

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5055

Trent 's major is communication engineering, of which he is best at satellite communication.

He was originally a professional with strong scientific research and development capabilities, but due to his age, he is already a little too old. In addition, most communication companies have a very stable market share. He has already entered the stage of receiving dividends and is unwilling to invest too much. In the research and development of new technologies, Trent has not been able to find a suitable job that he likes.

In fact, for a professional and technical talent, the saddest thing is not to be laid off, but to be full of ambition and find no real use.

But charlie's remarks gave him a lot of encouragement all of a sudden.

charlie just said casually, and then made up his mind to build his own satellite communication system for Wanlong Palace. This courage is indeed very rare.

And Trent also wholeheartedly hopes to find an opportunity to display all his abilities and ambitions, so he is very excited and excited.

Almost without thinking, he blurted out: "Mr. Wade, thanks to you looking down on me, I will do my best!"

charlie nodded, and turned to Abbas, who was beside him, and said, "Abbas, Brother Trent has arrived in Syria. After that, it will be paid as an annual salary of one million US dollars after tax. In addition, because the place is too far from home, an additional $500,000 will be given as a settlement fee every year. If the project progresses with high quality and quantity, a performance bonus will be given at that time."

Abbas Immediately respectfully said: "Mr. Wade, rest assured, your subordinates must be properly arranged!"

Trent next to him suddenly became nervous, he quickly waved his hand and said, "No, no...Mr. Wade, you saved my life, how can I Take your salary again... This is definitely not possible... I said just now, as long as you take care of my room and board, I don't want a penny for the rest."

charlie waved his hand and said with a serious face: "Brother, look, the entire Wanlong Palace is allegiance to me. If I mistreat anyone who works for me, how can I convince the public in the future? After you arrive in Syria, all the members of the Wanlong Palace around you have salary income, but you don't have a penny, others know, what do you think of me?"

Trent was sweating anxiously, and blurted out: "But...but I always want to Thank you for saving your life..."

charlie smiled and said, "There are many ways to repay my kindness. After my brother arrives in Syria, he can devote himself to his work, and use the results of his work to repay my life-saving grace in the future. This is the most practical way."

After speaking, he said in an unquestionable tone: "We have decided this matter, you don't need to tell me more, your salary will be paid monthly in the future, but I will let Abbas pay for the $500,000 settlement fee first, so that you can solve the family's problems first."

Trent wanted to say something, but he couldn't say it at all. When he came out, he couldn't control his red eyes.

charlie patted his arm and said seriously: "Brother, since you have this ability, you must let your wife, children and elderly mother enjoy the happiness, give them $500,000 first, and let them take care of all the difficulties in the family. Solve it all in one go, let the old man concentrate on the elderly, let the wife concentrate on taking care of the family, and let the children concentrate on school, so that you can concentrate on work without any worries."

After speaking, charlie gave a slight pause and continued: "And more importantly, this money can not only solve their difficulties, but also make them feel more at ease about you working outside alone, and at the same time have more confidence in your future life, everyone is happy! So you don't have to refuse anymore, agree readily, and then Tonight, we will go directly to the Middle East!"

Trent's tears could no longer be controlled, and the tears of the forty-year-old gentlemen kept dripping like pearls with a broken thread.

After a while, he wiped away the tears with his hands and said unswervingly, "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, I will do everything I can and what I have learned in my life to repay your great kindness!"

charlie Nodding and smiling, he said, "This is like an agreement, and you don't need to worry about the rest."

After that, he said to Abbas: "Abbas, you arrange for my brother to go to Syria with the big army, and wait. After arriving in Syria, brother, if you want people, you will Get people, if you want money, you will Get the money, and if you want land, you will Get the land. In short, you have to let him have no worries, and at the same time, you must provide him with all the necessary conditions. It is necessary to build a set of Wanlong Palace's own satellite communication system in the shortest time. In this way, Wanlong Palace will no longer have to worry about the problem of information leakage in the future, and it is 100% reliable. You have made great contributions!”

“Okay! This subordinate understands!” Abbas was also a little excited at this time.

Although he has operated Wanlong Palace for many years, he has never thought that Wanlong Palace can have its own satellite communication system.

This is definitely a qualitative improvement!

Since Trent agreed to the invitation to go to Syria, charlie did not let him get on the bus, but asked Abbas to arrange for him to leave the scene with other soldiers in other vehicles.

