

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6146

Seeing this line of text, Lin Wan'er (Alani) immediately said, "eens should be Queens, New York. In this case, this photo was indeed taken in Queens. As for chou...mostly used in Chinese The English translation of the surname 'Zhou'. It seems that the man in the photo with the son's father is named Zhou, and he is of Chinese origin. I just don't know what his name is Zhou." "You are right..." charlie nodded lightly

, At the same time, a pair of eyebrows kept frowning.

He murmured, "I always feel that this man named Zhou looks familiar, but for a while I just can't remember where I've seen him before."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hurriedly said, "Master, don't be anxious, the reason why you feel familiar must be It's because there is indeed a similar face in the young master's memory, but the young master's memory of that person may not be very deep, or he may have only had a very brief encounter with him, so the young master should not be anxious, think carefully, and you will definitely be able to come up with clues."

As she spoke, she asked charlie, "Besides the fact that this person looks familiar, sir, are there any other clues that make you feel strange or familiar?"

charlie kept rubbing the bridge of his nose and said, "If there are other clues... I always I feel that, judging from this photo, the person named Zhou is not only a little familiar, but also familiar and familiar in a certain way, but I can't always grasp the specific clues in my mind." Lin Wan'er comforted and said, "Don't be impatient, sir. Let's sort out everything. First, let's talk about the clothes of the young master and the man named Zhou. Are there any special details?" charlie looked at it and said, "

My father is wearing it. It should be a popular bomber jacket at the end of the last century. The person next to him is wearing an ordinary woolen windbreaker. It should have been a relatively normal dress in that era..." Lin Waner asked again, "What about Queens? The young master's parents are there

. I have lived in the United States for many years. Have I ever talked to you about Queens or taken you to Queens?"

charlie thought for a moment and replied, "In my memory, when I went to the United States with my parents, or went back to visit relatives with my mother, I always lived on Long Island. Apart from Long Island, I usually went to Manhattan more, and I had no obvious impression of Queens. "

As he spoke, charlie added, "Even if it is this antique shop, I only learned about it from my uncle a few days ago. My parents have never mentioned it to me before..." At this point, charlie's His expression suddenly froze.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't notice charlie's change, but stared at the photo carefully and said, "Maybe we can ask your father's old subordinates to see if they know this person?"

" After finishing, Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't hear charlie's response, so she subconsciously asked, "Master?"

charlie still didn't respond at this time.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) turned to look at him and saw that his face was horrified and his whole body seemed to have been immobilized, so she quickly asked him, "Sir, what's wrong with you?" charlie was suddenly awakened by Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s question

Immediately, cold sweat began to break out on his forehead and cheeks, and he said in a rare panic, "I... I think I know why this person looks familiar..." Lin

Wan'er was surprised and quickly asked, "Master, have you remembered?!"

" Yes!" charlie nodded heavily and explained, "YouWhen I said his surname was Zhou, I felt an inexplicable sense of familiarity, and then there was the antique shop behind them..."

After saying that, charlie looked at Lin Wan'er (Alani), his expression still horrified and said, "Do you remember, I'm telling you. However, my father-in-law pretended to understand and insisted on going to an antique store to broaden his horizons, but he accidentally broke someone else's jade pot and spring vase?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6147 -

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said without hesitation, "Of course!" It was from the remains of the jade pot and spring vase that the young master obtained the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures". How could the Nu family not remember such an important thing! " charlie nodded, pointed to the man posing side by side with his father in the photo, and murmured, "He was the manager of the antique store at that time! "

What? " ! Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s eyes widened immediately and she asked with a trembling voice, "Young master, you are saying that this man who took a photo with your father in New York more than 20 years ago worked in an antique shop in Aurous Hill more than 20 years later, and it was him." Did you give the jade pot spring vase containing the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" to your father-in-law? ! "

Yes..." charlie nodded firmly, "I'm sure!" This person's name is Zhou Liangyun, and the antique shop in Aurous Hill is called Ji Qingtang, which belongs to the Moore Family's property in Aurous Hill. At that time, Ji Qingtang's business was not very good. In the huge Moore Family's industry, it was just an inconspicuous corner, responsible for Ji Qingtang's business line is the current head of the Moore Family, Jasmine moore, and Zhou Liangyun was the manager of Ji Qingtang at the time..."

