

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5021

Just as Juarez's men swarmed, Ma Kui took Ah Liang back to the operating room.

Ma Kui put on a flattering expression all the way, walked towards Charlie diligently and quickly, took out a box of domestic cigarettes from his pocket, walked to Charlie, handed one, and said respectfully: "Mr. Wade, our boss is already on his way here. The boss explained that I want to entertain you well, you should smoke a cigarette first!"

Charlie waved his hand and said indifferently, "No."

"Ouch." Ma Kui quickly said to please: "It won't be good, it won't be good! Cigarettes are not a good thing, don't touch them if you can."

With that said, he stretched out his hand and put the cigarette case in his pocket, turned around and said to Ah Liang, "Go on, no one may smoke in front of Mr. Wade!"

Ah Liang hurriedly nodded his head attentively and said, "Okay, okay!"

After speaking, he turned around and chatted with the group of Mexicans in Spanish.

Ma Kui smiled and said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, this is "No need." Charlie waved his hand slightly, and said lightly: "I like this place very much, it's simple but not simple. Look at your operating room, the sparrow is small but it has all the internal organs, and you can see that the equipment is also very elegant. Yes, the smell of disinfectant is so strong, I think you all pay attention."

Ma Kui hurriedly said: "Mr. Wade, to tell you the truth, I'm really insane when it comes to medicine, but the Indian Asan just now is a bit skilled. Do you know what glorious deeds this kid has?"

Charlie shook his head and asked, "What happened?"

Ma Kui said: "When this kid was in India, he used various means to cheat five or six hundred people's waists. Later, when an incident broke out and he couldn't get along, he ran to the United States. F*ck the old business, now in this circle in North America, this kid can be regarded as a knife."

Charlie couldn't help smacking his lips, and said half-jokingly, "Although this thing is really ridiculous, I have to say that there is still something."

Ma Kui laughed, nodded quickly and said, "You're right, compared to you, we are indeed some indiscriminate activities that can't make it to the table. Under normal circumstances, if you pay a waist, the entire industry chain can only make money in total. Tens of thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars, if you want to earn tens of billions of dollars like you, I am afraid that you have to earn more than 100,000 waists, and it is impossible to achieve it in this life...”

charlie pouted and asked him: “Who told you that I am worth tens of billions? Ten billions, not even a fart in my eyes.”

Having said that, charlie said again: “Let me tell you this, I incorporated an organization some time ago, and I invested tens of billions of dollars in it for long-term and short-term.”

Ma Kui looked at him in disbelief and blurted out: “Mr. Wade...you...you are not kidding me...what kind of organization can let you vote for hundreds of dollars... billion dollars?”

charlie said casually: “I can’t tell you this right now, but you don’t need to question the authenticity of this matter, because I never make such a joke.”

Ma Kui also knew that if charlie had a black and gold card, it proved that he must have real materials, and it was impossible to brag in front of a small person like himself.

So, he said respectfully: “Mr. Wade, thanks to your interest in our Crazy Juarez, I believe that after you meet our boss, you will not be disappointed in us!”

charlie nodded, looked at Trent , who had never recovered, and immediately frowned and said to Ma Kui, “I thought you had good eyesight, why didn’t you know how to cut the tie for my brother? ?”

When Ma Kui heard this, he instantly came back to his senses.

Originally, he thought that charlie was just coming to the door through Trent , and he still thought that charlie was a boss and could not offend him, but Trent was a donor who was about to undergo surgery, and the two of them would definitely have nothing to do in the future.

But after hearing what charlie said, he realized that charlie was supposed to protect this Trent , so he quickly slapped himself without thinking, and said angrily, “Aiya, Mr. Wade, I’m so sorry, I’m here to serve you. Oh, I didn’t think of your friend...After he finished speaking, he quickly said to Ah Liang, “Don’t hurry up and untie Mr. Trent!”

“Okay...” Ah Liang didn’t dare to delay, and hurriedly pulled out a folding dagger from his waist, then cut off the tie on Trent ‘s hand.

Trent didn’t care to get used to his hands that had just recovered, he threw himself on his knees in front of charlie, and cried and said, “Brother...oh no...Mr. Wade...please... Please save my life, Mr. Wade, I am old and young, I really can’t just die in Mexico...”

charlie stretched out his hand to help him up, smiled slightly, and said seriously: "Brother, don't worry, you and I are also destined. This time in Mexico, if I have you, I will have you. Whoever dares to touch you, charlie is the first one. Do not agree."