At this time, Abbas said to charlie: “Mr. Wade, our people have already discovered the whereabouts of Stella, she and her concubine are currently hiding in Las Vegas, as long as we take her back New York, your mother-in-law will be able to clear the suspicion, when do you think it is appropriate for us to start?”

“Stella?” charlie frowned slightly and asked, “Is that the person my mother-in-law met at the New York airport? “

Yes.” Abbas said, “The woman’s real name is Carla, and her situation is similar to that of Soleil.”

charlie nodded and said lightly, “Keep an eye on her first, I still have some things to do when I go back to New York. Don’t, don’t scare the snake for the time being, and I’ll catch her back when I need it.”

“Okay.” Abbas nodded and said, “Then I will let my subordinates keep an eye on her for 24 hours and be ready at any time.”

charlie nodded slightly and asked him, “Is my mother-in-law alright inside?”

Abbas He scratched his head in embarrassment and said, “This... Mr. Wade, my subordinates don’t know how to say it...”

charlie said casually, “But it’s okay to say it.”

Abbas coughed twice and said, “Your mother-in-law... Bedford Hill Correctional Institution... Now it can be said that it is like a duck to water, and I can’t think about it...”

charlie was stunned, and asked him: “What’s going on?”

Abbas said: “That’s it... You didn’t say that before. , let me send a few female fighters to take care of her... so she is now in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution, basically alone... Not just the cell she is in, but also Bedford The other prison lords of the Mountain Correctional Institution are now also under the command of our three female soldiers to be submissive..."

"I heard from my subordinates that your mother-in-law is in the Bedford Hill Correctional Institution. So, she is already the number one person in the true sense, no one dares to challenge her authority, and she is now in Bedford Hill Correctional Institution and has a famous nickname..."

charlie asked in surprise: "What? Nickname?"

Abbas said embarrassedly: "Bedford Mountain...ghost...ghost sees sorrow..."

"Wa...what the hell..." charlie was stunned and blurted out, "Who gave it? Shouldn't it be herself?"

"Yes..." Abbas sneered, "Mr. Wade is wise... She really started it..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5057

charlie didn't expect that his mother-in-law, could give herself such a martial-arts nickname when she was in prison.

Bad for Bedford Hills...

I have to say, this nickname sounds really a bit imposing.

However, charlie was not surprised at all, this was the usual behavior of his mother-in-law, Elaine.

It's a little inappropriate to say that she is bullying people, but to say that she is bullying others, it's definitely not wronging her.

Unexpectedly, in two or three days, she will be able to mix into Bedford Mountain ghosts and sorrows, it seems that her life inside is really like a duck in water.

So, charlie said, "Okay, let her go, as long as she's happy, and when I finish my work in New York, it doesn't matter if she's the Bedford Hills or the Bedford Hills. If the pigs are crazy, they have to come out of it."

Abbas nodded and said with a smile, "Then I'll wait for your notice."

"Okay." charlie said with a smile: "You go to work first, I'll take a look on the bus, there are still some things to do."

Abbas said respectfully: "Okay, Mr. Wade, the subordinates will go to work first."

After Abbas left, Charlie boarded the bus that was ready to depart.

He shook hands with those who were rescued one by one, but while shaking hands, he put subtle auras into each other's bodies.

However, everyone knows nothing about it.

The last person Charlie shook hands with was the old grandmother who gave him the phoenix vine.

He shook hands with the grandmother and said very seriously: "Old lady, my subordinates will arrange for you and your son to return to China first, they will help you solve your problems in life, and they will write down your address, etc. After I return to China, I will also visit in person!"

The old lady was a little excited and said with some fear: "...Mr. Wade...how did this happen? You are our savior, and we have to visit you when we visit..."

Others in the car also nodded: "Yes, Mr. Wade, it should be us who are going to visit you together!"

Charlie smiled slightly: "I appreciate your kindness. It's not too early now. There are still hundreds of kilometers to go, so you should rest well first."

Just after Charlie finished speaking, everyone except the old lady seemed to yawn, and then they fell asleep one by one.

The old lady was a little surprised at this time, and said, "These people...how to say they fell asleep..."

Charlie said with a smile: "Old lady, take your time to rest as well, I will definitely visit when I return home, but you may not recognize me by then, but it doesn't matter, I will claim to be the descendant of your husband's friend before his death. , when the time comes, I will help you and your son arrange everything in the future, so that you will have no worries in this life."

The old lady was at a loss, she said firmly: "Mr. Wade, although I am old, my brain is still working. Don't worry, I will definitely not forget your life-saving grace!"

