

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5999 -

Facing the old man's question, charlie didn't hide it, and said generously, "I know that your body has not fully recovered, especially the condition of Alzheimer's disease is not optimistic, so before you and grandma came, I left a formation and a rejuvenation pill in the villa in advance. The formation will slowly release the medicinal effect of the rejuvenation pill, so that everyone living in it can improve their health, and the worse the health, the more effective the medicine will be." An's family was shocked speechless, the old man opened his mouth to think He said something, but the vocal cords seemed to be half stiff, and he couldn't make a sound for a long time

Although the old man didn't speak, tears were already streaming down his face.

The old lady on the side was also tearful at this time.

At the beginning, the sky-high price of 300 billion U.S. dollars for Huichun Pill was offered by An's family, but even if Asher was willing to pay 300 billion U.S. dollars, he couldn't buy one, and was kicked out by charlie instead.

However, who would have thought that charlie would have placed the Rejuvenation Pill worth 300 billion US dollars in the villa of Wanliu Villa in advance for the health of the old couple!

Not only that, but now charlie took out two rejuvenation pills, which are three rejuvenation pills! If it is really sold to the top rich man, it will definitely be a huge sum of money!

However, charlie directly gave the three rejuvenation pills to An's family. This move moved the entire An's family beyond anything else.

And the old lady on the side couldn't help holding charlie's hand, crying and saying, "charlie, you are right, we are all relatives, if you think about it like this, grandma really will die in peace." charlie said with a smile "Grandma, you are too serious."

After finishing speaking, he handed the two rejuvenation pills to the elders again, and said seriously, "Grandpa and grandma, I just want to tell you two that rejuvenation pills are precious, but they are harmful to your health. As far as longevity is concerned, it's nothing, you two just take it at ease, you don't need to have too much psychological burden."

Asher on the side also quickly persuaded, "Yes, Dad, Mom, you two are old, Dad's body There are still a lot of problems, and I need this kind of magical medicine to stabilize my body, and this is also charlie's filial piety, so don't refuse any more." The old lady didn't dare to make a decision on her own, so she looked at him with questioning eyes

. old man.

The old man hesitated again and again, looked at charlie, and said, "charlie, grandpa knows that this time is your filial piety, and your grandma and I can accept it, but you also have to accept the shares and assets of the An family! Do you have money, or do you lack money? These are all the wishes of grandparents, we accept your filial piety, and you accept our wishes, this is the real family!" charlie's three uncles and his aunt nodded in agreement, especially the second uncle Homula, who said without hesitation, "charlie, from now on, the assets and resources of the An family will be allocated by you at will, and the second uncle will help you in the future. You can tell the second uncle anything!

" Asher also smiled and said, "Yes, charlie, you will make decisions for the An family in the future, and it must be safer than us! You can't refuse your grandfather's kindness!" For the An family, charlie saved Too many times, they generously took out three rejuvenation pills one after another. Faced with this kind of affection, the An family always kept it in their hearts. The An family never owed favors in the past, but now, they owed charlie no matter what. They still don't know the favor, so they all look forward to charlie being able to accept An's assets, so that they can feel more at ease in their hearts.

At this time, charlie said, "Grandpa, I can promise you to accept the property of the An family, but it's not now. After all, in the eyes of the Po Qing Hui, they don't know my existence. If the An family directly gives all the assets to my name, I'm afraid my identity will be exposed within the same day. So you should help me hold these assets first, and then give them to me after I settle." An Qishan nodded slightly after hearing this

He also knows that verbal promises are meaningless for things like assets. If you want to give money, you have to give it to the other party's account; if you give shares or real estate, you have to change it to the other party's name.

However, charlie's identity is really not suitable to be revealed now, and the An family naturally cannot transfer the assets to his name now, so no matter whether charlie really agrees or falsely agrees, the part of the assets that the An family is going to give him can only be held by the An family.

Speaking of this, he couldn't help but say in shame, "However, when I thought about bruce and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) being killed, I failed to protect them, and I couldn't help them avenge them, and when I thought about how much charlie had suffered in the past 20 years, I felt really sad." I am ashamed, I am sorry for my daughter and son-in-law, I am sorry for my grandson, but in the end it was my grandson who saved my life again and again, which makes me even more ashamed. If I accept this rejuvenation pill, I will have my life, but my face will be gone. ..."

An Qishan's words came from the bottom of his heart.

Want but have no face to want, this is his current mental journey.

charlie probably guessed where Grandpa's heart knot lies, so he said, "Grandpa, don't have too much psychological burden. Before tonight, I complained a lot to you because I always felt that when my parents left The United States returned to China, which has something to do with your indifferent attitude at the beginning, but today I know that my parents chose to return to China, not because of your attitude, but because they wanted to go back to China to explore the "Nine Mysteries" The mystery of "Preface", those complaints were not enough to rise to hatred, and I figured out all this tonight, so the complaints in my heart are completely relieved." After speaking, charlie said again, "

And I Not only did I let go of you, but I also let go of my grandfather more than half. Although it was true that he forced my parents out of the wade family back then, but now it seems that my father chose all of this, even if he supported it back then. If you want to keep my father in wade's house, my father will definitely go if you think about it."

Speaking of this, charlie sighed softly and said with a smile, "Today is a good day. Not only did I get to know you two, aunts and uncles, but also Let me know some past events about my parents that I didn't know before, and it also solved a knot in my heart for the past twenty years, it's really gratifying!" Hearing this, An Qishan was already in tears

The main reason why he didn't want to accept the Rejuvenation Pill was because he felt that he was not worthy of this Rejuvenation Pill.

Even though he is the filial piety of his grandson, he still feels that his grandfather is not qualified, and he is not worthy of such filial piety as his grandson.

When he heard that charlie no longer blamed himself, the huge rock in his heart was finally let go.

charlie looked at An Qishan at this time, and said, "Grandpa, I really want to have a drink with you on such a gratifying day, so you should have a good time and eat this spring pill. Let's have a good time and drink a few more glasses!"

Seeing that charlie had already talked to this point, An Qishan let go of the burden in his heart, nodded heavily and said, "Okay! Then charlie, you can have a good drink with grandpa later. Serve a few cups!"

The grandmother on the side also said happily, "charlie, grandma asked Mr. Albert to prepare the ingredients and made you a favorite eggplant box when you were young. I don't know if you still remember the eggplant box that grandma made. What's the taste!"

charlie nodded and smiled, "Of course I remember, the eggplant box is crispy on the outside and tender on the inside, fragrant and crispy, the stuffing will burn your mouth if you bite into it, and it tastes the best when you suck it in." Grandma was overjoyed and stepped forward Holding charlie's arm, he said very happily, "Let's go, let's go to the restaurant! The meal is ready!"
