

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6128 -

When the two of them came down from Qingzhao Temple, Charlie kept holding the agarwood bracelet in his hand. He wanted to know the meaning of the bracelet left for him, but after thinking about it, he still remained No explanation.

Let's go by what Lin Wan'er (Alani) said. The twenty-eight beads on this bracelet represent her current age. The other party put the twenty-eight beads into the bracelet, knowing that Lin Wan'er (Alani) would notice something unusual and return to Qingzhao'an to investigate. After all, what message did you want to convey to yourself by deliberately leaving this bracelet to yourself?

In doubt, the two of them went down the mountain and climbed back up the mountain road again.

When we were going up the mountain again, we happened to meet some local old ladies. They were walking together and slowly walking down the mountain. Each of them was carrying a basket made of vines, and there were still some things in the basket. I put a lot of sesame oil, paper money and earthen incense.

Seeing this, Lin Waner stepped forward and asked politely, "Where are these old ladies going?"

One of the old ladies said, "I heard that Qingzhao Temple has reopened. Let's go to Qingzhao Temple to worship Buddha and burn incense."

Lin Waner was curious. Asked, "Has Qingzhao Nunnery been closed for a long time?"

The old lady nodded, "It has not been opened for about ten or twenty years. There are fewer and fewer people in the mountains, and there is no incense in the temple. All the former nuns have left. I heard yesterday The people in the village said that a new nun has arrived. Let's go and pay our respects together." Lin

Wan'er said quickly, "You guys better not go, the new nuns from Qingzhao Nunnery will also go. "

Leaved again?" Several old ladies looked disappointed. "Why did you leave just a few days ago?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Maybe you think there is not much incense here."

Several old ladies were a little slumped. Time is somewhat indecisive.

One of the old ladies said, "The nun is gone, but the Buddha statue is still there. We've all come here, why not go burn a few sticks of incense!"

Several other old ladies thought that this was indeed the case, so they agreed one after another.

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw that several people were worshipping Buddha sincerely, she didn't persuade them any more and warned, "Then Please be safe, we're leaving first. "

After bidding farewell to several old ladies, Lin Wan'er (Alani) said to Charlie, "It seems that they came to Qingzhao'an temporarily. They probably arrived yesterday. "

Charlie agreed and said, "It's possible that he noticed that we were here, or that Sara was here, so he came over in advance to prepare. "

With that said, Charlie added, "What is certain now is that they know both us and Sara very well, and maybe they are also monitoring us in some way at this moment. Lin Wan'er sighed and said helplessly, "The mountains are higher than the mountains. If you have the opportunity to meet the person in charge behind them in the future, you must humbly ask her for advice." "

At this moment.

On the highway leading from Shiwanda Mountain to the outside world, three inconspicuous Buick commercial vehicles are driving smoothly on the highway.

These vehicles all have license plates from Chuncheng, the capital of Southern Yunnan Province. , affiliated to a well-known car rental company in China.

Buick Business is the most well-known ordinary V model in China. It has a large market share and is relatively popular, so no matter where you see it, it will not be eye-catching. , very low-key, and no one would associate the people who ride this car with wealth.

However, apart from the fact that the car logo is still Buick, these three Buick business cars have nothing to do with Buick. After the system transformation, power, safety, privacy, and comfort have all undergone qualitative changes. At this time, the person driving the second Buick business car was the one who stopped charlie and Lin Wan'er (Alani) at the foot of the mountain. A young nun, and the one sitting in the passenger seat is the old master.

Sitting on the second row of seats behind the master, is the middle-aged woman called Madam. The bracelet that charlie is twisting in her hand is the one she left at Qingzhao'an.

At this time, the master looked back at the middle-aged woman and asked respectfully, "Madam, what are our arrangements next?"

The madam was looking out the window in a daze. When she heard the question, she said, "Let's go to Aurous Hill. I'll go to Aurous Hill with you." As before, I will stay at Qixia Temple for the time being. You two will also come with me. After arriving at Aurous Hill, don't show your face." "

Okay!" The master nodded lightly and said, "Then I will inform the abbot."

After that, , the master asked again, "By the way, madam, which girl do you want to get in touch with next? I'll see if I can find an opportunity."

The madam raised her eyebrows and said with a smile, "Who do you want to meet... I really want to meet her. Nanako Ito, among these girls, she is the most promising to enter the Tao."

The master smiled slightly, "Then I will try to arrange it."

The lady nodded, He chuckled and said, "She seems to be studying martial arts in the Champs Elysees?"

“Yes.” The master said, “With her, there are Xion and Aurora.”

The madam said, “The talents of these two girls are not as good as Compared with Ito Nanako, unless there is a great opportunity, there is no chance of becoming a Taoist.”

The master couldn’t help but said with some worry, “Madam, Ito Nanako is Japanese after all, if she really becomes a Taoist, will there be any risks?”

The madam shook her head. “Don’t worry, it doesn’t matter which country she is from. What matters is whether her character is upright and where her heart is. If her character is bad and her heart is heretical, what does it matter if she is Chinese?” He paused

. After a pause, the madam added, “It seems that this girl’s conduct is impeccable, and her heart is no longer in Japan.” The master’s brows widened and she said with a smile, “Madam is right, she belongs to Too much worry.”

> The madam nodded and asked her, “By the way, how do you feel about Lin Wan’er (Alani) when you saw her today?”

The master sighed, “I feel that even if Lin Wan’er (Alani) stands in front of me, I can’t tell the slightest bit of age.” Wei Wen has lived for more than three hundred years and still looks and feels like a young girl, which is really enviable...”

After saying that, the Master added, “However, she can always give her subordinates a vague and unfathomable feeling. “

The madam smiled and said, “Without any cultivation, but able to escape Sara’s pursuit for more than three hundred years, and at the same time survive intact in a world of great changes, Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s mind must be far beyond ordinary people.” “Actually, I was born very early

. We knew about her existence, but just like Sara, we could never find any clues about her until she was betrayed by her servants in Northern Europe. This shows that she is smarter than we thought.” The teacher couldn’t help but ask “Then will she guess your identity in the future?”

Madam said, "Definitely, as long as we have contact with them later, it is just a matter of time."

The teacher asked quickly, "Madam, are you ready?" "?"

Madam shook her head, "Not yet, so we have to be extra cautious in the future and not leave any clues."

The teacher nodded and said, "Madam, we will be at the airport in about forty minutes. The crew will be on standby at any time. You How about the route arrangement?" The madam looked slightly moved and asked, "Where are they?"

The master knew that the madam was asking about charlie and Lin Wan'er (Alani), so she quickly said, "Their plane is also in Yongzhou, and they will probably fly directly to Yongzhou later." Fly to Aurous Hill."

The lady nodded, pondered for a moment, and said, "Then we should be more cautious and fly to Eastcliff first. After arriving in Eastcliff, we will change a plane and then fly to Aurous Hill. We still cannot take it lightly in front of Lin Wan'er (Alani). This time we will fly directly to Eastcliff. Contacting her is tantamount to telling them that we have been observing secretly, and they will only be more cautious in the future."
