

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5195 -

In the earphone, Abbas said to charlie, "Mr. Wade, can you be sure that the plane that flew to Sweden was to pick up people, not to send another group of people to Sweden to perform other tasks? I'm afraid they may still be in Sweden. Other actions."

charlie said, "I heard their conversation just now. This time they came not mainly to kill people, but to bring back some targets who are important to the organization, so they must have a safe enough retreat. route, and the plane they came with has now returned to avoid exposure, so I speculate that the plane that flew to Sweden was here to pick them up."

After speaking, charlie added, "Also, the European Union countries There are no border controls for land transportation between the two countries, and the convenience of driving is as simple as driving between two provinces in the country. However, although everyone is an EU country, law enforcement agencies each serve their own countries, so once they Arriving in Sweden will bring a lot of difficulties to the investigation of the Nordic police, and leaving the country from Sweden is a very perfect choice."

From the call of the other party just now, as well as the sequence of the two planes, charlie probably sorted out the eight people. next task.

They flew all the way to northern Europe to capture someone who was extremely important to the organization.

The route they arranged was to enter Northern Europe and leave Sweden.

After they complete the stealing from Bergen and capture the target, they will drive more than 600 kilometers to Sweden, and take a flight from Sweden.

Just another Boeing 777 took off from Nigeria, and when the plane landed in Sweden, these people should be able to make it to Sweden.

Abbas said at this time, "Mr. Wade, my subordinates feel that we still have a window of seven or eight hours to make rapid deployment. If we send people to Sweden now, we will keep an eye on the plane from Nigeria to Sweden. , you should be able to figure out their specific context, maybe you can follow the clues and find the specific location of one of their bases!"

charlie smiled slightly, stared at the eight killers sneaking in the dark, and said, "It's not necessary to go to their bases for now, and now the clues of these six planes are a huge advantage for us, as long as we don't fight these six Don't follow these six planes to their base, they won't realize that there is a problem with these six planes."

charlie knew very well that even if he killed these eight killers in Bergen , Abbas can also continue to make a fuss on that plane.

After all, as long as it flies out, even if it can't receive anyone, it will definitely go back. Maybe it can really find some information.

However, Charlie did not plan to do anything about the six Boeing 777s of Yuantai International Express for the time being.

He said to Abbas, "In my opinion, these six Boeing 777s are equivalent to six telephone lines that the enemy has exposed but still doesn't know about, just like the communication code was deciphered by the enemy during the war, as long as the other party is not aware of it. When the communication password has been deciphered, we will continue to use this password, so that we can find out the specific actions of the other party without any contact with the other party, as long as we can ensure accurate strikes every time, They won't realize which link went wrong."

Li Yalin also agreed at this time and said, "I agree with Young Master Wade, there is really no need to take the initiative to attack now. The previous time in New York, Young Master Wade had already let this The organization suffered a big loss, and it just so happened that Young Master Wade did not get any news in advance through any channels, so they will also seek truth from facts. The reason for the failure last time was not because of early exposure, but because the opponent was too strong ;"

"If Young Master Wade can repeat the old tricks this time, it will only make the managers of this organization suspect that their strength has not kept up with the development of the outside world, but it will never make them think that their transportation channels have been exposed. Come, we can use the clues of these six planes in the future to continue to snip them accurately! Come a few more times, I'm afraid it will make them doubt their lives!"

Charlie smiled and said, "Inspector Li and I have thought of it together. Now I just want to follow this clue and seize the opportunity to teach them a few more lessons. Once they frequently encounter the failure of the group destruction, they will not only doubt their life, but also for a long time in the future, he will lack self-confidence and be constrained."

Having said that, Charlie's expression froze, and he said coldly, "Although I have never seen their so-called hero, but from the description of May 47, I don't think so. It is difficult to analyze the character of this person, this person must be extremely confident and conceited, and since his strength is indeed strong enough, he should rarely suffer defeat, so before meeting him, I want this extremely conceited person to be forced to recognize a The eternal truth is that there are people outside people, and there are heavens outside!"

Psychological warfare has always been a point that charlie attached great importance to.

