

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5083

“What?! You are Bruce’s son?! This... how is this possible!”

Hearing charlie’s self-introduction, Li Yalin’s expression was extremely horrified!

He clearly remembered his conversation with Asher not long ago.

At that time, talking about the old man of the An family, talking about Asher’s sister, Asher also mentioned his nephew whose life and whereabouts are unknown.

He said that the entire Anjia traveled almost all over the world to find him.

But no matter what methods they tried, nothing could be found about him.

Even, many people believe that he must be dead, but his bones have not been found.

But the An family always felt that he must still be living somewhere in this world, but they just haven’t found him yet.

But Li Yalin never dreamed that he was resurrected from the dead, and the first person he saw when he opened his eyes was actually claiming to be Lydia (Ava)’s son.

This made Li Yalin, who was a police officer, the first thought to be to question first.

So he calmed down and analyzed: “Why do I think, I should be dead? At that time, I remembered that the elevator door had just opened, and a group of black armed men shot me from the elevator... The firepower of those bastards It was very fierce, and there was hardly any hesitation. Before I lost consciousness, I remembered that I was shot at least twenty or thirty times, and I was already fucking dead. Even the reincarnation of Da Luo Jinxian could not save me... ..”

After speaking, he widened his eyes and blurted out, “Damn, is this the world after death?!”

Thinking of this, he said without hesitation: “It turns out that people are in such a state after death... that they have been dreaming and floating in various strange environments... Then what will happen next? Is it to be reincarnated, Entering the next cycle?”

charlie couldn’t help but smiled and said, “I thought you were all materialistic police officers. I didn’t expect you, a famous Chinese detective, to have such a stupid idea.”

After speaking, charlie’s voice increased a bit, and he said loudly: “Li Yalin, listen carefully, you are not dead, its me who saved you.”

Li Yalin looked at charlie, waved his hand and said, "Impossible, absolutely impossible! I said it just now, I was shot so many times, I was already dead, and no one could save me... So you must be untrue. Yes! I have been a policeman all my life, so I can still understand the logic!"

charlie said lightly: "Yes, you were shot a lot, I was there at the time, your internal organs were basically shattered, and the body tissue fragments blasted off by bullets from your body, if they were shoveled together, they were weighed together. Said, at least there must be three or five pounds."

With that said, charlie took out his mobile phone, found the photo he took with him from a hidden folder, handed it to Li Yalin, and said lightly, "Look at it, this is what you looked like at the time."

Li Yalin took the phone nervously, looked down, and was taken aback by himself in the photo.

He has been handling cases for many years, and he has encountered countless corpses that died tragically.

But he is the only one who can be beaten into a sieve by so many guns and close range.

Seeing the photo, he was even more puzzled, and blurted out: "Damn, I've become like this bird. You tell me now, I'm not dead yet?! Do you think I'm so stupid?"

charlie pointed to his dead face in the photo, and said, "Come on, take a closer look at your face, do you find anything strange?"

Li Yalin looked down and saw that his tragic death was full of pain and unwillingness. He blurted out, "What's so strange about this? Are you trying to ask me why I look unwilling?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5084

As he spoke, before charlie could answer, Li Yalin said angrily, "Of course I'm not reconciled! I just found out that my daughter is pregnant! I was just about to go back to live with their mothers! As a result, I was killed before I even left the gym. Now, it's you, can you be reconciled?"

charlie shook his head and smiled, and said, "What I want you to see is that although your body was beaten into a sieve, your head was lucky not to be hit by a bullet. If a bullet hit your Tianling Gai at that time, , beat your brains out, then you will really die."

Li Yalin looked at charlie suspiciously: "What do you mean?"

charlie pointed at the towering freezing jars and smiled lightly: "Look carefully at the stainless steel jars around you, these are specially used for human body freezing, here you should focus on the No. 7 jar, because you are waking up It's been frozen in this jar before."

Li Yalin was speechless by the stainless steel tanks in front of him. He asked blankly, "Frozen? What does it mean?"

charlie smiled and said: "First of all, you are lucky. When you were attacked, there were so many dead people on the other side, and no one shot you in the head, so your brain survived;"

With that said, charlie pointed to Fei Kexin behind him, and said, "Secondly, you have to thank Miss Fei, if she hadn't taken you to the freezing center of the Fei family to freeze, your body would have already been frozen. rotted;"

Only then did Li Yalin notice that there were a few people standing behind charlie, and one of them was Fei Kexin from the Fei family!

