

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5946 -

At this moment, an uninhabited island in South America covered by ice and snow.

Sara was leading Jadiel through the huge underground structure on the island.

The two went all the way to the deepest part of the underground building. Here, there is a space completely sealed in the rocks. In this space, there is one and only one ventilation pipe well to communicate with the outside world.

And the three elders of the Poqing Society are retreating here at this moment.

Interestingly, since the three of them retreated for a hundred years, without knowing it, they have followed the Po Qing Society across more than half of the world, from China, through Oceania, and finally to South America.

These three people have already completely cut off all contact with the outside world. At the same time, they have tightly wrapped their bodies with aura, so that the body's metabolism has almost stagnated. They don't know how long the outside world has passed. Become more pure, and at the same time constantly attack the Niwan Palace with spiritual energy, trying to completely open the Niwan Palace.

When Sara came to this room, the three of them were as skinny as wood, like three sitting mummies.

However, Sara could feel that there was a very powerful and pure aura hidden in their withered bodies. The three of them were really only one step away from breaking through the Niwan Palace. Among them, the one who made the fastest progress, There is still a maximum of ten years of cultivation before breaking through the Niwan Palace.

At this moment, Sara said regretfully, "If you wait another ten or twenty years, the three of you will break through the Niwan Palace, and the Poqing Council will be able to walk sideways in the whole world. It's a pity that the current situation has taken a turn for the worse. Let the three of you leave the level early and eradicate the powerful enemy hidden in the dark for me."

As she spoke, she gathered the spiritual energy on her fingertips, and then silently worked her mind, pointing at the three of them in the void!

Immediately afterwards, three surges of spiritual energy quickly submerged into the bodies of the three withered to the point of waxing. In an instant, the bodies of the three began to quickly recover their blood and luster like a dead tree in spring!

After about a stick of incense, one of the old men who seemed to be in his fifties suddenly opened his eyes. He looked at himself first, and then at Sara in front of him. A hint of disappointment flashed across his expression, but this disappointment in a blink of an eye, he immediately got up without thinking, bowed down to Sara, and shouted reverently, "My subordinate Wu Bolin (Bick), see Lord Ying!" The other two also opened their eyes at this time, and the disappointment in their eyes disappeared in an instant. He passed away, and seeing Wu Bolin (Bick) kneeling on the ground, he quickly followed Wu Bolin (Bick) to kneel and salute.

"Subordinate Wu Bowen, see my lord!"

"Subordinate Wu Bozhong (Dorwin), see my lord!"

Sara saw the flash of disappointment when the three of them just woke up, so she said, "The three of you have retreated for a hundred years. , Really worked hard!"

"Hundred years?!"

All three of them were taken aback, no one thought that this retreat would take a hundred years!

What's more, they didn't expect that after a hundred years of retreat, they still haven't been able to break through the Niwan Palace!

What they didn't expect the most was that after a hundred years of retreat, they were about to break through the Niwan Palace, but they were awakened by the British Lord at the last moment.

Although the three were extremely helpless in their hearts, facing Sara at this moment, they naturally did not dare to reveal anything.

After all, the three of them are all descendants of the Wu family, descendants of Sara, and it was Sara who brought them into Taoism. It is a pity that they failed to break through the Niwan Palace after a hundred years of retreat, but at most it would take more than ten or twenty years. A hundred years has passed with the flick of a finger, and ten or twenty years is nothing.

Therefore, Wu Bolin (Bick) said respectfully, “The Lord suddenly awakened the three of us. Presumably there must be an important task for the three of us to deal with. It is an honor for the three of us to share our worries for the Lord. I also ask the Lord to surrender!” The other two also agreed . With one voice, they followed up and said, “The Lord of England please surrender!”

Sara was very satisfied with the performance of the three of them at this time, what she wanted was the performance of the three of them obeying orders, otherwise, she would not have taught the three of them to break the Niwan Palace of mind.

What’s more, the method Sara imparted to them was a little incomplete.

Although they have been in seclusion for a hundred years, if Sara did not provide external assistance in the last few years, the three of them would not be able to break through the Niwan Palace no matter what.

Even if the Niwan Palace is right in front of them, even if it is only separated by the last layer of window paper, without Sara, they will not be able to break through this last layer.

However, the three of them had no way of knowing this at the moment.

Therefore, from Sara’s point of view, if the three of them value cultivation more than their own orders at this moment, then he should limit their final breakthrough, lest the three of them become more uncontrollable after breaking through the Niwan Palace.

Immediately, Sara said to the three of them, “Recently, we will encounter many foreign enemies in the Qing Dynasty. After you retreated, three of the four earls I trained have died, but the identities of the enemies have not even been clarified yet.

” Take a look, the expressions are all terrified.

I thought that there might be trouble in breaking the Qing Dynasty, but I didn't expect it to be so troublesome.

Therefore, Wu Bolin (Bick) said without hesitation, "My lord, the three of us are willing to relieve the worries of the lord!"

Sara nodded slightly, and said, "Time is running out. The three of you follow Jadiel the 2nd to prepare first. An hour later, there will be a plane Take you to Aurous Hill."

After finishing speaking, she turned around, greeted Jadiel outside the door, and said to the three of them, "This is Jadiel the 2nd. Lin is Yufeng's eldest son. "

When the three of them heard this, they were immediately surprised.

Wu Yufeng was their elder nephew and the eldest son of the Wu family of that generation. The sons of Wu's parents in the past were all raised by Sara's own children. The three of them did not expect that the nephew's son, They are already octogenarians.

Jadiel saluted the three people very respectfully at this moment, and said with great respect, "Jadiel, the grandson of the Wu family, has met the three grandpas! "

The three of them hurriedly raised their hands and made some polite gestures.

Although Jadiel is a junior, the three of them are very clear that they have retreated for a hundred years, and they don't know what the outside world is like. In the future, they will inevitably rely on Jadiel's private help. , he is now the person who is with the Lord Ying, and he will inevitably need to deal with him in the future, so naturally he is a little less airy and more polite. After the four of them exchanged greetings, Sara said, "Okay, everyone We are a family, and we can put things about reminiscing about the past later. The three of you will go to Jadiel the 2nd to prepare first. The journey will take at least twenty hours. You want to know what the world has become. During these twenty hours, Jadiel the 2nd Lin will also explain clearly to you.

After that, she asked Jadiel, “Jadiel the 2nd, is it okay for the three elders to fly directly to Aurous Hill?” “

Jadiel hurriedly said, “Back to the British Lord, I will follow your instructions and change the identity information of the three elders every twenty years. The latest version of the passport is with me. The three elders will definitely be able to enter the country smoothly. ! “

” Good! “Sara’s expression was gloomy, and she said coldly, “You guys set off as soon as possible!” After arriving in Aurous Hill, besides the An family who will be beheaded, anyone you suspect will also be killed! It must be killed and killed, and no future troubles must be left behind! The four said in unison, “

Your subordinates obey!” “
