

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6258

charlie, who was asking Lucas about the situation in the prison, heard all the conversations between the bosses of the first and second prison districts.

He really didn't expect that a prison in downtown New York that didn't even have an open-air playground would have such undercurrents inside.

Looking at this trend, Joseph, the boss of the Second Ward, is looking for a suitable opportunity to give the boss of the First Ward, the Mexican drug lord Gustavo, a serious blow.

Although Gustavo is pampered in this prison and leads a luxurious life beyond the reach of other prisoners, he also has his worries.

Although his family is powerful, unfortunately, those murderous drug dealers have no way to enter the United States, let alone the Brooklyn Prison to help him.

His own life and safety, as well as the future of the entire family, are still in the hands of the US government and the Rothschild family.

At this time, Lucas said to charlie, "Joseph's behavior today is not normal. This guy might be brewing some conspiracy."

charlie asked curiously " How did you tell?"

Lucas explained, "Joseph doesn't usually deal with Gustavo. He is an old-school American gang member who advocates fighting and head-on confrontation, and has a bit of personal heroism; but Gustavo doesn't. Likewise, Gustavo is cunning and has no bottom line. He not only slaughters his competitors and Mexican police, but also civilians. Like a poisonous snake, Gustavo likes to use the most insidious means to attack his enemies in secret. , give the enemy a fatal blow, so Joseph usually treats him well and does not offend the river. Now he takes the initiative to provoke, clearly wanting to stir up trouble."

charlie nodded, but he did not expect Lucas's analysis to be different from Gustavo's. The analysis is basically consistent.

It seems that Lucas is indeed aware of everything around him in this prison. The most rare thing is that this person can use his brain and can analyze the intention behind a person's behavior. This is much better than the big guys around him. .

At this time, Lucas saw that the iron doors leading to the dining hall from the two prison areas had been closed by the prison guards, so he asked charlie, "The prisoners are all here. By the way, isn't the Peter Zhou you are looking for here?"

charlie shook his head. He had been paying attention to every prisoner who walked into the restaurant, and he had never seen Peter Zhou, the same Zhou Liangyun.

Lucas frowned and said, "If someone enters here, but is not within the two prison areas, it is most likely hidden by the Rothschild family."

charlie asked him, "What if the Rothschild family wants to be here? " If there are people hiding in the prison, where would they hide them?"

"I can't say that." Lucas said seriously, "The bottom floor and the top floor of this prison are the office areas of the prison guards. The room is the prison area where prisoners are held. I don't know much about the office area, but it stands to reason that they are unlikely to hide people there. "

As he said, Lucas added, "But what is certain is that the Rothschild family will never kill the person you are looking for, because if they want to kill someone in this prison, they will definitely let him. This man first appeared in public view of the prison, and then used the prisoners inside to cause chaos and let him die in prison instead of hiding him.

charlie asked him, "If I want to find him and meet him, where do you think I should start? " "

This..." Lucas hesitated for a moment and said seriously, "The situation in this prison is very special. Although the entire prison is under the control of the Rothschild family, most of the staff here have no access to them at all." , if the person you are looking for is hidden by them, then I estimate that there will be no more than five people who know about it among the guards in Brooklyn Prison, but we have no chance to contact these people at all, just like here Warden, we can see him less than three times in 365 days a year. " charlie felt a little worried for a while.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6259

He originally thought that Peter Zhou should be detained in the prison area. As long as he found Lucas, he would have a chance to get clues about him.

But he didn't expect that Lucas was extremely well-informed. People who know nothing about him actually know nothing about him.

And in such a huge prison, it is not as easy as imagined.

In this case, if you can't find him in the prison area, you can only use aura to search other areas.

Aura Detection , is charlie's second choice when he can't find anyone in the prison area.

Spiritual energy is most suitable for finding limited enemies in the vast vastness, just like when he was looking for Dingyuan Boyun Ruge in the valley. She was the only one alive in the entire valley at that time. People, if their spiritual energy covers the entire valley, they can be discovered immediately.

And this entire prison, to put it bluntly, is a complex building housing thousands of people. The density of human existence is extremely high, and if the spiritual energy is released, it can be immediately detected. It is almost impossible for him to find Peter Zhou one by one from thousands of people.

Because although aura can help him detect the situation, it does not allow him to see through the aura in a true sense. Everything can only be sensed with aura.

However, fortunately, it is the meal time in the prison, and all the prisoners are already here. I have paid attention to the prisoners here just now. Since there is no Peter Zhou here, I will use aura to check. This chapter is not finished except the restaurant area and others from the inside should be a lot easier.

