

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6176

The person who was thrown out suffered the worst. His entire right arm was only connected to the body by tendons. In the subsequent impact, his cheekbones, ribs, and leg bones were damaged. , all had serious fractures, and countless bones were broken all over the body.

Although the injuries suffered by the four people were not that serious, the sudden and powerful impact was like being hit by a high-speed car. They were all covered with injuries and were lying on the ground in pain. The living ghosts cry and wolves howl.

They never imagined that an ordinary person could have such powerful power, and they knew in their hearts that this time they met a master, maybe this was the legendary Kung Fu.

At this time, charlie walked up to the five people expressionlessly, looked at the frightened expressions of the five people, and slowly squatted down.

The five people were so frightened that they subconsciously wanted to hide, but at this time they were already huddled in the corner and had nowhere to hide.

The leading man had already lost half his life, and now he had lost all his previous ferocity, and his whole face was filled with fear and uneasiness.

charlie looked at him and slapped him hard on the face!

The snap echoed throughout the roast goose shop.

Seeing that the man's cheeks were swelling rapidly, charlie smiled and said, "What the hell is the underworld? And the Burning Angel... Who the hell gave you this stupid name? Look at your old donkey face, it looks a little bit like an angel." Does it matter?"

The man's cheek was in pain as if it was exploding, but at this time he could only cry and say to charlie, "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry, I didn't know you could kung fu, please let us go, we I'll never come here again!"

charlie frowned and slapped him hard again.

This crisp sound, next to theThe eardrums of the four people around me hurt.

After charlie slapped him for the second time, he smiled and asked him, "Wasn't it very cruel just now? The posture you held the gun in was so cool. I think you wanted to jump up and shoot. Why did you soften so quickly?"

At this time, the man was beaten so hard that he almost fainted, but the severe pain on his face made his brain extremely clear.

He knew that he had encountered a tough opponent today and that he had no one to help him, so he could only ask for a way out in a low voice.

Thinking of this, he cried and said, "Sir, I was really wrong... I grew up in a poor family. My father made my mother pregnant and ran away. My mother worked three jobs to raise me. Da, I didn't go through any studies. I have been working with gangs since I was a child. I beg you, for the sake of my mother, spare my life..." charlie asked with a smile, "What is your current routine

? Show weakness and beg for mercy, and then find more people to help after you get out, right?"

The man quickly said, "No, no! Absolutely not! I swear to God!"

charlie slapped him in the face and asked coldly "Why do you say nothing about God, but still hold a gun to collect protection money? With a gun you are a burning angel, without a gun you are the Lamb of God. Do you believe in God or guns?" "

I ...I..." The man was questioned by charlie and didn't know how to answer. He could only bite the bullet and said, "I...I believe in God..."

charlie asked back, "Then do you think God can bless you today?"

"I..." The man was even more frightened for a moment. He was afraid that he could not pass charlie's test no matter what he said. If he said he could, maybe charlie would have to say he couldn't and then shoot himself in the head; if he said If you say no, if charlie says you're right and then shoots himself in the head, wouldn't he be dead anyway?

At this moment, he was almost desperate and could only plead with charlie, "Brother, please spare my life, I... I don't want to die... I will never join a gang again, I swear!"

Seeing his extremely frightened look, charlie smiled slightly and said, "There is no chance of survival, it depends on whether you can grasp it." When the man heard this, he quickly cried and said, "I am willing to grasp it, I will definitely Get it!"

charlie nodded, took out the magazine from the pistol, then handed the magazine to him and said, "Don't you like people to taste the bullets? Come on, take the bullets inside Eat them all! I'm warning you, eat them all and don't leave any! No matter how many you have left, I will shoot them in for you with a gun!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6177

Seeing charlie's expression of solemn expression and his brows filled with murderous intent, the black man was immediately trembling with fear.

At this moment, he had no doubts about charlie's warning. If he didn't swallow the bullet obediently as he said, he would definitely kill him.

However, the thought of swallowing bullets made him feel frightened.

It's easy to swallow it in, but maybe it's not that easy to pull it out.

At a certain moment, he thought about whether he should use the name of Burning Angel to scare charlie again, or like most Taoist priests, they would play a game with each other to see if charlie could give him face. Once the other party felt that he had gained face, Once they are satisfied, everyone can gradually turn their hostility into friendship from the initial tense situation, and finally, after a few glasses of wine, we will become brothers from all over the world.

This situation is not only common in China, but also in the United States. The key lies in whether you can hit the point where the opponent is satisfied.

However, when the words of peace came to his lips, he did not dare to say them.

