

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4989

Chloe didn't even have a chance to beg Elaine for mercy, and more than 30 people slapped in the face one after another.

In the late stage, Chloe's whole body was already spinning.

She didn't know how many times she fell into a coma, and was woken up by a loud slap.

And Elaine stood aside, like Zhou Papi supervising his own family workers, supervising every female prisoner who beat Chloe.

Whenever anyone slaps lightly, Elaine takes a kick.

In her words: "You bastards, you were bullied so badly by her at ordinary times, and now you finally have a chance to turn around, why are you still soft-hearted? The one just now doesn't count, give the old lady a new fight!"

In fact, the vast majority of people in When facing Chloe, they are not soft-hearted.

They were just tired of slapping their ears, and it was inevitable that one or two of them could not exert their strength and had some strokes.

But in Elaine's view, this kind of stroke is absolutely not allowed.

As a result, these female prisoners, on the one hand, out of revenge on Chloe, on the other hand, did not dare to offend Elaine, so they became more and more ruthless.

So many people lined up to be slapped, and Chloe even showed signs of a concussion.

But Elaine still didn't understand the hatred.

Don't look at her, it's only just one day, but on this day, she has already felt the huge malice and cruelty of Chloe.

Therefore, Elaine secretly decided in his heart that he must not be half-hearted and soft-hearted towards this female devil. As long as he is still in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution, he must let her live rather than die.

So, after everyone slapped Chloe on the face, Elaine walked up to Chloe, who had changed beyond recognition, and scolded coldly, "Chloe, you have been here for so long, I didn't expect today. Bar?"

With that said, Elaine sneered and continued: "There is a saying in China: Don't look at you having a lot of fun today, be careful to pull the list in the future, it's only a matter of time before the people liquidate a local ruffian like you!

", Elaine saw Chloe's sluggish expression, and immediately pointed at the Chinese girl who was standing on the wall, and said coldly: "Why are you still standing there, translate for her!" The girl was also confused and asked quickly: "Auntie... What are you pulling for a green pill, a green pill?"

Elaine scolded: "Pull the list! The crime settlement list! Do you f*cking think you're going to the toilet? Haven't seen "Little Soldiers" "Zhang Ga", you don't even know such a classic line, are you still from China?!" The girl said submissively: "I...I am Chinese...but I was born and raised in the United States.is an American citizen..."

Elaine said angrily: "How did your parents act, don't they give you patriotic education?!" The girl shook her head and said softly: "They I'm busy making money every day, I don't care about me..."

Elaine snorted coldly: "I tell you, no matter where you go, you can't forget your roots! Although you are an American citizen, don't forget, you Her skin is still yellow and her hair is still black!" The girl nodded hurriedly and said, "Auntie, you are right in your criticism... I will keep this in mind in the future and learn more about Chinese culture..."

Elaine Glancing at her, she didn't say anything more. She pointed at Chloe and urged, "Hurry up, translate and translate!" The girl didn't dare to delay, and quickly translated Elaine's words.

Chloe's tears had dried up, and he slumped on the ground, shaking and crumbling like a tumbler.

But she heard that Elaine was going to liquidate herself, for fear that Elaine would not be satisfied by now, so she cried vaguely and said, "Please forgive me this time... The mistakes I made in the past, now I've paid it back ten times and a hundred times... I really don't dare in the future..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4990

Elaine sneered: "Now you know how to beg for mercy? It's no use I'll tell you! Come on, let your grandma get up quickly, take the basin to the toilet to fetch water for the big guys to wash their feet, starting today, to you On the day Grandma Elaine was released from prison, you had to wash and pinch everyone's feet every day!"

Chloe didn't dare to delay, insisted on getting up, and stumbled to the bathroom.

At this time, Elaine sat on the bed opposite her, pointed at the female prisoners who had washed her feet before, and said coldly, "You guys, don't think that there is nothing to do with you here. Your grandmother Elaine has never washed anyone's feet in her life, do you think you can bear it?"

Several people were trembling with fright, and one of the brown-skinned Mexican-American female prisoners knelt on the ground with a thud, pleading with sincerity: "I'm sorry Ms. Elaine...I...I was bewitched by Chloe before...I will be at Bedford Hills Correctional Facility and I will obey Ms. Elaine For your order, please forgive me for what I did before..."

Seeing her kneeling down, the others were afraid of falling behind, so they all brushed together. Kneel down.

The gap between the two single beds was not large, so these people kneeled side by side in two rows, and they were barely kneeling.

Sitting on the single bed, Elaine suddenly felt like he was sitting on Wu Zetian's dragon chair. Looking around, all his civil and military officials were kneeling.

The strong sense of satisfaction together made Elaine excited, and she suddenly understood why these people in the prison liked to be the boss.

It turns out that being the boss is really cool!

This kind of pleasure in making others surrender to oneself can make one more than one class higher than others in personality.

This is not something you can experience with money.

