

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6113 -

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s words made Charlie Wade seriously think about "whether Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) is really still alive" for the first time. At first glance, this question seems a bit absurd.

There is no record in the Nine Mysterious Scriptures about allowing a person to live for more than a thousand years, so this has already touched upon his knowledge blind spot.

In fact, the Jiu Xuan Tian Jing does not even have any record of the Eternal Evergreen Pill.

Even Lin Wan'er (Alani) fell into Charlie Wade's knowledge blind spot, let alone Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st).

On this issue, although there is no direct evidence to prove Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st)'s current life and death, Charlie Wade does not dare to take it too seriously, and he must not be sloppy with the caution he should have, and cannot be taken lightly.

So, he said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "I agree with all the viewpoints Miss Lin mentioned just now, but we have already arrived here, there is no reason to back down, why not follow what Miss Lin said, let's go find out together."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) knew that Charlie Wade could not give up easily, and being willing to bring herself was already the biggest concession she had made, so she nodded without thinking and said, "Okay! I will be with you!"

Charlie Wade nodded slightly, then sighed softly, and said, "If the two of us are together, it would be unrealistic to go down here, let's turn around and go into the mountain in the opposite direction from the town where Sara appeared." "Okay."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded obediently, and said, "As long as the young master is willing to take The slave family, the slave family will follow the arrangement of the young master."

The two reached a consensus, and Charlie Wade didn't delay anymore, he turned around at the next exit at high speed, passed the place where Sara jumped off, and continued to drive forward for dozens of kilometers, and then got off the expressway in the town where Sara left. The map shows that apart from this highway, this township has only a rugged mountain road leading to the outside world. The end of the mountain road starts at the foot of a mountain called Qiandao Mountain not far away. , downhill through the township, joins the main road of the township, and then continues to the entrance and exit of the expressway.

If you don't take the highway here, keep moving forwardDriving, you can reach a national highway that crosses Yunnan and Guangxi.

The location where Sara appeared was on the road from the former Daoshan Mountain to the middle of the town.

So, charlie Wade drove the car to the place where Sara appeared, and decided to walk into the mountain from here, generally heading in the direction where Sara abandoned the car, to see if he could find any clues left by Sara.

After all, Sara was in a hurry when she left, and charlie Wade speculated that she should have no time to deal with the clues she left behind.

After the two got out of the car, charlie Wade took the equipment for entering the mountain and headed towards the mountain together with Lin Wan'er (Alani).

After leaving the country road, the rugged virgin forest does not immediately appear. On both sides of the road, there are almost terraces cultivated by local farmers, so there are naturally paths for people and livestock to walk, and for motorcycles to travel.

It just so happened that the direction of this path coincided with the direction charlie Wade planned to search for, so the two walked through this path one after the other, and kept advancing into the mountains.

The two climbed over a low mountain that was almost entirely covered with terraces and continued to head deeper. At this time, there were fewer and fewer human traces on both sides. Although there were occasionally a few terraced fields, they were far away from the villages and towns. No one has developed it one after another.

When he climbed over the second mountain and started heading down the mountain, charlie Wade saw that the rugged path had changed from a long earth-yellow strip into a slender Y-shape in the valley ahead. In addition, there were also There is a meandering river more than one meter wide, flowing all the way down the valley.

The river just passes through the intersection of three straight lines in the Y shape. Someone piled five steps of stone piers here. The river flows slowly through the four gaps in the five steps of stone piers, because these five steps of stone piers block the flow of water. The speed is such that the water flow is on the left side of the Y-shape, forming an area of about four or five square meters.

, the small stream that was originally one meter wide suddenly became nearly three meters wide here.

The path is divided into two at the foot of the mountain. The one on the right leads deeper, and the one on the left leads to the top of another mountain in front of the left. However, compared to the mountain that Charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) are climbing, that mountain is overall smaller. It is much shorter, and on the top of the mountain, there is a small piece of brown-red low-rise buildings, whose purpose is unknown.

Shiwanda Mountain is originally low in the southwest. Even in the Mid-Autumn Festival, it is still warm and humid, so the plants here also grow extremely lush. The slopes, mountaintops, and valleys are all lush and green, and they look particularly pure in the sun. It is completely visible. No modern labels appear.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) followed Charlie Wade step by step, looking at the scenery in front of her, she couldn't help but praise, "The ancients often said that winding paths lead to seclusion, but I never thought that the hundreds of thousands of mountains that made people talk so much back then, the scenery along the way would be so beautiful and quiet." , if you live here for a period of time, you will definitely be very comfortable!"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "When you don't have to worry about the Qing Dynasty in the future, I will buy you a few mountains here, and you can choose a mountain to build a house, and the rest will Everything that falls is used to plant tea trees."

Lin Waner shook her head and said, "The climate here is not suitable for Pu'er tea trees, but it is suitable for heavier green tea."

After saying that, Lin Wan'er couldn't help but muttered, "Sir, although I like tea, I have no intention of going there. I will be a hard-working tea farmer for the rest of my life. There are so many tea trees in Erlang Mountain, and the slave family doesn't even know how to plant them in the future. You have to buy land for the slave family to grow tea. Will the slave family have to deal with tea all day long in the future?"

Charlie Wade smiled and said, "That's not what I meant. I just saw that you really like this place, so I wanted to buy it for you."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled shyly and said softly, "Young Master has this kind of heart, and the slave family will be satisfied."

At this time, the two of them standing halfway up the mountain, you can see to the left of the Y-shaped mountain road, a man in gray robes also walked down the mountain. A bald woman, she looks to be in her early twenties, with very delicate facial features, although she has shaved her head, she is still beautiful.

The woman held a wooden basin in her hands, which seemed to contain some clothes and a flat wooden stick.

Since the mountain was much lower than the mountain where Charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er were, the girl arrived at the Y-shaped intersection earlier than them.

The girl stopped at the intersection, leaning against the road on the left of the Y shape, squatted down on the side of the road, then took out a long robe from the wooden basin, soaked it in water, rubbed it, and then slapped it hard with a wooden stick.

The wooden sticks slapped the wet clothes, and the crisp slapping sound echoed gently in the valley.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) heard it in her ears and saw it in her eyes, and couldn't help saying to Charlie Wade, "I used to wash clothes in this way at my slave's house. I didn't expect that people would still use this method in the past so many years." Charlie Wade looked at the girl from a distance, and muttered, "She seems to be She is a nun, so the building with the red wall on the mountain on the left should be a nunnery."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded slightly, and sighed, "Being a monk here is more difficult than most monks."

The two continued along the mountain road to the countryside, After a stick of incense, they have already arrived at the Y-shaped intersection.

At this time, the nun was still squatting aside washing clothes, because charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) had agreed to pretend to be a couple in front of outsiders, so he stopped in front of the stone pier, stretched out a hand and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Let me lead you there. Lin Wan'er nodded shyly, and immediately handed her little hand to charlie Wade.

charlie Wade led her across the stone pier, and was about to continue on the right side of the Y-shaped intersection, when the young nun beside her who was squatting on the ground washing clothes suddenly stood up, folded her hands and bowed slightly to Lin Wan'er (Alani), and said, "Amitabha, This benefactor, our abbot has been waiting for you for a long time, and I would like to ask you to move to the nunnery to see you."