"Hey..." Li Yalin gasped suddenly, looked at charlie dumbfounded, and asked, "But this isn't enough to make me survive, right? From a scientific point of view, no one can heal my injuries, and more What's more, I've never heard of a quilt, the scientific community can thaw a frozen person and wake up normally, they are all frozen first, and whether they can be thawed or not will be discussed later..."

After speaking, he suddenly realized: "Oh... I understand! I want to understand this time!"

Immediately afterwards, he said a little excitedly: "According to what you just said, I must still be in a frozen state, right? The reason why I am still conscious now is not because people still have souls after death, but because people still have souls after death. I was frozen, but my brain hasn't completely died, so all this, including you and Miss Fei, should have been imagined by me in that big jar with my brain."

After that, he pointed to the huge No. 7 tank and said firmly: "The real me, or my frozen body, should still be in that big tank, right?"

charlie laughed dumbly, turned to look at Fei Kexin and the others, and asked, "Is this so difficult to accept? After talking so much, he still can't tell the difference between fantasy and reality."

Unexpectedly, everyone nodded in a dazed but firm manner.

Don Albert murmured: "Master wade... If it's me, I may not be as good as him... This guy's words are a bit logical, he should sound smarter than me..."

As bystanders, they all felt that this incident was really incredible.

As a bystander, I can't accept all this in such a short time, let alone as a party.

Seeing everyone's jaw-dropping expressions, Charlie turned around helplessly, looked at Li Yalin, and said lightly: "Li Yalin, if you want to talk about science, let's talk about it from a scientific point of view. Do you think the human brain, after losing its blood supply, how long can you survive?"

Li Yalin said without hesitation: "Five minutes! Five minutes at most! I have worked as a criminal police detective for so many years, and I can be regarded as half a forensic doctor. If the human brain is deprived of oxygen for more than five minutes, it will basically cause irreversible major damage. More than five minutes, there is basically only one possibility of brain death, even if the body is rescued and the heartbeat and breathing are restored, after brain death, people will never be able to wake up, which is generally the case with vegetative people."

Charlie nodded and said: "Then think about it, you just met those militants, and then fell to the ground. Although I moved quickly at the time, I still managed to deal with those militants. It took two or three minutes, so half of your window has passed!"

"In this case, even if I have a freezer at hand and I can put you in it easily, it will take a long time for your brain to cool down from more than 30 degrees Celsius to below freezing point. When your brain is completely frozen, don't say five minutes, maybe fifteen minutes have passed."

"Not to mention, this frozen center is more than 100 kilometers away from New York City, and it takes half an hour to get there even by helicopter."

"So, even if you were able to send you over to freeze at the first time, you should have been brain-dead before you got here, how could you still retain your current consciousness?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5085

Charlie's words made Li Yalin fall into a trance.

He found that his two previous assumptions were somewhat contradictory at this moment.

First of all, if everything is real now, you cannot explain how you can survive being beaten into a sieve;

Secondly, if everything is just your own consciousness now, it can't explain how your brain can survive in that situation at that time.

After all, when the body loses its ability to supply blood, the brain will only last for five minutes at most. According to the situation at that time, it is impossible for him to keep his consciousness. Since he can't keep his consciousness, what is going on now?

Seeing his contemplative look, Charlie said lightly, "I'll tell you how you survived."

Having said this, Charlie paused for a moment, and then said, "After you were shot that day, I used my method to keep your brain from dying, so you could be brought here to freeze smoothly."

Li Yalin couldn't help but ask, "Your way? What way?"

Charlie hummed: "You don't need to know what the specific method is."

Li Yalin asked again: "Then how should I explain my injury? Even if you can save my brain, what about my body?"

Charlie said sternly: "This is the credit of Reshaping Dan. Its medicinal properties are that no matter how much damage your body suffers, it can reshape your body."

After speaking, Charlie said again: "You can check yourself to see if there are any signs of injury."

Li Yalin subconsciously tore off the cryogenic protective suit on his body, and when he looked down, there was no scar on his entire chest.

So, he couldn't help but ask: "I've been shot so many times, don't I even have a scar on my body?!"

"Yes." Charlie said lightly: "I said, this is the credit for Reshaping Dan."

"Reshaping Dan..." Li Yalin didn't buy this kind of mysterious thing at all, but he suddenly remembered a conversation he had with Asher in his mind.

