

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5621 -

Hearing the voice of the hero questioning, everyone's expressions were terrified.

Willie spoke first, and said respectfully, "Back to the Lord, my subordinates are investigating in Eastcliff. There are no clear clues yet, but my subordinates believe that there will be gains in China." The Lord asked coldly, "Do you still think Lin Waner (Alani) is most likely to escape back to China?"

"Yes!" Willie replied, "My subordinates think that Lin Waner (Alani) should be in China." The Lord asked him, "Why are you so sure?"

After analyzing Lin Wan'er's current situation, for her, choosing a deserted place with a large area and few people to hide seems to be the best choice, but the subordinates think that she has already failed once in Northern Europe, so this time, She will definitely do the opposite and go to the place with the most people, and as the saying goes, a hermit hides in the city, and Lin Waner (Alani) is also Chinese, so hiding in China is definitely the best choice for her." The hero was silent for a moment, then spoke Said, "This witch is more cunning than a fox, and I can't figure her out. Uncle Mason, let's do it according to his intuition." Uncle Mason clasped his fists respectfully, "Your subordinates obey!"

The Lord said again, "That's right, Now that you have arrived in China, take the time to go to Aurous Hill."

"To Aurous Hill?" Willie asked, "I don't know what the Lord has ordered?"

The Lord said coldly, "Although bruce and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) were together Aurous Hill was beheaded by you, but the whereabouts of their two sons have been unknown. As the saying goes, weeds must be eradicated, but that incident made too much noise back then, and the relatives and friends of the couple were all looking for that boy I didn't ask you to chase after him again, but for some reason recently, the more I thought about it, the more uneasy I felt. If you can find out the whereabouts of that kid, you don't need to report to me, just kill him !"

Willie's expression was bleak, and he said with shame on his face, "My lord, after killing bruce and his wife, I immediately went to the school where his two children are, trying to kill the grass, but in the end It was still a step too late, when this subordinate arrived, he had already been taken first, and asked the Lord to punish him..."

Yingzhu said, "I'm not trying to settle accounts after the fall, but this matter really makes me feel uneasy. You must find him when you go this time!" Willie immediately said in a respectful and respectful voice, "Don't worry, Yingzhu, this subordinate must find a way Find that kid and kill him with your own hands!"

The Lord said with emotion, "If that kid is still alive, he would be almost 30 years old now!"

Willie nodded, "If my subordinates remember correctly, Bruce and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) were beheaded by their subordinates, their sons should have just turned eight years old."

"Eight years old..." the Lord Ying murmured, "Twenty years have passed, so he is now twenty-eight years old. Already."

Willie respectfully said, "The Lord of England is wise!"

The Lord of England said coldly, "Uncle Willie, if he is still alive, don't let him live past thirty!"

Willie said loudly without thinking, "Ying Ying Lord, rest assured, as long as he is still alive, his subordinates will definitely kill him within two years! If he is already dead, his subordinates will also dig out his bones and present them to the British Lord!" "Okay!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5622 -

" After the success, Mason Boding will record a great achievement!"

Afterwards, Sean who was in New York said, "My lord, my subordinates are investigating clues related to Anjia in New York, but the venue for the performance that day has been bought by Anjia. Now, it has been completely overthrown and rebuilt. The subordinates sneaked into the scene and found no valuable clues. If you want to know how An's family escaped from danger that day and the whereabouts of those dead, it is estimated that you should make a fuss about An's family. "

The Lord Ying said coldly, "The hidden strength of the An family should be much stronger than what we know. I even suspect that there is a high probability that the An family will also be protected by a master who is proficient in aura, and after the last failure, we have already scared the snake. Line, you must be careful and careful."

Uncle Sean immediately said, "Your subordinate obeys orders!"

Russell Uncle Ou Bojun saw that Willie and Uncle Sean had finished reporting, and said respectfully, "My lord, my subordinates are currently investigating in Aosu City. There is no clue about the disappearance of Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand), but there is no progress so far, please punish the hero!"

Yingzhu said, "The murderer in New York and the disappearance of the Nordic knights should be the same person or the same organization behind the scenes. The other party is powerful and cautious. It is not so easy to investigate clearly. "

After that, the British Lord said again, "I think, compared with these two defeats, the more important issue is that they seem to know our movements very well. Those two missions are top secret among top secrets. Even the four of you didn't tell, but the other party was able to know in advance and accurately sniped, proving that someone from the other party must have infiltrated us." Russell and Ou Bojun slandered in his heart, "Actually, the last time

Lin Wan'er appeared in Northern Europe, the British lord transferred us from Cyprus. Sending troops, why not send any one of the four of us there, in that case, not only can Lin Wan'er be captured alive, but also the mysterious force that secretly targets the Qing Dynasty will be caught, killing two birds with one stone! I don't know why this old guy let us go The four of us don't need it, so we have to send a group of cavalry guards to carry out such an important task!"

