Arman was a little puzzled, but he said very politely: "Mr. Liu, you really don't need to make up for me, I have never blamed you from the beginning to the end, you can let me go and let me I'm very, very satisfied when I come back to reunite with my family!"

Liu Jiahui turned around and stretched out his hand towards Fang Jiabin who was beside him.

Fang Jiabin hurriedly took out a portfolio from her Hermes handbag and handed it to Liu Jiahui.

Holding the portfolio, Liu Jiahui said to Arman with a flattering expression: "Arman, this is the property information of the Huo family's villa next door to me. I bought this property in the afternoon. From now on, this property will be The property is yours, it's my little care!"

Arman looked at Liu Jiahui in astonishment, the first thought in his mind was that he had absolutely no reason to do so.

The first is that Lau Ka Fai is unlikely to want to compensate himself.

Secondly, even if Liu Jiahui really wants to compensate himself, there is absolutely no need to buy his own villa next door to him.

Arman knew very well in his heart that although Liu Jiahui didn't dare to do anything to himself this time because of Charlie, he must still hate himself to the bone.

Under such circumstances, how could it be possible to take the initiative to send the villa next door?

Therefore, the only reasonable explanation for this matter is Charlie.

Thinking that charlie's behavior is to kill and punish, Arman decided that this must be done by charlie.

And Liu Jiahui didn't dare to disobey charlie's intentions, so he could only do it.

Thinking of this, Arman's first thought was to decline.

But then he thought again, since charlie arranged it this way, he had better not refuse.

After all, in the future, he also hopes to serve charlie as a dog and horse.

Back then, I wanted to serve his father wholeheartedly, but it was a pity that bruce left so early that she never had the chance to repay the love she owed him.

And now, he owes charlie another favor.

Therefore, if he could do his best for charlie and die, for him, it would be considered a fulfillment of his wish.

Liu Jiahui didn't know what Arman was thinking, and thought that Arman didn't speak for a long time because he was not interested in this villa, so he quickly gave Jiabin a wink.

Although Fang Jiabin was embarrassed, she still said to Arman, "Arman, this is also Ka Fai's intention, and my aunt is not in good health now, why not let her have a better place to spend her old age in the dark? Liu Jiahui also hurriedly laughed and said, "

, Jiabin is right, even if you don't think about yourself, you have to think about your aunt. As long as you take over this villa, the villa's water and electricity properties, as well as the servant driver. , all by me

I will be responsible. If my aunt is not feeling well, she can go to the best hospital on Hong Kong Island at any time, and all the expenses will be on my head! "The old lady was a little worried at the moment. She was afraid that her son would take over Liu Jiahui's house for her own sake. As the so-called soft hand, although she didn't know why Liu Jiahui took the initiative to send a big gift, she always felt that this person must have no good intentions.

So , She looked at Arman and said quickly: "Arman, you don't have to worry too much about Mom, Mom now feels that it's not a problem to live another ten or eight years. "

Arman knew that his mother didn't want to let himself bow down for this house.

However, he is a smart person, and he would not remember Liu Jiahui's favor in this kind of thing.

So he asked Liu Jiahui directly: "Mr. Liu, this should be charlie." What do you mean, sir? "

Liu Jiahui smiled awkwardly and said quickly, "Although it was proposed by Young Master Wade, his point of view coincides with mine, it coincides!" "

Arman smiled and said, "So, if I don't accept this house, Mr. Liu is with Young Master Wade, I'm afraid it won't be easy to explain, right?" "

Liu Jiahui looked at Arman, shook his head, and smacked his lips: "Oh, Arman, it has to be you!" "

Liu Jiahui is not a fool either, he knows the meaning of Arman's remarks too well.

Originally, he wanted to exchange this house for his personal feelings.

After all, it is also a few hundred million things. If it is replaced by steel shovels and thrown into the sea, the sea level has to be lifted a little bit . A little higher, you can't leave it in Arman's place without even making a sound.

But Arman is still smart, he can see the reason at a glance, and then change the nature of the matter in one sentence.

Now if Arman accepts this villa, then It's not that Arman owes others favors, but that he owes Arman favors.

Because the meaning of Arman's words is already obvious.

Even if he accepts this villa, it is just a favor for Liu Jiahui.

Otherwise, if he Liu Jiahui is not good at dealing with charlie, then the trouble will be big.

Liu Jiahui also accepted it. He knew that this was a loss-making business, and he simply paid for it in the end.

So, he sighed and said to Arman, "Arman, you should do me a favor and take this villa. If it is convenient tomorrow, I will hold a housewarming ceremony for you and wait for your family to settle down. Come down, it's time for me to go to Eastcliff..." Arman nodded slightly, he also knew that the nomination was over, so he handed over to Liu Jiahui and said, "In that case, thank Mr. Liu for his kindness!"

