general who has lost a battle. He has lost his previous pride, but because of the persistence of the women around him, he has a softness in his heart.

It was a softness that made the loser feel a little warmer.

So, he sighed, nodded, and said, "If you really let go of him in your heart, then we will live our lives well, and the past will be written off."

Fang Jiaxin was moved when she heard this. Tears welled up.

Over the years, she also knew Liu Jiahui's attitude towards her.

Although she was not reconciled, she still had self-knowledge and knew why Liu Jiahui had a grudge against her.

For so many years, she has been looking for an opportunity to eliminate this barrier, but she has been powerless.

But who would have thought that after Liu Jiahui's catastrophe today, the grudge against her in her heart was suddenly eliminated, which made her extremely excited.

Mia, who was beside him, also had subtle changes in his heart.

In the past, she was very dissatisfied with Jiaxin, but now, she suddenly sympathized with this woman.

Moreover, seeing that she and her father could completely eliminate the separation, Mia felt a little gratified in her heart.

However, she also didn't want to watch the confession of the two here, so she stood up and said, "I'll go back to my room to rest first."

Liu Jiahui hurriedly asked, "Mia, have you contacted Miss Fei?"

"No Ah." Mia asked in surprise, "Why did you ask this?"

Liu Jiahui said, "I think you can get in touch with Miss Fei more."

Mia shook her head and said, "She and I are not from the same world. , there is nothing to get in touch with."

Liu Jiahui said seriously: "Miss Fei must know charlie better, from her, you should be able to know some information about charlie!"
