

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5981 -

“Fate is not enough?!”

Sara frowned when she heard these four words, and blurted out, “Master, why is fate not enough?!”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said indifferently, “Your time to enter the Tao is too short. You still don’t understand things that comprehend things by analogy, but in the future, if you understand the gossip in the Book of Changes, you will know that people have many fates, and fate is the key to everything.” Sara asked in surprise, “Master, what is fate

? Character?”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said, “Fate is the foundation of a person. The specific fate is either the heavenly stems and the earthly branches, or the birds and beasts;” “

Everyone’s fate is the heavenly stems and earthly branches. At most, it is an extreme Liming grid, but if you want to go against the sky, you must at least have a tiger grid and a python grid; The higher the dragon grid;”

“The higher the fate, the smoother the path of cultivation, and the greater the chance of changing one’s fate against the sky.”

Speaking of this, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) sighed, “My fate is a unicorn. Although strong, it is far from enough if you really want to change your fate against the sky.” Sara asked subconsciously, “Then what kind of fate is enough?”

Long Ge is just a beginner, but even Long Ge is only qualified to change his life against the sky, but the one who can really change his life against the sky is one of the best in Longge.” Speaking of this, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) slightly After a pause, he continued, “If you have the fate of ascending the dragon, the chance of success will be much higher.”

Sara hurriedly asked, “Master, then what is the fate of my brother and I?”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said indifferently, “You and Aasif are both tiger , is the lowest fate among those who practice the Tao. Although it is not difficult for you two to enter the Tao, if you want to go far, it is tantamount to a dream. The elixir is the opportunity I gave you.”

Sara asked with a dejected expression, “Master, don’t you want to give us more help because my senior brother and I are not worthy enough? The Qing dogs outside have almost unified the Central Plains, and my senior brother and I are already weak. If there is no more Strong skills and magic tools, I am afraid it will be difficult to complete the great cause of resisting the Qing Dynasty...”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) smiled, and said, “Sara, the master’s lifelong learning and magic tools treasures have already been settled. In the future, only Only those who are destined to have a higher fate than mine can have the opportunity to open it, and whoever can get it will be my inheritor.”

Sara couldn’t help flashing a bit of gloom, she didn’t expect that the master was about to die, but he was very happy with it. After he said such cruel words, according to his statement, he was not qualified to inherit his skills and magic weapon. This elixir was already a great deal of face to him.

Sara was extremely depressed in her heart. At this moment, her gratitude to Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) disappeared instantly, and what was left was only strong unwillingness and hatred.

However, she didn’t dare to show it in front of Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), so she could only bury this hatred in her heart.

At this time, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) took out a ring, handed it to Aasif, and said, “Aasif, you are upright and understand righteousness, but you are still too kind in your bones, and you will inevitably suffer in the future. This ring is for you. The teacher’s heart is good, but now I don’t need it anymore, so I gave it to you as a teacher. If you can understand the mystery of it before the deadline, you can live another five hundred years like a teacher; “