Thinking of this, he immediately said, "My lord, if there is news of Lin Wan'er next time, I'm willing to go there with all my might!" The lord didn't Talking, but waited for a few seconds before directly changing the subject, and said, "I think it is impossible for you to find any clues in Northern Europe, so why not go back to the source and see where we leaked the news. "

Uncle Russell was slightly stunned for a moment, he didn't understand at first, why the British LordHe turned a blind eye to his loyal attitude, but at this moment, he suddenly realized that he seemed to have made a big mistake!

He thought anxiously in his heart, "The reason why the British Lord didn't let the four of us catch Lin Wan'er was because he didn't want us to have too much contact with Lin Wan'er, and he was even worried that we would get the ring that he dreamed of getting. Isn't it just asking for trouble?"

Fortunately, the hero just changed the subject and didn't say much to him, so he hurriedly said flatteringly, "The hero is wise, since the whereabouts of those people can't be found. , then the subordinates will go to investigate, and what is wrong with many of these links!" The British Lord said coldly, "You will set off for Italy tomorrow, and go to the Governor of the Right Army to meet the Governor of the Right Army, Shutong. For Lin Wan'er's actions, I directly conveyed the secret order to him, and he is responsible for carrying it out. I don't doubt his sincerity, but I doubt whether his subordinates will leak the news to the outside world. You must check it out this time. What is the problem?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5623 -

Uncle Russell said without hesitation, "Don't worry, my lord, my subordinates will do my best!"

At this time, Yun Ruge also said, "My lord, my subordinates will land in Yakutsk in three hours. , the subordinates will start from Yakutsk first, find out the situation in the Far East, and see if Lin Waner (Alani) is hiding here." The British Lord hummed, and said, "The main task of you and Willie is to find Lin Wan'er got clues, so she must communicate with each other frequently, and if there is any trouble, she must tell me immediately."

Yun Ruge said without thinking, "Good hero!"

At this moment, the hero said again, "Okay, what I want to say That's all, I hope you all can go all out and send back the good news as soon as possible, whether it's catching Lin Wan'er or finding the enemy behind the scenes, I will give you a lot of rewards!" Almost at the same time, the four counts clasped their fists and said respectfully to the camera,

" Thank you, Lord Ying!"

The next day, the sky in northern Europe just brightened.

Russell Ou Bojun just opened his eyes when he received a message from a stranger.

The text message was only a few words, and it said Naples.

Ou Bojun knew that these four characters must be the location of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army.

Even if it wasn't, it should be the first stop on the way to the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army.

It's a bit sad to say that even Ober-Jun, who is one of the four Earls, doesn't know the exact location of the Right Army's Governor's Mansion, as well as the internal personnel structure.

In the Qing Dynasty, although the four earls were said to be second only to the British Lord, they were limited to their personal strength.

Although the British Lord attaches great importance to the four earls, and has been holding them in front of other people in the Qing Dynasty, and even gave them a lot of pills and materials to improve their cultivation, but in fact, he has been deliberately controlling them. The rights of the four earls in the Qing Dynasty will hardly give them the right to directly control any large-scale and organized organization of the Qing Dynasty.

Neither the dead soldiers, nor the knight guards, nor the overriding five-army governor's mansion obeyed any orders from the four earls.

And the real confidants of the British Lord are not the four earls, but the governors of the five armies.

The structure of the five-army governor's mansion is the real core of the Qing Dynasty. Under each governor's mansion, there are a large number of personnel, industries, materials, weapons, and money.

Under each Dudu's mansion, there is at least one garrison of dead soldiers, thousands of dead soldiers, hundreds of knights, several Jiedu envoys and special envoys.

In addition, there are many expatriates, like Feng Zidong (Dax)'s parents, who have been dispatched all over the world, and many special service personnel, like Charlie's third aunt, who have been placed in various countries and fields in a normal capacity.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5624 -

Without the four Earls, the Poqinghui would only be missing four super masters with peak strength, but without the Fifth Army Commander's Mansion, the Poqinghui would be like losing its hands and feet.

Therefore, the British lord himself controlled the five-army governor's mansion, and even kept guard against the four earls, and didn't want them to know too much about the five-army commander-in-chief's mansion.

Therefore, the four of Oberjun and the others may be said to be the Four Earls, but they are actually the four mascots of the Qing Dynasty.

At this time, Oberjun didn't dare to have any delays. He hurriedly got up and left the hotel, called a business jet general aviation company, and rented a Gulfstream plane at a price of 30,000 euros, and flew directly from Osu City to Naples, a city in southern Italy. .

During the flight, Oberjun has been analyzing the current situation of the Qing Dynasty and the current difficulties of the British Lord.