I just received a few slaps from charlie, and I feel like the bones in my face are about to be broken by charlie. It's useless to beg for mercy. If I ask for more at this time And, I am afraid that I will continue to be beaten.

Just when he didn't know what to do, a follower beside him thought of something with him.

So the follower mustered up the courage and said, "Sir, this matter today is probably a misunderstanding. We Burning Angels are not unreasonable people. If you give us Burning Angels some face, we can take you to meet with our boss." , Let's make peace with each other, and maybe we can become friends or even partners in the future. Why make the relationship between the two parties so tense?" Seeing his follower express his thoughts, the man nodded excitedly. He said, "Yes, yes, sir, you see, you know kung fu, you can fight, and you have courage. If one of our Burning Angels has territory, if we can reach a cooperation, we will definitely be able to kill everyone, don't you think?"

charlie looked at the black man and smiled, and said, "You are quite smart, and you know how to find a way." Turn enemies into friends. The black man nodded repeatedly, "Yes, yes... He has always been smart..."

charlie smiled and said, "You have such a smart little brother to speak for you. If I don't sell him some face, I will really be sorry for his intelligence." "

When the man heard this, he was so excited that he almost cried.

He thought in his heart that charlie was really ready to let him go!

Although the beating was indeed very painful, at least he didn't have to swallow bullets so outrageously. As long as he If he can escape today's disaster, he will tell the boss about it when he gets back. Talking about turning hostility into friendship is all nonsense. He must seize the opportunity to kill him to avenge today. Just when he thought charlie would When he let himself go and longed to retaliate against charlie tenfold and a hundredfold, charlie suddenly said, "You asked God for forgiveness before, but God may not forgive you, but if you ask me for forgiveness today, I will give you my forgiveness. You Do you want to give it a try?

The man was immediately excited and said quickly, "I want it! " I want! Dear Sir, I, Will Johnson, beg for your forgiveness! "

After that, he looked at charlie expectantly, waiting for his forgiveness to come.

charlie looked at him, smiled slightly, and said loudly, "It's really not easy to swallow these bullets alive, so I will give them to you now. of forgiveness! "

After that, he directly held the bullet in his hand, pinched the shell with his middle finger and ring finger, and pinched the warhead with his thumb and index finger. Then he pushed hard, and several people were stunned to find that the warhead of the bullet was actually struck by charlie easily pushed it out of the cartridge case with two fingers!

They are all gang members and have been dealing with guns all year round. They have also tried to disassemble the warhead of the bullet, but the connection between the warhead and the cartridge case on the standard bullet is very strong and stable. Disassembly requires professionals.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6178

However, they did not expect that charlie could easily push the bullet away with his fingers.

Everyone was stunned when they saw it, and they couldn't help but feel scared. They could easily pull out the bullet head with their fingers. What if they punched the face with all their strength and their brains wouldn't be smashed out?

However, at this time, several people didn't understand why charlie suddenly wanted to pull out the bullet's warhead, and they didn't understand what this had to do with the forgiveness he mentioned.

At this time, charlie looked at the man, raised the bullet that had been separated from head to tail, smiled slightly, and said, "Don't you want forgiveness? This is my forgiveness. The whole bullet is not easy to swallow, so I will break it up for you." It will be easier for you to swallow." The man instantly fell into hell, staring at charlie in horror, unable to believe that such words came from the handsome face in front of him It comes from the mouths of young people.

charlie reminded him at this time, "By the way, don't forget to thank your good brother. He helped you get this good opportunity for forgiveness." When the little brother heard this, his face suddenly turned pale, and he looked at the man's eyes dodge, At the same time, he shook his head vigorously.

And that man was almost going crazy with hatred.

If he had known that charlie was playing this kind of damaging trick, he should have swallowed the whole bullet honestly. After all, if the whole bullet goes in and the whole bullet comes out, the gunpowder inside will not leak in the stomach. It's better now, this You have to swallow the gunpowder yourself.

Terrified, he looked at charlie crying and said, "Sir...this...there is gunpowder in it!"

charlie nodded, "I know, what's wrong with the gunpowder?"

The man almost collapsed and begged, "Take the gunpowder." Yes, people will die..."

charlie said with an indifferent expression, "Look at you, you have suffered the consequences of being uneducated. If you went to school a few more years and joined a gang less, you would also know that the pistolThe propellants are all single-base gunpowder, and their ingredients are nothing more than nitrocellulose. This kind of stuff is not poisonous and you won't die if you eat it.