At this point, charlie felt that his back was already soaked.

Before, he felt that he He got the "Nine Mysterious Scriptures" by pure luck.

Until some time ago, he heard from his uncle that his parents had obtained the "Nine Mysterious Scriptures Preface". He speculated that the "Nine Mysterious Scriptures Preface" and "Nine Mysterious Scriptures" There should be a certain connection with "Tian Jing", but there has been no clear evidence;

now, he suddenly discovered that the manager of Ji Qingtang named Zhou Liangyun was actually his father's friend more than 20 years ago.

And that Yu Huchun It was from his hand that the bottle was handed over to his father-in-law, Jacob.

At that time, his father-in-law was in the room with him and he was waiting at the door. Therefore, he did not see what happened inside with his own eyes. However, from his later narration, we can know that at that time, Zhou Liangyun took the jade pot and spring vase. He took it out of the exquisite packaging box and handed it to his father-in-law. His hand slipped and he dropped the bottle to the ground... Now it seems that it can't be a coincidence that Zhou Liangyun is interspersed.

So, charlie subconsciously took out his cell phone and immediately called Jasmine moore.

Now, the only way to understand this Zhou Liangyun is probably Jasmine moore!

The call was answered quickly.

After receiving a call from charlie in the evening, Jasmine moore was still a little excited. She asked happily, "Why did Master Wade call Jasmine so late?" charlie suppressed the nervousness in his heart and asked, "Jasmine, I want to ask Ask the former manager of Ji Qingtang named Zhou Liangyun, is he still working in the Moore Family?

"No more. "Jasmine moore subconsciously said, "He was very rude to you and your father-in-law in Ji Qingtang, and he couldn't see the true value of the jade pot spring vase you repaired. Jasmine felt that not only was his professional ethics flawed, but his professional ethics were also flawed. There was also a big lack of quality, so he was fired.

"Fired? " charlie quickly asked, "Then do you know where he went?" "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6148 -

I don't know anymore..." Jasmine moore said, "After that incident, I never saw him again."

charlie quickly asked again, "Then when did he go to work at Ji Qingtang? " "

Jasmine moore said, "He worked at Ji Qingtang for a very short time, more than a month or less than two months in total. "

When he heard this, charlie was even more surprised.

This Zhou Liangyun only went to work at Ji Qingtang two months before the incident. All these signs indicate that he seemed to have gone to Ji Qingtang just for himself!

Thinking of this, charlie He quickly asked, "Jasmine, was it you who recruited him? "

"Yes. "Jasmine moore said, "At that time, I was not taken seriously in the Moore Family, and I was squeezed out by my uncle and cousin, so the family gave me the business of Ji Qingtang. At that time, Ji Qingtang could not make ends meet, and it was very chaotic internally. The collusion between employees inside and outside was very serious, so I fired all the people and replaced a group of new people. Zhou Liangyun came to apply for the job at that time;"

charlie said, "Why did you recruit him at that time?"