As the four earls, he actually had many questions that he couldn't figure out.

Firstly, he couldn't figure out why the British lord was so obsessed with Lin Wan'er; secondly, he couldn't understand how magical Lin Waner (Alani)'s so-called ring could make the British lord so obsessed;

I had photographed Willie killing Bruce and his wife a few years ago, why he still couldn't forget An's family, and even killed An's family suddenly after 20 years; I couldn't figure out why the British Lord suddenly asked Willie to look for him. The whereabouts of Bruce's son.

However, although there are so many problems that he didn't understand, he has noticed an obvious change through these situations, that is, the Lord of England is now relying more on the four earls, and he has gradually begun to have more defenses against them than before. got loose.

Therefore, in Oberjun's view, no matter whether he can take advantage of the opportunity to make meritorious service, his future situation will be much better.

After a three-hour flight, Oberjun's plane landed at Naples Airport.

This is the first time he has come to this city, but he has already heard about this city, which also benefits from the fact that football legend Maradona once played for Naples Football Club.

At this moment, at the Naples airport, his eyes were darkened, he didn't know where to go, and he didn't know who to turn to.

He had been waiting for the phone to ring, but until the moment he walked out of the airport, he still hadn't received any message.

At this time, a middle-aged man stepped up to him and said respectfully, "Uncle Russell, you have worked hard all the way, please follow me."

Looking at the person coming, Ou Bojun asked, "Who is your name, where are you?" What is the identity of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army?"

The man hurriedly said, "Uncle Russell, his subordinate is Yuan Chengze (Andre), the general of the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army!"

Ou Bojun nodded slightly, and said, "Then, General Yuan Shen will lead the way.

" When he said this, he was sighing in his heart, "What is the gap? This is the fucking gap. As one of the four earls, I came to this place and didn't know where to go or who to look for. But people know all my whereabouts, British Lord, British Lord, you guard us like you are guarding against thieves."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5625 -

Yuan Chengze (Andre) took Oberjun into a Maybach with a local license plate, Yuan Chengze (Andre) drove himself, and drove Oberjun to Downtown Naples.

While driving, Yuan Chengze (Andre) asked Ou Bojun, "Uncle Russell, have you ever been to Naples?" "

No." Yuan Chengze (Andre) shook his head, "This is the first time.

" Take a good look around Naples."

Au Bojun said indifferently, "I still have important things to do, so I won't go shopping. I don't know where Wu Shu is with the governor of Wu? I want to meet him as soon as possible."

Yuan Chengze (Andre) hurriedly said, "The governor is already in Naples for the last time. A good Chinese restaurant has set up a banquet, waiting to welcome Uncle Russell!"

Half an hour later.

The Maybach driven by Yuan Chengze (Andre) stopped in front of a Chinese restaurant called Banyan Tree.

This restaurant is located at the bottom of a 40-story high-rise building. It is entered from the ground floor. There are three floors inside.

He personally opened the car door for Oberjun, He walked quickly into the restaurant with Oberjun.

The two took the internal elevator to the third floor. As soon as they went out, several female service staff dressed in court saluted respectfully to the two, and they also respectfully shouted in Chinese to greet Uncle Russell.

Ou Bojun didn't expect these people to know his identity. After being shocked, he suddenly discovered that these waitresses were all warriors without exception, and the weakest ones had three stars, and the strongest ones had reached six stars.

It seems that this has reached the inner area of the Youjun Dudufu.

Yuan Chengze (Andre) led the way in front, and said as he walked, "Uncle Russell came to the Youjun Dudu's Mansion for the first time. Let me give you a general introduction. This restaurant is the property of the Youjun Dudu's Mansion. Lou said that it is a membership system, but it is not open to the public. The people who come here are all internal personnel of our Youjun Dudufu, and in this store, you don't have to worry about the risk of revealing your identity, because the staff here have no With one exception, they are all the children of dead warriors, knight guards, and members of other departments.”

Ou Bojun asked in surprise, “Is this the Governor’s Mansion of the Right Army?”

“Yes, not all of them.” Yuan Chengze (Andre) smiled slightly, “Actually, this four The ten-story high-rise building is entirely our property. Although we have leased more than half of the area to local companies, the southern part directly above and below the restaurant has not been leased out. The third floor, on the surface, is rented to a shipping company, but in fact that company is also ours, and this part is connected to the restaurant with a secret elevator, in fact, the top floor here is the residence of the Youjun Dudufu.” Ober-Jun listened speechless.

While he was amazed at the size of the Youjun Governor’s Mansion, he also felt that his speculation on the plane was confirmed. Yuan Chengze (Andre) told himself the situation of the Youjun Dudu’s Mansion in detail as soon as he met him. It must have been ordered by the British Lord. , it seems that the Lord of England will gradually loosen many restrictions on himself and the other three earls in the future...