Suddenly thanking Liu Jiahui made Liu Jiahui feel that he had done all the hard work.

At this moment, he sighed, patted Arman on the shoulder, and said sincerely, "Arman, I'll find the master.

over. Tomorrow will be auspicious time at 9:58. I will bring a car to pick you up in advance, and we will be in the house on time at 9:58! "

Arman clasped his fists: "Then it's hard for Mr. Liu to arrange it." "

Liu Jiahui felt a lot more comfortable, and the smile on his face was not as flattering as it was at the beginning, but a little more open-minded.

Fang Jiixin's heart that had been hanging was finally released, not only that, but deep in her heart, there is still a bit of uncontrollable excitement and happiness.

She decided to leave the United States without saying goodbye, she has already made her own choice, and now she is very happy to see that her former lover can finally be reunited as a family.

She was worried about Arman at first. She was worried that Arman's return would reveal Liu Jiahui's scars, so that the gap between her and Liu Jiahui became even heavier.

But she did not expect that the appearance of Charlie would make a huge change in things

. Not only has Arman's troubles been properly resolved, but even Liu Jiahui's attitude towards him has changed a lot.

If he strikes while the iron is hot and accompanies Liu Jiahui to Yeling Mountain in Eastcliff for three months, then Liu Jiahui may really regard him as his other half.

It seems that the whole thing dragged on for 20 years to finally come to an end, but he unexpectedly became the biggest winner.

Liu Jiahui's task was completed, and his tense nerves were finally relaxed. At this moment he wiped the sweat on his forehead and said to Arman, "Arman, I won't disturb your family reunion so late, I will come over in person tomorrow morning!"

Arman nodded and sent Liu Jiahui and Fang Jiixin to the door. After seeing them off, Arman returned home. His younger brothers and sisters could see that they were very excited, but the old mother was a little worried.

Arman stepped forward and smiled. Said: "Mom, you don't have to frown, today's affairs are arranged by Young Master Wade, we just need to act according to Young Master Wade's wishes, and you don't need to worry about the rest."

When the old lady heard this, her nervousness eased a little, and she said, "I'm worried that Liu Jiahui is hiding a knife in his smile. If he wants to harm you in the future, Mom is afraid that you will be in danger..."

Arman smiled and comforted: "Mom, Young Master Wade is very talented, and his strength is unfathomable. Liu Jiahui will never have any crooked thoughts."

After speaking, Arman asked her, "Do you know why he took Fang Jiabin to the United States?" The old lady He subconsciously said, "It's not that Liu Jiahui is talking to the outside world and wants to kill you..."

Arman nodded and said, "If Young Master Wade also told the outside world to kill him, he would definitely run faster than me. , the gap between him and Young Master Wade is even bigger than the gap between me and him back then..."

Arman's metaphor made the old mother immediately understand the stakes.

It also made her completely relieved about her son's future safety.

She breathed a sigh of relief and said, "Since that's the case, then mom has nothing to worry about."

Then, she asked a little uncertainly, "Arman, are we really going to move to the villa given by Liu Jiahui tomorrow? ?"

Arman nodded and said seriously, "Of course we're going, this is Master Wade's arrangement, and Liu Jiahui is just following Master Wade's instructions. To be precise, the villa we're going to move tomorrow is the villa sent by Master Wade."

After that, he looked at his mother and his younger siblings and said, villa is very big, and it must be big enough for a whole family to live together, so everyone will clean up tonight and move in early tomorrow morning."

The two younger sisters looked at each other, and the younger sister asked, "Brother...Let's move there...is it appropriate?"

Arman knew what the younger sisters thought, they must feel that they were already married daughters, so they usually go back to their parents' house to see, It's no problem to help, but it's definitely not suitable to move back to her parents' home.

As for his two younger sisters, their lives were a bit rough, and the living conditions at home were not very good. On Hong Kong Island, they were only slightly better than the poorest people at the bottom. So, Arman looked at his two younger sisters and said with a smile, "My eldest brother has been away for so many years, and I really want to be close to you. If you don't dislike my eldest brother, then move your whole family there and let us all live together."

He let out a sigh and said seriously, "I, the eldest brother, owe you a lot in the past 20 years. Thanks to your hard work, this family is what it is today. In the future, the eldest brother will try to share more for you.

" Looking at it, tears suddenly burst out of my eyes.

Seeing them crying, Arman said quickly, "Oh, you two, I don't know how many times you cried today, so you should go home quickly, pack everything, only bring the necessities, and everything else. No need to take it." The old lady was in a particularly happy mood, and said to her two daughters with a smile: "Listen to your eldest brother, hurry back!" The two nodded lightly and left the cramped old Chen family with their husbands. house.

