

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5651 -

In that case, he could pretend to be stupid about what happened here, and directly stated that he could not find any valuable clues to investigate, and finally packaged this matter as an unsolved case, and then pushed it to the mysterious enemy.

In this way, even if the English Lord punished himself, it would not be too serious.

After all, even the British Lord himself couldn't figure out the reason for the enemy hiding behind him, not to mention that there have been two precedents in New York and Northern Europe.

Thinking of this, Wu Shutong was relieved.

He felt that although what happened to him this time was bigger than the events in New York and Northern Europe, the worst thing he could do would be to lose his position as the governor of the right army governor's mansion, at least he could save his life.

Soon, the heavy machinery that was still digging up the wreckage and doing some drilling stopped almost instantly.

Immediately afterwards, they began to withdraw from the subsidence area one after another.

According to the instructions of the superior, the excavation and drilling work will be completely over at this point.

Seeing this, Wu Shutong felt more at ease, so he immediately sent a signal to the other people to evacuate immediately.

After a few people met outside the copper mine, Wu Shutong deliberately asked the other people, "Have you found any clues?"

They all shook their heads with shocked expressions.

Among them, Wu Shuhang, Wu Shutong's younger brother, said, "Commander, I just took a look inside the subsidence area, and the entire copper mine has been turned into ruins. The gap between the center and the surrounding flat ground is more than ten meters. It is impossible to start an investigation. Ah! If you want to find out what's going on inside, it's impossible without heavy equipment."

Another person said, "But they have already started to remove the digging tools, so they probably don't plan to continue the investigation."

Wu Shutong said, "I heard from their commander just now that they have an order from above to fill up all of this place within 72 hours."

Wu Shuhang said helplessly, "In this case, if there is no heavy machinery, it is impossible to find out anything. Clues, now they don't check, and we can't mobilize equipment to continue to check, and when they fill in here, we will be even less likely to find any clues..."

No way." Wu Shutong sighed pretendingly melancholy. In a calm tone, he said, "They will immediately evacuate all the personnel in the subsidence area. At that time, we will not be able to sneak in under their noses to find clues, and it won't take long before they will start backfilling. We have no choice but to stay here, so why not evacuate here first, return to the British Lord, and see what the British Lord and his old man have ordered."

Okay!" Several people knew that there was no good way at the moment, so they all agreed.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5652 -

Afterwards, several people returned to the place where they had parked before.

Wu Shutong said to several people, "You guys go further away, I'm going to report to the British Lord in the car."

Several people nodded at the same time, and walked a long way in the opposite direction.

Wu Shutong just got into the car, took out his mobile phone, and used a special contact software to make a voice call to Ying Zhu.

When the phone was connected, the British Lord asked him, "Has the situation been clarified?"

Wu Shutong quickly said, "Reporting to the British Lord, the subordinates have already entered the location of the copper mine to investigate, but now the entire copper mine has collapsed from the bottom, and the entire copper mine has collapsed from the bottom. The aboveground part of the copper mine has also completely collapsed into ruins, and the entire site is full of collapsed construction waste, and there are no clues to be found..." The British Lord asked sharply, "How could this be?! Such a huge base, just say no. Gone?! What about the people inside?! Have they all been killed?!"

Wu Shutong said in panic, "Go back to the British Lord, what's going on with the people inside, and the subordinates don't know anything about it! Originally, I still pinned my hopes on Cyprus. Official investigation, but they have now ordered that the entire site be filled up, and they have declared to the outside world that the copper mine has reached the end of its useful life and has been artificially abandoned. Now that the place is heavily guarded, the subordinates are powerless to investigate!" The British Lord said coldly He asked in a low voice, "Why are the Cyprus officials in such a hurry to fill up the place?! To cover up the evidence in such a hurry, could it be that they discovered something hidden from the public?!" The Lord actually grasped the key point of the problem in an instant.

However, there is no turning back when the bow is opened.

