

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5715 -

charlie didn't really understand Taizhen Dao.

However, this sect was able to develop a scale of more than two hundred people. From this point alone, it is worthy of its thousands of years of inheritance.

But having said that, although there are many disciples in Taizhen Dao, the ceiling of Hong Changqing is placed here, which shows that the overall strength of Taizhen Dao is not too strong. It is estimated that Hong Changqing is the only one who is in the Mingjing Dzogchen realm, and Maxton, who is a candidate for the head Qi, his own strength is only five-star warriors. From this point of view, most of the members of Taizhen Dao are probably below three-star warriors, and it is estimated that there are not many who can reach above three-star warriors.

If he simply wanted to join his sect, charlie would be happy with it. After all, there are more than 200 warriors who have surrendered. Those with five stars and above can use it to expand their strength on paper. Follow Don Albert as a younger brother, that way, it will definitely increase Don Albert's power scale exponentially.

However, the problem lies in the fact that Maxton wants to bring Taizhen Dao into his sect, not to serve him wholeheartedly, but to use their obedience and labor to exchange with him at an equal value, or even not. The purpose of the exchange is to enhance their strength in martial arts.

So based on this, charlie speculated that even if he took Taizhen Dao into his family, Taizhen Dao might not be really useful.

Compared with Wanlongdian and the He family, the loyalty must be far worse.

It still needs a long way to go to achieve the loyalty of Wanlongdian.

After thinking for a moment, charlie said to Maxton, "Miss Maxton, your master Hong Tianshi has now decided to work for me. Starting tomorrow, he will be teaching at the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring. In the next few months, his energy will be reduced." I'm afraid it's hard to tell, so in this case, he is really not suitable to be the head of Taizhen Dao."

Maxton quickly said, "Mr. charlie, I can take over as the head of Taizhen Dao. Taizhendao has a chance!"

charlie nodded, and said, "If Taizhendao really wants to worship under my sect, it's not impossible."

Maxton's expression immediately became agitated when he heard this.

But charlie changed the subject and said seriously, "It's just not now." Maxton hurriedly asked, "Mr. charlie

, what concerns do you have?"

Knowing your master and you, I don't know anything about Taizhen Dao, and it doesn't make any practical sense to take it into my sect." Seeing that Maxton's expression was suddenly dimmed, charlie said, "Of course, you don't have to. I am disappointed by this. There is an old saying in China that if you come here, you will be safe. It is not easy to move your family, not to mention that you have moved to Aurous Hill from a distance of thousands of miles. It will take a long time to gradually get used to it. Since You have already brought the entire Taizhen Dao here, if you really want to worship under my sect, why not help your master to calm down the entire Taizhen Dao first, and let them get used to the environment in Aurous Hill first." Maxton pursed his lips, lightly Nodded lightly.

charlie didn't completely reject her, which was very rare for her.

Otherwise, if charlie refuses directly, and Master Hong Changqing doesn't want to care about Taizhen Dao's life and death, then he will really stand here and ride a tiger.

In desperation, Maxton could only respectfully say, "Mr. charlie, Maxton understands what you mean, don't worry, I will try my best to appease the disciples of Taizhen Dao, and at the same time, I will try my best to make them adapt to the environment of Aurous Hill as soon as possible."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5716 -

charlie nodded and asked her, "Where is the hotel your father bought for you?"

Maxton replied, "Go back to Mr. charlie, the hotel my father bought is a resort hotel in the southern suburbs of Aurous Hill." "

Okay." charlie said, "The environment in the suburbs is relatively relaxed, and the venue of the resort hotel should be relatively large. It shouldn't be too boring for so many people to live there." Then, charlie pointed to Hong Changqing and said to Maxton He said, "Well, let your master go with you today to meet the disciples of Taizhen Dao, soothe their emotions, and let them get acquainted with Aurous Hill during this time. As for the head, since you don't want to be , it will still be named by your master."

Hong Changqing said embarrassingly, "Master Wade, it's okay to be named head. The subordinates don't know how to explain to the disciples of Taizhen Tao that they moved to Aurous Hill..." charlie laughed

. "This one is also simple. Before you Taizhendao, the level of secrecy of "Taizhen Hunyuandao" should still be very high. After all, before you passed the throne to Miss Maxton, she had never touched the full version of "Taizhen Hunyuandao." ", so after you went to see the disciples of Taizhen Dao today, tell them that you recently got some of the content behind "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" by accident, and you are sorting out and familiarizing yourself with it, so first you have to read the Taizhen Dao set of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao". "True Hunyuan Dao" is passed on to them without reservation, let them practice hard during this period; "

At the same time, I also promise them that after this period of time, they are familiar with the first chapter of "True Hunyuan Dao" Afterwards, you have sorted out and researched the following content, and then pass it on to them, so that they have something to do in front of them and a head for the future, and they will definitely go all out." Hong Changqing was slightly taken aback , amazed Asked, "Master Wade... Do you really agree to let your subordinates pass on the content of the second chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" to the disciples of Taizhen Dao?"

In Hong Changqing's view, the martial arts mentality is extremely precious. I was already flattered by directly giving myself the content of the opening chapter of the second chapter, but I never thought that charlie would allow me to pass this opening chapter to the disciples of Taizhen Dao. This is of great significance to Taizhen Dao. After all, Taizhen Dao has been passed on for more than a thousand years, but only the first chapter has been passed on.

charlie didn't care about the content of the second chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" at all. Whether it was passed on to Hong Changqing or Taizhen Dao, it didn't matter to him. In Hunyuan Dao, it is very high-level primary content.

What's more, my current plan is to use a little follow-up content of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" to temporarily stabilize the entire Taizhen Dao, so that the upper and lower members of Taizhen Dao can settle down in Aurous Hill with peace of mind.

As for whether the follow-up of Taizhen Dao can be used by him, charlie feels that as long as Hong Changqing and Maxton can obey his advice, most of the success has been achieved.

Maxton was also very excited at this time. He didn't expect that although charlie didn't make it clear that he would take Taizhen Dao under his family for the time being, he generously took out the follow-up method of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" and directly gave himself a perfect transition Plan, in this way, in a short period of time, I don't have to worry about how to appease the disciples of Taizhen Dao.

At this time, charlie said again, "Miss Maxton, during this period, you can come here to listen to your master's lectures. If you follow him, you can learn more about "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", and you are mastering these After the content is passed on to other disciples of Taizhen Dao, this will also increase your influence in Taizhen Dao. When the overall strength of Taizhen Dao grows and you can be recognized by all disciples, I will naturally understand what you said. considerate."
