

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6034 -

Every time Wu Sangui was mentioned, Lin Wan'er (Alani) would grit her teeth with hatred.

When mentioning that none of the four uncles and their descendants survived, Lin Wan'er (Alani) burst into tears.

charlie Wade didn't expect Lin Waner's grandfather's family to be so miserable, and he couldn't help sighing, "In those days, human life was like nothing, and I don't know how many families that lasted for hundreds of thousands of years lost their inheritance in that era." Lin Waner clenched her fists and gritted her teeth and said,

"It's all due to the traitor Wu Sangui!"

As she spoke, she showed a rare and fierce attitude, and said word by word, "My Lin family has been loyal for generations! My ancestors have devoted themselves to the Ming Dynasty for generations, and my father even devoted himself to the army. He fought against the Qing court for half his life until his death. He never forgets to help the Han Dynasty, but he, Wu Sangui, not only let the Qing army enter the pass, overthrew the Han Dynasty, and even personally killed Emperor Yongli for his own self-interest, in my heart, he is the biggest traitor in the history of the Han people!"

Charlie thought for a while, and said, "Judging from the current public opinion, Qin Hui has much more infamy than Wu Sangui."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head, and said seriously, "Wu Sangui's evil deeds and sinister intentions, Don't think deeply, don't think about it carefully, otherwise it will make people creepy, and it is definitely not comparable to Qin Hui."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Wu Sangui has been stationed in Liaodong for many years and has fought against the Qing army for many years. If you say that he is cruel to the Qing army I understand that among the Han people in the world, he is definitely at the forefront, and it can be said that no one can beat him. He is very clear about how much disaster the entry of the Qing army will bring to the people in the pass, but even so, he still releases the Qing army. Entering the customs, betraying the country and seeking glory, completely disregarding the safety of the people in the world, it can be seen that this person has sinister intentions!"

charlie Wade nodded in agreement, "I agree with you on this point, this person is indeed one of the best in Chinese history The most contemptible thing about a big traitor is that he first surrendered to the Qing Dynasty and killed the last emperor of Nanming, and later rebelled in the name of restoring the Han people. In history, it is not easy to find a second such person. Lin

Wan'er sighed, and said dejectedly, "To Wu Sangui, more than three hundred years have passed, and I still can't let go of it."

charlie Wade comforted, "Wu Sangui has been dead for so many years, and his family members seem to have been ransacked and beheaded, and he has received the retribution he deserves."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) gritted her teeth and said, "But Wu Sangui was not beheaded! He was Died of illness! Such a big traitor should be put to death Ling Chi! It's really cheap for him!"

charlie Wade nodded and asked her, "By the way, does your father have any relatives?"

"No." Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head and said, "The Lin family At the end of the Ming Dynasty, the family was in decline, and his father was the only child in the family. After his mother passed away, he didn't want to remarry, so after he left, I was the only one left." charlie Wade couldn't help feeling a little sympathetic towards Lin Wan'er (Alani)

She and Sara are both people who have taken the Everlasting Green Pill and lived for three or four hundred years, but their destinies are completely different.

After Parker's death, Sara reorganized the Poqing Society, and served as the British Lord for three to four hundred years. During this period, the Poqing Society grew and her personal power also increased.

And her own family has already blossomed under her blessing. The core members of the entire Five Armies Governor's Mansion are the Wu family. It can be seen that today's Wu family is already a prosperous and prosperous family. A super powerful family with comprehensive strength, even if the Rothschild family came, I am afraid that they would have to respect him three points.

But in contrast to Lin Wan'er (Alani), her grandfather's lineage had completely cut off incense more than three hundred years ago, and her lineage of the Lin family left her alive to this day.

What's even more hateful is that Lin Wan'er (Alani) has been avoiding Sara's pursuit for so many years of her life.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade couldn't help asking her, "You have been hunted down by Sara for so many years, have you ever thought about giving her the ring in exchange for a safe rest of your life?"

"When I was young, I experienced various hardships on the way, and almost died several times. In the most difficult time, I thought about it, but when I thought of my father's life in exchange for my five hundred years of life, I didn't dare to think about it again; "

"Later I also thought, instead of running around, I might as well just leave the ring to Sara, so that she will stop thinking about chasing and killing me, and let me live this life in peace, but on second thought, Sara is My father-killer and enemy, if I compromise and beg her for mercy, then what is the difference between me and Wu Sangui who let the Qing army enter the customs? They both recognize the thief as their father."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "After thinking about this, I decided No matter how difficult it is, I have to live; no matter how difficult it is, I must not compromise with Sara, as long as I can survive, I will live longer than Sara, and then I will have the last laugh." Charlie Wade said firmly "Don't worry, you will definitely live longer than her." Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, and said seriously, "Young master will definitely outlive me. After I die, I will trouble you to bury my ashes beside my parents. It will be complete."

Charlie Wade said seriously, "Don't worry, if I can find the recipe for the Hundred-Turn-Thousand-Return Pill and the specific refining method, I will let you live to be a thousand years old like the old ancestor Meng."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled wryly, shook her head subconsciously and said, "Living for four hundred years is already very hard. I don't dare to think about a thousand years, and I don't want to think about it. It's already..."

Hearing this, Charlie Wade couldn't help but cast a glance at Lin Wan'er (Alani) from the corner of his eye, and seeing her serious and lonely expression, he couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

He knew that Lin Wan'er (Alani) must have endured a lot of hardships that ordinary people have never experienced in the past three hundred years. People say that people who live a long time have crossed more bridges than ordinary people, but for Lin Wan'er (Alani), She has suffered more than many people have heard or seen.

So, he comforted him with words, "If Sara was gone, life wouldn't be so hard."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head repeatedly, "Then don't live another five hundred years, it's enough."

Charlie Wade was slightly startled, and didn't say anything, but he thought in his heart that he must refine the Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns Pill before Lin Wan'er (Alani) was five hundred years old, and he would give Lin Wan'er (Alani) one as soon as the pill was completed.

Not only because this girl has lived too hard for the past four hundred years, but also because she saved her own life.

In Charlie Wade's subconscious mind, there was also a voice repeatedly reminding himself that no matter what, Lin Wan'er (Alani) must live a normal life, and let her have a long enough remaining life to heal the experiences of the past three hundred years.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't know what Charlie Wade was thinking, she just felt that the topic between the two of them was a bit heavy at the moment, she wanted to liven up the atmosphere, but when she thought that the atmosphere was made into what it is now, she didn't know what to do for a while is good.

At this time, Charlie Wade was also thinking about changing the topic to ease the atmosphere. He happened to catch a glimpse of the roadside sign, and said to Lin Wan'er, "We will be at Shuanglang soon." Lin Wan'er looked at the sign, and saw the distance on it

. Shuanglang was still ten kilometers away, and she said happily, "It's finally here."

After finishing speaking, she took out her mobile phone, checked the status of Sara's plane, and said with a smile, "Sara just took off from Melbourne. The itinerary has not been changed, and the destination is Mandalay, Myanmar."

charlie Wade nodded, and asked her, "How likely do you think she will come to Shuanglang?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "One hundred percent."

charlie Wade asked, "Why are you so sure? Lin Wan'er smiled and explained, "Sara is extremely conceited. From what I know of her, my father repeatedly rejected her good intentions at the beginning. I can't let go of her after all these years. Since she is going through Burma this time, she will definitely come to Shuanglang!" "