He didn't dare to take the responsibility that the entire garrison of dead soldiers had already been occupied, and even Mr. Ober was strangled. He just wanted to let the Lord know that the reason why this place was razed to the ground was because the mysterious enemy was too powerful. Just like the defeats in New York and Northern Europe, it is not that one's own side is too good, but that the enemy is too strong.

So, he could only bite the bullet and say, "My lord, my subordinates feel that the people in the dead man's station, as well as the Nakul uncle, are probably dead. It is very likely that the enemy took advantage of their unpreparedness to wash this place with blood..."

"Bloodwash..." the British Lord murmured, "Uncle Nakul is extremely powerful, who can wash him with blood?!"

Wu Shutong lamented, "My Lord, my subordinates don't know who did it, so I ask the British Lord to punish him!" !"

After a long time, the hero said dejectedly, "Forget it, it seems that this world is not what I thought it was, I was too optimistic..."

After finishing speaking, the British Lord said again, "Okay, you can withdraw, don't mention this matter to anyone, and offenders will be killed without mercy!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5653 -

Wu Shutong was completely relieved when he heard this.

As the governor of the Youjun Governor's Mansion, he is one of the most trusted officials of the British Lord. He knows the underlying logic of the internal operation of the Qing Dynasty.

In Poqinghui, the five major governor's mansions operate independently of each other, and no one knows the specific situation of the other four governor's mansions, where they are, or what their ranks are. How many people are there, how many dead soldiers are stationed, how many dark realms and even transformation masters.

Moreover, there are strict information firewalls inside each Dudu Mansion.

Take the dead soldiers station in Cyprus as an example, its daily operation is entirely in the charge of Bick, the Jiedu envoy of the dead soldier station, and Bick only obeys Wu Shutong, even though the copper smelter in Turkey is his superior, and Responsible for the distribution of all supplies and antidotes to the dead soldiers' garrison, but they also have no right to command Bick.

If the copper smelters in Turkey and the copper mines in Cyprus disappear at the same time, this line will naturally be unknown.

The British Lord allowed himself to conceal this matter, the purpose was nothing more than to stabilize the morale of the army, so that others would be completely ignorant of that mysterious enemy.

But looking at it from another direction, since the British Lord said so, it should mean that he doesn't plan to hold himself accountable anymore.

Wu Shutong was overwhelmed with excitement, and after finishing the call with the hero, he called everyone else back with his mobile phone.

After they came back, Wu Shutong's younger brother, Wu Shuhang, saw his brother sitting in the co-driver, so he went straight into the driver's cab, but he didn't start the car in a hurry, but asked him nervously, "Brother, what did the British Lord say?" Wu Shutong frowned

. Frowning, he reprimanded in a low voice, "I've told you many times, you can only call me Brother in private, and you should call me Dudu at other times!"

Wu Shuhang hurriedly said, "Yes... Dudu... Isn't this subordinate worried about you... I'm afraid The British lord condemned you..."

Wu Shutong smiled slightly, and said, "It is far beyond my ability to have such a thing happen, even the Nakul Bo can't escape the opponent's clutches, so what can I do.

", Wu Shutong waved his hand, "Let's go back, it's almost time."

Wu Shuhang nodded, handed Wu Shu the same bottle of water, and said, "The governor has a drink of water to calm the shock, and we will return right now ." A feeling of survival after a catastrophe, so the whole person was extremely relaxed, and after relaxing, he really felt thirsty, so he took the water, unscrewed it and took a few sips.

A few seconds later, his face suddenly changed drastically. He stared fixedly at his younger brother Wu Shuhang who was sitting in the driver's seat, and blurted out with difficulty, "Shuhang, you...you...you poisoned the water?!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5654 -

Hearing his brother's questioning, Wu Shuhang turned his head to look at him, sneered, and said, "Brother, my good brother, don't blame me for being cruel, I'm just following the orders of the British lord, to be honest, I'm your backup Selection."

"What?!" Wu Shutong was stunned.

He never thought that, as the governor of one of the five military governors' mansions, and as the most trusted confidant of the British Lord, he would have a candidate!