The man said in horror, "I don't believe it... you must be lying to me! " " charlie sneered, pinched his mouth directly, and poured all the propellant in the bullet into his mouth.

A strong and bitter chemical taste entered his mouth, and the man's tongue was so painful from the sting that he felt He was choked so much that he wanted to cough, but before he could cough out, charlie stuffed the bullet and cartridge case in again, and at the same time clasped his jaw hard so that he couldn't open his mouth at all. Then, charlie faced him

. He said expressionlessly, "You'd better swallow the bullets and shells honestly, otherwise there will be more and more in your mouth soon, and if you still can't swallow it, I will use a stick to help you poke it in!" "

After that, charlie withdrew another bullet from the magazine with one hand, and then easily pulled out the warhead in the same way.

The man was so frightened that he finally understood that there was no possibility of negotiating terms with Charlie. , once he tries to negotiate conditions, not only will he not get any forgiveness, but he will also increase his pressure.

He also knows that Charlie will never let him go easily. Today, if he wants to leave this roast goose shop and leave Chinatown alive, the only way The only way he could do it was to completely follow all Charlie's instructions.

Thinking of this, he collapsed and could only grit his teeth and swallow the metal bullets and shells into his belly.

Before he could finish swallowing a bullet, Charlie pinched his mouth open again and poured all the gunpowder from the other bullet into his mouth. The other followers saw their hearts palpitating. While they were frightened, they couldn't help but feel happy in their hearts, thankful for the yellow-skinned evil star in front of them. , and did not use such cruel methods on themselves.

But just when they breathed a sigh of relief, Charlie suddenly said, "All of you who came in with guns must also give me the bullets in the guns." Eat them all, and whoever dares to disobey will end up like him! "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6179

A magical and interesting scene is taking place in this humble roast goose shop in Chinatown.

The five gang members, who were once vicious and arrogant in Chinatown and made countless Chinese vendors frightened, were now kneeling on the ground, stuffing yellow, orange, and golden bullets into their mouths.

9mm pistol bullets are thick and fat, and are much more painful to swallow than the largest capsules.

Moreover, these people did not even have a glass of water to take the medicine, so they could only grit their teeth and swallow it raw.

The worst of all was Will Johnson.

Because his sister is one of the mistresses of the boss of Burning Angel, and he is born with a ruthless nature and is very ruthless, so he also mixed with the middle managers in Burning Angel, and the boss of Burning Angel took Chinatown. This area was left to him to take care of.

In Hong Kong gang terms, he is the Chinatown leader in Burning Angel. It's just that this person is particularly miserable right now.

Although his four younger brothers were in extreme pain from swallowing the 9mm pistol bullets, fortunately, the 9mm pistol bullets were rounder in shape, so they could swallow them even though they gritted their teeth and fought tooth and nail.

But Will Jackson is miserable.

What he ate was Charlie's hand-disassembled version. Charlie personally disassembled each bullet, poured the propellant into his mouth, and then stuffed the disassembled warhead and cartridge case into his mouth. Force him to swallow it as quickly as possible.

After the cartridge case lost its warhead, the seams were very sharp and would often get stuck on Will Jackson's tonsils, but Charlie didn't give him a chance to slide it down slowly, so he could only swallow it as hard as he could. After taking one pill, he started to vomit blood while swallowing it. His throat, mouth and esophagus were all scratched by the bullet casing.

Seeing his mouth full of blood and still swallowing desperately, Gunbir on the side couldn't accept it. He tried his best to control the urge to vomit and turned his head to the side.

Charlie saw him and asked him, "Gunbir, how many times have you seen this Will Jackson?"

Gunbir quickly replied "Mr. Wade, I...I've seen him maybe three or four times..."

Charlie nodded and said, "Come on, give me a closer look. What was he doing every time you saw him?"

Gunbir thought for a moment and said truthfully, "The first time I met him, he went to Aunt Wang's cattle shop next door to collect protection money. Because Aunt Wang didn't speak English, she chased him away with a broom, so he was interrupted. Aunt Wang's hands and legs..."

Will Johnson quickly defended, "That old woman hit me first, I was in self-defense..."

charlie grabbed his left wrist and applied a little force, and the whole left hand suddenly The wrist was completely broken, and Will Johnson screamed in pain. charlie said with a cold face, "You came in today, and I broke your hand in self-defense." Will Johnson almost collapsed, but What made him collapse even more was that charlie picked up the pistol with the magazine removed, grabbed the barrel and used the pistol as a hammer, and suddenly hit his right ankle. With a crisp cracking sound, Will Johnson was in pain almost fainted.

