

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5671 -

Hong Changqing didn't know how to answer Maxton's questioning.

He can't tell his own big disciple that he will stay in Aurous Hill in the future, and only Charlie will follow his lead?

Therefore, he could only say to Maxton, "Maxton, as a teacher for so many years in the Taizhen Dao, it can be regarded as dedicated. Now that he is old, he wants to relax. Look at the beautiful scenery and pleasant climate in Aurous Hill, which is really very pleasant." It is in line with my teacher's preferences, so I plan to settle here for a while as a teacher, and try to see if I can make a breakthrough in my cultivation." Maxton frowned and asked, "Master, for so many years, more than half of your time you were in retreat, when Mrs. An invited you out of the mountain, weren't you in retreat? At that time, you told me that after you rescued Mr. An's family, you would continue to go back to the teacher's door for retreat, but then you came here without saying a word. After leaving Aurous Hill, why do you suddenly say that you want to give up the position of head and settle down in Aurous Hill?"

Hong Changqing could only explain, "Well, after staying in one place for a long time, my heart will become slack, so I also want to try another environment. "

Maxton looked at Hong Changqing, then at Charlie who was sitting beside him, and couldn't help but ask, "Master, even if what you said is the truth, you shouldn't let me go if you want to pass the position to me." Come to Aurous Hill, according to Taizhen Dao's practice, the ceremony of passing the throne must be held in front of other senior brothers." Hong Changqing waved his hand awkwardly, and said, "Oh, what did you say

? Those are dispensable formalisms. Since it is the head of the throne, as long as I pass the seat to you, as for the others, it does not matter whether they are present or not. When the time comes, you will take my head. When the token goes back, they will naturally respect you as the new head."

Maxton said with some dissatisfaction, "Master, this is the tradition of Taizhen Dao after all. As the head of Taizhen Dao, you can't ignore the tradition of Taizhen Dao, right? Moreover, your choice of this occasion is a bit too casual, which sect have you heard of, the head pass ceremony is held in a hotel room?" Hong Changqing heard that, his expression was somewhat ashamed.

It is really inappropriate to say that it is a bit inappropriate to pass the position of head in a hotel.

Helpless, he could only bite the bullet and say, "The matter of passing on the position is not enough to mobilize the teachers. I can't call the disciples of the Taizhen Dao who traveled thousands of miles to Aurous Hill to be a witness, right? I am the master." Why do you have the nerve to torment everyone like this?"

Maxton asked him aggressively, "Then why don't you go back to the United States? Even if you want to stay in Aurous Hill, out of respect for Taizhen, you should take a few days to go back. Going to the sect, at worst, you can go back to Aurous Hill after the succession ceremony is over!" "

This..." Hong Changqing was speechless when asked by Maxton.

On this issue, he himself is very guilty.

The reason why he called Maxton over from the United States to pass the position in the hotel was nothing more than to let Charlie see his attitude.

To put it bluntly, all of this is just to cater to Charlie.

However, in order to cater to Charlie, he had to neglect the rules of the teacher's school.

At this time, Maxton saw that Hong Changqing hesitated and couldn't say anything, so he looked at Charlie from the corner of his eye and said, "Master, you just said that as long as you pass on the seat to me, others it doesn't matter whether you are present or not, so I want to ask you, since there is no need for fellow disciples to be present to witness, why did you invite this Mr. Wade over?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5672 -

He must not be too sincere, right?" Hong Changqing was even more embarrassed

, Hastily coughed twice, and blurted out, "Maxton, I invited Mr. Wade to come here. On the one hand, Mr. Wade and I have a deep friendship, and on the other hand, Mr. Wade is in Aurous Hill..." Maxton didn't believe him at all

. Speaking, said coldly, "Master, since I came in, I found that you are very respectful to this Mr. Wade. Combined with this matter, I think the reason why you want me to come to Aurous Hill and plan to pass on the throne to me here, You just want to show off in front of Mr. Wade, right?"

Hong Changqing didn't expect what Maxton said, and said with a blushing old face, "Oh, Maxton... Let me tell you something from the bottom of my heart as a teacher. I have devoted most of my life to Taizhen Tao. In the future, I want to do something for my teacher. What you do, if you still regard it as a teacher and your master, don't break the casserole here and ask the end. After the master passes on the position of master to you, and the teacher stays in Aurous Hill to practice, you go back to the United States. Don't you think it's enough to carry forward the Tao of Taizhen?"

Seeing Hong Changqing's resolute attitude, Maxton sighed helplessly, nodded and said, "Okay! Now that Master has made up his mind, I won't persuade you anymore, but I There is something I want to tell you."

