

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6045 -

charlie never expected that when he was camping in the mountains in southern Yunnan, he would meet two young cancer patients;

he never expected that both of them wanted to go to Aurous Hill to participate in the clinical trial of Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical, but they were both rejected. Brush it down.

What surprised him the most was that this Arlo Hu even knew James Smith.

When other people are amazed that James Smith, who used to be in charge of the entire FDA, voluntarily resigned from his post and went to Aurous Hill to start a charity, this kind of thing sounds unbelievable.

charlie pretended to be curious and asked Arlo Hu: "Old Hu, are you familiar with this James Smith?"

Arlo Hu said calmly: "It's not very familiar, after all, when he didn't resign, he was a senior official in the United States, and the FDA The contacts are all top biomedical companies and entrepreneurs in the world, James Smith is a top-notch existence even in the upper class, and ordinary poor people like me have no chance to know him."

As he said that, Arlo Hu said again: "I actually met him at the registration site of Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical. He took his child to sign up. At first glance, there was nothing special about him. The people around didn't recognize him at all. , I can recognize him because I studied biological sciences in the United States. There should be no students who study biological sciences, genetic technology, and chemical pharmaceuticals in the United States. Master."

charlie was a little surprised and asked: "What is the main direction of your study of biological science? Is it the research and development of biomedicine?" "

Yes." Arlo Hu nodded and said: "My main focus is biochemistry, or do I plan to study biochemistry after graduation?" Pharmaceutical companies, who participated in the research and development of a new generation of chemotherapy drugs, did not expect that before the drug was developed, they would become terminal cancer patients."

Arlo Hu sighed with a smile: "This is the so-called death before birth . , The long-awaited hero burst into tears and wanted to go to the battlefield to kill the enemy and serve the country, but before he put on the uniform, he died first."

Hallie on the side smiled and said: "Everyone has their own destiny. Like us, they came here for a visit, so it is more important than anything else to be able to live happily before going back." Arlo Hu tapped lightly Nodded, reached out to hug Hallie gently, and said with a smile: "God has been very kind to me, let me find the love of my life before I die, and this life is not in vain.

" His face blushed slightly, and he said angrily, "Oh, you are so nasty." Arlo Hu smiled and said, "There is not much time left for me to be graceful and reserved, so I have to be unrestrained as soon as possible."

Then, he looked at Hallie , and asked her with a loud smile:

Hallie , will you marry me?"

A boy who was about the same age as Arlo Hu smiled and said, "Fuck! Are you proposing, Arlo Hu?"

Arlo Hu smiled embarrassedly and said, "That's right, it's just that I didn't prepare the proposal ring in advance.

" Looking at Hallie, she asked very sincerely: "Hallie, are you willing to marry me?"

Hallie came back to her senses, pursed her lips, and said, "It hasn't been long at all, do you really want to get married?" ?Marriage is very troublesome. You have to meet your parents, choose a wedding dress, book a hotel, and then prepare for the wedding. Rather than delaying it for such a long time, it is better to simply be together, so that the two of you can spend more time together, right? "

Arlo Hu was silent for a moment, then looked at Hallie, and said seriously: "Before I die, I want to have more experiences that I haven't had before. If possible, I would like to take you to live in the United States..." Hallie smiled , said: “After going back on foot this time, both of us will start chemotherapy separately. Once we start chemotherapy, our physical condition will deteriorate significantly. By that time, we may not be able to move anymore, and you have to go back to the United States for treatment.” , I want to go back to Yanjing for treatment, if I really go to prepare for a wedding, maybe it will delay the treatment.”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6046 -

As she spoke, her expression gradually became serious, and she said, “Le Qi, let’s make an agreement, first try to survive this year, if a miracle happens next year and neither of us dies, you can come to Huaxia and see you.” My parents, after obtaining their consent, I will go to the United States with you.”

Arlo Hu, who had always been cheerful, suddenly became weak, and said in a low voice: “There are still four months next year. Even if I’m not dead, I won’t be able to come to Huaxia to see you.”

Hallie’s eyes were red, and she smiled and said, “It’s okay, I will make video calls every day then, and now everything is online, even the courts often hold court sessions online. If it doesn’t work, you can hire a priest, and I’ll marry you online.”

Arlo Hu held back his tears, nodded lightly, and said with a smile: “Then let’s just say that, I’ll find a priest when I return to the United States this time. Host an online wedding for us on January 1st!”

The emotions of the other colleagues around him have gradually fallen into a trough.

Lin Wan’er (Alani) looked at charlie, and whispered in his ear: “My lord, doesn’t Jiuxuan Pharmaceutical belong to you?”

charlie nodded and hummed, “It’s mine.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) looked at Arlo Hu and Hallie, Then asked: “Then see if you can...”

Before she finished speaking, charlie nodded without thinking: “Yes, but not now, I will make arrangements when I leave.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was instantly relieved, and her mood also changed. All of a sudden, she got better, but she thought that Charlie always cared about the rules she made, so she tentatively asked: "Isn't it going to make it difficult for you?"

Charlie shook his head: "No, every style. The game designer has formulated a set of basic rules for the game, but he will also actively put Easter eggs in the game rules, and at the same time passively leave bugs. I am the hidden NPC in this game. When you meet me, you will trigger the hidden Easter egg."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) felt relieved when she heard this, and said with a smile: "In this case, then the former head of the FDA they mentioned just now met you, why didn't he trigger the Easter egg?"

Charlie said with a smile: "Easter eggs can't be triggered by encountering an NPC. It is possible to use the correct trigger method and a pious heart. The two points that I am most dissatisfied with about James Smith, one is overconfidence, and the other is the by-product of over-confidence – looking down on others too much. With these two points, I will not give him a chance." At this time, Arlo Hu opened his mouth and said: "Okay, the time is almost up, let's hurry up and start a fire." Cook, if it is later, we can only eat dinner in the dark!"

Soon, everyone began to work in an orderly manner.

Someone prepared firewood, someone prepared food, and someone took out everyone's small folding table and pieced them together into a long long table.

Charlie contributed all the ingredients and wine he purchased, and while everyone was preparing dinner, he first set up the tent.

Although the camping tent he bought is for two people, the internal space is only about the size of a 1.8-meter double bed. Lin Wan'er (Alani) helped lay the moisture-proof mat on the side, and at the same time said in a shy voice: "We are tonight. Don't you want to sleep here?"

Charlie nodded and said, "Let's see when Sara appears, if she doesn't appear, we will let nature take its course."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked again: "Then what if Sara appears after everyone sleeps In that case, we can't sneak out to spy on her, right? In that case, she will definitely find out soon."

charlie said with a smile: "Don't worry, I'm ready, I've mixed some aura into the wine , everyone will be very excited tonight and will not feel any fatigue. This bonfire party may be held until tomorrow morning. Sara flew to Myanmar in such a hurry, so she will definitely not come here from Myanmar Don't waste time, you should be here before tomorrow morning!"
