

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6118

. If he is really destined to such a fate, the little girl will do her best to save Mr. Wade even if she sacrifices her own life..." After saying that

, Lin Wan'er (Alani) bent her legs. She was about to kneel down.

When the old nun saw this, she quickly stepped forward, held Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s body before she knelt down, and said, "Miss Lin has seen the changes in the world for hundreds of years, and the poor nun can't help but feel in front of Miss Lin." I dare you to trust me, but Miss Lin must not do such a big gift. "

As she spoke, she supported Lin Wan'er (Alani) and said, "Miss Lin must also know the mystery of fate. In the I Ching gossip, even if it is just an inconspicuous subtle change, the final result may be very different. If the nun talks too much, things may turn out to be the opposite. If Miss Lin really wants to help Mr. Wade, then try to reduce the variables as much as possible. The nun can clearly tell you that there is danger ahead for Mr. Wade, and Miss Lin only needs to ensure that The best result is if Mr. Wade can give up and move forward. Whether you or Mr. Wade, knowing too much will bring greater variables. "

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) heard the old nun's words about seeing the changes in the world for hundreds of years, she knew that the old nun in front of her already knew her past very well.

And she quickly realized her gaffe. What the old nun said was right. , there are indeed many extremely subtle variables in things like fate, and knowing more is sometimes not a good thing. At this time, she no longer asked the old nun for more details, but weighed the old nun's words in her heart The credibility of her rhetoric.

She first ruled out that the old nun was her enemy.

Because the old nun had successfully attracted herself to this nunnery. If she was really her enemy, she She would definitely do something to herself;

then, she ruled out that the old nun was charlie Wade's enemy.

The old nun knew Charlie Wade, herself, Sara, and even knew the trajectory of the three of them., if she was Charlie Wade's enemy, she wouldn't need to be mysterious here.

She only needed to find a way to tell Sara that Charlie Wade was the son of Bruce and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom), and then pass Charlie Wade's information to Sara, and then Sara would definitely kill Charlie Wade.

Now that the old nun is ruled out as her and Charlie Wade's enemy, her previous words are much more credible.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) also analyzed whether the old nun and Charlie Wade would have any stakes. For example, if the old nun also wanted to explore the relics left by Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), then she and Charlie Wade would be competitors. They would try to persuade their competitors to give up. She does have advantages too.

However, if you think about it carefully, this possibility is slim.

After all, the other party was waiting for them here, and she and Charlie Wade hadn't even figured out where they were going.

If everyone is grabbing a treasure, it will naturally be first come, first served. The other party is already in front and knows the location of the treasure. The best option is to rush to dig up the treasure as soon as possible without exposing it as much as possible. With his identity and his reputation of making a fortune, how could he leave the treasure and not dig it out, instead staying here to persuade the disadvantaged competitors behind him to give up?

Therefore, this inference is untenable.

He is not an enemy, and there is no conflict of interest or interest. In this case, the probability that the other party is sincere is even higher.

So, Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at her and asked, "Little girl, I have one last question. Why did the master help Mr. Wade?" The old nun said in a very solemn tone, "More than twenty years ago, someone opened a Pandora's box, but The magic box was only half opened at the time. If left unattended, the magic box would gradually open on its own a few years later, which would inevitably lead to unforeseen disasters. But now, the magic box can be completely closed or opened directly. Yes, there is only Mr. Wade!”
