

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5982 -

” The teacher hopes that you can recapture the country and the country for the Han people, just like the Great General Sima and the Hussar General did in those days, expelling the Huns to Mobei, drinking horses in the vast sea, and sealing wolves to live in Xu!” Sara, who was on the side, was even more shocked when he heard this

. taste.

She knew that the other meaning of Master’s words was that she was not upright enough, and there was still a big gap compared with her senior brother, which made her even more unhappy.

Aasif didn’t want to accept the ring at this time, and quickly refused, “Master, you have helped the disciple too much, this ring, the disciple can’t accept it..”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) smiled lightly, and threw the ring at Aasif, the ring suddenly disappeared in the air, and in the next second, it was already on Aasif’s finger.

Before Aasif could understand the reason, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said, “Zulu, the ring has already recognized you as master, so you should keep it well. If something happens to you in the future, this ring may save your life.” “

After finishing speaking, two cranes raised by Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) suddenly came in, and the two cranes stood on either side of Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), rubbing their necks against his body, whimpering and crying.

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) stretched out his hands to caress the two cranes, then stood up, and said, “The limit of being a teacher has come, let’s go, leave here, and don’t come back again.” Aasif burst into tears and choked up

. “Master, I want to see you off for the last time!”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) waved his hand, “I have practiced here for hundreds of years as a teacher. This is not only my cave, but also my tomb.

” Looking at the two cranes, he said lightly, “It’s enough to have them with me.”

After saying that, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) suddenly stretched out his right hand and waved his sleeves. Aasif and Sara’s eyes went dark for a moment. I found that I had instantly returned to the cave where I meditated and practiced before.

Aasif yelled “Master!”

After that, he ran out of the cave, but the original cave where Master practiced and lived disappeared without a trace in an instant, and the huge cave had completely disappeared, as if Never been average.

Aasif looked shocked, not understanding what happened.

But at this moment, in the valley, there were a few mournful crane cries that suddenly echoed. Immediately afterwards, the crane cries spread all the way to the west, feeling farther and farther away.

Aasif knew that Master had already sat down on the spot and drove west. He knelt on the ground and choked up, “Master... Aasif thank you for your kindness in preaching!” After finishing speaking, he knocked three times heavily Ring your head.

At this moment, Sara’s voice sounded from behind, “Brother! Why are you worshipping that old bastard!”

Aasif turned his head immediately, and shouted with tears in his eyes, “Sara! What nonsense are you talking about! Hurry up!” Slap your mouth!”

“Slap the mouth?” Sara said disdainfully, “That old bastard has practiced for thousands of years, and must have countless exercises, pills, and magic tools in his hands. Before he died, he only gave you and me one pill. It’s too much. It’s gone!”
