

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5865 -

At nine o'clock in the evening, Wanliu Villa.

At this time, the An family had just had dinner, and they were calling Li Yalin together to analyze the clues collected in the past few days in the living room.

The old man An Qishan has been staying in the villa for the past few days. His physical condition has improved a lot. Not only has his memory not degraded anymore, but he has gradually recovered the forgotten parts.

More importantly, after gradually recovering from the disease, the thinking logic of the whole person has been greatly improved, and the demeanor and momentum of strategizing and guiding the country have been regained.

At this family meeting, Asher first introduced the progress of his cooperation with the Moore Group.

Asher said, "Our cooperation with the Moore Family has now officially entered the negotiation process. Starting today, the lawyer teams of both parties will negotiate on the details of the cooperation, mainly to finalize the cooperation. However, because our An family came here with full sincerity this time, the atmosphere of the negotiation is very harmonious, and there are no details that need to be discussed back and forth. As long as the terms are confirmed and the signing is completed, the cooperation can be started immediately. "

The old man nodded lightly, and said, "Judging from the current situation, the Moore Group is of great significance to our family. Since Engong took the initiative to leave the clue of the Moore Group, he must not only want to give us In addition to disclosing some of his identity information, he also wants us to pull the Moore Family out of the way."

Then, the old man glanced at his second son, Homula, and said, "It stands to reason that all the An family's external business cooperation is Homula is in charge, but this time the situation is special. The cooperation with the Moore Group is not a purely commercial project, but our family uses the money to be a stepping stone. In addition, Asher and Miss moore of the Moore Group also They are old acquaintances, so let Asher follow up on this matter to the end!"

An Qishan has always pursued harmony and unity within the family, that's why he gave several children different divisions of labor and gave each of them their own authority. Clear and unambiguous.

The purpose of this is that when the children are united, everyone can infiltrate and help each other at all levels, and when they are not united, they can supervise and even hinder each other.

This time Asher was asked to be responsible for promoting the cooperation project with the Moore Group. Although he knew that Homula had no objections, he still had to explain clearly the reasons and reasons for doing so.

Homula naturally knew his father's intentions. Fortunately, he was not at all unhappy with his elder brother taking charge of this project. After all, the children of the An family have always been very united. When it comes to intimacy, although each of them has a family, they have somewhat dispersed their energy and time on each other, but Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s death, and the last time An's family was almost wiped out, made An's family even more serious. unity.

At this time, Homula also cleared his throat, and said, "Dad, I have taken Tablita with me these few days and carefully sorted out all walks of life in Aurous Hill, especially the public transportation department, social welfare department, and household registration. Department, but so far, no information related to charlie has been found."

The old man sighed softly, and he had expected this result.

The old lady An at the side spoke comforting words at this time, "Kai Feng, don't be discouraged, charlie has been missing for twenty years after all, it is impossible for us to find him in just a few days, I told you before I came, look for charlie This matter may take another twenty years."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5866 -

Homula nodded slightly, and said firmly, "Mom, don't worry, now in my heart, looking for charlie has been ranked first among all things. "

Tablita suddenly remembered something, and said, "By the way, Mom, I found a rather strange thing, which feels a little abnormal. You and Dad, as well as the eldest brother, second brother, and third brother, help me analyze it together."

The old lady said, "Tablita, tell me."

Tablita said, "I investigated some situations of the Aurous Hill Orphanage today, and wanted to find out whether there is any information about charlie among the orphans they have rescued over the years. The files of the Orphanage are currently unable to find any information related to charlie. The strange thing is that the Aurous Hill Orphanage underwent a major change last year, from the head of the Orphanage to the staff below, and even the chef who cooks for orphans. Liu, I think this matter seems a bit strange, it is not uncommon for this kind of welfare institution to have personnel changes, but it is a bit unbelievable to completely change them all at once, what do you think?" The old man An Qishan wrinkled He frowned and said, "In a welfare home, including the management and the executive side below, there must be more than a dozen or even twenty people. Even if the entire management is replaced, the executive side below shouldn't be replaced, right?" After all, the orphanage itself still needs to operate, so it's obviously unreasonable to do so."