What's more, he couldn't even imagine that this candidate was actually the younger brother of his own sibling!

He blurted out and asked, "When did you become my candidate?!"

Wu Shuhang smiled, "I was already your candidate before you became the governor of the Youjun Commander's Mansion. I knew about the governor before you."

"Bastard!" Wu Shutong roared angrily, "You are my own brother! You are my own brother! You have become my candidate. You never told me for so many years?!"

Wu Shuhang asked back, "Why should I tell you? This is a top-secret mission given to me by the British lord. You and I are all loyal subjects to the British lord first, and brothers second. If it wasn't for your vain attempt Lie to the British Lord, the British Lord will not let me replace you, the fault is that you have selfish intentions for the British Lord!"

Wu Shutong was terrified in his heart, and quibbled, "I didn't! I will respect the British Lord all my life, The hero is like a god in my heart, how could I deceive the hero..."

"Still sophistry?" Wu Shuhang said coldly, "My dear brother, you were not the only one who heard the conversation of those people in the tent just now, I heard it too!"

"What?!" Wu Shutong felt like being struck by lightning, and blurted out, "You...you've been following me?!"

Wu Shuhang said lightly, "Stalking is not even a question, as your candidate, not only must be ready to replace you at all times, but also feed back all the information you come into contact with in real time to the hero, in order to prevent you from hiding anything from the hero."

After all, he looked at Wu Shutong and said with a cold expression, "Brother, if you honestly report to the British Lord and plead guilty to the British Lord about what happened today, the British Lord may still look at our Wu family and your hard work for so many years." In order to save your life, but you are confused, big brother! Have you forgotten the three iron laws of the Qing Dynasty? Those who disobey orders, beheaded! Those who bully the emperor, beheaded! Your crime!"

Wu Shutong looked at him, and asked through gritted teeth, "So you know that I lied to the British Lord, so you don't help my big brother hide it, but you report it to the British Lord?!" Wu Shuhang smiled contemptuously

. Laughing, he opened his mouth and said, "Brother, as I said just now, loyalty to the Lord is the most important thing. The foundation of the relationship between you and my brother is also based on the fact that you and I are dedicated to our duties and loyal to the Lord. If you betray Lord Ying, the brotherhood between you and me will naturally disappear, and you will no longer be my big brother, but the enemy of me and the entire Qing Dynasty!" Wu Shuhang sighed

, He said with emotion, "Oh, my good brother, do you know that I have been looking forward to this day coming earlier when you have been the governor for more than 20 years. If you get the elixir bestowed by the British lord, if you promise to be loyal to the British lord during this period, you may be able to master the aura in your lifetime. Who can not be tempted by such a big temptation? What's more, I am your candidate, and I am not the governor. It's out of reach, as long as you are abolished, I will be in charge!"

Wu Shutong felt extremely resentful, he never thought that this younger brother whom he brought with him since he was a child and wholeheartedly raised and supported him, would betray him at a critical moment.

At this moment, he wanted to fight back and escape, but he felt as if his whole body was completely anesthetized. He was slumped on the seat, and he didn't even have the strength to lift his arms. At this moment, let alone escape, he even opened the car door. They have all become idiots.

With tears in his eyes, he said to Wu Shuhang, "Shuhang, if I die, the British Lord will train a replacement by your side in the future. Maybe one day, your end will be the same as mine. I will be a lesson for you!"

"No." Wu Shuhang shook his head, and said calmly, "I'm different from you, I will never betray the British Lord and his old man!"

As he said that, Wu Shuhang said again, "If I do well, the Lord rewards me, and I will accept it; if I do badly, and the Lord punishes me, I will accept the punishment, but I will never lie to the Lord to avoid punishment." !"

Wu Shuhang looked at Wu Shutong, and said with a bit of sarcasm in his expression, "Brother, your fault is that you don't have my knowledge. You have been the governor for a long time, thinking that you really have all-hands and eyes, and that little trick of yours You can really hide it from the hero, but in fact, the hero knows everything you do, even if I don't tell the hero, maybe there are substitutes No. 2 and No. 3 who will inform the hero, Even if I don't kill you, they will find an opportunity to kill you and me together!"

