

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5821 -

the next day.

charlie and Claire got up at dawn.

Taking advantage of Jacob and Elaine not waking up, they got ready at six o'clock and drove to the airport.

This time, it was charlie and Claire's first time traveling alone in the years of their marriage.

Although both of them felt reluctance in their hearts, they both knew that they had no choice but to leave this time.

charlie wanted to ensure Claire's safety, and sent her to Fei Kexin, who would definitely take good care of her;

And Claire felt that he had to help Fei Kexin Kexin relieved her urgent need, so she could only temporarily separate from her husband for a period of time.

When we parted at the airport, Claire's eyes were red, he hugged charlie gently, and muttered in his mouth, "Honey, I don't know how long it will take me to go to the United States this time, but the family will be hard on you..." charlie caressed her On the back, he comforted, "With your husband here, don't worry, I will take care of your parents."

Claire reminded, "The main thing is to take care of yourself, don't always think about helping others to see Feng Shui.

" " charlie smiled slightly, and said softly, "You too, don't always think about work when you arrive in New York, pay attention to combining work and rest."

Claire quietly wiped away her tears, and said reluctantly, "Honey, then I will go in..."

"Go!" charlie nodded, and said with a smile, "Tell me as soon as you land."

"Okay!"

charlie watched Claire enter the security check, and turned and left after she completed the security check and left the security check passage .

It was only half past six at this time, charlie did not leave in a hurry, but came to the arrival hall of the airport.

Because it was too early, there were very few people waiting here to pick up the plane, and charlie saw one of the men holding Dai Yu's finger at the exit, holding a pick-up sign at the exit.

charlie was a little relieved. From the current point of view, the things arranged by Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) are very reliable.

charlie remained calm, and silently came to the big screen at the airport and stopped to watch.

The earliest flight from Aurous Hill will take off ten minutes later, while the earliest inbound flight will not land until eight o'clock.

In the list of incoming flights, most of the departures are major cities in China, and a few are other overseas cities.

charlie doesn't know whether his enemy will arrive by plane, or where his enemy will come from, but he knows one thing, that is, from now on, he will be stationed in Aurous Hill, and he will no longer have any worries!

He clenched his fists and swore in his heart, "No matter who it is, if he wants to continue killing my grandparents in this city where my parents were brutally killed 20 years ago, I, charlie, will fight to the death and fight with my life! Gods come to kill gods, Buddhas come to kill Buddhas!"

The last sixteen words resounded in charlie's heart!

He took another look at the incoming flight at the airport with firm eyes, turned around, and strode away!

At this time, Eastcliff.

It was also 6:30 in the morning, and Eastcliff International Airport was much busier than Aurous Hill.

Due to the overcrowding of flights, Eastcliff's outbound flights began to depart one after another at 6:10 in the morning.

Willie, who was wearing a long gown, walked into the domestic departure hall of Eastcliff Airport as Willie, an overseas Chinese from Argentina.

Under the pressure of the British master, he bought the earliest flight to Aurous Hill today. The plane took off at eight o'clock and the flight was expected to take one hour and forty minutes.

After completing the check-in procedures, Willie closed his eyes and rested in the first-class lounge, waiting for boarding.

However, his heart that has been beating for one hundred and fifty-six years, for some reason, always stalls frequently for no reason at this time, sometimes suddenly too fast, sometimes suddenly too slow, like a roller coaster with lingering fear.

Willie knew that this abnormal behavior was due to his nervousness.

Although he hasn't been really nervous for many years, he still clearly remembers that he used to be like this whenever he was nervous, and it was a habit formed from childhood to youth.

At this moment, Willie couldn't help recalling his long life journey.

In his childhood, he lived in the tragic era of losing power and humiliating the country. There was not enough food, no warm clothes, wolves everywhere, and tigers and leopards around

As for himself, he couldn't count how many times he had struggled from the brink of death. He only remembered that whenever the critical moment of life and death came, his heart would go up and down like before, with a few Pain and palpitations.

At that time, he entered Changyun Temple and became a Taoist priest just to avoid the flames of war, to eat well, and to survive.

At that time, he learned Taoism in order to survive and not starve to death, but after he entered the Taoist school, he realized that what Taoism pursues is not just to live, but to live forever.

After decades of cultivating the Tao, although he touched the door of longevity, he still couldn't get it right. Then he finally left his hometown at a rare age to find the real way of longevity. road.

Ever since he mastered the aura, for so many years, Willie has never felt the same sense of tension as before. Until today, after more than a hundred years, he once again felt the kind of anxiety between life and death.

He couldn't help thinking in his heart, "Is it possible that there will be a catastrophe when I go to Aurous Hill this time?"