Jasmine moore thought for a while and said, "This person gave me a good impression at first. He is very knowledgeable about Eastern and Western antiques. He is also humble and well-educated. It can also be seen during the interview that this person has a good reputation. " He is very talented and can answer everything I ask fluently. In addition, the salary requirements are not outrageous. Overall, I feel that the price-performance ratio is very high, so I hired him on the day of the interview. "

After saying that, Jasmine said with some annoyance, "I didn't expect that this person's nature was so bad. Not only did he offend your father-in-law, but he even offended you that day. He couldn't even see your amazing repair techniques. I was careless about this, and I ask Master Wade to forgive me..."

charlie thought to himself, "After thinking about it, the person Jasmine moore said was very knowledgeable about antiques, humble and well-educated, is Zhou Liangyun's true identity. As for Zhou Liangyun's true identity, Zhou Liangyun, who was so angry because he dropped the jade pot and spring bottle, slapped his father-in-law and spoke rudely to himself, was actually his disguise..." At this time,

Jasmine moore on the phone asked him, "Master Wade, why did you suddenly think of asking What happened to Zhou Liangyun?"

charlie covered it up and said, "Oh, it's okay. I was just chatting with my friends about the past, and suddenly I felt a little emotional and wanted to ask about this person." After saying that, charlie asked again, "By the way, Jasmine, can you find him?" Can you give me this person's information?"

Jasmine moore said, "I'll ask the person in charge of Jiqingtang now. At the time, the employee information of Jiqingtang was still on file in Jiqingtang's computer. Jiqingtang didn't have its business registration at the beginning. It is registered under the mori Group, so the employee information there is not merged into the Moore Group's personnel files, and the management is not as formal as the Moore Group."

charlie said, "That's hard work. Jasmine, please help me ask and send it to me as soon as possible after you find it.

" Okay Master Wade! " " charlie hung up the phone and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani), "I'll get the information later. Thank you, Miss Lin, and send it to Mr. Sun, asking him to help check all the file information on this person.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said without hesitation, "Don't worry, Master. The Nu family will tell him immediately. " "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6149 -

charlie nodded, and he and Lin Waner were anxiously waiting for Jasmine moore's feedback. Song Jasmine was also very efficient. After a few minutes, she sent an ORD document to charlie.

charlie opened the document and saw Zhou Liangyun's nationality. One column says China, and the other column says Aurous Hill, you know that this information is most likely false.

Continuing to look down, there is no credibility in Zhou Liangyun's resume.

In the resume, Zhou Liangyun has always been He is engaged in antique-related work in China. He said that he set up a stall to sell antiques in Panjiayuan, Yanjing more than 20 years ago. Later, he moved to several places in the country, working as an antique vendor, an antique shop manager, and even The factory specializes in the production of low-end cultural toys.

In the entire resume, there is no mention that he has ever left China.

But the photo of his father and him is clearly in Queens, USA.

What is even more outrageous is that in the language column, Zhou Liangyun only wrote Chinese, no English.

As a person who has been abroad, and who has been abroad more than 20 years ago, his English is most likely good, and English is also a plus for finding a job. He has no The reason is not written on it, unless he simply doesn't want people to know that he has been abroad. Moreover , in the academic column, Zhou Liangyun wrote about high school.

Judging from the personality created by this resume, this is a high school student who failed the college entrance examination and then continued to Although he is not an academic, he has good practical skills. After accumulating more than 20 years of experience in the antique industry, he can be regarded as an experienced person. of connoisseurs.

After charlie read it, he said to Lin Wan'er (Alani) with some frustration, "I think most of the content in this resume is probably fake."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the side smiled bitterly and said, "The slave family thinks that with so many words in it, it might just be "Zhou". "This word is real. His surname should really be Zhou. After all, the son's father also wrote "chou" on the back of the photo."

charlie asked her, "Do you think his name might be real?"

Lin Waner shrugged. "The slave family thinks that it is absolutely impossible to be true."

As she said that, she pointed to the name on her resume and smiled helplessly, "Sir, his name is Zhou Liangyun, good luck! Isn't it just good luck? Translated into English, it is od ck !"

“Although the name Liangyun is not uncommon among Chinese names, why is it him?” “Why is it the father-in-law who gave the young master a jade pot and spring vase, who indirectly allowed him to obtain the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” , the person who indirectly caused the young master to meet the wind and transform into a dragon is called Liang Yun?” “

From the Nu family’s point of view, this name is most likely given to you, young master...”
