

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5796 -

Willie followed the little Taoist priest to the side hall of the middle courtyard of Changyun Temple. This is the living room of Changyun Temple, which is specially used to entertain abbots, supervisors from other Taoist temples, or pilgrims who have made great contributions to the Taoist temple. believer.

After placing Willie here, the little Taoist hurried to report.

In Changyun Temple, most of the people who stay in the front yard for a long time are young Taoist priests with little experience, so they are asked to maintain the order of tourists and believers in the front yard. is their job.

Therefore, if the little Taoist priest wanted to report the news to the prison, it would have to pass it up layer by layer, and the number of layers to be passed on was more than the little Taoist priest thought.

Twenty minutes later, surrounded by the crowd, an old man in Taoist robes hurried over, both happy and surprised.

He rushed into the living room non-stop, glanced at Willie, and stood motionless at the door as if he had been cast in a body spell.

This person is the current prison of Changyun Temple, a Riggs.

Riggs is the Taoist name given to him by his master who adopted him back then. Since he was a child, his master has called him by this nickname. After he took over as the supervisor, he added the word Sanren after it.

Willie looked at him, stroked his long beard gently, and asked him with a smile, "Riggs, do you still recognize me?" Uncle Willie...is it really you?!"

Uncle Willie nodded lightly, "It's really me."

Riggs was very excited, looked at him, and murmured, "Uncle Willie, the current you , younger than Riggs, could it be... Could it be that you have really found the method of longevity?"

When Riggs said this, several elderly Taoist priests around looked shocked!

These people are all core members of the Changyun Temple, and they all heard the story of the real Willie told by Xu Sanren.

Riggs once told these people that the last time he saw Master Willie was in the late 1950s.

Now, after nearly seventy years, I never expected that the real Willie in front of me would look younger than the Sanren Riggs.

In their view, Master Willie really found the legendary method of longevity.

Daomen disciples are different from warriors in that warriors all use martial arts to enter Taoism, but there are many ways to enter Taoism.

Among the Taoist schools, there are also those who enter Taoism through martial arts. The Quanzhen Sect, which is often mentioned by martial arts, is a model of entering Taoism through martial arts ; There are many ways to enter Taoism through door Dunjia.

The Taoist priests of Changyun Temple have used alchemy to enter the Tao for hundreds of years, but because their cultivation base and alchemy are not exquisite enough, they have not produced any real great talents for so many years.

Willie became a disciple of Changyun Temple at the end of the 19th century. Until the 1940s, he stayed in Changyun Temple for more than half a century. In order to try the alchemy, I walked countless times before the gate of hell, but I couldn't really master the spiritual energy.

It was also at that time that he was disheartened and decided to leave Changyun Temple, and since then he gave up using pills to enter the Tao and looked for other methods.

Then, by chance, he joined the Po Qinghui ( Benn ), and with the instruction and help of the hero, he mastered the aura.

Over the years, he has returned to Huaxia several times with different identities, but he has never been to Changyun Temple.

The reason why he didn't come to Changyun Temple was because Willie didn't want the disciples and grandchildren of Changyun Temple to know that he had found the way of longevity.

In his opinion, he had gone through untold hardships before he finally entered the Tao. This kind of secret must not be known to anyone who knows him, including Chang Yun Guan.

But today, the reason why he chose to come to Changyun Temple was that he had not found Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s whereabouts these days.

The Lord of England has been urging him to go to Aurous Hill. He procrastinated for days, but not for a month. With the Lord of England's temper, he will give himself an ultimatum in two or three days at most, so he must find some helpers to help him in China. Find Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s whereabouts within the range.

And he has never supported his own power in the Po Qinghui ( Benn ) in these years, so the only people who can use it now are the Taoist priests of Changyun Temple.

At this moment, seeing Riggs looking at him expectantly, looking forward to his answer, Willie smiled indifferently and said to him, "Riggs, this is not a place to talk. Is the secret room in the backyard still there? If so It's still there, let's move over there and talk in detail!"

Riggs hurriedly said, "Still, still! Uncle Willie

, please follow me!" The aged Riggs led the way attentively, leading Willie Bo Arrived at the underground secret room in the backyard.

Several of his other juniors also wanted to go together, but Uncle Willie played tricks at this moment.

He said to Riggs, "Riggs, what we want to talk about between you and me is very important. To be cautious, let's have a chat first.

" Master!"

Afterwards, he left the others outside the secret room, and entered the secret room together with Uncle Willie.

In the secret room, before Willie stood still, the Sanren Riggs who was leading the way suddenly turned around, knelt down on his knees, and said respectfully, "Uncle Willie, Riggs never thought that I would see you again in this life." You! Please be respected by your disciples

Willie stretched out his hand to help him up, and said with a smile, "Although you are not my direct disciple, after all, you were raised by my junior brother and worshiped my junior brother as a teacher. In my eyes, you It's the same as my personal disciple."