Thinking of this, he quickly shook his head, and comforted himself in his heart, "It shouldn't be! How can there be a giant that can hurt me in Aurous Hill? Entrenched? Twenty years ago, Bruce Wade and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), who lived in seclusion here, were vulnerable to me! This time, I wiped out An's family in Aurous Hill, and absolutely no one can hurt me!"

Speaking of this, the corners of his mouth turned up into a cruel and playful arc, and he sneered in his heart, "There is also the only son of Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and Bruce Wade, who let you escape by chance twenty years ago. This time, I will send you and your grandparents' family to meet your short-lived parents!"

At this moment, the service staff in the first-class lounge came to him and said respectfully, "Hello, Mr Willie. , Your flight to Aurous Hill has already started boarding, please go to gate 36 to board the plane in time."

Willie opened his eyes and smiled slightly, "Okay, thank you."

After speaking, he stood up and went to gate 36. No. boarding gate.

Forty minutes later, Willie's plane took off on the runway of Eastcliff Airport, turned half a circle in the air, and flew all the way south.

Ten o'clock in the morning.

The plane landed at Aurous Hill Airport ten minutes early.

As the cabin music played, Willie, who had closed his eyes all the way, opened his eyes. He looked out the window and felt that his blood was gradually boiling hot.

He knew it was a desire to kill.

Because all actions require the approval of the British Lord, he does not have many opportunities to kill. The last time he did it was twenty years ago, and this time, he wants to destroy the whole family in Aurous Hill. Can't help but sigh in my heart, I really have some fate with Aurous Hill, but the bloody smell of this fate is a bit stronger.

When the plane stopped at the corridor bridge, Willie was the first to step out of the cabin.

He walked through the corridor, through the luggage area, and walked into the arrival hall of the airport.

He knows the location of the An family, but he is not going to attack the An family immediately, because the hero has two tasks. In addition to destroying the An family, he has to plan the hiding place after the attack, because he will be in the dark. Waiting for the sons of Lydia (Ava) ( Charlie's mom ) and Bruce Wade to appear.

Therefore, the first thing right now is to find a place to stay.

Just when he was about to take a taxi to the city, he suddenly noticed something unusual!

Immediately, he immediately turned his head and fixed his eyes on a middle-aged man who was holding a sign to meet people diagonally behind him.

He didn't look at what was written on the huge sign, all his eyes were focused on the right thumb of the middle-aged man.

In an instant, his pupils suddenly shrank!

If he described his control of aura as another kind of vision, then this man's right thumb is the only light in the dark world he can see!

Although many religions have different worldviews, they all mention a concept invariably, that is the age of the end of the Dharma.

In layman's terms, these religions all believe that the continuous development of human beings has gradually reduced the interaction between human beings and nature, the heaven and the earth, and the universe, thus making the distance between human beings and gods farther and farther.

According to Taoists, the heaven and the earth were originally filled with spiritual energy. As long as they mastered the method of absorbing and transforming the spiritual energy, human beings could ascend to immortality. But now, the spiritual energy in nature is almost exhausted, and human beings have lost the possibility of ascending to immortality. So this is the Dharma-ending era in their eyes.

Regardless of whether this statement is true or not, for those who have mastered spiritual energy at this stage, their personal experience is that there is no spiritual energy in nature, and the only way to obtain spiritual energy is through pills or other special items that contain spiritual energy.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5824 -

Willie relied on the elixir given by the British Lord to gradually master the aura. For so many years, the way for him to obtain the aura was not only the elixir given by the British Lord, but also the British Lord who set up a spiritual energy inside the base of the Poqing Society. A special array of .

When this formation is in operation, it will continuously produce spiritual energy. Although the spiritual energy produced is not much, it is still considerable after many years.

In the past few years, the four earls in the Qing Dynasty were also fortunate enough to have the opportunity to retreat and practice in the formation, but most of the time the formation was dedicated to serving the British Lord alone. m.

It is also in this situation that the four Earls of the Poqing Society are extremely sensitive to the traces of the surrounding aura.

Like a hungry mouse, it is extremely sensitive to the taste of food.

In Willie's life, there is only one magic weapon that belongs to him, and that is a wooden sword bestowed on him by the Lord of England. In that wooden sword, there is an attacking formation.

Other than that, he is worthless.

So, when he realized that the man who picked up the plane actually had a magic weapon in his hand, his heart still jumped into his throat excitedly!

So, he stopped his figure and quietly observed the other party.

At this time, Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) ( Reed ) didn't realize that an old man was staring at him not far away.

