

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5377 -

In Aurous Hill, there are almost no resources that charlie cannot adjust.

Hotel, wedding dress, motorcade, the three most important elements of a wedding, charlie can give Zayne and Kairi the best in Aurous Hill.

It was also with charlie's support that Zayne and Kairi felt relieved about the timeline for their wedding on August 8th.

Zayne knelt on the ground to express his gratitude, charlie stopped him, and said, "You can start drawing up the guest list for the wedding banquet now. In theory, I will not interfere with anyone you invite, but there is one The premise is that the words of the people you invite here must be basically controllable."

charlie looked at Kairi and said frankly, "After all, Ms. Elms has regenerated from a severed limb. Once this kind of thing is exposed, I am afraid it will set off a storm in the medical field. In the turbulent sea, the inexplicable self-healing of advanced cancer is rare in the history of medicine, but it does happen occasionally, but the regeneration of severed limbs has never occurred in the entire history of human medicine. Therefore, I hope that the guests at your banquet, I can keep my mouth shut about this matter."

Kairi said respectfully, "Mr. Wade, since I lost my right arm, I have returned to my hometown in Mocheng, Northeast China, and silently gave birth to Xion, and spent all day in the Elms family compound. I live in seclusion, except for the Elms family and the Banks family, almost no one knows about my broken arm, and almost no outsiders know me."

Zayne also said respectfully, "Please rest assured, Mr. Wade, I will not invite some miscellaneous friends Come to my wedding with Kairi, besides you and your confidantes, I only invite the Banks family to be present to witness."

"Okay." charlie nodded and said, "In that case, I will send someone to accompany you Before the wedding, bring the old man of the Banks family and your son Fitz to Aurous Hill."

After speaking, charlie said again, "But I want to say something ugly, the two of them came from Madagascar after attending your wedding. If you are going to go back to Madagascar, if you kowtow on the road, you still have to go back and continue your pilgrimage."

Zayne nodded, and said respectfully, "Everything is according to Mr. Wade's arrangement!"

charlie thought of something, and said again, "By the way, when are you going to get the certificate? Before the wedding, or after the wedding?"

Zayne thought for a moment, and then said, "If possible, it should be before the marriage. If Mr. Wade allows me to leave here, then I will just take half a day to go back to Eastcliff with Kairi to get the certificate."

After speaking, he quickly added, "It doesn't matter if Mr. Wade thinks it's not suitable, we can make it up after marriage."

charlie said lightly, "Go ahead . . . Most people get the certificate first and then hold the wedding. Since you have this idea, I naturally support it."

Zayne said gratefully, "Thank you, Mr. Wade, I will arrange the plane and time, and go back quickly."

charlie nodded, He looked at Xion again, and said, "Xion, during this period of time, you should go talk to Isaac Cameron about the preparations for the wedding. If you need any help, you can find him. Miss Jasmine moore, I'll get you one later.", let her help you with the wedding dress, if you need my help, please contact me at any time."

Xion hurriedly said, "Thank you, Mr. Wade!"

charlie said calmly, "You and I, you don't have to be polite. "

Xion's heart warmed up, and at the same time, a sense of joy welled up spontaneously.

charlie said at this time, "You will be very busy in the next week, so I won't bother you much."

Seeing that charlie was about to leave, Xion quickly said, "Mr. Wade, Xion still has something to ask for. Your consent..."

charlie asked, "What are you talking about."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5378 -

Xion explained, "When I was in the United States, Ms. Ito told me in private that her father and my mother were all favored by you. I can become a person with sound limbs again. If my parents hold a wedding in the future, I hope to invite her and her father to attend the wedding, you see..."

"Nanako..." charlie didn't think too much when he heard this, Then he said bluntly, "Since she said so, whether to invite or not, it's up to you to decide."

Xion nodded slightly, and said, "Then I'll call her later."

Although Xion knew that Nanako Ito wanted to attend her parents' wedding, most likely she wanted to take this opportunity to meet charlie.

But she also knew very well in her heart that Charlie's affection for Nanako was far more than that for herself.

I can't and shouldn't deliberately avoid this matter just because the two will meet.

Since Charlie had no objection to this, he generously invited Ito Nanako and her father Ito Yuhiko to Aurous Hill to attend their parents' wedding later on.

At this moment, Kyoto, Japan.

When Ito Yuhiko returned from the United States, he did not choose to go to Tokyo, but went directly to the Ito family's mansion in Kyoto.

This house has a very special meaning to him and Nanako.