Vihaan knew that he was going to move to a big villa tomorrow, so he couldn't help himself, and he started to pack things with his wife in a hurry.

Arman

Watching the two busy with a smile on the side, there are also some emotions in my heart.

The moment he came out of the customs, his wish was to try to die as nicely as possible, so as not to scare his family when the police notified his family to collect his body.

But now, all worries are easily resolved, not only can I reunite with my family, but even the living standard has improved a lot.

And the most important of them is that the old mother walked through the gate of hell and woke up lucky.

Everything is moving in the best direction.

Thinking of this, he took out his mobile phone and called charlie.

On the other end of the phone, charlie was sitting in Fei Kexin's car, and when he saw that Arman was calling, charlie said very politely, "Uncle Arman."

Arman said gratefully, "Master Wade, all this today is really true. Thank you so much."

charlie said indifferently: "Uncle Arman is very polite, you are an elder and a friend of my father, these are what I should do."

Arman was silent for a moment, then said seriously: "Master Wade, if You don't dislike it, from now on, Arman's life is yours, no matter what you need, you should do your best and die!" When charlie heard this, he smiled knowingly and said: " Uncle Arman, I have some property in my hand that I can't manage by myself, I want you to give me a stroke and a set, if you are willing, come and help me watch it."

Arman said without hesitation. "Of course I do! Young Master Wade, when do you want me to start work?"

charlie smiled and said, "Don't worry, you will accompany your family during this time, and I will go back to the United States tomorrow. For specific matters, after I return to Aurous Hill, Thank you for coming to Aurous Hill, and we'll talk face-to-face."

"Okay!" Arman said immediately, "We'll see you in Aurous Hill then!"

"OK, see you in Aurous Hill!"

After hanging up Arman's phone, charlie suddenly felt much more relaxed.

What he was waiting for was Uncle Arman's words.

Uncle Arman's book is not only because of his strong overall view, but also because of his precise control of details. This kind of person is not only strong in judgment, but also in execution.

If you can use it for your own use, it will be of great benefit to your future development.

Moreover, charlie still has a big worry in his heart, that is, the mysterious organization that assassinated the grandfather's family, and the more mysterious British Lord behind it.

Before confronting this organization, charlie needed a little bit of fiddling to find the other party's clues, and after confronting this organization, charlie needed to open up and cooperate with Compete against each other.

Therefore, at this time, he needs a right-hand man like Uncle Arman even more.

Fei Kexin, who was driving by the side, saw that charlie seemed to fall to the ground, so he couldn't help but ask, "Mr. Wade came to Hong Kong Island this time, mainly because he wanted to bring that Mr. Arman under his command, right?"

charlie said seriously: " This is not the primary purpose, my primary purpose is to ensure the safety of Uncle Arman, as for whether he is willing to work for me, it is entirely voluntary." After speaking, charlie looked at Fei Kexin and said, "Miss Fei, this time If you have to work hard, you have to come and help."

"You are very kind." Fei Kexin smiled slightly: "I didn't help you much when I came to Hong Kong Island, I just didn't feel relieved, so I came over to take a look first. Just look at it."

After saying that, Fei Kexin laughed at himself and said, "Actually, I've been thinking too much. With you here, Mr. Arman can't have any problems."

charlie said seriously: "This kind of intention is already very rare. , I will keep it in mind."

Fei Kexin was a little excited, but she still pretended to be calm and said: "Mr. Wade, what are your plans next?"

"What are you planning?" charlie smiled: "Go back to the United States tomorrow and continue to accompany you. My wife has finished reading the master class."

Fei Kexin asked, "What are your plans for the mysterious organization that assassinated your grandfather's family? If there is anything that needs my help, I will definitely be there!"

charlie said He waved his hand: "Miss Fei, the strength of that mysterious organization may be much greater than we guessed, and its hidden depths are much deeper. I'm not going to take the initiative to investigate them for the time being. You'd better not dig deeper."

Fei Ke Xin asked in surprise, "Aren't you worried that they will continue to be detrimental to your grandfather's family?"

charlie said earnestly: "The last mission failed, they were already shocked by the grass, and the last time An Jia was really negligent in taking precautions, but with the experience and lessons of this time, with An Jia's strength, as long as they are careful enough in the future, it will be difficult for them to catch them again. There are similar opportunities, so I speculate that they are unlikely to have any new actions for the time being." After speaking, charlie added: "To deal with such an organization, we must find an opportunity to uproot it. It's irrelevant, so I have to figure it out!"
