

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6077 -

Zara banks's words immediately scared Fadil into a cold sweat.

He didn't doubt the authenticity of what Zara banks said, because for him, he really couldn't think of any special significance for Zara banks that his own Zhicheng Group had what he wanted to achieve.

In his opinion, if he missed Zara banks's acquisition, he might have to stay in this position until he was seventy years old and then let his son take over.

And even he himself doesn't know what his business will look like when he is 70 years old.

He even doesn't know, in a few years, whether the industrial scale of the entire group and his entire family will increase or decrease.

But there is one thing he knows very well, if he sells the company now, takes 500 million cash in his hands, and after transferring the equity to calculate the income tax at 20, he will still have 560 million left.

This 560 million is enough for myself and my descendants to live comfortably. Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and made a decision, and hurriedly said, "Since Ms. BANKS is so sincere, I won't bargain with you anymore, and I will pay 700 million at your price!"

Zara banks nodded in satisfaction, and said, "In this case, I will immediately ask the financial manager to apply for the intention gold. After the intention gold is finished, the experts sent will visit your tea base. You have to inform your The on-site person in charge stopped working immediately, and then fully cooperated with my experts."

"No problem!" Fadil said without hesitation, "Miss banks, don't worry, after receiving the deposit, I will follow your instructions."

For Fadil, As long as the intent money is collected, it basically means that the Zhicheng Group no longer belongs to him. Since Zara banks asked to stop work, then he ordered the stop work.

Zara banks was also not procrastinating, and immediately said, "In this case, Mr. Fadil arranges the account information for the account, and I will arrange the payment here."

Fadil said flatteringly, "Okay, okay, Miss banks, please wait for a moment, I will arrange it!"

Soon, Fadil's secretary sent the group's collection account number and related information to Zara banks's secretary.

A few minutes later, the 100 million yuan intent deposit was directly transferred to the Zhicheng Group's account.

At the moment when they received the money, Fadil and his son were so excited that they wanted to open a bottle of champagne to celebrate on the spot.

Afterwards, Zara banks gave charlie's license plate number to Fadil, and asked Fadil to immediately notify the person in charge of the base to greet him at the door in person.

Fadil used the money to do business, so he called the person in charge of the base himself, and told the person on the phone that he had sold the company to the banks Group, and specifically told him that the new owner would send a representative to visit the site soon.

Although the person in charge of the base was shocked, he quickly came to his senses. Anyway, he is a wage earner. As long as the salary remains the same, it doesn't matter who he works for.

So he also knows that his top priority is to make the people of the BANKS GROUP absolutely satisfied with him, otherwise once they take over the company and initiate large-scale layoffs, wouldn't he be unemployed?

So, he just got into the car and was about to go home from get off work. After hanging up Fadil's phone, he immediately went to the gate of the base to wait.

At the same time, charlie also received a call from Zara banks. As soon as the call was connected, Zara banks said respectfully, "Mr. wade, Zhicheng Group has already accepted my letter of intent, and the acquisition has been finalized." Yes, the final transaction price is 700 million yuan. I have asked him to notify the person in charge of the base and your license plate number. You can go there directly.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6078 -

Waiting for you at the door, and obeying your orders. “ charlie was amazed at Zara banks’s efficiency. In his opinion, it’s really rare for a girl to handle things so neatly. So he said to Zara banks, “Thank you, Miss banks. I owe you the money, but now that the situation is special, I won’t transfer the money to you for now. After I finish the work at hand, I will find other ways to give you the money. “

Zara banks hurriedly said, “Mr. wade, why are you being polite to me? charlie smiled slightly, “

I owe you this favor.” “

Zara banks was overjoyed. In her opinion, charlie could say such a sentence, not to mention spending 700 million, even 70 billion is worth it.

. I didn’t talk to her any more, and said that I had something important to go to the tea base of Zhicheng Group, so I hung up the phone first. After charlie hung up the phone, he started the car, turned around and walked back, while talking to Lin Wan’er (Alani) beside her said, “It’s all done, we can go to Mount Erlang now. “

Lin Wan’er (Alani) was so happy that she couldn’t add anything, she said with red eyes, “Thank you, young master...”

charlie waved his hand, “You don’t need to thank me for this little thing, after all, you saved my life. “

Speaking, charlie said again, “Oh, yes, you like Pu’er tea so much, this company will give it to you in the future. If you feel that it is not convenient for you to come forward to manage it, I can ask someone to help you build a team. It is entrusted to the team to take care of it. You can come here whenever you want to pay homage to your father, and plant any tea you want to drink. In short, everything is up to you. “

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said emotionally, "Young master can give my family a chance to pay homage to my father. Mother, the slave family is already very grateful, how can the slave family want the son's property. " charlie said, "I don't know much about tea. If this company is given to me, it will basically be a waste. If it doesn't work, I will find a way to bankrupt this company, and seal up the entire Erlang Mountain after bankruptcy. , suspend tea planting, and prohibit all outsiders from going up the mountain, so that your parents will not be disturbed. "

"No need..." Lin Wan'er (Alani) said seriously, "My son's kindness is appreciated, but my father never likes to be extravagant. If he knows that a company or a tea garden must be destroyed for the sake of the quietness of his grave, he will definitely not." accepted. "

charlie smiled and said, "Since you don't want this place to be deserted, then everything is still up to you. You can do whatever you want. "

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hesitated for a moment, then nodded lightly, then she wiped away her tears and said with a smile, "Then after we return to Jinling, I must think about how to run this company. In fact, I know Pu'er tea very well. Breeding Pu-erh tea is also very experienced. If I have this opportunity to make my experience useful, I think it will be a very fulfilling thing! " charlie thought of the painting that Lin Wan'er (Alani) showed him back then, and when his consciousness was immersed in that painting, he realized that Lin Wan'er (Alani) at that time was quite respected by tea farmers, even an old man in his 70s or 80s, I also want to ask her for advice on how to cultivate Pu'er tea. It can be seen that Lin Wan'er (Alani) must have a very deep understanding of Pu'er tea. At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the side couldn't help sighing, and said, "I hardly drink it exclusively in these years. The pu-erh tea that caught my eye was probably the branches that the tea farmers cut off from the mother of pu-tea. During the process of breeding from generation to generation, the original good genes of the mother of pu-tea were gradually lost. If this is the case, I am afraid I can no longer reproduce the taste of the mother of Pucha..."