At this moment, Elaine's vanity was greatly satisfied.

She suddenly wanted to test the loyalty of this group of people, so she stretched and said, "I feel uncomfortable since I came here, if only I could do a full body massage!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the Mexican-American female prisoner quickly stood up, walked up to him diligently, and said flatteringly, "Ms. Elaine, I have learned Japanese Masaki before, if you don't dislike it, let me give you a massage. Elaine raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "

Then let you try it."

The female prisoner hurriedly went around to another compartment, climbed onto the bed that was back to back with Elaine in the other compartment, and then Reaching out his hand to massage Elaine's neck, Elaine didn't expect that this woman really has two strokes, and the place where she presses it is very comfortable, so she smiled and said: "It's not bad, it seems that you really learned two tricks." The woman quickly said: "Actually, my major is to do spas. Before I came in, I always did spas for guests in five-star hotels."

Elaine asked curiously: "Since you are all in five-star hotels Why did you come here again after work? What happened?"

The woman sighed and explained, "I stole a watch from the guest, but I didn't expect that watch to be worth half a million dollars... ..The worst thing is that I didn't have time to sell my watch, and I was caught by the police before I got off work..."

Elaine smiled and subconsciously said in a high-spirited, educational tone: "People, you can't have greed, what should be yours is yours, don't stretch out your hand if it's not yours. As the saying goes, don't stretch out your hand, you will be caught if you stretch out your hand."

After speaking, Elaine recalled her The second time I stole charlie's bank card, I couldn't help shivering, and said uncomfortably, "Oh, not only is my neck uncomfortable, but my whole body is uncomfortable..."

Several people kneeling in front of them Hearing this, one by one hurried up without thinking.

Soon, Elaine's two arms and two legs were contracted by a female prisoner respectively. The other two could not be divided, so one massaged Elaine's scalp, and the other helped her rub her temples on both sides.

The seven people massaged at the same time, and Elaine felt so comfortable that the pores all over his body were opened, and he couldn't help humming the tune of the serf who turned over.

At this time, Chloe came over again with a pot and said respectfully, "Ms. Elaine, I'll soak your feet first, and squeeze while soaking..."

Elaine opened her eyelids and slanted. She glanced at her and said coldly, "You f*cking kneel and pinch!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4991

When Elaine turned over completely at Bedford Hill Correctional Institution, and began to be intimidating and enjoying detached treatment.

charlie, who was in the Fei family, received a document from Abbas.

Thanks to the powerful intelligence channels of Wanlongdian, this document contains almost all the crimes that Soleil has committed in the United States for so many years.

There are more than 30 pages of information printed out, and it took charlie more than an hour to read it all.

And when he read these materials, the whole person was very angry!

He did not expect that this Soleil was in the United States and committed countless crimes against her compatriots.

Over the years, there have been at least thirty people who died directly or indirectly in her hands, which can be traced back to their actual identities.

There are many people who are completely missing after coming into contact with her.

And like Elaine, there are countless people who have been thrown into prison by her.

However, Wanlong Palace has not yet grasped the trace of Soleil.

Because this woman has not appeared in any public places since she left Providence, and the whole person belongs to the state of evaporation.

charlie speculated that although Soleil was on the run, she would definitely not just wash her hands.

Because her family has now been arrested and all assets have been seized, she must be unwilling in this situation.

Therefore, even if Soleil is currently on the run, this vicious woman will definitely find a way to continue doing bad things and earn illegal benefits.

So, charlie called Abbas.

As soon as the call was made, he said, "Abbas, I have read all the information you sent."

Abbas said very embarrassedly: "Sorry, Mr. wade, we don't have any clues about Soleil's whereabouts yet, but don't worry, I have notified all the informants in Wanlong Palace in the United States, as long as you find that Soleil's whereabouts. The trail will definitely grasp the trend immediately."

charlie said, "I suspect that this Soleil will commit crimes again soon, and now I should find a way to follow the clues."

Abbas said helplessly: "The United States this Locally, the vast majority of cities have not achieved 100% monitoring coverage, not to mention the urban-rural fringe and the transportation network extending in all directions, and the most terrible thing is that their expressways, more than 90% are free, and there is no charge. The station also means that there is no system to record and count the vehicles driving on the highway, so it is difficult for us to capture their movements after they leave Providence."

charlie thought for a while and said, "Although Jane and the others have evaporated, their goals are still there! As long as they don't stop completely, we can find clues!"

After speaking, charlie said again: "Abbas, you immediately have people investigate from Providence. During the period of Soleil's pseudonym Jovie, all the social records of this woman, I want to know which Chinese and ethnic Chinese she has had deep contact with. As long as she has deep contact with people, it is most likely her target. We can learn from her If you start the target, maybe you can find her whereabouts."

Abbas hurriedly said: "Okay, Mr. wade, this subordinate will do it now!"

An hour later.

charlie received a call from Abbas.