Wu Shutong was stunned, then smiled miserably, nodded and said, "Very well, you are smarter, more decisive, and more vicious than me, I ask myself , if you betray the British Lord and I know, I will definitely think There is a comprehensive way to protect you, so I am convinced that I died in your hands today! I don't expect you to let me go, I just ask you to take good care of your sister-in-law and your nephews for me! "

Wu Shuhang smiled, "Brother, why don't you ask me for something else..."

Wu Shutong's expression froze, and he blurted out, "Wu Shuhang, what do you mean?" ! Don't you even spare my wife and children? ! "

Wu Shuhang shrugged helplessly, and said, "Brother, even if I want to save your wife and children, the British Lord will not agree. You know his old man's behavior style. He will do everything without leaving any trouble. I will kill you today." No matter how I make up stories with your wife and children after I go back, as long as they don't see you back alive, they will guess that I killed you, and they will definitely hate me and the hero to the bone. It is a huge hidden danger for people who are against the Qing Dynasty..."

Speaking of this, Wu Shuhang paused slightly, looked at Wu Shutong, and said with a smile, "Brother, the meaning of the British Lord is...to cut the grass...to get rid of the roots! "

Wu Shutong has completely collapsed!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5656 -

He never imagined that a thought in his mind would push himself, his wife and children into the abyss of eternal doom!

He burst into tears and begged, "Shuhang , I beg you to leave me a bloodline, even a son! "

Wu Shuhang shook his head, and said coldly, "Brother, I will leave you a bloodline. After that, who shall I ask to leave me a bloodline?" "

Wu Shutong broke down, crying bitterly and said, "I want to talk to the British Lord!" The blood flowing in his body is also the blood of the Wu family. As the same clan, why do you want to kill me like this! "

Wu Shutong looked at his younger brother without blinking with his bloodshot eyes, and begged in an extremely humble tone, "Shuhang, my good brother, I beg you, for the sake of taking care of you for half your life, please take care of me. Let's bury it with my wife and children. I have never begged you in my life. This is my last request before I die..." Wu Shuhang shook his head and said calmly, "Brother, if you and I are in Naples right now, you don't need to tell me. I will also teach you to bury your family together. But now that you and I are in Cyprus, I can't take your body on the plane. The airports on both sides cannot allow a dead person to enter or leave the country." Wu Shutong choked up Said "Shuhang, then you can burn me with a fire after I die, then take my ashes back and bury them with them!" "Impossible." Wu Shuhang refused expressionlessly, "The current Situation, where do you want me to burn you? Maybe the Cyprus police came to find your body before it was burnt." Wu Shutong asked him, "Then you can't let me be alone in the wilderness of dead bodies in Cyprus?!" "

Why? Well." Wu Shuhang said in relief, "If you were in the wilderness of dead bodies in Cyprus, the Cyprus police will definitely start with your corpse and investigate relevant clues, then it will definitely be traced back to the flight when we came, and it will be determined that you came from Naples. The Youjun Governor's Mansion has brought a lot of unnecessary troubles, so the best way is to let you sleep in the ground here."

Tong Wu Shu said, "If you bury me, won't others find my body?"

Wu Shuhang laughed and said, "The water you drink is a special poison specially prepared by the British Lord for the traitors. Drinking it will not only make you lose all mobility, but also gradually corrupt your internal organs." After finishing speaking, Wu Shuhang looked at the time

, He also said, "It is estimated that in a few minutes, you will die due to the corruption of internal organs. After you die, I will dig a hole and bury you. After an hour, your entire abdomen will turn into a ball of blood; "

After a few hours, your body will be completely rotten from the inside out, leaving only a bone;" "

If you wait another day, even the bone will be rotted away;"

"When the time comes, brother, you will be fully integrated into the land of Cyprus."