As soon as he thought about this, he quietly released his spiritual energy, skipped the first and second prison areas, and began to explore the entire prison.

charlie's aura skipped the prison area and wandered to the top floor first. Here were all the prison staff. There were at least seventy or eighty people at the moment. Moreover, these people were not imprisoned, and there was no such thing as a prison cell that could hold people in prison. Locked-in rooms exist, and staff are either on duty at their posts or eating in the staff canteen.

So charlie searched the lower level with his spiritual energy. There were at least a hundred people working on the lower level, but these people were all busy working or eating, and there was no sign that anyone was being imprisoned.

charlie couldn't help but be surprised, thinking in his heart, "Could it be that the people have been moved to other places by them?" After all, Peter Zhou has been here for a long time, and he has not been sent in from beginning to end. In the prison area, it would be logical for the Rothschild family to secretly transfer him elsewhere.

However, charlie also felt that the Rothschild family secretly controlled Peter Zhou and sent him here because they definitely did not want the outside world to know. In this case, the best way for them is to try not to transfer him again after settling him down. .

Just like when I sent people to Hong Wu's dog farm before.

It is safest to throw a person directly into the dog farm and never let him out again. After all, the other person is only on the way to the dog farm, and there is a certain risk of exposure. Once a person comes in, as long as he is not allowed to go out again, this person will never be exposed again.

However, if people come in and then move to other places, they will be exposed again, and the risk factor will naturally increase exponentially.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6260

At this moment, charlie's spiritual energy suddenly noticed that a person appeared out of thin air from the ground.

So he immediately gathered his spiritual energy there, and surprisingly discovered that there was a very narrow elevator shaft next to the prison's pipe shaft. The length and width of this elevator shaft were about 1.5 meters, and the car was pitifully small, only about 12 meters long. square meters.

Moreover, the elevator shaft does not have any openings on the first or middle floors, which means that it goes directly from the top floor to the underground.

charlie was not in a hurry to immediately use his spiritual energy to investigate downwards. Instead, he followed the people in the elevator to the top floor. What was even more outrageous was that the elevator was actually in a hidden compartment behind a huge office on the top floor.

According to charlie's perception, this office is the largest in the entire prison. It seems that it is most likely the warden's office.

So charlie immediately used his spiritual energy to go down the elevator shaft, but what he didn't expect was that this electric... The underground part of the ladder shaft was unfathomable. charlie's aura continued down for about twenty meters, but still failed to reach the bottom.

However, this is already the limit that charlie's spiritual energy can reach. Twenty meters of soil and rocks, coupled with the reinforced concrete foundation, are a big problem for his spiritual energy, and the consumption of spiritual energy is increasing. But the perception at the end is getting blurry.

So, charlie withdrew his spiritual energy at the right time and asked Lucas, "Lucas, does this prison have any basement or other relatively hidden places?" "

No..." Lucas thought for a while. He said, "I have been here for a few years and I have never heard of a basement here. What's more, prisoners like me can't even go to the first floor after coming in, let alone the basement." charlie heard this and felt in his heart It has been concluded that Peter Zhou is most likely being imprisoned in this hidden underground facility.

However, I can't find out the specific conditions of the underground facilities at all now. If I want to get down from here, my only option is to find a way to get to the warden's office first, and then take the hidden elevator down from there.

Such an important secret passage is located inside the warden's office. It can be seen that the warden should be a confidant of the Rothschild family.

However, what made charlie feel embarrassed was that it was difficult for him to access the elevator whether he was inside or outside the prison.

After all, this is a modern prison with high security. Various monitoring equipment and security equipment are scattered throughout the prison. It is easy to force your way in, but if you want to sneak in without anyone noticing, it is really difficult.

To take a step back, even if he asked Fei Kexin to get him out now, and then found the warden here from the outside and controlled him with psychological suggestions, it would be almost impossible for him to take him to the underground facility.

You don't need to think about it to know that the Rothschild family must attach great importance to this place. Maybe they are paying attention to the hidden elevator shaft and Peter Zhou who is imprisoned below all day long.

After all, I am a living person. If I follow the warden in openly, I will definitely be noticed by the Rothschild family. I am afraid that they will be alerted before I even see Peter Zhou.

In contrast, it is easier to find a breakthrough from inside the prison.

This prison is the fortress of the Rothschild family. According to the inertia of their thinking, they will definitely focus on guarding the outside, thus inevitably ignoring or despising the internal risks.

At this moment, Charlie heard the big drug lord Gustavo saying to his subordinates, "Let's make arrangements. I want to see the warden after dinner!"
