

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5776 -

When charlie started to plan ahead, other An family members including charlie's second uncle, uncle and aunt had also arrived at Wanliu Villa one after another.

Ever since the An's family started taking video records for the old man An Qishan every day, they discovered that the old man's memory had changed immediately after he came to Aurous Hill and lived in Wanliu Villa.

In the past, the old man's memory has been continuously deteriorating. He must not be able to remember what happened recently, even what happened before going to bed, after waking up.

However, in the past few days since he lived in Wanliu Villa, the old man can remember almost everything he personally experienced. After comparing it with the content recorded in the video, he found that the old man can actually remember what happened yesterday. Eight out of ten, nine.

This change made An's family ecstatic.

Moreover, all the people lived in the villa located in the center, and after they lived in, they all felt refreshed and comfortable, which made them firmly believe that this place is a real piece of land. Fengshui treasure land.

In the past two days, the An family has begun to spread the scope of investigation in Aurous Hill one after another. Their efficiency is very high, and they have penetrated into the civil affairs system, welfare assistance system, and medical records of major hospitals. No information related to charlie was found.

The An family had expected that things would not go too smoothly, so they were not discouraged. Just when Zhang Ermao got charlie's instructions and started to make the three magical artifacts old, the old couple of the An family called a few children together, He called Li Yalin again, and we had a meeting together.

Because the memories of the past few days are very complete, the scheming An Qishan gradually found the rhythm of the master. After analyzing the current situation, he temporarily set the next plan in two directions.

One is that Homula led other people to continue to carry out a carpet search in Aurous Hill, looking for all clues that may be related to charlie

; Information about the owner of Rejuvenation Pill.

After all, in the eyes of the An family, the owner of Huichun Pill is most likely the same person as the benefactor who saved An's family in the United States that day. Ask benefactor to help find charlie's whereabouts.

Asher didn't dare to delay, and immediately got in touch with people from the Moore Group, and after announcing his identity, he made a request to visit Jasmine moore.

The last time Asher came to visit Jasmine moore, the name he reported was still the fake identity named dhilon.

Therefore, Jasmine moore's assistant never dreamed that the famous American Anjia would take the initiative to contact the Moore Group, and the eldest son of the An family wanted to visit Jasmine moore in person.

This feeling is no different from an IT start-up company with 30 or 40 people who suddenly received a request from Bill Gates to visit.

The excited assistant ran into the conference room regardless of Jasmine moore's meeting with the supplier, and excitedly said in Jasmine moore's ear, "President moore... American Anjia wants to make an appointment with you to visit the group in person!" "Anjia

? "Jasmine moore couldn't help frowning.

If other entrepreneurs in Aurous Hill heard that An's family came to visit, they would be ecstatic, but Jasmine moore unconsciously became worried.

She had received a reminder from charlie a long time ago, knowing that the An family was looking for clues to charlie in Aurous Hill. Which one of these two will eventually point to charlie.

So, she said to the assistant, "Don't rush to reply to this matter, let's talk about it after I'm done." The assistant didn't know, so she quickly reminded, "Mr. moore, that's from the An family..."

"I know." Jasmine moore nodded Nodding his head, he said lightly, "That's when I finish my work."

The assistant had no choice but to respectfully say, "Okay Mr. moore, then I won't reply to them, and wait for your message."

Jasmine moore waved her hand and asked, "You tell them the exact words, just say that I'm busy now, and let them wait for my news." "

Uh... okay..." The assistant didn't know why Jasmine moore, who had always been very low-key, didn't give me a message. The An family lost face, so she had no choice but to return the original words to Asher according to her request.

Asher had visited Jasmine moore long after the Huichun Pill auction was over, but that time, Jasmine moore did not disclose any information related to Huichun Pill to him.

However, in Asher's view, today is not what it used to be.

At the beginning, I was all thinking about Huichun Pill, but in the end, Huichun Pill was not photographed, and I even touched the owner of Huichun Pill. However, after the mysterious benefactor rescued the entire An family in New York, Asher felt that Ruo Engong and Huichun Pill If the owner is really the same person, then maybe he will change his attitude towards Anjia because of what happened in New York.

But he didn't expect that his own idea would be a little frustrated with Jasmine moore.