Tablita nodded and said, "I think so too, this kind of big change of blood is obviously contrary to common sense, so I always feel that the previous group of people must be because of something special. Because of the reason, I resigned collectively."

At this time, Li Yalin, who had been absent-minded because of nervousness, suddenly lit up, slapped his thigh in surprise and said, "The clue you mentioned is too important!" The old man smiled and asked, "Yalin

, You give me a detailed analysis."

Li Yalin looked at the old man's expectant eyes, and suddenly fell into struggle and hesitation.

He couldn't help thinking to himself, "Mr. Wade said that An's family may be in danger today. If it is really dangerous, I believe that Mr. Wade will not sit still. Let's meet; but, if things change tonight, or if Mr. Wade doesn't show his true face tonight, then the An family will have to wait indefinitely if they want to recognize him?" Immediately, he thought again,

"Tablita has obviously grasped the key point this time, but she will not understand the relationship for a while. If I follow her clue to remind her, then even if Mr. Wade does not show up tonight, or continue to cover up his identity, Following the clue of the orphanage, it might be much easier to find him! And I just gave you some guidance on Tablita's point of view, Mr. Wade shouldn't blame him, right?"

Thinking of this, Li Yalin made up his mind to give An's family some tips, so he made a serious analysis and said, "You all have more experience in business management than I do. I believe you must be very clear about this kind of up and down. It is impossible to happen in any company or any unit; "No matter how cohesive this old team is, it is impossible for everyone from top to bottom to be united as one, let alone a welfare home, even if it is a A well-trained army, there will inevitably be deserters and traitors; ""

But as you said, this team left collectively last year without leaving, and if you think about it deeply, you can find that the organization and discipline of this team is very strong , It may even have reached the standard of a paramilitary team, but it is absolutely impossible to polish this kind of team without cultivating it for a long time, so how could it appear in an ordinary orphanage?"

When the An family heard this, they all nodded in agreement.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5867 -

Li Yalin concluded, "So, in my opinion, this feeling is more like there is a powerful person behind the scenes. If I am not wrong, this team must be arranged here as a whole by that powerful person. Last year, the team was withdrawn from here as a whole, and they moved forward and retreated together, probably to carry out a certain important mission." The old lady asked a little excitedly, "

Yalin, what do you mean to say that this orphanage is very Maybe it has something to do with charlie?!"

Li Yalin nodded, "Yes, auntie, I do have this suspicion."

Asher smacked his lips and said, "It would be great if we could find out when these people came to Aurous Hill, we can be sure now Yes, they walked together when they left, but there is no evidence to prove that they also came together when they came."

"It's simple!" Tablita said excitedly, "Check the social security files of the previous team! The welfare home is a social welfare organization, with government funding and private donations. This kind of unit that requires public supervision must have complete personnel information. In particular, they may really be carrying out a major mission as Yalingo said. If this is the case, they must be superficially compliant and flawless, otherwise once someone finds out on their personnel information Abnormal, it is very likely that you will notice the problem immediately!"

Li Yalin praised, "Tablita's thinking is very clear, if you find a way to find the previous personnel files of Aurous Hill Welfare Institute, you may be able to see the clue!"

Homula said excitedly, " I'll let someone find a way to check it!"

After that, he immediately took out his mobile phone and made a call.

The old man has retired for many years, and his contacts back then were dead, retired, old, and down. There are not many contacts that can really be picked up and used.

And Homula, as the person in charge of Anjia's external business, has actually taken over Anjia's business for a long time, so he is actually the one with the most connections and the strongest influence in Anjia.

In other words, the old man is the supreme emperor of the An family and is highly respected, but Homula is the current emperor of the An family, holding the world in his hands.

After making a phone call, Homula said to everyone, "Someone has already checked it, and the results will come out soon."

Everyone became extremely looking forward to it.