On the phone, Abbas said to charlie: "Mr. wade, our people have investigated in Providence and found that Soleil has maintained close contact with at least six local Chinese people, but since your mother-in-law has an accident After that, his contact with these people was cut off."

charlie asked, "What are the identities of these six people? What background?"

Abbas said: "Basically, they are similar to your mother-in-law. They all came to the United States to visit relatives. Four of them have already booked their flight tickets to return to China and will return to China in the next few months. However, there are An old lady immigrated earlier, and Soleil has the most call records with her among these 6 people."

"Old lady?" charlie asked curiously, "Is the old lady also the target of their shipment of contraband?"

Abbas said: "This is not certain."

charlie said: "It is very simple to be sure, you can investigate this old lady's flight records in the airline in recent years to see if she often returns to China, the most recent time When are you going to return to China?"

"Okay!" Abbas said immediately: "Wait a moment, I'll let the hackers retrieve the information from the loopholes in the civil aviation system."

With that, Abbas and the people around him gave some instructions. In less than a minute, he said to charlie: "Mr. wade, I have already checked it here, it's a little strange, this old lady has not been back to China for at least 20 years, and it has been 20 years. , she has never been on a plane at all."

"Strange..." charlie frowned and said, "A person who has not been on a plane for 20 years and is still an old lady, what is the value to Soleil?"

"Me too I don't know..." Abbas hurriedly said: "I will send someone to approach this old lady immediately and investigate her situation carefully."

charlie said, "Don't bother, you can help me look at this old lady's condition. Family composition."

Abbas said: "Mr. wade, I have information here, the old lady's name is Zhou Bihua, she is seventy-three years old, she has only one son, she is forty this year, her son was a public student in the early years, and later She immigrated to the United States and brought her over from China 20 years ago, but the old lady came by herself, and her husband should be gone."

charlie asked again, "Have you found the address of their home? Look Find out what level of community their home is in Providence."

Abbas replied later: "Mr. wade, old lady

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4992

Where I live, Providence is a relatively run-down community. Most of the local Chinese don't live there, and generally Latinos and Africans live there. charlie couldn't help but be a little surprised, and pondered: "

This matter is a bit strange. It stands to reason that this old lady's family conditions should be very ordinary, and it is estimated that there are no immediate family members in China, and it is impossible to return to China. What is Soleil's purpose in approaching her?" Woolen cloth? "

I didn't want to understand this..." Abbas said: "I also found the surveillance video of the old lady. She is still working in a Chinese restaurant. She is still working at such an old age. It should be very difficult for her family to see the situation." . charlie frowned and continued to ask, "

What about her son?" Since her son used to be a public student, he must have graduated from a famous university, so his income couldn't be too low, right?

Abbas explained: "Her son's situation is worse. In the early years, he did have a good income and worked as a technical director in a multinational company, but since he was 35 years old, he has been looking for a job and was fired . , and then looking for a job, the income is also declining. Now he has been unemployed for more than a year, the family mortgage has been suspended for a few months, and now the bank is about to repossess the house. His son just ran the family car a few days ago Miles' commercial vehicle has been sold, and now it can be said to be a family. I can't figure out why the top students who graduated from famous universities can get along so badly. charlie said lightly: "

This kind of situation is still very common in large companies. For some large companies, older employees have been working for too long and their qualifications are too old, but their salary is surprisingly high, and because of their age Now, the body is overdrawn, and there is a family to worry about, so I can't fight anymore, and my learning ability is not as good as that of young people. For these big companies, if they replace these middle-aged people with young people , not only the cost can be greatly reduced, but also the new young people are full of energy, and can be desperately squeezed for more than ten years. "

Speaking, charlie said again: "Once such middle-aged people are fired, the salary level will avalanche when they are re-employed. Young people are more and more job-hopping, and the salary is higher, while most middle-aged people are more and more paid." Job-hopping salary is lower.

Abbas agreed and sighed: "The capitalists are indeed the most cruel . "

With that said, Abbas remembered something, and said quickly: "Oh, by the way, I checked the civil aviation system just now, this Zhou Bihua's son has booked a ticket to Mexico the day after tomorrow, maybe he is going to work in Mexico. ..."

charlie was even more surprised: "Going to work in Mexico? That place is much poorer than the United States, and it can be regarded as a place outside the law. How can normal people go to work there from the United States?"

"This is not clear. ..." Abbas said: "I also found his son's medical examination record last week. It was done in the hospital in Providence. The registration of the medical examination project is the entry medical examination, which should be done to find a job. ."

charlie hummed, and didn't think much about it at first.

However, he suddenly remembered something and said, "Abbas, the information you gave me just now shows that many of the people who have been in contact with Soleil have disappeared and their whereabouts are unknown, right?"

"Yes." Abbas said: "These people are registered as missing in the police system, and none of them have been found."

charlie frowned and suddenly said, "Check these missing people and look at their files. It shows where they disappeared, and it is important to check whether they have been to Mexico before they disappeared!"
