

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5742 -

Twenty minutes later, Asher accompanied the old lady to the old house of Charlie's parents.

Anjia's bulletproof convoy quickly left Wanliu Villa and headed for the old city of Aurous Hill.

At the same time, Charlie was also driving in the direction of Wanliu Villa from the urban area.

He planned to go to the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring, and Wanliu Mountain Villa is very close to the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring in a straight line, only separated by two hills. Most of the routes overlap.

On the express way out of the city, Charlie saw a convoy approaching from the opposite direction.

Before he set off, Li Yalin sent a message telling him that his grandmother was going to visit his parents' old house today, so although the two sides passed each other at a very fast relative speed, Charlie could still tell that this was An's convoy .

However, Charlie's thoughts were not too involved. He had already explained to those who should be accounted for. He believed that with his usual personality and prestige, no one in Aurous Hill would reveal his identity to his grandparents.

Arriving at the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel, Hong Changqing has already started a new day of teaching.

When Charlie arrived, he saw that all the students were concentrating on their studies, so he didn't go in to disturb them. He just observed the situation of Nanako and Aurora at the window.

At this time, the two girls were sitting cross-legged on the futon, following Hong Changqing's guidance, closing their eyes and circulating their true energy.

Charlie was surprised to find that Nanako's body had already shown signs of true qi circulation.

It seems that in just a few days, she has already mastered the mystery of internal observation and the key to the transformation of true energy in the body, and she has completed the entry stage of martial arts, which really impressed Charlie.

As for Aurora next to her, Charlie could also feel at this time that some energy similar to true qi was generated intermittently in her body, but she still couldn't truly realize the full operation of true qi in her body.

And the state of her dantian, meridians, and true qi in her body is like a car's power system in a starting state, but the starter has not yet reached the speed requirement for the engine to really ignite and run.

Although it has not been completely successful, at least half of it has been successful. As long as we continue to work hard in this direction, I believe that it will not take long before we can successfully realize the full operation of true energy.

It seems that Aurora's talent is indeed much worse than Nanako's.

Besides the two of them, Charlie was also more concerned about the status of Isaac Cameron and Don Albert.

So he turned his attention to the two, and found that the two brothers were still in the stage of headless chickens at this time, unable to realize the inside view at all. Eyes, but grinning all the time, it seems that the heart is exerting force in a certain direction.

Although Isaac Cameron was not as ferocious as Don Albert, his brows were always furrowed, as if he was full of doubts.

Charlie knew very well that these two people were both stuck on the key point of looking inside.

If it is impossible to realize the endoscopic view, then it is impossible to find the specific location of the meridians and dantian, and it is even more impossible to operate the true energy.

Endoscopic things are very mysterious, just like vocal music teachers always talk about chest cavity resonance and head cavity resonance. People who understand it can understand it as soon as they say it. come.

For this kind of thing, one must calm down and explore slowly. Only by touching the context can success be possible.

at the same time.

Aurous Hill Old Town.

Anjia's originally eye-catching convoy broke up before entering the old city, making it less conspicuous, but all the vehicles are still closely guarding the commercial vehicle that Charlie's grandmother and uncle were riding in.

In Charlie's parents' old house, Deana and Zara banks had already had breakfast.

Zara banks dressed herself concisely, picked up her handbag, and said to Deana, "Mom, I'm going to the School of Finance and Economics."

Deana nodded, and asked, "Drive slowly on the road, will you come back to eat at noon?"

Zara banks said, "I won't be back at noon. I will eat with Ziva Hank in the cafeteria of the School of Finance and Economics."

As the person in charge of Yisu Shipping One of them, Zara banks, has been with He Ziva Hank every day in recent days, going to Aurous Hill University of Finance and Economics to find Ziva Hank's father, hank, to recharge his lessons.

Now, the business of Yisu Shipping is getting bigger and bigger, the market share and operating income are getting higher and higher. Although the two girls have not had any problems in the operation of a large stall worth hundreds of billions of dollars, the development speed of the company is too fast after all. Hurry up, both of them are worried that the upper limit of Yisu Shipping will be limited due to their lack of experience and ability, so they have been looking for hank to recharge at the School of Finance and Economics these days.

After all, hank is a top professor of economics, and he also has rich practical experience and knowledge. For the two young girls, he is like a guide.

Zara banks was changing his shoes and getting ready to go out when he heard a crisp knock on the courtyard door.

In order to preserve the original taste of this old house to the greatest extent, Deana chose the iron fence door as the courtyard door. Although there is no doorbell, the door knocking sound is as clear as a copper bell, and it can be heard in the room. Zara banks was a little puzzled, and muttered, "Who came to the house so early in the morning? Could it be Mr. wade

Why didn't you mention it? When he was so sensitive, how could he come here by himself."