When Homula received the call, he immediately pressed the answer button, turned on the loudspeaker, and asked, "Azu, I asked you to check the matter. How is it going?" The middle-aged man called Azu said respectfully "Mr. An, I just checked the personnel files of the Aurous Hill City Welfare Institute. The previous group of staff indeed left together last year. As for the time when these people joined the job, they are not exactly the same." Upon hearing this, everyone said

, Unable to feel a little disappointed, Homula asked him, "Maybe you can introduce to me the employment status of these people."

The Azu introduced, "Mr. An, the organizational structure of this orphanage is extremely stable. They include the dean, teachers, aunts, chefs, and cleaning staff. There are a total of 16 people. Among these 16 people, the ones who have worked for the shortest time It's been almost twenty years, and to be honest, I've never seen such a stable team. In twenty years, no one has increased, and no one has decreased." "Twenty years?!"

" His expression suddenly turned cold!

This time point is too sensitive for them.

Because Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), the sweet girl of heaven, and her husband Bruce died in Aurous Hill twenty years ago.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5868 -

And their only son, Charlie, also disappeared twenty years ago...

Everyone felt that they had been touching the world with their eyes closed for twenty years, and this time it seemed that they had grasped something.

The eldest son, Asher, blurted out impatiently, "Tell me in detail when these sixteen people joined the job!"

The ancestor quickly said, "Of the sixteen people, fourteen are from the end of winter twenty years ago. In addition to the 15 of them, their last dean, Zhang Youde, joined in the fall and November of 20 years ago. Those who entered the job in February will be twenty years old in three months."

Old Madam An's expression was horrified!

She cried out almost instantly, choking with sobs, "Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom.) and Bruce came to Aurous Hill from Eastcliff in March twenty years ago, and their accident...was at the end of October...Charlie also disappeared at the end of October ..."

The old man An Qishan stood up excitedly, and said incoherently, "This must be bruce's arrangement! He has always been good at taking precautions. Those fourteen people came earlier than him and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom.), which proves that , he has already started to set up in Aurous Hill before he left!"

As he said that, his tone became more excited, and he said in a trembling voice, "He must know that he and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom.) came to Aurous Hill to be in danger, so he put his people in the orphanage in advance. After he and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom.) had an accident, the other party must have practiced in advance, don't you know?" How many times have charlie been sent to this orphanage! Over the years, so many people have come to Aurous Hill to look for charlie, but no one would have thought that he lives in Aurous Hill, right under the noses of these people Bottom!"

At this point, he said with a lot of emotion, "Who would have thought that Chen'er, who everyone wanted to find after digging three feet, would be placed in an orphanage that didn't show any abnormalities on the surface? I can hide it from everyone who is looking for charlie, even charlie himself, I'm afraid it has been hidden for a long time!" The old lady An burst into tears, and said excitedly, "That means that charlie has always been here. Aurous Hill, even in Aurous Hill right now!"

The old man shook his head and poured cold water on him, "I can be sure that charlie has lived in Aurous Hill for a long time, otherwise the dozen or so people in the orphanage wouldn't have stayed here forever. They only withdrew last year, but charlie is still in Aurous Hill at the moment, I'm not sure, after all those people left last year, does that mean charlie has left Aurous Hill too?" Asher blurted out, "Dad, Mom! Tomorrow we Just follow the identities of these sixteen people and dig to the end! If according to what you said, these people took care of charlie to grow up, I don't believe that charlie's whereabouts can't be found from them!" "Yes

! "Asher was also overjoyed, and blurted out, "Tomorrow, oh no! Tonight, I will send someone to bring all their materials over!

" It's been twenty years... my great grandson, grandpa, I finally found your clue!"

After finishing speaking, he looked up to the sky and sighed, "Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom.), Bruce, the back road you left for charlie twenty years ago, even me Didn't tell you, how much do you distrust me in your hearts?"

Just as the old man An Qishan was sighing, there was an exclamation from outside the window, "There is a killer! Protect the old lady!"

As soon as the voice finished speaking, a clear and pleasant sound of swords roared around the villa. Suddenly, many people screamed at the same time, and the smell of blood enveloped the entire villa from all sides!

Li Yalin's heart skipped a beat, and he was shocked, "The formidable enemy that Mr. Wade said has really come!"
