

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6142 -

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was once very worried about the shaping of charlie's personality, character, and outlook on life during his growth.

As a mother, she naturally hopes to always give charlie the best education, the best environment, and the best guidance.

But the actual situation is that she can only watch silently as charlie grows up with other children in the orphanage. She can only watch silently as charlie drops out of school after graduating from high school and goes to work on a construction site, but she cannot intervene in any way.

Once upon a time, she was also worried about whether charlie's views would be distorted in that kind of environment, whether he would be too philistine, and whether he would be too commercial. But fortunately, between charlie's childhood as a rich young master and his later status as a poor orphan, I have found a good middle point for my three views.

This not only allowed him to maintain a normal outlook on life and a proper sense of justice, but also allowed him to avoid his father's overly harsh self-imposed moral standards.

in other words.

To a certain extent, this greatly makes up for bruce Wade's character shortcomings.

Just like the position of the head of the Wade family, The normal succession process of the head of the family should wait until the old man Lord Wade decides to retire, and then Lord Wade personally decides who will inherit. If you object, you must find a way to make the old man change his mind. If you are more cruel, you may first find a way to get rid of the original heir, and then take the throne yourself.

Today's wealthy families are like this, and so are the princes and generals in ancient times.

But charlie didn't follow the Wade family's example.

Not only did he not follow the traditional process, he didn't even say hello to the Wade family when helping himself to the position.

He just told Abbas in an understatement in front of the Wade family that he had just taken over the affairs of the Wade family and was short of manpower. Since Abbas wanted to submit to him, he must be loyal to him.

In one sentence, he not only conquered the entire Wanlong Palace, but also directly told everyone that he was already the head of the Wade family. He did not give the Wade family any chance to react or consider, and did not even bother to tell them his decision in person. Just tell the results directly to the third party and let them listen.

But precisely because of such an unruly and uncompromising tough approach, Charlie directly took the position of the head of the Wade family without any hindrance. No matter how reluctant Lord Wade was to give up that position, he could only get up obediently and Abdicating and give way to worthy people.

When Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) heard about this from Stephen Thompson, she was so excited that she couldn't sleep all night.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) had never paid attention to the little assets of the Wade family, but the position of the head of the Wade family was a knot in her heart.

At that time, everyone knew that their husband was the most suitable for this position, but everyone in the Wade family was pretending to be stupid, so that until his death, the husband could not really become the leader of the Wade family.

Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) has been complaining about this matter for her husband.

And this knot in her heart was finally opened easily by Charlie after twenty years, which made Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) extremely happy.

At the same time, it also made her look forward to Charlie's future even more.

The old house of the Wade family.

After charlie had eaten with the old man, he couldn't wait to say to the old man and Stephen Thompson, "Grandpa, Butler Stephen , you eat first. I'll go to my parents' room to take a look." Stephen Thompson asked respectfully, "Master, do you need help?"

" Will I accompany you?"

"No need." charlie waved his hands and said, "Lin Wan'er (Alani) and I will go together, you don't have to worry about us."

Lin Waner also stood up and said politely, "Grandpa wade, Butler Stephen , you Eat first."

After saying that, she followed charlie out of the restaurant and headed to the courtyard where charlie's parents lived.

Due to the large size of this courtyard, charlie's parents had four connected rooms here. In addition to a main hall and a bedroom, there were also other rooms.

has a study room and charlie's own room.

In layman's terms, it is a three-bedroom apartment with three bedrooms and one living room.

charlie has lived here for several years and is quite familiar with the overall layout here. In addition, there are almost no obvious changes here, so it is easier to distinguish.

When I came to the main hall, the furniture and furnishings inside were still the same as when my parents took me away.

The picture of living here with his parents when he was young suddenly appeared in charlie's mind, and he suddenly had mixed feelings.

Afterwards, he took Lin Wan'er (Alani) to walk through the rooms first.

In addition to the furniture in the main hall and bedroom, there are also some prepared bedding and pillows, but it is obvious that they are new.

As a result, the main hall and bedroom will lose the value of finding clues. So charlie concentrated his energy in the study.

The study room converted from a courtyard wing is not very large, almost 30 square meters, but it has three walls of bookshelves and a large collection of books.