After Jasmine moore asked her assistant to reject Asher, she immediately suspended the meeting, went back to the meeting room and called charlie, and said respectfully on the phone, "Master wade, your uncle called again, saying that he wanted to visit the Moore Group. Do you think it is necessary for me to meet with him?"

charlie said, "It is not impossible to meet, but if they ask about me, you can tell them that I have left Aurous Hill since the last auction. As for where you went, you don't know."

Jasmine moore hurriedly said, "Master wade, if you don't want to reveal any clues for the time being, jasmine still won't meet your uncle. , if there is any expression management that is not done well, he will find out."

charlie smiled and said, "Wanting, are you stupid? My uncle is also the young master of the An family. When he sees you this time, he will definitely Prepare enough sincerity, maybe it will bring a new space for the Song family to develop, you must not miss this good opportunity."

Jasmine moore said seriously, "Master wade, I am afraid of delaying your business, so I still want to keep it with the An family. A certain distance..."

charlie smiled and said, "You don't have to think about it. After you meet my uncle, just ask him all the questions. Even if he knows what you are hiding, he will never dare to force you to tell the truth. Besides, no matter what you do Not to mention, the benefits he has prepared for you will definitely be given to you first."

After speaking, charlie said again, "The An family rarely set up commercial territory in China before, but this time when they come to Aurous Hill, they should use the country as an important place in the future. The most important thing, and in their eyes, you are the only next family who can really get on line with me, they will definitely try their best to show their favor to you, if the Song family can take the opportunity of the creditor, bind them Together, there will be an excellent opportunity for rapid development in the future, and this kind of good thing is not often encountered."

Jasmine moore knew that charlie was thinking about herself, so she said gratefully, "I understand Master wade, then I'll make an appointment with your uncle in a while!"

charlie hummed, and then said, "Oh yes, you can tell him some news at the right time."

Jasmine moore hurriedly asked, "What news?"

charlie smiled slightly, and said, "Just say I'll ask you to bring me a sentence and tell them that what happened in New York is just a matter of little effort, so they don't have to take it to heart." Jasmine moore didn't know what happened in New York back then, but she heard charlie say so , she didn't have much Asked, and said respectfully, "Okay, Master wade, when I see your uncle, I will convey this sentence to them in due course."

charlie reminded, "Remember to mention it before he asks the conditions, preferably before When he asks you about me, tell him by the way, after you say this, no matter what conditions he prepares for you, he will definitely double the price temporarily!" charlie knew very well that the uncle's visit to Jasmine What exactly is the motivation.

He just wanted to find out the identity of the owner of the Huichun Pill, and by the way, confirm whether the owner of the Huichun Pill was the same person as himself who saved An's family in New York.

Now that he has come to the door, I might as well admit this generously, so that they can be sure that the person who saved them is the owner of the Huichun Pill. In this way, they can combine the identities of the two mysterious people into one one.

As for their true identity, they will definitely not be able to find out for a while. When the time is right in the future, I will naturally meet them and tell them openly that I am the mysterious person who merged into one.

At that time, these three different identities in the hearts of the An family will be completely merged together.

Just when Asher didn't know how to open the breakthrough of the Moore Group, Jasmine moore's assistant called him back.

On the phone, Jasmine moore's assistant said to him, "Mr. An, Mr. moore, we can spare 20 minutes to meet with you at six o'clock this afternoon. Would you like to make an appointment for this time slot?"

"No matter which company boss he visited, it was impossible for the other party to set a time for him and only give him 20 minutes for the meeting. This was the first time for Jasmine moore.

However, at this moment, Asher was not displeased. Instead, he said happily, "No problem, please make an appointment for me. I must be at the Moore Group before six o'clock!"

At 5:30 in the afternoon, Asher had already arrived at the Moore Group. After waiting in the lounge for half an hour, Jasmine moore's assistant came over and said to him, "Mr. An, Miss moore can see you, please tell me I'll come."

Asher stood up quickly, and said, "Thank you!"

The assistant brought Asher to Jasmine moore's office, and said to Jasmine moore, "Mr. moore, Mr. Asher'an is here."

Jasmine moore raised her head, looked at Asher, smiled and said, "Mr. An, we meet again."