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Just say it!"

Maxton said, "I am still young, so I may not have the ability to carry forward the Taizhen way. I can temporarily take over as the head of the sect, and wait for you, Master. When will you change your mind, I will return the position of head to you."

Hong Changqing waved his hand and said, "No need, no need, just be your head!"

Maxton said firmly, "Master, how do you decide? It's your freedom, I just want to express my attitude."

After that, she didn't talk nonsense with Hong Changqing, but said with some emotion, "Okay, master, don't gossip, don't you want to pass on the throne? Let's start now!"

"Okay, okay." Hong Changqing breathed a sigh of relief, and hurriedly took out the prepared incense sticks and incense burner, lit six sticks of incense sticks, and handed three of them to Maxton.

Afterwards, he faced the north, and said respectfully, "The ancestors of Taizhen Dao are above, and below is Hong Changqing, the thirty-ninth generation head of Taizhen Dao. Here, I officially pass on the position of head to my personal disciple, Long." Maxton, from now on, Maxton will be the fortieth generation head of Taizhen Dao, I implore the patriarchs of Taizhen Dao to bless Maxton and Taizhen Dao!" After finishing speaking, he held three sticks of incense above his head and worshiped, and then looked at Maxton, and dictated to her a series of requirements for the head of Taizhen Dao.

After completing these ceremonies, Hong Changqing took out a token of the head of the sect from his waist, handed it to Maxton, and said, "Maxton, this is the token of the head of Taizhen Dao. You keep it. The token is here, you are the head of Taizhen Dao!"

Maxton nodded and took the token with both hands.

Hong Changqing took out another piece of paper filled with calligraphy, and said to Maxton, "Maxton, this is the complete version of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", which has been passed down for thousands of years by Taizhen Dao. , You must memorize this whole manual by heart, and you must not miss a single word!" "

Okay.” Maxton took the paper, opened it, looked at it, and put it in his arms.

Hong Changqing let out a long breath, and said, “Maxton, from now on, you are the fortieth head of Taizhen Dao. You will be the master of all affairs of Taizhen Dao in the future. You can prepare to return to the United States immediately. If you need help with anything, please contact me at any time, and I will definitely try my best to help you.”

Maxton nodded, then looked at Hong Changqing, and asked him, “Master, Master, the old man passed it on to you. What about the medicine cauldron?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5673 -

“Medicine cauldron?!”

Hong Changqing was startled when he heard Maxton’s question.

He was very puzzled and thought to himself, “How could Maxton know about the medicine cauldron? Didn’t Master, the old man, say that this secret can only be known by the head of the sect and should not be told to anyone else?! How could he keep this secret?” Tell Maxton about it?”

Thinking of this, he purposely played sloppy eyes, “Maxton, who did you hear about the medicine cauldron? Why didn’t I know?”

Maxton frowned, and said in a somewhat angry tone “Master! Master, the old man told me about it a Maxtontime ago. He said that Taizhen Dao has a town treasure, a medicine cauldron that is quite effective in refining medicine! The old man also said that only the future master can have it. Qualified to inherit this treasure, since you have decided to give me the position of master, then the medicine cauldron should also be passed on to me, otherwise how will I explain to my master and my personal disciple in the future?” Hong Changqing never dreamed Thinking of, before passing on the medicine cauldron to him, his master had repeatedly instructed him not to reveal the secret of the medicine cauldron to anyone before passing on the throne, but in the blink of an eye, he revealed this The matter was told to Maxton.

He couldn’t help but wonder in his heart, “Master, Master, do you love Maxton too much, or do you distrust me too much?”

Immediately, he was so embarrassed that he could only stammer and say, “Maxton, this matter You must have misremembered the matter, Taizhen Dao does not have any medicinal cauldrons, I guess the old master is deliberately teasing you.” Maxton shook his head and said, “

Impossible, Master told me clearly, too The true way does have such a medicine cauldron, and it is absolutely impossible for his old man to joke about this kind of thing!"

She couldn't help asking Hong Changqing, "Master, the medicine cauldron is a token of the Taizhen way that has been passed down for thousands of years, and it will never arrive. You here, you just want to keep it for yourself?"

"I didn't..." Seeing that Hong Changqing couldn't be fooled, he could only say helplessly, "Maxton, I will take the head of the teacher to assure you, the one you said The medicine cauldron is not in my hands, if it is in my hands, I will definitely give it to you without hesitation."

