

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5830 -

“You want to buy it?”

Uncle Willie nodded, “Yes, I want to buy it, please give me a price for your hard work!”

After hearing Uncle Willie’s asking price, Zhao Laosi (Reed) immediately thought of Zhang Ermao (Cade)’s previous explanation.

No matter who wants to buy this finger, they have to ask a sky-high price that is 100 times higher than the market price.

Zhao Laosi (Reed) didn’t understand why Zhang Ermao (Cade) did this, but after all, he was taking people’s money and doing things for others, so he definitely had to follow the routine. After all, he was just here to pick up people. Talk to Zhang Ermao (Cade).

So, I thought about it for a while, this jade ring finger is worth at most ten thousand, a hundred times the price, which is in the range of one million.

Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth, stretched out three fingers, and said to Uncle Willie, “I guess this thing costs at least three million!” “

Three million?” Uncle Willie frowned slightly. Although he has practiced in seclusion all the year round and doesn’t often go out to do errands, he still has a clear idea of what three million is. With just such a finger-twist, the asking price of three million is indeed a bit too dark.

Fortunately, the funds for breaking the Qing Dynasty are sufficient, let alone several million, even if it is several hundred million, it is nothing to Willie.

So, he asked Zhao Laosi (Reed), “If I want, can we trade now?”

So, he said, “If you really want to buy it, you have to go and talk to my elder brother. I can’t make up my mind about the specific situation.”

Then, he asked Uncle Willie, “Master, the price of three million is just a preliminary price. Quotation, and only the lowest price, no upper limit, if you can accept it, I will call my elder brother to ask for instructions, if not, let’s not waste each other’s time.” Willie nodded lightly, and did With a gesture of invitation, he said, “Three million, I can accept it.”

Zhao Laosi (Reed) was shocked and speechless, but he still said to Willie very cautiously, “Old man, return the finger to me first, and I will call my elder brother.” Willie could only return the finger with reluctance

. go back.

Zhao Laosi (Reed) took back his finger, walked a little further, and made sure that Uncle Willie couldn't hear him, so he took out his mobile phone and called Zhang Ermao (Cade).

As soon as the phone call was made, Zhao Laosi (Reed) immediately lowered his voice and said, “Brother Ermao, someone wants to buy the finger wrench you gave me.”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) asked, “How much did you pay him? “

Zhao Laosi (Reed) lowered his voice and said in a low voice, “I The minimum offer to him was three million, and he...he said he could accept it..”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) snorted and said, “If he can accept it, let him come to Antique Street to talk to me face to face. “

“Okay!” “Zhao Laosi (Reed) readily agreed, and then asked again, “Brother Ermao, I have spent a lot of time talking with this old man. If the deal is really three million, you have to give me credit for it!” “

“Don't worry. Zhang Ermao (Cade) said without hesitation, “No matter how much money is sold, I will give you 10% of the reward!” “

“Really? ! “Zhao Laosi (Reed)'s excited heart almost jumped out, one-tenth of three million, this is three hundred thousand! I can't earn so much after working hard for a year...

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said with a smile at this time “When have I lied to you? If you can still introduce big customers and buy other things from me, then I will give you another five points! “

Zhao Laosi (Reed) was ecstatic in his heart, and quickly said, “Okay Ermao brother, with your words, I will definitely fool you, oh no, I will introduce you well!” “

Zhang Ermao (Cade) reminded, “Don't patronize talking about customers, pay attention to the airport, the big customers on Hong Kong Island may come at any time, and that is the real big money maker!” “

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5831 -

“Don’t worry, Brother Ermao!” “Zhao Laosi (Reed) said excitedly,” I will definitely not lose the chain! “

After hanging up the phone, Zhao Laosi (Reed) walked back excitedly, but he didn’t know that Willie listened to all these conversations.

From the conversation between him and Zhang Ermao (Cade), Uncle Willie didn’t hear any flaws. Instead, he strengthened his previous judgment, and also firmly believed that the Ermao brother that Mr. Reed was talking about must have other good things in his hand. , maybe there are other magic weapons.

Thinking of this, he was also very excited. To him, being able to get a magic weapon is as important as a martial artist who suddenly gets a complete mental method, or a football player who wins the Hercules Cup once. It is almost a career. It is one of the highest expectations of my life, and this time, I may be able to get more than one, this luck is simply bursting!

At this time, Zhao Laosi (Reed) returned to Uncle Willie, smiled mysteriously, and asked, “Old man, do you want to see my elder brother?” Willie cupped his hands and said,

“That’s right! “

My eldest brother has never met strangers, I just said that I would introduce you to meet him, and he scolded me, thinking that I dare to talk to anyone...”