Even twenty years later, on the bookshelf in the study room, there are still many books left by Bruce Wade and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom). These were the favorites of Bruce Wade and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) who could not take away their glasses.

Charlie took a quick look and found that although there were many books in it, there were only three categories.

One of the categories is finance and management, most of which are related experiences written by some world-renowned economists and financial practitioners, while the other category is history and biographies, and the third category is the Book of Changes and Gossip.

Charlie didn't know much about it when he was young, so every time he came to his parents' study to look for books, he only stared at the interesting history books and basically ignored other books.

And it was only today that he finally realized that his parents had been studying the I Ching Bagua a long time ago.

r> Lin Wan'er (Alani) also took a rough look at the collection of books, and then sighed to Charlie, "Sir, your parents have collected almost the best books about the Yijing and Bagua in the world. Some of them are even hundreds of years old." It is out of print before. It seems that they have very deep research and study on the I-Ching Bagua and Feng Shui secrets."

Charlie nodded absently. At this time, what he was thinking about was how to quickly convert these. Read the entire book once.

So he searched carefully on the bookshelf to see if there were any clues left in these books, but there were so many books that even if he just took a quick look, it would be impossible to read them all in a short while.

While flipping through the books, he said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "With so many books, it seems that it will take at least a few days to sort them out." Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly and said, "It doesn't matter how many days it takes

, just sort it out slowly. If the young master doesn't mind it, if so, the slave family will accompany the young master to collect it here."

Charlie said, "Then let's take a look at these books of the Yi Jing Bagua first. My parents have been exposed to Taoism, so I think there should be some left by them in the books of the Yi Jing Bagua. Notes."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and asked him, "Master, the slave family also wants to share the worries for the master, but I don't know if the master is willing to help the slave family."

Charlie said, "Since Miss Lin has nothing else to do, please help me look through it together. Well, if you see something that seems suspicious, tell me as soon as possible.

"No problem!" Lin Wan'er (Alani) agreed happily and readily, and then took a book from the bookshelf and carefully flipped through the pages in her hand to quickly look for things that might be caught in the book and notes left in the book.

However, after reading many books in succession, neither of them found anything that could make their eyes shine.

Just when Charlie didn't know where to start, Lin Wan'er suddenly took out a book about the same size as a book from the bookshelf. She opened it and took a few glances, and said in surprise, "Sir, there is a photo album here!"

As soon as you look at it, you can tell that this photo album is old.

In the past ten years or so, with the rapid development of smartphones, ordinary people have already unconsciously digitized all image data. Few people buy photo albums of different sizes and thicknesses and then digitize all of them like they did twenty years ago. The photos are sorted into albums.

charlie didn't know what was in the album, so he took the album from Lin Wan'er (Alani) and carefully opened the first page.

The first thing that catches the eye on the first page is a single photo of two young people in front of the Statue of Liberty in the United States. The man in the photo looks very similar to charlie, but his dress is relatively retro, wearing a knitted sweater and white jeans unique to that era. This is charlie woman in the photo looks like she is about 22 or 23 years old. She is tall and slender. She is wearing a light beige long windbreaker and has her hair permed. It was very fashionable at the time and she still looks good even now. Her curly hair, clothes and hair floated in the wind at the same time, looking beautiful and sassy.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but sigh, "The young master's mother is really beautiful..."

charlie nodded slightly, and then asked jokingly, "Have you never seen my mother before? She seems to be quite well-known in that era."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head and said, "I once searched for the life of charlie's mother. It was indeed remarkable, and she had an unparalleled reputation in the fields of technology, finance, and venture capital twenty or thirty years ago..." As she spoke, Lin Wan'er (Alani) sighed lightly and said,

" In fact, the life trajectory of the Nu family is exactly the opposite of that of the Young Master's mother. After the Young Master's mother became famous in Silicon Valley and the Internet, she seized the opportunity and became what people call a trend-setter. However, the Nu family happened to be worried about Wu Feiyan after the rise of the Internet. With the rapid improvement of information acquisition capabilities due to this general trend, there is almost no contact with the outside world. Touch, so it's just staggered. " charlie nodded understandingly, and then turned to the second page of the album. On the second page of the album, there was a photo of his parents.