But charlie didn't give him a chance to faint.

He raised the gun and then smashed his left ankle into a bloody mess.

Immediately, charlie ignored Will Johnson who was wailing crazily, and asked Gunbir again, "Go on." Gunbir said, "The second time I saw him, he came to my store, and he asked me to give him Three thousand US dollars, but I couldn't come up with it, so he took these people and beat me up, and said that today is the deadline for me." charlie looked at Gunbir's dark and purple face and nodded slightly. He nodded, grabbed Will Johnson by the collar, slapped him four or five times in the face, until the capillaries on his face oozed blood, and then threw the dying Will Johnson aside. .

Later, he asked Gunbir, "What about the third time?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6180

Gunbir said, "The third time was the night before yesterday. He was sitting in a Cadillac. The car was parked on the corner of the street. A Chong from the Chinese gang happened to come out of the nightclub. He was His younger brother dragged him into the car, and then I heard a gunshot, and then saw a cloud of blood mist popping out from the rear door of the car. Then A Chong's body was pushed out, and the Cadillac drove away. Yes..."

charlie nodded and asked, do you usually bully men and women in Chinatown?"

Gunbir shook his head and said, "The Chinese gang is quite interesting in Chinatown, although it also takes money from us. A certain amount of protection fee, but he will really help us solve some problems, especially for illegal immigrants like us. There are always people bullying us. The Chinese Gang will usually help us, and their fees are relatively reasonable. After all, they are doing it in the United States. For a small business, you don't have to pay taxes, but protection fees are definitely indispensable. In comparison, the Chinese gang is much more kind..." "

Okay." charlie asked again, "You said that Will Johnson was sitting in the car at that time. In which position?"

Gunbir was a little dodgy, but still mustered up the courage to say, "He was sitting behind the passenger seat."

charlie continued to ask, "The location where Ah Chong was taken into the car was the main location. The door behind the car?"

Gunbir nodded, "Yes..."

"Okay." charlie paused and asked him, "Did you see clearly who shot?"

Gunbir shook his head and said, "Can you see clearly who shot? But after Ah Chong died, the window behind the passenger seat was lowered, and I saw that Will Johnson spitting out."

charlie looked at Will Johnson and asked sternly, "Let me ask you, Ah Chong from the Chinese Gang Chong, did you kill him?"

Will Johnson quickly shook his head and said, "It's not me, it's not me!"

charlie looked at the other four people and said, "If any of the four of you tells me the truth, you can save five bullets." bullets, but if you don't tell the truth or refuse to answer my questions, I will let you eat those bullets. At the same time, I will also take apart all your pistols and eat them. "

The four of them were so nervous that they were sweating profusely.

charlie told them to eat all the parts of the pistol, which really scared them. After eating more than a dozen rounds of bullets, they still had a chance to excrete them slowly, but eating the parts of a pistol, it would be better to be shot directly with a pistol, that way at least you can have a good time.

So, several people came out to correct them, claiming that it was Will Johnson who shot and killed the Chinese gang member nicknamed A Chong. Will

Johnson Johnson's face turned pale, and he wanted to defend himself, but when he thought that these people had betrayed him, if he defended himself now, he might even touch Charlie's back. When he thought of Charlie, he would always repay the evil he did twice

. To himself, he was extremely frightened.

He had killed Ah Chong from the Chinese Gang, so would Charlie kill himself today?!

Just when he was frightened and uneasy, Charlie asked Gunbir, "Do you know the boss of the Chinese Gang?" ? Gunbir nodded quickly and said, "

I know him. His name is Ni Dawei. He used to come to the store often."

Uncle Arman on the side said, "Master, Ni Dawei smuggled himself from the mainland to Hong Kong Island in his early years, and then from Hong Kong Island to the United States. Although he was in a gang, he was a good person. "

Charlie nodded and asked Gunbir, "Can you find him?" Gunbir thought for a while, "

Mr. Wade, it seems that Big Viagra ran away to avoid the limelight. I'm afraid it won't be that easy to find him now." "

Uncle Arman said, "He must have not left Chinatown. Maybe he is hiding in Monroe Hair Salon now. I understand his habits and always believe that the most dangerous place is the safest. "

Gunbir exclaimed, "No way, Uncle Arman... The whole Chinatown knows that the proprietress of Monroe Hair Salon is the lover of Big Viagra. How dare he hide there at this time..." Uncle Arman said, "Don't ask so many questions, just go directly

. Go to Monroe Hair Salon, tell the lady boss there that I am back, and ask her to come over and meet me. "