Maxton frowned even more tightly, "Master, if the medicine cauldron is not in your hands, then whose hands is it? Master handed it to you, you must have lost it, right? !"

Hong Changqing said vaguely, "Maxton, this medicine cauldron is really out of my hands right now, and I really can't find it back, so you'd better treat it as if you really don't have such a thing."

When Hong Changqing said these words, he was also very disturbed. He originally thought that Maxton didn't know the existence of the medicine cauldron and planned to get away with it, but he didn't expect that Maxton knew this clearly. If he didn't take out the medicine cauldron If you give it to her, then you will naturally become a sinner of Taizhen Dao.

However, that thing has been lost to charlie by himself now, and it is definitely impossible to ask charlie to get it back at this time.

Therefore, he can only sacrifice his own reputation. Even if the disciples of Taizhen Dao in the future know that he has lost the treasure passed down from the ancestors of Taizhen Dao, he can only recognize it.

When Maxton heard Hong Changqing's words at this time, she was also very angry. She didn't expect that Hong Changqing deliberately concealed the matter of Yao Ding first, and when she asked him personally, he would actually play a rogue.

Maxton couldn't help asking him, "Master, what do you mean by treating Taizhen Dao without such a thing?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5674 -

Hong Changqing said cheekily, "It's because you forgot that Taizhen Dao has a medicine cauldron from now on. "

Maxton said angrily, "Master, what's the difference between you and a father who loses his son and goes home and tells his family 'everyone just pretend they never had this son'? Do you think it's appropriate?"

Hong Changqing couldn't hold back, so he could only smash the pot and said, "Then the medicine cauldron is indeed gone now, and I really can't find it, what can you tell me to do?" Maxton asked him, "I need to know, the medicine cauldron How did it disappear, and who owns the medicine cauldron?"

Hong Changqing dodged her eyes, and said falteringly, "Maxton... Since the medicine cauldron is gone, what's the point of you breaking the casserole and asking after all? What you have to do now is to quickly return to Taizhen Dao with the sect leader token, and do your role as sect master well!"

Maxton argued rationally, "Since you passed on the headship to me, then I have the obligation to recover the treasure that has been passed down for thousands of years for Taizhen Dao, so no matter what, I have to find and bring back the medicine cauldron." After that, she stared at Hong Changqing closely, and asked, "Master, think about the thirty-eight heads of Taizhen Dao before you, if you don't take the medicine cauldron back to Taizhen Dao, you can sleep well Is it?"

Hong Changqing didn't know that he should respond to Maxton's question at all, and in desperation, he could only say bitterly, "Maxton, to tell you the truth as a teacher, I lost the medicine cauldron in a bet."

Maxton was shocked, and blurted out, "Master, what qualifications do you have to bet on the inheritance of Taizhen Dao?"

Hong Changqing said helplessly, "I am not qualified, but I have already done this. I have nothing to do. If you are not satisfied, after you go back, you can tell the whole Tai Tai about my affairs. The true way, let me become a sinner of the too true way through the ages, I have no objection to these. "

Maxton said seriously, "Master, I don't want you to become a sinner of the Taizhen Dao through the ages, I just want to get back the treasure of the Taizhen Dao!"

After that, she gritted her teeth and said, "Master, tell me who the medicine cauldron lost to. I will go to him and ask him if he would like to sell the medicine cauldron to me. If he is willing, no matter what. " I will try to figure out how much money it takes, but if it doesn't work, I'll ask my father for it! "

Hong Changqing looked very embarrassed, but because of his guilty conscience, he didn't know how to answer for a while.

charlie, who had been silent all this time, smiled slightly at this time, "Miss Maxton don't have to embarrass Hong Tianshi, his medicine cauldron has already lost to It's mine, now it's mine. "

Maxton looked at charlie in surprise, and asked, "Mr. Wade, I want to know how my master lost the medicine cauldron to you?" " charlie said lightly, "Ms. Maxton doesn't need to ask about the specifics, you just need to know that the medicine cauldron is in my hands now, and I'm not going to sell it.

Maxton said anxiously, "Mr. Wade, this is the treasure of our Taizhen Taoist school!"

charlie said lightly, "It used to be, but it's not anymore, and I don't care about its origin, I only know that it is now It's mine."

Maxton immediately asked him, "Mr. Wade, how much money will it take for you to return the treasure of my Taizhendao Zhenpai? Tell me the number, and I will try my best to persuade my father to call you money!"

charlie smiled and said, "Although I don't know how much money Miss Long's father has, I can tell you one thing clearly, even if you put all your father's assets in front of me, I will not agree! "