Charlie knew that she didn't understand what she meant, so he smiled and said, "Old lady, the train is about to leave, you should rest early."

As soon as the voice fell, a trace of spiritual energy entered the old man's meridians, and the old man quickly fell asleep.

charlie got off the bus at this time and said to Xion who was waiting here, "Let's go Xion, let's go back to New York!"

In the darkness of night, charlie took a modified bulletproof Cadillac and drove into Ensenada Airport in Mexico.

In the car, apart from the driver arranged by Abbas, there were only charlie and Xion.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5058

At this moment, the wade family's Concorde was waiting at the end of the runway.

The slender fuselage and sci-fi shape make this plane look like a ghost.

This plane was arranged by charlie in advance and flew from China to Mexico to take him back.

Regardless of civil aviation or private aircraft, the turnover efficiency is too slow. Using this aircraft can reduce the overall flight time by half.

As soon as charlie's car appeared on the airport runway, the cabin door opened from the inside, and the two figures quickly got off the plane and waited respectfully in front of the boarding ladder.

These two people are charlie's right-hand man in Aurous Hill: the person in charge of Aurous Hill Shangri-La, Isaac Cameron; and Aurous Hill's underground world, Don Albertye.

Both of them came here on this plane from China at charlie's request, but the two of them didn't know at this time why charlie had to call them all the way to Mexico.

Seeing that the car that charlie was in was approaching, Don Albert couldn't help but ask Isaac Cameron in a low voice, "Mr. isaac, what do you think Master Wade wants us to come to Mexico this time?"

"How do I know..." Isaac Cameron shrugged his shoulders and said, "I just listened to the young master's instructions to let me get on this plane and come with you. As for the follow-up arrangements for the young master, I don't know."

Don Albert smacked his lips and said: "Tsk tsk, I see this posture, Master Wade seems to be planning to fly away overnight, I thought he wanted us to come to Mexico to do something, and he also said that he would stop by and eat Mexican ta , I quite like to eat that stuff, but it seems that the domestic ones are not very authentic, and food such as food has to be eaten in the place where it originated, in order to experience the real authentic taste.”

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, “Don’t worry about eating, I’ll arrange it when you’re done with what the young master has arranged!”

Speaking, Isaac Cameron reminded: “But you must be careful in a place like Mexico, be careful and be careful, this is not the country, let alone Aurous Hill, in a place like this, a teenage child on the side of the road carries it in his pocket. The real guy, as long as there is a disagreement, draw the gun and shoot.”

“F*ck.” Don Albert shrank his neck and waved his hand: “Then it’s a f*cking ball, I, Don Albertwu, is a person of honor in Aurous Hill anyway. If I was shot to death by a child in Mexico, then f*ck it. It’s just a shame.”

Isaac Cameron smiled and said, “Why, don’t eat ta?”

Don Albert pouted and said: “This thing is not a tortilla roll, it’s the same everywhere, I’ll go back to China to eat the improved fish-flavored shredded pork.”

While the two were talking, the Cadillac sedan that charlie was riding in had already driven up to him.

Isaac Cameron hurriedly stepped forward to open the car door and said respectfully, “Hello, young master!”

While talking, he saw Xion in the car, and quickly said, “Miss banks is here too!”

As he said that, he did not forget to give Don Albert a wink.

Don Albert was the most discerning, he walked around to the other side without hesitation, opened the car door on the other side, and said respectfully, “Hello Master Wade, hello Miss xion!”

Xion was not used to it, and said politely, “Hello don , hello Mr. isaac.”

charlie got out of the car and said to the two: “It’s hard for you to run a long way. You may have to do something in New York recently. I’m afraid that there are not enough people you can trust, so I called you here.”

Isaac Cameron said sternly: “Master, our duty is to serve you. How can this be considered hard work? It’s a matter of our own.”

Don Albert also laughed and said: “Yes, Master Wade, I, Don Albert, are a brick of your Master Wade. I can move it wherever I need it, and I am a brick with legs. As long as you need it, I can do it myself. run over here.”

charlie smiled and said, "Don Albert, without you during this time, in the field of Western art, I don't know how many works of human body calligraphy are missing because of this."

Don Albert grinned: "Master Wade, who is not afraid, I'm back here with a knife close to my body, so I can create new works anytime, anywhere!"

"Okay." charlie nodded and smiled, beckoned to the two and said, "Let's go, let's go up and talk!"
