Sara hasn't come to worship at Parker's tomb for many years.

Although she hasn't come back for hundreds of years, she can still tell where Parker's tomb is.

Even though the tombstone of the Clothes Tomb had been destroyed by herself, and even those graves had disappeared with the passage of time, she was still able to find the location of Parker's Clothes Tomb.

Although she knew that Parker's body was not buried here, Sara still regarded this place as the closest place to her senior brother.

Her mood at the moment was filled with sadness, remorse, and even a bit of resentment.

I have mixed feelings, the memories of the past flooded my mind in an instant.

At the beginning, Sara attacked Parker impulsively because of love and hatred, and Parker disappeared from her eyes in an instant. She expected that Parker must be sent to Lin Wan'er (Alani) by the ring given by her master, so she hurried out of the mountain, Go to southern Yunnan to find it.

However, the road from Shiwan Dashan to southern Yunnan was dangerous and far away, and Sara was one of the most important criminals arrested by the Qing court. By the time she tried her best to get to southern Yunnan, Lin Wan'er (Alani) had disappeared, and Parker had already been buried in the earth. .

It was only then that Sara knew that her senior brother, whose cultivation was higher than her own, was actually stabbed to death by her own sword.

In fact, Sara didn't really want to kill Parker at first.

All she wanted was to snatch away the Everlasting Green Pill and the ring that Master had left for Parker.

Moreover, in her opinion, with Parker's strength, even if he was stabbed in the heart with his own sword, he would never die because of it.

After all, Parker also mastered spiritual energy. Although Parker's cultivation was not high at that time, and the spiritual energy was not pure and abundant, he could use the spiritual energy to temporarily stabilize the injury, and then slowly use the spiritual energy to heal the wound. Recovery, within a month or two, will definitely be able to recover as before.

When she arrived in southern Yunnan and made many inquiries and found out that Parker had been buried, she couldn't believe it was true anyway.

However, after she insinuated and verified many people, she finally confirmed that Parker was indeed dead, and that it was his.

Sara was the third member of the Poqing Society;" "

At that time, Parker's brother and elder brother strongly opposed Sara's participation, but Sara cut his will and said nothing I want to fight side by side with the two of you." "

At that time, Sara said it was for the righteousness of the nation, but in fact, Sara was just a girl, so she didn't want to care about the country, the nation's righteousness, and didn't care about the country. Whether it's Han or Manchu, I don't even care whether the emperor's surname is Zhu or Aixinjueluo, Sara just wants to follow Brother Parker and be with the man she loves." "If Sara's beloved man said , this country should belong to the Han people, and the emperor should be surnamed Zhu, so Sara will take up the sword with him and fight the Qing army to the end

; Wanting to disarm and return to the fields and live a stable life, that Sara immediately put aside the sword and put Ma Nanshan with him for the rest of her life, and will remain loyal to him forever;"

At this point, Sara burst into tears.

She burned the last piece of yellow paper and choked with sobs Said, "Brother Parker, Sara thought that her love for you would surely impress you in time, but it was only at the last moment that Sara realized that Brother Parker, you have never loved Sara at all from the beginning to the end. ..."

“Sara has been by Brother Parker’s side since the year of the golden hairpin, until he was forty years old, twenty-eight years, countless fights in front of the battle, and a narrow escape, during which countless good men confide their hearts to Sara, Sara has never even looked at any of them directly! “

“Because, from the moment Sara saw Brother Parker, to the time Sara drew his sword at Brother Parker, in the past twenty-eight years, only Brother Parker was strict with Sara;” “

But Unexpectedly, even though Sara is so humble, brother Parker is still unmoved...”

Although Lin Wan’er (Alani) at the side couldn’t see Sara’s back clearly, she could see the mottled flames in the forest, and her expression and mood were extremely complicated for a while.

Originally, Lin Wan’er (Alani) thought that Sara came here to vent her anger on her father.

But she never expected that Sara brought yellow paper and wine to pay respects to her father’s tomb.

At this time, Sara wiped away her tears, opened the jar of old wine, poured it on the burnt yellow paper, and said in a low voice, “Brother Parker, in the past three hundred years, Sara has witnessed the rapid development of this world with his own eyes. The more it develops, the less Sara wants to die; “

But if Sara can’t find the Hundred Turns Thousand Returns Pill, or the method to refine the Hundred Turns Thousand Returns Pill, then Sara only has a hundred years left to live. Alive!”

“My brother’s only daughter, Wan’er, has been avoiding Sara for more than three hundred years. In fact, Sara has no malice towards her. As long as she is willing to give the ring to Sara, Sara will naturally give her the ring.” I won’t embarrass her, but if she continues to hide, then Sara's patience will gradually run out, and at that time, if Sara does something that dissatisfies her brother, please don't take offense."

Said Forget it, Sara paused for a moment, and then said, "By the way, Sara plans to go to the Hundred Thousand Mountains next time to see if he can find the secret treasure left by Master back then. Water does not interfere with river water, but if Sara can't find it, then I'm afraid I can only find a way on Wan'er..."

Afterwards, Sara poured all the wine in the altar on the ground, and said in a low voice, "Brother Parker, Sara I have to go, after Sara takes the Hundred Turns Thousand Return Pill, I will definitely come to worship my brother again!"

After pouring out all the wine in the wine jar, Sara stood up slowly and walked out of the woods.

She didn't look at those noisy young people sighing towards the sun any more, and walked down the mountain without looking back.

She never dreamed that Lin Wan'er (Alani), whom she had been looking for for more than three hundred years, was now among those noisy young people...