Willie looked at Zhao Laosi (Reed), his eyes were like eagles A trace of anger and killing intent flashed in the sharp eyes.

He had already heard all the conversation between the two of them, and knew that Zhao Laosi (Reed) was playing tricks on him on purpose, and wanted to get some benefits from him.

He has lived for so many years, and it has been a long time since no one dared to play such a trick in front of him.

However, Uncle Willie also knew that as the saying goes, petty indifference can lead to great conspiracy. Although he is annoyed in his heart, he must not turn his face against Zhao Laosi (Reed) because of this.

Isn’t the reason why Zhao Laosi (Reed) is so jittery because he wants money? To me, this is nothing at all.

So, he immediately put his hand into his pocket, took out all the thousands of dollars inside, handed it directly to Zhao Laosi (Reed), and said, “Brother, I have expressed my sincerity many times, if you don't take out some more Sincerely, it's really unreasonable, isn't it?"

Zhao Laosi (Reed) saw thousands of dollars in front of him again, if he was greedy again at this time, if the old man turned around and sued him in front of Zhang Ermao (Cade), maybe Zhang Ermao (Cade) would agree to him The benefits fly away.

In the past, he was not afraid of Zhang Ermao (Cade), but some time ago Zhang Ermao (Cade) followed Hong Wuye, he was afraid that Zhang Ermao (Cade) still had friendship with Hong Wuye, so naturally he didn't dare to offend him.

So, he hurriedly took Qian under his command, and hurriedly apologized with a smile, "Old man, look at what you said, I have talked to you so much, and I have always been very sincere, otherwise it would be impossible to tell you everything, you Are you right?"

Willie's expression softened a little, and he asked, "Then how can I see you, big brother?"

Zhao Laosi (Reed) said without hesitation, "If you are like this, go out and take a taxi and tell him to go to Antique Street , Aurous Hill is just an antique street, he will definitely drag you to the place, after you arrive at the antique street, go to the middle stall inside, and find a man named Zhang Ermao (Cade), he is my elder brother!" "Zhang Ermao (Cade)..." Uncle Willie mouthed He muttered something in his mouth, and he seemed to be the same person as the brother Ermao that he heard just now, in the mouth of Zhao Laosi (Reed). In this way, it can be seen that this kid is no longer playing tricks on him.

So, Uncle Willie nodded, and said, "In that case, I'll go to Antique Street to meet Mr. Cade.

" I'm waiting for the Hong Kong businessman here, so I can't go with you, so please don't mind!"

Willie didn't bother to talk nonsense with him, and now he just wanted to find Zhang Ermao (Cade) quickly and see how many tricks he still has in his hand. Tool, and then take it down together with the jade wrench finger in the kid's hand in front of him!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5832 -

After Zhang Ermao (Cade) just hung up the phone of Zhao Laosi (Reed), he immediately reported the situation to charlie.

charlie, who received the call, had already arrived at the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel.

Because the Champs Elysees Hot Spring is not far from the Wanliu Villa where grandpa and grandma lived, charlie planned to stay here as much as possible in the next period of time to prevent any emergencies.

He asked Isaac Cameron to arrange a powerful rescue helicopter to be on standby here at any time. Once there is a need, the helicopter can take off directly and arrive at Wanliu Villa in three to two minutes.

When charlie heard Zhang Ermao (Cade) say that someone at the airport was willing to pay three million for the finger puller he made, he was terrified.

He knew that the person he was waiting for was here!

He guessed that the people from the Qing Dynasty would definitely come to Aurous Hill, but he didn't expect that they would come so soon!

At this time, Zhang Ermao (Cade) asked Charlie on the phone, "Master wade, that person probably has come from the airport to the Antique Street. If he finds me later, is there anything I need to pay attention to?" Charlie wade said lightly, "If he Make an offer to buy the piece of lightning strike wood I gave you, and you can offer five million, and if he wants it, you can sell it to him." Zhang

Ermao quickly asked "Master wade , this person should be the person you are looking for, right? Shall I send someone to watch him?"

"No need." charlie instructed, "Just sell his things, and don't worry about anything else."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) and Po For Zhang Ermao (Cade), the earl of Qinghui had direct contact, as long as he was not seen by others, there would definitely be no danger.

Because the more important a person is, the less likely he is to add additional risks to his important tasks, so if the earl just asks Zhang Ermao (Cade) to buy a thunderbolt, it will definitely not be disadvantageous to Zhang Ermao (Cade).

However, if Zhang Ermao (Cade) was spotted by the other party, it would be another matter.

It is very likely that that person will use Zhang Ermao (Cade) as a breakthrough point to find out who is playing for him.