In the earliest days, in front of Zhou Tianhao and his wife, he completely flattened the entire Tianhao Building Materials Group, in order to completely destroy their hearts.

Asking Don Albert to engrave on the foreheads of Mr. Lloyd and Marcus and his son is also a means of killing people.

And his arrogant aunt Cynthia Wade, whose eyes were higher than the top, was also smoothed out by him in the urban village.

EyeNext, although he still lacks understanding of this mysterious organization, he has made up his mind to play with this organization slowly, first let the controllers behind this organization collapse, and then completely flatten this organization!

At this time, the eight killers with guns and live ammunition were still sneaking on foot in the dark.

The speed of these people's attacks was fast enough, and they hardly made any sound. It can be seen that the strength of these people is quite impressive.

If the weapons aside, their personal strength is obviously much stronger than that of May 47 and the others. Although they are not practicing martial arts, their strength is not inferior to that of six-star warriors.

charlie followed them several hundred meters away, and followed them up a relatively gentle hill.

After climbing to the top of the hill, a set of two-story country villas with lights appeared on the side of the road about a kilometer ahead.

With his superior vision and extraordinary vision, charlie could already see a few American pickup trucks parked in the yard in front of the country villa, and several figures were constantly moving various kinds from the villa. Luggage items on the car, it seems a little rushed.

At the same time, the eight killers also gradually slowed down. After they communicated with gestures, the eight people split into two groups, three of them stayed in place, and the other five quickly circled around to the other side of the villa. side, planning to attack from left to right.

The people outside the villa who were busy moving things didn't know anything about the enemy who was already close at hand.

An old man with an Asian face was standing outside the door at this time, instructing everyone to load different items into different vehicles, and at the same time urging with a serious expression, "Everyone is faster, we must start before dawn!"

At this time, there was still more than an hour left before dawn.

The old man looked at the time, anxiously returned to the villa, knocked lightly on the door of the study on the first floor, and said respectfully, "Miss."

A very young, even a little immature girl's voice came from inside, "Come in. Right." The old man said respectfully, "Yes, miss!"

After speaking, he gently opened the door.

Although this villa looks like a western detached house as a whole, the interior decoration is very Chinese antique.

In the study, a young girl with a very beautiful appearance and a skin that can be broken by bullets is sitting in front of a set of top Hainan Huanghuali desks, holding a yellowed ancient book and reading it.

The little girl is extremely delicate, not to mention her facial features can't be faulted, even her slender and curved eyelashes are perfect.

And she is wearing a Chinese-style crepe color embroidered dress, with a set of exquisite cloud shoulders embroidered with auspicious clouds in all directions, which has a full classical charm. It can be seen that she should be a fan of Hanfu culture.

As the old man entered the door, the girl put down the book in her hand, looked at the old man and asked, "Are you all packed?"

"Miss Hui, not yet." But it should be no problem to set off before dawn." The girl's expression was a little depressed, and she sighed, "Why don't you bring those blue and white porcelain, I'm ashamed to say, if I wasn't obsessed with these things, we wouldn't be in danger of leaking..." The old man With a slight smile, he said, "Miss, they are all your favorites. It won't take long to pack them up, and it won't delay the time you set."

“Okay...” The girl nodded slightly, a little melancholy. “I’m really reluctant to be here. I’m afraid I’ll never have a chance to come back after leaving.”

The old man quickly comforted and said, “Miss, when you settle down in the new place, the old slave will definitely help you build a new farm. If you like it, it’s no problem to completely reproduce the look here.”

“Okay.” The girl smiled slightly. He said, “Then next time, I will try to raise a few Jersey cows. I feel that the cows are small, naive, and very cute.” The old man nodded and smiled and said, “Okay! When it comes to the Russian Far East, the old slave will definitely raise it for you. Some of the best Jersey cows!” The girl laughed, “I just don’t know if the climate is suitable there.” The old man smiled and said, “It should be no problem. When winter comes, I will keep the cows indoors, as long as the grass is prepared. That’s alright. “

“Okay.” The girl nodded and said, “I’ve been restless for the past two days, so I’ll make a divination.”