This is the first mansion in the true sense that Takehiko Ito bought after his rise in life, and it was his life that entered into glory.

And this is the place where Nanako Ito ushered in her rebirth after being seriously injured, and it is the biggest testimony of her feelings for Charlie.

This time Ito Yuhiko was able to grow his legs again, which gave him a new understanding of life.

Now, he not only lost the desire to win and lose in the mall, but also lost the sense of decadence after the amputation.

Right now, he only feels that life is too good. He just wants to spend every day with his family happily and without regrets. As for everything else, it has become less important.

And Nanako Ito also had a new epiphany.

After taking over the Ito family, she has been working selflessly as a strong woman, for fear that the Ito family will be lonely in her hands and let her father down.

But after returning from the United States this time, she realized that her father no longer cared about business and money, and she herself was not really interested in these things. In this case, there was no need to wrong herself too much. Staying in Kyoto not only makes me happy, but also stays with my father, which is much more comfortable than staying in Tokyo, a metropolis full of tall buildings.

While Ito Yuhiko is here, he can live with confidence and boldness as a healthy person. The servants who can appear here are also his confidantes, so there is no need to worry about the rebirth of severed limbs.

At this moment, Ito Yuhiko is in the courtyard where Ito Nanako and Charlie walked in the snow, practicing swordsmanship with Tanaka Hiroshi. The master and servant have always been obsessed with kendo. Finally recovered, and naturally picked up this hobby again.

Nanako Ito, on the other hand, was sitting in a Japanese-style room with an open wooden door next to the yard. A delicate wooden table was set up on the tatami. After they are carefully matched, they are carefully inserted into the bottle.

In the courtyard, the sound of the master and the servant chopping each other with wooden swords and shouting echoed. Not only did Nanako Ito not find it too chaotic, but she often pulled out her energy and watched the two of them discussing each other with great interest.

At this moment, her mobile phone suddenly vibrated under the table. She looked down and saw that it was Xion who was calling. A happy smile appeared on her face, and she shouted loudly to the two people in the yard. "Odo-san, Tanaka-san, stop for a while! We may have to prepare to go to China!"

Hearing Ito Nanako's words, Ito Yuhiko stopped what he was doing, leaned on his sword and asked out of breath, "Nanako, what are you talking about? Going to China?"

"Yes!" Ito Nanako said with a smile, "Wait a minute, I'll answer the call."

Yuhiko Ito was even more surprised, thinking that Nanako Ito had received a call from someone, so she said that she was going to China, but she didn't expect that the call hadn't been answered yet.

Nanako Ito answered the phone, and Xion on the other side asked, "Miss Ito, you called suddenly, didn't bother you?"

"Hua, what's the matter with Miss Banks calling?"

Xion got straight to the point, "It's about my parents' wedding."

Nanako Ito asked in surprise, "Are your parents finally getting married?"

"Yes." Xion said truthfully, "Mr. Wade has just been here, and my parents' wedding date has been confirmed as August 8th. I sincerely invite Ms. Ito and Mr. Ito to Aurous Hill to attend their wedding!"

Nanako Ito said without hesitation, "Great! Congratulations in advance to uncles and aunts who have lovers and get married! My father and I must arrive in Aurous Hill before August 8th!"

Xion said with a smile, "Thank you very much! My parents' wedding will be held at the Shangri-La Palace Hotel, if it is convenient for Ms. Ito, you can stay at Shangri-La Palace then, tell me your departure time, and I will help you arrange the pick-up and room in advance."

"Okay!" Nanako Ito said with a smile in her heart, "See you in Aurous Hill then!"

Xion also said, "Okay, see you in Aurous Hill!"

Nanako Ito suddenly remembered something, and quickly said, "By the way, Miss banks, if you need to arrange flowers on site, why not let me do it for you. I have learned flower arranging for many years, so I am not modest. I have some experience in this area, and I can order the best flowers in Japan, and then I can directly prepare flowers from Japan and bring them over to help you decorate the scene!"

Xion knows Japanese flower arrangement very well, and knows that it is deeply cultivated as an art in Japan. Nanako Ito is a lady who has studied flower arrangement for many years. Her understanding of flower arrangement must be extremely profound, and she is by no means a wedding company florist No florist can match.

So, she said in surprise, "Really, Miss Ito, will this cause you too much trouble?"

"No." Nanako Ito said with a smile, "To tell you the truth, I like it when I am free. Flower arrangement, including the arrangement of flowers and plants now, if you can rest assured to entrust me with all the flower arrangements on site, I will definitely not let you down."