At that time, Asher told him that in a mysterious auction, Asher offered a price of 300 billion US dollars for a medicine called Huichundan, but he was eventually sold by the other party. 's refusal.

Asher told him that Huichun Dan could not only cure all kinds of diseases, but could even prolong one's life span by ten or twenty years.

At that time, Li Yalin's first thought was also disbelief.

But when Asher explained it in detail, although he was still shocked, out of trust in his old friend, he also chose to believe it.

He pondered in his heart at this moment: "If in this world, there really is a magic medicine that can make people 20 years younger, then there is another magic medicine that can reshape people's bodies, and it seems that it is not difficult to accept..."

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but say: "Is this medicinal pill you mentioned the same thing as the legendary rejuvenation pill?!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5086

charlie smiled: "Oh, so you heard about Huichundan, did you hear it from my uncle?"

"Your uncle..." Li Yalin was stunned for a moment, then thought of charlie's self-introduction when he just woke up, he suddenly realized, and blurted out: "It was indeed Asher who told me..."

charlie nodded and asked with a smile, "Since he mentioned Huichundan to you, he must have also mentioned that he was kicked out by the organizer at the Huichundan auction?"

Li Yalin widened his eyes and blurted out, "You... how did you know?!"

"Of course I know." charlie smiled and said, "Because just like Reshaping Pill, Huichun Pill is also mine. The organizer behind the auction was me, and at the auction at that time, it was I who asked him to be kicked out."

Li Yalin was horrified and blurted out, "You know he is your uncle, why did you drive him out?"

charlie said lightly: "When I drove him out, I didn't know his real identity. He used a pseudonym at that time."

After speaking, charlie said again: "However, even if I know he is my uncle, I will still drive him out, because he broke the rules I set. Before the auction started, I had people repeatedly stressed it. No matter who shoots Huichundan, it must be taken on the spot and must not be taken away from the scene, but he wants to use money to challenge my rules, so I can only have him kicked out."

Li Yalin couldn't help sighing in a low voice: "So, I'm really not dead?!"

Thinking of this, he asked again, "I have another question. If you are really Lydia (Ava)'s son, then you know your identity and background. Why haven't you recognized your grandparents' family for so many years?"

charlie smiled slightly and asked, "What? You still question my identity until now?"

Li Yalin sat up slowly, looked at charlie, and said seriously: "I just think this matter is too strange, if you are really that charlie, the An family has been trying their best to find you, it is impossible to find you all the time. No, I remember you were only eight years old when you disappeared, no matter how capable you are, it is impossible to avoid the search of the An family at the age of eight..."

charlie smiled indifferently: "They couldn't find me, not because I hid well, but everyone who wanted to find me went in the wrong direction, everyone knew that I was missing in Aurous Hill, and they thought I had already left Aurous Hill, but they didn't know that, in fact, I have been in Aurous Hill for the next 20 years, maybe this is what people call darkness under the lights."

After speaking, charlie said again: "As for the question you asked me just now, why didn't i meet my grandparents, the answer is actually very simple, because I don't want to."

"Don't want to?" Li Yalin frowned, but he felt that charlie didn't want to be surprised, after all, he had also heard Asher say that the old man of the An family was not friendly to bruce, and it could even be said that he looked down on bruce. He, if he was charlie, grandpa always looked down on his father, and he probably didn't want to see him.

At this time, Li Yalin thought of something again, and quickly asked: "You said just now that you were there when I had an accident, so you should know that your grandparents' family was also there, and the group of people who killed me should have just ran to them, how are they now?!"

charlie said lightly: "I saved them, and almost all the killers who killed you were killed by me."

Li Yalin breathed a sigh of relief and asked again, "Is the An family all right?"

charlie said casually: "The surname An is fine, but my third aunt committed suicide by taking poison, because she and those killers are in the same group, and they are all minions of a mysterious organization."

Li Yalin asked dumbfounded: "What did you say?! This...how is this possible...Although Dong Liqin's family background is far less than that of your grandfather's family, her parents are also very powerful and rich among Chinese-Americans, worth at least 10 billion. Dollar, as the only daughter of the Dong family, how could she be controlled by some mysterious organization?"

charlie said lightly: "Even if her family's net worth is tens of billions of dollars, it is estimated that it is only a white glove of this organization, or even a chess piece. The power of this organization may be far beyond your imagination."

Having said that, charlie paused slightly and said, "This is a long story. I think you might as well change your clothes first. Let's change places and sit down and have a good chat!"