As she spoke, she hurriedly said, "I'll go out and have a look."

Immediately, Deana changed the slippers outside, opened the door and walked out.

Through the iron gate, she saw an old lady and a middle-aged man standing outside the gate. These two were Charlie's grandmother and uncle.

However, Charlie's grandmother has almost never appeared in front of the media for so many years, and Asher hardly deals with the media because he is in charge of the inside and not the outside, so Deana didn't recognize the two of them.

She walked to the door and asked, "Who are you two looking for?" The old lady An outside the door looked at Deana, smiled slightly, and asked her, "May I ask, are you Ms. Deana?"

Knowing her own name, she hurriedly said humbly, "Auntie, you are too polite. I am Deana, may I ask who you are?"

Old lady An said with a smile, "... I am Bruce Wade's mother-in-law, Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s mother, Weng Huiyin. "

As she said, she pointed to Asher next to her, and introduced, "This is my eldest son and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s younger brother, Asher." "Ah?"

Deana looked at the old lady in surprise and exclaimed "You are Aunt An! Please come in, come in! Mr. An, please come in too!"

As he said, he quickly opened the door.

At first, Deana didn't understand why Mrs. An came to see her, but soon she realized that the purpose of the old lady's coming here should have nothing to do with her. Combined with what Charlie explained before, she immediately concluded that Mrs. My wife must have come here to find clues about Charlie. "

Old lady An thanked Asher, followed Deana and walked in. At this time, Zara banks also came out from the inner door. Seeing an old man and a middle-aged man walking into the yard, he couldn't help but feel a little puzzled. At this time, Deana hurriedly introduced to the two of them, "Let me introduce to you, this is my daughter Zara banks, Zara, this is Grandma An and Uncle An from the United States. "

"Grandma An..." Zara banks blurted out subconsciously, "Isn't that Ye..."

She originally wanted to say that it wasn't Mr. Wade's grandmother and uncle, but when the words came to her mouth, she was instantly startled. He almost betrayed Charlie by accident, so he quickly said without showing any trace, "Isn't that Uncle Wade's mother-in-law?"

Old Madam An asked curiously, "Miss Banks also knows Bruce?" "

Zara banks quickly waved his hand, "Grandma An, you misunderstood. I don't know Uncle wade. I heard it from others before, and after my mother moved here, I heard it from my mother. "

"So it's like this..." Mrs. AnShe nodded too lightly, without much doubt. After all, she had checked the past of Deana and bruce Wade before she came, and knew that Deana had been obsessed with bruce Wade for so many years, and even almost died because of it.

It's just that, visiting Deana by himself is somewhat awkward. After all, this gentle and intellectual woman in front of me is also, to a certain extent, her daughter's rival in love, and she has suffered a disastrous defeat at the hands of her daughter.

In fact, Deana was also very embarrassed.

I have loved bruce Wade for so many years, but I never thought that one day, bruce Wade's mother-in-law would come to her.

In order to alleviate the strange atmosphere, she said to Zara banks, "Zara, aren't you going to school? It's getting late, go quickly."

Zara banks nodded, and politely addressed the old lady and Asher Said, "Grandma An, Uncle An, you two talk slowly with my mother. I still have something to do, so I will leave first."

The two of them were naturally very polite. At the invitation of Deana, he entered the inner door of this old house.

The moment she entered the room, the old lady saw that the decoration style here was still the same as it was twenty years ago, and when she thought of her daughter, son-in-law and grandson, this was the last place she lived before her death. Consciously flowed down.

Afraid of Deana's jokes, she quickly turned to wipe away her tears with her sleeves, then smiled and said to Deana, "Ms. Deana, to tell you the truth, this is the first time I have come here in so many years, thank you for maintaining this place." That's great!"

Deana hurriedly said, "Auntie, don't call me Ms. Deana, just call me Deana."

The old lady nodded lightly and asked Deana, "Deana, I take the liberty to come here to bother you. I want to ask you something. something."

Deana knew what the old lady was going to ask, but she still asked her deliberately, "Auntie, what do you want to know?"

The old lady sighed, and said quietly, "After Bruce and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s accident, their son's whereabouts disappeared. Over the years, we have searched the whole world several times, but we have not found any clues related to him. , I want to know, since you came here, have you seen any suspicious-looking young men around the age of twenty-seven or eight, who have been watching and wandering around here?" Deana could only lie and said, "

Auntie , To be honest, I haven't noticed it, this is the old city of Aurous Hill, the population density is very high, and the people living around it are also very messy, people come and go every day, I really don't have a feeling for anyone acting suspiciously. "

The old lady said with a disappointed expression, "Charlie has been very affectionate since he was a child, and he is very filial to his parents. If he is still alive for so many years, he will definitely come back and take a look..."