Xion said almost without hesitation, "That's really great! Thank you, Ms. Ito!"

Nanako Ito smiled and said, "Miss banks, you are welcome. If you have a sketch of the scene layout in the past two days, remember to send it to me. I will refer to the style of the scene and make a flower arrangement."

"Okay, okay!" Xion hurriedly said, "I'll send it to you as soon as the plan comes out!"

"No problem!" After hanging up the phone, Nanako Ito cheered, "Odo-san, I'm going to Aurous Hill to participate in the Soviet Union on August 8. Miss banks's parents' wedding, I promised Miss banks that I would do on-site flower arrangements for her parents, and it would be best if we could go there earlier, why don't we leave on the 5th!"

Ito Yuhiko saw Ito Nanako was very happy, and he was very pleased, so he went. She smiled and said, "I'll follow your arrangement. I'll go whenever you tell me to go!"

Ito Nanako blurted out, "Then it's settled, let's go on the 5th!"

After that, she said again, "That's right. Odo-san, can you come back later? I want to stay in Aurous Hill for a few more days."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5380 -

Ito Yuhiko nodded, "It's up to you."

Ito Nanako said happily, "Then it's a deal!"

Ito Yuhiko asked her, "Since If you want to stay longer, do you want to buy a house in Aurous Hill? If you stay in a hotel all the time, I'm afraid it will be too boring."

Nanako Ito asked him with wide-eyed eyes, "Is it okay, Odo-san? Can we buy a house in Aurous Hill?" Yuhiko

Ito shook his head helplessly, "You are the head of the Ito family, so you have the final say on how the money is spent? "

"That's great!" Ito Nanako hurriedly said to Tanaka Koichi, "Tanaka-san, if you have nothing to do, why not leave for Aurous Hill tomorrow morning and find a suitable house first!"

Tanaka Koichi said without hesitation, "No problem, miss, I will leave early tomorrow morning."

After that, he asked again, "By the way, Miss, do you have any requirements for the house?"

Ito Nanako thought about it, and said, "It's bigger, quieter, and it doesn't matter if it's remote. I can't find Aurous Hill, but I don't want that kind of magnificent decoration, it's better to be simple and generous, you can buy a few cars by the way, and choose a few servants who are proficient in Chinese from home to take care of it."

Tanaka Hao nodded and said, " Okay miss, then I will choose a good person to take with me this time. After choosing the house, if you need to make any changes, you can start doing it right away."

Nanako Ito instructed, "Arrange a private jet, a full mask and sunglasses, In your current situation, you should minimize your exposure. In addition, after you arrive in Aurous Hill, you can go to work by yourself and don't bother charlie." Koichi

Tanaka respectfully said, "Okay miss, I will pay attention."

Nanako Ito stood upHe turned around and said excitedly, "Then my father and I will wait for your good news in Kyoto!" After that, he turned around and ran out.

Ito Yuhiko asked loudly from behind, "Nanako, where are you going now?" Ito Nanako said without looking back, "I'm going to the Kinkakuji Temple, and ask for an omamori for Charlie!"

The talisman can almost draw an equal sign.

Ito Yuhiko murmured, "This silly boy, Mr. Wade has great powers, why would he need the guardian of the Kinkakuji Temple... The guardian that the Kinkakuji asked for is probably not even qualified to carry Mr. Wade's shoes. How can the amulet in the temple protect the Monkey King..."

Koichi Tanaka deliberately lowered his voice and said, "My lord, you may not know that the guardian of the Golden Pavilion is actually a token of love for girls. I only ask for the guardian there for my sweetheart..."

"Really?" Ito Yuhiko asked in surprise, "Don't family members have this qualification?"

Hiroshi Tanaka smiled and said, "Young people think that the guardian of Kinkakuji represents marriage, and can be helpful in marriage, if it is for family members, then change to other temples."

Ito Yuhiko was slightly startled, and said with a helpless smile, "It's really a girl who doesn't want to stay."

After saying that, he suddenly remembered something, nervous. Looking at Koichi Tanaka, he asked, "Tanaka, Nanako is going to buy a house in Aoyama Hill. She won't suddenly decide to settle in China, right?"

"I think what you said is also possible... Although Mr. Wade is married, I can see that he has a very special feeling for Miss... Given some time, maybe he and Miss can reach a positive result."

"Hey..." Ito Yuhiko sighed. The tone is "If she can really get what she wants, no matter where she settles in the future, I will support..."