Riggs was very excited, and said respectfully, "Uncle Willie, where have you been all these years? Why haven't you gone back to Changyun to take a look?"

Uncle Willie asked back, "I'm not already are you back?"

"Yes..." Riggs nodded quickly, and asked again, "By the way, Master Willie, you... what have you experienced outside these years, I wonder if you can tell me about it, and make me fascinated by it." Fan!"

Willie laughed and said, "Seventy years of life experience can be explained clearly in a few words."

Then, he saw Riggs's expression was a little disappointed, so he said again, "But what I can tell you is , I have indeed found the law of longevity."

Riggs became excited again in an instant, and hurriedly asked, "Master Willie...you...have you mastered spiritual energy?!" "

That's right." Uncle Willie didn't hold back , nodded and said, "For my generation to practice, it is only when we cultivate spiritual energy that we can be regarded as a preliminary victory. Otherwise, we will not escape life, old age, sickness and death. Although I have spiritual energy now, it is not true that I am immortal, but my life span is longer than that of ordinary people. "

Riggs asked tentatively, "Uncle Willie, you are probably over one hundred and fifty years old this year, right?"

Uncle Willie nodded and sighed, "I am already one hundred and fifty-six years old this year." I'm old."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5798 -

"One hundred and fifty-six years old..." Riggs said yearningly, "You don't even look fifty-six years old..."

Willie said indifferently, "This is after mastering the spiritual energy." I have already lived for the nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries, if I can live to the twenty-second century, I will have no regrets in this life."

Riggs was stunned, bent his legs, Then he knelt down on the ground again, kowtowed his head heavily, and begged, "Uncle Willie, please teach Riggs the way of longevity. If you agree, Riggs is willing to stay by your side for the rest of his life at your command. There is no difference between mountains of swords and seas of fire!"

Riggs has entered Daoism for more than 70 years, and at this moment he is in the same state as when Willie left Changyun Temple.

I have been practicing Taoism and elixir all day long, but I have never been able to find out where the door to the way of longevity opens.

Now that he is over seventy years old, he had accepted his fate, but he never expected to see his uncle here again.

Therefore, this also rekindled the longing for longevity in his heart.

Willie looked at him, sighed softly, and said very sincerely, "Riggs, after so many years, I came back here again, just to find you, to find the disciples of Changyun Temple, like the ones I have gained over the years . Come out and share with you!"

Riggs trembled with excitement, looked up at Uncle Willie, choked up and said, "Uncle Willie...you...are you really willing to pass on the way of longevity to your disciples?"

Willie Uncle nodded and said, "I have been thinking about Changyun Guan all these years. Changyun Guan has been so kind to me. Naturally, I hope that it will last forever. And you are a child raised by my junior brother. I also hope that you If I can enter the gate of longevity like me, and slowly grow in the future, I can be regarded as having someone to accompany me..."

Riggs was extremely excited, and hurriedly kowtowed three times, and said loudly, "Disciple Riggs, I wish to be the master of Willie Uncle is going through fire and water!"

Uncle Willie smiled slightly, helped him up, and said with a smile, "I came back this time, thinking in my heart that I can stay in Changyun Temple in the future. At that time, you will retreat with me for five years, and I promise to let you master it. The ability to control spiritual energy."

Riggs was overjoyed immediately, and immediately said, "Disciple Riggs, thank Master Willie for your great kindness!"

Uncle Willie waved his hand and said calmly, "But you can't be in a hurry now, because I can't do it right now. Just throw away all other things and go back to Changyun Temple to retreat. You wait for me in Changyun Temple, and I will come back to you after I finish the matter." Riggs hurriedly asked, "

Master Willie, this disciple is bold Let me ask you a question, when will you be able to finish the matter?"

Willie was silent for a moment, then said, "It will be a year soon, ten years in a long time, and if things don't go well, it may take longer."

Riggs was stunned , almost desperately said, "Uncle Willie, how can this disciple last ten years..."

Uncle Willie sighed helplessly, "Hey, Riggs, Master, I can't help myself. The reason why I can master the spiritual energy is all thanks to the help of a noble person. The reason why I haven't come back these years is because I have stayed here The nobleman is on the saddle, just like what you promised to me just now, and I also promised like this back then. After that nobleman taught me his mind, now he has one thing for me to do, before this thing is done. , I will always listen to his orders.”

As he spoke, Willie sighed, “Now that nobleman wants me to find a woman and a token in the woman’s hand for him in Huaxia. If I can find it, I can get it.” Freedom, if I can’t find it, I’ll keep looking for it like this.”

At this point, Willie said again, “Oh, yes, I can’t stay in Eastcliff for long, and I have to go south in a few days. Here, wait for my good news.”

Riggs thought about it, this wait may take decades, and it may even be impossible to wait until death, how could he be so passive and wait for death?

So, he hurriedly said to Uncle Willie, “Uncle Willie, who are you looking for? Tell this disciple, I will help you find her by mobilizing all connections, even if I dig three feet into the ground!”