Still with the Statue of Liberty as the background, bruce stood tall and straight, and beside him Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) snuggled next to him and stretched out her arms to hug him, while bruce also stretched out an arm to hug Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom). The four photos on the left and right of this page are all of the two of them. The four photos were taken together, some were neat, some were playful, some were funny, but it was clear that the two people in each photo looked at each other and were very loving. Seeing this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but sigh, "The relationship between the master's parents

" It must be very good, really enviable. " charlie nodded and said, "These should be photos of their relationship. In fact, they have been so loving since I can remember. They have never quarreled. Even when they have disagreements, one party will quickly give in before the situation gets out of hand.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked curiously, "Who is usually the first to make concessions? " " charlie thought for a while and said, "It seems that it's not particularly clear who will give in first. The two of them always have a tacit understanding in life and can always judge the other's persistence on something very well. If they feel that If the other party is more insistent than yourself on this matter, one of you will give in appropriately. Lin Wan'er couldn't help but sigh, "Two people can balance each other at all times. This kind of relationship is really rare." " charlie nodded slightly and opened the third page of the album.

After opening this page, the photo in the upper right corner on the left is of a small antique shop. This antique shop is somewhat retro. This

. The shape of the door is somewhat British-style. In the middle of the circular signboard, there is the word “ancient” written in Chinese characters on the right.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the side pointed to a number plate next to the store door and said, “Sir, this store is in Queens, New York.” “ Really?” charlie asked curiously, “How can you tell? I can't see clearly at this resolution. The words on it.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, “The Nu family lived in Queens. The size, color and hanging position of this number plate are the early style of Queens. I'm not sure if it is still used today.” “New York...”

charlie nodded and suddenly remembered what his uncle told him a few days ago. His parents bought a set of antique books in an antique store in New York. That set of books was the “Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra”.

Combined with the antique store in the photo, charlie suddenly remembered something and said to Lin Waner, “This is probably the antique store where my father bought the “Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra”!” Lin Waner was also surprised and quickly said, “The Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra

” “There must be a certain connection with the “Nine Mysterious Scriptures”. The young master accidentally obtained the “Nine Mysterious Scriptures” in an antique shop in Aurous Hill. Your father obtained the “Nine Mysterious Scriptures Preface” in an antique store in New York. There must be more than just a coincidence between the two!”

charlie nodded and said, “The world is so big, it is impossible for two extremely mysterious scriptures to fall into the hands of a father and son respectively, and there are still twenty years and more between them. Half the Earth...”

After saying that, charlie quickly looked down again.

The second photo in the lower left corner is a photo of charlie's father, bruce, and a young man who is younger than him, in front of this antique store.

In the photo, the two are holding each other's backs while giving a thumbs up to the camera with their other hands.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pointed to the people around Charlie's father and asked Charlie, "Mr. Do you know this person?"

Charlie shook his head, "I don't know. Lin

Wan'er said, "It seems that he has a very good relationship with the young master's father. Didn't the young master meet him when he was young?"

No." Charlie said firmly, "I have never seen this person before."

As he said that, Charlie looked at the person's appearance, suddenly frowned, and said, "It's strange... I really haven't seen this person in the photo when I was a child, at least before my parents and I left Yanjing. I have definitely never seen such a number one person, but...but this person seems a little bit familiar, but for a while I couldn't figure out where I had seen him. Lin

Wan'er thought for a while and said seriously, "The familiarity cannot be for no reason. It is possible that the young master has never seen him, but has met his relatives, so he feels that his appearance is familiar. It is also possible that the young master has indeed seen him. But when the young master saw him, his appearance had changed significantly compared to the one in the photo. For example, he might have become fatter, bald, mature, or even older."

Charlie agreed and said, "What you said is indeed possible, but I really can't think of any clear clues for a while now. Lin Wan'er pursed her lower lip and asked Charlie, "Can the young master take out the photos and take a look?" Maybe there will be something written behind the photo. People in the past took photos and had the habit of writing on the back of the photo as a souvenir."

Charlie nodded and said, "Okay, take it out. Lin

Wan'er carefully pulled out the photo, then glanced at the back of it, and said in surprise, "Sir, there is indeed writing on the back of this photo paper!"

Charlie took it over and took a look. On the back of the white photo paper with Kodak logo, he wrote a line of words with a pen: "eens ith chou, 1211"