In order to prevent Zhang Ermao (Cade) from being seen through by the other party, charlie gave him a psychological hint. Once someone asked him about the origin of the lightning strike wood, he would firmly believe in his heart that the thing was dug out of the pit of.

In this way, Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s contact with the Earl of the Po Qinghui can be absolutely natural.

charlie suddenly thought of one thing. He made the Thunderbolt Talisman into a one-time magic weapon that would be shattered after use, so that the other party would take the initiative to use the Thunderbolt Talisman to remind him of his location after he arrived in Aurous Hill.

But, thinking about it now, Lin Wan'er said that she might be in danger, which means that she and him will inevitably have a fight.

If this is the case, then the way of dealing with the whole matter may have to change slightly.

As for the thunderbolt talisman prepared for him, it is better to customize it in depth for this client who came from afar.

Thinking of this, he immediately took a helicopter to the Shangri-La Hotel in the urban area, and at the same time called Zhang Ermao (Cade), telling him, "Zhang Ermao (Cade), take the piece of lightning strike wood I gave you to meet me at Shangri-La immediately, the sooner you The better."

Zhang Ermao (Cade) is only five or six minutes away from Shangri-La by electric car, and it takes about the same time for charlie to fly there, but it takes at least thirty or forty minutes for the other party to think of Antique Street from the airport.

But now, only a few minutes have passed since he inquired about Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s information, and he may not have gotten into a taxi yet, so he still has enough time.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5833 -

Soon, a helicopter took off from the Champs Elysees Spa Hotel and headed for Shangri-La at the fastest speed.

When charlie arrived at Shangri-La, Zhang Ermao (Cade) just arrived. After charlie met him in Isaac Cameron's office, he asked him, " Did you bring the piece of lightning strike wood I gave you?"

charlie said, "Master wade, take a look."

charlie nodded and told him, "Er Mao, go out and wait for me for a while."

"Okay!" Zhang Ermao (Cade) said without hesitation, "Master wade, call me anytime you need something."

After finishing speaking, he respectfully withdrew from the office.

charlie quickly used his spiritual energy to adjust the formation in the Thunderbolt Talisman. A few minutes later, he called Zhang Ermao (Cade), handed him the adjusted Thunderbolt Talisman, used some spiritual energy, and told him, “Er Mao , you take this piece of lightning wood back now, if the other party asks you about the details of the tomb robbery, and asks if you have any other products besides this piece of lightning wood, you tell him that the lightning wood and the wrench are both It was your master who gave it to you and asked you to distribute it. As for where you dug things and how much you dug, you have no idea; “”

If he asks who your master is, you also tell him that you don't know , just say that every once in a while, your upper family will contact you once, if he wants to see your upper family, let him leave a phone number for you, and after your upper family contacts you, you will help him Convey, if your superior is willing to see him, you can call him.”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) didn't know that he had been hinted by charlie, so he immediately nodded heavily and respectfully said, “Don't worry, Master Wade, I remember everything.”

“Okay.” charlie said with satisfaction, “You can go back. This time, you can keep the money you got from selling these two things for yourself. Don't shirk my heart.” Zhang Ermao (Cade) said quickly “Thank you, Master Wade!”

A few minutes later, Zhang Ermao (Cade) returned to Antique Street.

Someone asked him, “Brother Ermao, why did you go there just now, several people asked you something.”

Zhang Ermao (Cade) said casually, “I'm gone, I ate badly this morning.”

Then, he took the thunderbolt Come out and put it back in the middle of the stall.

At this time, he didn't know that this thing had been remodeled by charlie.

Twenty minutes later.

An old man in a long gown walked into the antique street with hurried steps.

This person is Willie.

Taking a taxi from the airport to Antique Street, he kept urging the driver to drive faster, but even so, it took nearly forty minutes to arrive here.

The first thing Willie did when he walked into the Antique Street was to immediately check for any aura fluctuations around him. His eyes and consciousness scanned the dozens of stalls he had just entered, but he did not find any trace of aura. After he walked more than a hundred meters into the depths of the antique street, he immediately discovered that not far away, there was a special fluctuation that was almost the same as the airport jade wrench!

His eyes immediately turned to the undulating place, and he saw a middle-aged man with mischievous eyebrows and two mustaches standing in front of a booth, introducing a product to a tourist eloquently.

This middle-aged man is Zhang Ermao (Cade).

Immediately, Willie's eyes skipped over Zhang Ermao (Cade), and landed on a piece of lightning strike wood in the middle of Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s booth.

At this moment, Willie was very excited, because he knew that the lightning strike wood was a magic weapon!

I have never seen a magic weapon outside in my life, and I found two in succession before I came to Aurous Hill. It seems that I am really lucky to come to Aurous Hill this time!
