Lin Wan'er (Alani) probably guessed the meaning of the old nun's words, so she asked, "Master Tai, are you saying that Master Wade's rebirth depends entirely on Mr. Wade?" The old nun was noncommittal

. He said, "The poor nun has said too much. Please ask Miss Lin to digest some of the questions. However, please remember not to let Mr. Wade know these things."

Lin Wan'er saw that she did not want to say more, so she quickly asked, "I don't know, Mrs. Are there any other instructions?"

"No." The old nun clasped her hands together and said respectfully, "I have heard about Miss Lin for a long time. Now that I can see you today, I can forget about the poor nun's wish. Mr. Wade is still waiting at the foot of the mountain. Miss Lin. It's better to go down the mountain early and persuade him to go back to Aurous Hill."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw that the old nun wanted to see off the guest, but she was still a little reluctant to give up, so she hurriedly asked, "Master, what should Mr. Wade do next? If he can't move forward today, the little girl is afraid Mr. Wade is in trouble. Mr. Wade, please tell me where to go from here!" The old nun's expression suddenly became very struggling. She hesitated for a long time before she said, "Ms. Lin, please tell Mr. Wade to look for opportunities as soon as possible. Open the Niwan Palace. Only by opening the Niwan Palace can we barely fight against Sara."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) became more and more confused about the old nun's identity. She really couldn't understand why Charlie Wade was so low-key and hiding his identity. , why this old nun seemed to know everything about him, and even knew clearly that Charlie Wade had not opened Niwan Palace.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) wanted to ask her some more questions, but the old nun had already opened the door of the main hall and shouted to the outside, "Jing Chen, see off the guests."

The young nun who had just brought Lin Wan'er (Alani) here walked out of the side hall and said respectfully to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Miss Lin, please follow me out." Lin Wan'er (Alani) had no choice but to nod, looked at the old nun, and said, "Thank you, little lady." Please give me some advice."

The old nun nodded slightly and said with a smile, "Amitabha, Miss Lin, please take care of yourself!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) and the old nun
The nun said goodbye and followed the young nun out of the gate of Qingzhao nunnery.

The young nun named Jingchen said, "Miss Lin, you can go down the mountain the way you came. I won't send you down."

Lin Wan'er nodded and said, "Master, please stay." Jingchen bowed to Lin Wan'er, and then slowly closed the door.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at Charlie Wade from a distance at the foot of the mountain, whose visual effect was no bigger than a grain of rice, and waved to him. Seeing that Charlie Wade seemed to be waving to her, she quickly walked a few steps and hurried down the mountain.

At the bottom of the mountain, Charlie Wade has been waiting here for a long time.

Seeing Lin Wan'er (Alani) coming down, he took a few steps forward and asked with concern, "Miss Lin, what kind of medicine is that nun selling in the gourd? What did the host ask you to do?" Lin Wan'er (Alani) pursed her lips and said,

"Young Master, they reminded us that there are dangers ahead and want to persuade us to turn back."

Charlie Wade looked surprised and asked, "Does she know where we are going?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded lightly and explained, "Look at that teacher from the Nu family. Tai is not a bad person. There must be dangers on the road ahead that we haven't thought of..."

As she said that, she looked at Charlie Wade and begged, "Sir, let's not go any further. Can we go back to Aurous Hill?"

“Go back to Aurous Hill?” “charlie Wade frowned and said seriously, “We are probably only a few dozen miles away from the place where Meng Changsheng practiced. My parents probably came here back then and took away “The Nine” from the items he left behind. “Preface to the Mysterious Sutra”, if I walk these dozens of miles, I might be able to figure out more details about their lifetimes, how could I give up halfway...” This

As she spoke, charlie Wade said to Lin Waner, “Miss Lin, why don’t you go back to town and wait for me, and I’ll go by myself!” “

Absolutely not!” Lin Waner subconsciously grabbed charlie Wade’s hand. Holding his hand, he begged, “Young Master, since we already know that the place where Master Shigong passed away is not far from here, then this time is not considered in vain, nor does it count as giving up halfway. Young Master can return to Aurous Hill to continue preparations. It will not be too late to come back after Young Master’s strength has greatly increased.” Ah!”

charlie Wade said, “You and I haven’t figured out the identity of the other party. I can’t let the other party give up everything they originally planned with just a few words.”

Lin Waner said anxiously, “Sir, someone knows that we are coming here. , and have calculated the route in advance and are waiting here. This proves that the other party knows you and I very well. Even if she has no ill intentions towards us, we have to admit the fact that our identity has been exposed. If we still force forward in this situation , whether she is an enemy or a friend, the situation is probably extremely unfavorable to us.”

charlie Wade was slightly startled.

Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s words made him start to re-examine the matter again.

As Lin Wan’er (Alani) said, regardless of whether the nun is a friend or an enemy, it is already a fact that she was exposed. Since she knows, it proves that others may also know.

If I insist on moving forward, let alone whether I will encounter risks, what if someone else knows my identity? What should we do if it reaches the ears of Poqinghui?

Lin Wan'er (Alani) then said, "Sir, no matter what is there dozens of miles away, it can't change the fact that Sara is also very afraid of it. If Sara is also afraid of it, then why do we bother to break in?"

charlie suddenly fell into struggle.

He knew very well what Lin Wan'er (Alani) said.

It's just that when I finally got closer to my parents' secret from back then,, he really didn't want to give up.

At this time, in the main hall of Qingzhao'an.

Jingchen returned to the main hall and respectfully reported to the old nun, "Aunt Sun, Lin Wan'er (Alani) has left." The old nun didn't look back and asked, "Did you see her go down the mountain with your own eyes?"

"Yes." Jingchen He nodded and said, "After I closed the door, I watched her come down the mountain through the crack in the door before coming back to report to you." The old nun asked again, "What are the two of them doing?"

"Conversing." Jingchen replied, "The two of them have been They were talking on the spot, but they were not ready to set off yet.

The old nun nodded slightly and said, "You stay here and I will report to my wife." "

After that, without waiting for Jingchen's answer, she quickly walked towards the back of the main hall. There is another door directly behind the main hall. Generally speaking, this kind of place in the temple is no longer open to pilgrims, mostly monks and nuns. A place for her own use.

The old nun stopped outside the door, gently knocked on the door, and said respectfully, "Madam, Lin Wan'er (Alani) is gone. "

A pleasant and somewhat majestic female voice came from the room, "Have they gone back?"

The old nun replied, "Not yet. The two of them seem to be still talking at the intersection at the foot of the mountain. It's not yet certain whether they will give up. "

The woman inside the door smiled and said, "There should be no problem. " "

With that said, the woman also said, "By the way, please hurry up and organize everyone to tidy up. It's time for us to leave. That Lin Wan'er (Alani) is so smart that she is almost a demon. I think she was just too worried and ignored some details. I believe it won't take long. , they should come back again, keep them informed and don't leave any clues here. "

The old nun said respectfully, "Okay madam! "