Trent was moved in his heart, and it was more about the ease of the rest of his life. Although he burst into tears, he still couldn't hide his happiness and said to charlie, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, thank you, Mr. Wade!"

Ma Kui on the side hurriedly smiled and said: "Mr. Lang, don't worry, since you are Mr. Wade's friend, you are our honored guest here, the previous things are all misunderstandings, don't take it to your heart, I guarantee you the next Stay safe in Mexico!"

charlie asked curiously, "Ma Kui, I want to know, what are you going to do next to the person who is going to undergo surgery?"

Ma Kui smiled and said respectfully, "Mr. WADE, the other party has already paid the deposit, and the family has agreed to pay the final payment after going to the operating table. Then we will open his chest cavity, and then wait two hours before giving it to him. He sewed it up, and then sent the person back to the United States and told him that the operation had been completed. If he felt uncomfortable, it might be that his body has not yet adapted to the new heart, and there is still a certain rejection reaction, as long as Go back and rest in peace for half a month, and you can basically recover."

charlie frowned and asked, "The other party gave you all the money, ran over and took a knife in vain and went back? Is this a bit too much damage?"

Ma Kui said seriously: "Mr. Wade, in this case, we open the chest without moving anything, and then sew him up, this is already very interesting, if we change other colleagues, it may open his chest. After that, not only did he not give him a new heart, but he also gave him a waist. This kind of thing is not made up by me, it is really normal in our industry."

charlie nodded with a half-smile but not a smile.

Sure enough, they are a bunch of scumbags and bastards with no morals and no humanity.

It would be unreasonable to let these bastards continue to do bad things.

Thinking of this, charlie looked at Ma Kui and asked him, "Why hasn't your boss come yet? Is he too good at ink?"

Ma Kui hurriedly said, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, our boss used to gamble in the casino, and it was a bit far to come here temporarily, so it does take a little longer, but it should be here soon!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5023

At this moment, Juarez's six teams have arrived at the entrance of the village one after another, and have assembled at the designated location.

Along the way, they were very cautiously observing the surrounding environment, but they did not find any abnormality.

And Juarez's car, under the protection of three cars, drove to the east entrance of the village only after the six teams were in place.

After arriving, Juarez did not get out of the car, but said to one of his bodyguards: "Hector, go and see first, remember to record the video of the whole process, after entering, let the shielding be turned off, and then post the video. Give me, let me see the situation inside, in case Ma Kui and the others are controlled by the other party, then this is a trap, and we have to prepare in advance."

The man named Hector nodded slightly, then he took out his mobile phone, turned on the video, and walked in alone.

Both the dark post and Minggang near the operating room knew Hector, so when Hector appeared, they all greeted Hector on a routine basis. Hector kept looking around, and at the same time carefully observed every encounter he encountered. One person, after finding that there was nothing abnormal, said to one of the little bosses who was responsible for guarding the place: "Turn off the shield, I want to send a video to the boss."

The man did not dare to delay, and immediately turned off the signal jammer here.

Hector immediately sent the video that had been taken to Juarez, who soon sent an invitation for a video call.

After the video was connected, Juarez's voice came and asked, "Where is the surname WADE?"

Hector said: "I heard that it is in the underground operating room."

Juarez instructed: "Go down and have a look, don't hang up the video."

"It is good!"

Hector agreed, walked into the room where the basement entrance was with his phone, and then walked straight down.

Juarez, on the other hand, was using his mobile phone in the car to carefully observe the video footage sent back. He wanted to confirm whether what appeared in the video was his subordinate.

Fortunately, Charlie was indeed alone, so Juarez didn't notice anything unusual.

At this time, Hector had come to the underground operating room and saw Charlie with a proud expression in front of Ma Kui.

Ma Kui also saw Hector at this time, and hurriedly said to Charlie, "Mr. Wade, our boss's personal bodyguard has arrived, and I believe our boss will be here soon!"

Hector came to the crowd at this time, pointed the camera of his mobile phone at Charlie, then lowered his voice and asked a few words in Ma Kui's ear.

After Ma Kui also whispered a few words in his ear, Hector was relieved, then he smiled and nodded to Charlie as a gesture, then stepped back and returned to the ground.

As soon as he returned to the ground, he reported to Juarez: "Boss, nothing unusual was found here, there were only two unfamiliar faces, one was the donor who was scheduled to undergo surgery the day after tomorrow, and the other was what Ma Kui said. The billionaire."