Then, she opened the drawer of the desk and took out nine different pieces from it. of copper coins.

Afterwards, she divided the nine copper coins into three rows on the table, and then grabbed the first one in the first row, the second one in the second row, and the third one in the third row with her slender hand.

Then, she closed her eyes again, muttering something in her mouth, and threw the three copper coins on the table.

The girl opened her eyes, saw the three coins, and exclaimed, “The doom I calculated the day before has already come...” The old man exclaimed, “So soon?!”

” To the remaining six copper coins.

At this time, the previous nine coins had just been taken away by the girl on the diagonal line from the upper left to the lower right, and the remaining six coins showed two triangles at the lower left and upper right.

She grabbed the three copper coins at the bottom left, and hurriedly threw them on the table. She said with an even more horrified expression, "The hexagram is extremely bloody, and there will be killings today..."

Speaking of which, she couldn't help but mutter, "That's not right... I The hexagrams started last night, and although the hexagrams indicated that I was bound to be doomed, it was a near miss..."

After all, she quickly grabbed the remaining three coins and threw them on the table.

However, due to nervousness, one of the three copper coins slipped from the table to the ground due to excessive force. After the girl saw the two coins on the table, she was about to get up to see clearly what was on the ground. Suddenly, someone outside screamed and shouted, "Quick! There is a killer!"

Immediately afterwards, the sound of bullets venting and being shot in all directions was heard.

The old man's expression suddenly froze, and he blurted out, "Miss... they're here..."

girl's expression couldn't help but be extremely horrified. She was about to see the last copper coin, but the old man had already pulled out a pistol from his waist and stepped back. She stood in front of her and said with a stern expression, "Miss, don't worry, as long as this old servant is still alive, he will protect you with all his might!" As soon as he finished speaking, he heard footsteps approaching gradually, and many bullets even hit him. on the wall of the study.

Immediately afterwards, the door of the study was suddenly kicked open, and several men in black with carbines rushed in quickly.

Without hesitation, the old man immediately shot at the man in charge, but the man in charge easily dodged the bullet fired by the opponent's muzzle, then rushed forward, grabbed the wrist of the old man holding the gun, and made the old man unable to move.

Immediately afterwards, a cruel smile appeared on the face of the man in the lead, and the other hand suddenly took out a dagger from nowhere, raising his hand and preparing to cut off the old man's arm at the root.

The girl hurriedly said loudly, "You can do whatever you want. Take it, just don't touch my grandpa! The headed man looked at the girl with a sneer and said, "Sorry little girl, we are not here to rob, we are here to take you two away." There was a trace of panic in the girl's expression, but she pretended to be calm and said, "We are just ordinary people, we don't have much money and we don't have much money. Kidnapping us will not bring you any benefits..." The leader smiled. He said, "Little girl, when I came in just now, I found that the bowls you feed the cats are Yuan blue and white from the official kiln. The blue and white porcelain in this house alone is worth at least several hundred million dollars, right? Do you really think that I don't know anything and will be played around by you, a hairy girl? When the girl heard this, she said without hesitation, "Since you know the goods, then take all those blue and white porcelains away, just let me and my grandfather live together!" "The headed man said coldly, "Don't worry, I won't kill you, because the order I got is to bring you two back alive!" " Once the old man heard this, he quickly said, "Okay! It's hard for me to go with you. My granddaughter is still young, so you should raise your hand and let her go! "The headed man smiled disdainfully, "Old man, everyone outside of you is dead, what qualifications do you have to negotiate with me?" Having said that, his expression instantly changed to a look of reverence, and he said reverently, "The British Lord has a destiny, I want you two to live to see him!" Remember, this is an honor for both of you! Even I have no chance to see the true face of Yingzhu! Speaking of which, he suddenly couldn't hide his excited smile and said, "But thanks to the two of you this time, maybe after I make a great contribution, I will have the opportunity to meet the British Lord!"

At this moment, a stern voice suddenly came from outside the door, "I'm sorry, you don't have this chance! " "
