

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5758 -

Although there were a lot of students who came to report today, Claudia's appearance still caused quite a commotion and commotion.

Claudia is not only beautiful and has a good figure, but also has an exotic mixed-race face. Wherever she goes, many people are paying attention to her. When a beauty of this level appears, it is difficult for these people to come here. For the freshmen who reported, and the old students who were in charge of welcoming the new students, almost all of them were at the level of Wang Zha.

Many boys even thought that this girl, who was also a freshman, might become a new candidate for Aurous Hill University's school belle.

Claudia did not expect that she would attract so much attention when she just arrived at Aurous Hill University. However, on the one hand, Claudia was not interested in the boys around her who were watching her obsessively, nor on the other hand. You will feel some special pressure.

Compared with her peers, her experience is much richer and more tragic. The pain of the death of her relatives and her past of bearing humiliation for revenge, and even the experience of slaying her enemy at the end, destined her to be different from these eighteen and nine-year-old young people. Man, not on the same channel at all.

In her opinion, these young boys who can't control their eyes and manage their expressions because of the girls' looks are almost all immature children.

Since Claudia is an international student, the registration process is all completed in the special window for international students, so it only took ten minutes to complete all the registration work.

Afterwards, the staff responsible for registration handed a set of access control cards and keys to Claudia, and said to her at the same time, "Student, your dormitory is in bed 01, 301, girls' building, international student building. The room is a double room. All the bedding has been placed in the dormitory in advance, you can go over and tidy up first, and you can check in directly with the dormitory manager today." Claudia took the key, nodded and thanked, and then went to Charlie and the others Together, go to the dormitory building for foreign students.

At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) happened to be stuck in time, and accompanied by Sister Xian, she drove to Aurous Hill University by car.

Today, she has changed from the traditional Chinese dress in the past, wearing a size American sports T-shirt, paired with a pair of slim-fitting sweatpants and a pair of the latest Nike Jordan sneakers, and the waterfall-like shawl and long hair Also tied into a ponytail by her, the whole person looks extraordinarily youthful and beautiful.

The boys of Aurous Hill University were very excited about the arrival of Claudia. Unexpectedly, before the excitement passed, another girl who was even more outstanding was ushered in.

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s face all represent the highest standard of oriental men's aesthetics for oriental women. For most boys, she is definitely a goddess-level existence. Therefore, when she appeared in Aurous Hill University, it instantly triggered a bigger sensation.

All of a sudden, two stunning beauties appeared, and the boys from Aurous Hill University almost clapped their crowns and hugged each other to celebrate.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) also noticed the attention these boys paid to her. Like Claudia, she didn't pay attention to the wonder and gaze of these boys at all. All she could think about now was her coming to Aurous Hill University this time. Decide, right or wrong.

In the past, she kept hiding in order not to let Po Qinghui find her, even if she went out, she would disguise herself very well, but now, she is ostentatious in front of thousands of people, pretending to be nonchalant, This is a great test for her psychology.

And Lin Wan'er (Alani) had carefully considered this issue before coming here. Coming to Aurous Hill University will inevitably increase her exposure. The more exposure she has, the greater the possibility of exposure in theory.

However, the ancients often said that the great hidden in the city.

Sometimes, it's the opposite that works wonders.

Without charlie's help, he would not have the ability to seek revenge from Po Qinghui, so in order to get close to charlie, he could only take a risk.

Since Lin Wan'er (Alani) is also an international student now, it only took ten minutes to go through the procedures.

After she got the access card and key to bed No. 2 in Room 301, she and Sister Xian went to the dormitory building for foreign students.

On the way to the dormitory, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was still wondering if she would have a chance to meet charlie today.

And Charlie, together with Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie ) and the others, accompanied Claudia to her dormitory.

Since it was the first day of freshmen's enrollment, the dormitory management did not prevent men from entering the female dormitory. The four of them went all the way to the 301 dormitory on the third floor. As soon as they opened the door, Lisa couldn't help exclaiming, "Oh my god, the environment of this dormitory Isn't that great?"

The actual area of this dormitory is more than 50 square meters, but there are only two double-decker beds, the upper layer is a bed, and the lower layer is a desk.

In addition, there are two combined wardrobes with combination locks in the dormitory and an independent bathroom that can take a shower. This environment is indeed much better than other ordinary student dormitories of Aurous Hill University.

Faced with Lisa's exclamation, Claudia was a little surprised. She looked around the room and asked curiously, "Miss Lisa, shouldn't all school dormitories look like this? This environment is quite standard. It's not good, right? There's not even a living room."

In Claudia's perception, university dormitories in Canada and the United States start with a double room at least, and some school dormitories are even like shared suites. , each of the four people has an independent room, and also has a common living room and kitchen.

Therefore, the ordinary double room in front of her was indeed ordinary to Claudia.

Lisa didn't know the standard of living in Canada when she went to university. When Claudia said that the dormitory has no living room, she asked dumbfounded, "What do you need a living room in the dormitory?" Charlie reminded with a smile, "

Lisa, Claudia grew up in Canada. Growing up, there must be many differences between schools in the two countries, not to mention that Canada has a large land area and sparse population, and naturally there are many more resources per capita, so there is no need for the school dormitory to be made into four, six or even eight-person rooms."

Lisa said with a smile, "I remember when we were in the orphanage, more than tenA child and an Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie )ved in the same room, and the room was full of Datong shops. Each of them only had their own set of small quilts and small pillows. Eight people can live in a dormitory and have a bed of their own. Even if it is only half of the upper and lower bunks, it is very happy. So seeing this kind of dormitory for two people, I think the environment is very good. Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie ) on the side said, "

Let's stop chatting, and help Claudia make the bed quickly, and check what else is missing, and go directly to the supermarket to buy some later."

Claudia hurriedly said, "Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie ), I'll just do it myself! " "

Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie ) laughed and said, "Of course the parents do this kind of thing for them. "

As he said, he stepped forward to help Claudia unpack the whole package of new bedding, and spread it skillfully on Claudia's bed with Lisa. After the bed was tidied up, Mrs. Lewis ( Aunt Angie ) asked the three of them "Should we find a place to eat first or do the shopping first? "

charlie thought for a while and said, "Let's go to the school cafeteria at noon to try, see if Claudia can get used to the food here, and then go to the supermarket to buy some daily necessities." "

Speaking, charlie suddenly felt a sudden jump in his pants pocket.

He realized that the ring was jumping again, and this was the third time the ring was jumping. He was surprised, and felt The ring suddenly jumped more and more violently!

In the past, the ring only jumped once or twice like a convulsion, and then returned to calm. It has never been like this time, like a popping candy that exploded, jumping more and more crazily Non-stop.

charlie stretched out his hand to cover it through his trouser pocket, and he could feel it constantly pounding in his palm.

Just when he was puzzled, a somewhat familiar voice suddenly came, "Hello, this is 301 bedroom? " charlie felt that the voice was somewhat familiar, and subconsciously turned around to look. When he saw the appearance of the person coming, his eyes widened instantly, and he stood there in a daze!