Juarez asked him, "Are our brothers here?"

"It's all there." Hector said: "There was no trace of fighting at the scene, not even the smell of gunpowder, so there must be no problem."

Juarez nodded and said with a smile: "It seems that the Chinese surnamed Wade is really courageous. I will go and meet him in person for a while."

After speaking, Juarez issued an order on the car radio: "Everyone follow me, one to three teams are on guard outside the operating room, four to six teams are on guard in the operating room, and the bodyguards come down with me to see that one. Huaxia boy."

Confirmation responses from the six squad leaders immediately came over the radio.

Immediately afterwards, Juarez opened the car door and walked out. Under the protection of bodyguards, he walked towards the operating room.

Just when Juarez thought that he had eliminated all threats and was foolproof, he never dreamed that in the high sky, the drone had already clearly captured his movements.

When Abbas saw him appear, he realized that this person must be the leader of the entire criminal organization.

So, according to Charlie's explanation, he instructed his subordinates: "Everyone, pay attention, start shrinking the encirclement immediately, once the target enters the yard where Mr. Wade is, the five-minute countdown will start immediately. When the time is up, be sure to put the outside Kill all the enemies, and leave none of them!"

A few minutes later, Juarez had come to the yard where the operating room was.

Because of Hector's previous exploration, he was not worried at all, and went straight down the stairs of the operating room.

When Ma Kui saw Juarez walking down, he immediately said to Charlie excitedly, "Mr. Wade, our boss is here!"

After he finished speaking, he hurried to Juarez and said diligently in Spanish: "Boss, this Mr. Wade who came here today is a great God of Wealth. We must seize this opportunity!"

Juarez patted him on the shoulder, did not speak, but walked directly to Charlie, smiled and said in Spanish: "Mr. Wade, right, I'm Juarez, Rafael Juarez, you can call me Raphael."

Charlie didn't understand Spanish, but Ma Kui was there to translate, so there was no obstacle to communication with Juarez.

Charlie looked at Juarez from top to bottom and found that this Mexican man was indeed very aggressive. Although he was not tall, he was very strong. He wore a shiny thick gold necklace around his neck, even on his teeth. Wearing diamond-studded braces, with a very short inch head, and a face full of flesh, it is not a good thing at first glance.

Charlie looked at him and smiled indifferently: "Mr. Juarez really made me wait. After he came, he didn't show up. First let a subordinate come in and show you a video. Your operation really made me feel ignorant. Think."

Juarez knew that Charlie thought that he was coming too slowly, and that he was too cautious, so he smiled and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Wade, it is always necessary to be cautious when meeting for the first time."

As he said that, he quickly changed the subject and asked Charlie, "Mr. Wade, I heard from Ma Kui that you intend to cooperate with our entire group. I don't know what kind of cooperation?"

charlie didn't answer his question, but asked with a smile, "How many people are there in your organization?"

Juarez said immediately: "We have more than two hundred people."

charlie frowned slightly, and said lightly, "There seems to be a little less than two hundred people."

Juarez hurriedly said: "Although there are not many of us, almost everyone is a strong general!"

charlie asked curiously, "Did you bring it all over today?"

Juarez nodded and said, "My people are all outside. If Mr. Wade is interested, I can take you up to take a look."

"No need." charlie said casually: "You people don't need me to deal with it myself."

Juarez didn't know the deep meaning of charlie's words, patted his chest and said to charlie, "If Mr. Wade intends to cooperate with us,

After speaking, he asked charlie, "Mr. Wade, what kind of cooperation did you have with us?"

charlie said casually, "I have a big project in Syria, and I'm actually quite short of people, but..."

When charlie said this, he deliberately paused, then he took out his mobile phone and looked at the time. Seeing that it had been almost five minutes since Juarez came in, he gradually put away the smile on his face and looked at Hua Reis, said in a cold voice: "Forget it, Syria is only suitable for those who can be spared the death penalty and cannot escape the crime. It is not suitable for you scumbags who should be killed by a thousand cuts."

Ma Kui was about to translate, but was stunned for a moment. He couldn't help looking at charlie, frowned and asked, "Mr. Wade, what do you mean?"

charlie sneered, looked at Juarez and the people around him, and said lightly, "I mean very simply, You're all gononight!"

Translated into Chinese, it is: "You are all going to die tonight!"