He is full of energy now, because as long as he holds a sign and stands guard at the airport for a day, he can earn twenty-three thousand yuan for his hard work, which is much more than his income from setting up a stall on the antique street.

And on the sign he held in his hand, there were six big characters "Receive Hong Kong businessman Colin". He didn't know who Colin was, and he didn't even want Colin to come over too early. In the next four months of this year, I will be able to rest at home.

Willie observed Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) for a while, and came to a conclusion that this person is not proficient in aura. Well, his brows and expressions are full of the real street spirit of a small citizen. A person who is proficient in spiritual energy can never have this kind of low-level street atmosphere.

Therefore, Willie guessed that this person should not know that the finger wrench in his own hand is actually a magic weapon!

Thinking of this, he came up with the idea of pulling his fingers.

So, he pretended to look left and right and came to Zhao Laosi ( Reed ), and then asked him, "Brother, please ask me, if I want to go to the city center, how should I get there?"

Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) looked back at him, seeing He was an inconspicuous old man, so he said indifferently, "Is there any need to ask? Taxi, subway, airport bus, which one doesn't go to the city?"

" He was very dissatisfied, but he didn't mean to get angry. After all, this also strengthened his judgment on Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) ( Reed ).

So, he smiled and said, "To tell you the truth, brother, it's my first time in Aurous Hill, I'm not familiar with the place, and I'm old, and my eyes are not very good, so I'm somewhat confused. "

As he said, he took out a hundred-yuan bill from his pocket, handed it in front of Mr. ( Reed ), and said, "This is a small thought, please accept it. If it is convenient, can you tell me which means of transportation I should choose? faster?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5825 -

Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) ( Reed ) didn't want to talk to the old man at first, but when he saw the other party take out a hundred-yuan bill, his attitude immediately improved.

He smiled and took the one hundred yuan from Willie's hand, and then said flatly, "The subway must be the fastest, but it's past ten o'clock, and the morning rush hour has passed. Now it's easy to take a taxi to the city." Half an hour, faster than the subway, since you are not short of money, you should take a taxi."

"Okay!" Willie cupped his hands and said politely, "Thank you, brother!"

"You are welcome." Mr. Reed said, and directly stuffed the hundred-yuan bill into his pocket.

In his opinion, if he didn't put the money in his pocket quickly, maybe the old guy would ask him to go back.

At this point, Willie pointed to the jade wrench on his right thumb, and asked curiously, "Brother, I think your wrench is not bad. I wonder how much it is worth?"

" Although it is usually cheating and abducting, but he still has some sharp eyesight, so he said casually, "This finger is from the Qing Dynasty. It is not too valuable, and it will not be too cheap. The market price should be about ten thousand.

” Sheng Bo didn’t have much research on antiques, so he asked him curiously, “What does Zhongwan mean?”

Mr. Reed said, “Zhongwan is the middle number of ten thousand, which fluctuates by one or two around 50,000.”Wandu belongs to Zhongwan. “

“Ouch.” “Willie said with a smile, “Looking at what you said so easily, brother, you must be in the antique business, right? “

“Yes. “Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) didn’t hide it, and said casually, “I have been doing antiques, but I have been doing it for more than ten or twenty years.

Willie asked curiously, “Brother, since you are an antique maker, why did you come to this airport to pick up people? ” “

Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) ( Reed ) frowned, looked Willie up and down, and said, “Old man, you have a lot of questions. Don’t you want to know how to get to the city as quickly as possible?” Then you should hurry up. “

Willie thumped in his heart, thinking that he seemed to be talking too much, which aroused the other party’s vigilance.

So he quickly said with an apologetic face, “Oh, I’m so sorry, this person talks a lot when he gets old. I want to chat with everyone, don’t mind. “

What Uncle Willie didn’t know was that what Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) meant by saying this was actually to remind him that if he still wanted to ask other questions, he should take some more money out. The amount of 100 yuan just now was regarded as It’s already been used up.

Therefore, Zhao Laosi ( Reed ) smiled and said meaningfully, “Master, it doesn’t matter if you talk a little more, the key is who you talk to and how you talk. “

As he said, he deliberately used his thumb and forefinger wearing a jade wrench to count money.

Willie came back to his senses, and cursed in his heart, “I’m so fucking dumb, I think so highly of you ! Since this is the case, I don’t need to go around with you, and I’ll get straight to the point!

Immediately, he immediately took out a few more hundred-yuan bills from his pocket and handed them to Mr. Reed, and said with a smile, “To tell you the truth, I am also very interested in antiques. When I saw the finger wrench in your hand, I felt very eye-catching. ” Yuan’er, I really like her so much, I wonder if my little brother can part with her? Let’s talk about money! “
