

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6282

Hearing that Bruce Weinstein wanted ice cubes, Camilla, who reacted a little faster, quickly said to the girl next to her, "Thalia, there is someone ready at the bar in the suite. A nice bottle of champagne is placed in the ice bucket. Go and get the bucket!"

The girl came to her senses and ran out of the bedroom quickly without any delay.

After a clanging sound came, the girl ran over carrying an iron bucket filled with ice cubes.

Camilla quickly took the iron bucket from her hand, squatted down and handed it to Bruce Weinstein's crotch. Bruce Weinstein originally wanted to stuff it directly, but the situation really didn't allow it, so he had no choice but to He poured all the ice cubes between his legs.

He originally thought that these ice cubes would definitely calm him down, but he did not expect that the ice cubes would be of no use to him at all. The severe pain and extreme swelling were not relieved by the ice cubes.

Bruce Weinstein's expression became more and more painful and distorted. The unprecedented pain caused him to completely collapse and he collapsed on the ground and cried.

At this moment, there is no trace of that majestic warden. He looks exactly like a little girl who soiled her skirt and sat in a muddy puddle crying. .

Camilla subconsciously asked him, "Mr. Warden, haven't you felt any relief yet?"

Bruce Weinstein cried and shook his head repeatedly, saying desperately, "Help me think of a way, I really can't hold on anymore." ..."

Camilla was also very panicked and said nervously, "But I really can't think of any good way..."

After saying that, Camilla subconsciously asked, "How about I call 911 for help?"

"No!" Bruce Weinstein subconsciously blurted out, "You must not call 911. If you call 911, I am finished, and so are you!" Bruce Weinstein knew very well that he was the warden of a federal prison after all, and He is a member of the Rothschild family again. If he causes such a big scandal here tonight and the outside world and the Rothschild family know about it, then his future will be completely ruined.

People will never allow a man who nearly blew himself up while trying to have a double affair to continue serving as the warden of a federal prison.

And the Rothschild family will definitely no longer trust and reuse themselves, and will definitely abandon themselves.

After thinking about it, he could only endure the severe pain and said, "Go...go to my pocket...get my mobile phone, I want to make a call...find someone to help..." "Okay..." Camilla said Hearing that he wanted to find someone for help, he relaxed a little and quickly went to get his phone back.

At this time, the person Bruce Weinstein thought of for help was not the charlie he had just met today, but a friend of his who was an attending physician at a nearby hospital.

As soon as the call was connected, he asked impatiently, "Mark, where are you?!"

A middle-aged man's voice came over the phone, "I'm on duty at the hospital, what's wrong?"

Bruce Weinstein said quickly, "I There is a very serious situation now, and you may be the only one who can save my life!"

Mark asked in surprise, "Bruce, what's wrong with you? Are you injured?"

Bruce Weinstein choked, "It's much more serious than being injured. , only you can save my life now..."

Mark realized the seriousness of the problem and quickly said, "Where are you? I'll go find you now!"

Bruce Weinstein knew, MarkAlthough he is the attending physician, in his current situation, he is probably helpless when he comes alone and cannot carry a lot of professional equipment, so the best and safest way now is to go to the hospital to find him.

So, he warned, “Mark, listen to me carefully. I need you to prepare a completely private treatment room now. You must not let a second doctor besides you come into contact with me. You now Just prepare, I will rush over to find you now!”

Mark asked quickly, “Then you tell me the general situation first, so that I can make targeted preparations to avoid wasting time!”

Bruce Weinstein looked struggling. After a moment, he still mustered up the courage to say, “It’s my little brother... it... it’s at least two or three times bigger than usual, maybe... I feel like it’s about to die...” “

Holy shit!” Mark asked subconsciously “Did you take some medicine randomly?”

“I didn’t...” Bruce Weinstein blurted out, “I didn’t take anything, and it suddenly seemed like it was possessed. I feel like it was blown away now.” The balloon is so extreme that it might burst at any time!”

“Shit!” Mark cursed and said hurriedly, “Hurry up and come to the hospital, and I’ll prepare the clinic. If it’s really two or three times bigger like you said, Maybe he’s going to die! You have to do it as soon as possible, the sooner the better!”

Bruce Weinstein was so frightened that he trembled all over and blurted out, “I...I’ll be there right away!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6283

After that, he threw the phone aside. , looked at Camilla and the other girl, and blurted out, “Quickly, help me get dressed and drive me to Manhattan Hospital!”

Camilla subconsciously said, “Warden, you... your current situation, I’m afraid I can’t put on my pants anymore...”

Bruce Weinstein glanced down, feeling desperate inside.

With the posture in front of me, it was impossible to put on pants, unless I directly bought a pair of overalls.

Camilla had an idea at this moment and said quickly, "Warden, how about I get you a bathrobe!"

"Okay!" Bruce Weinstein agreed without hesitation and blurted out, "Go quickly, hurry up Go get it for me!"

A few minutes later, two Miss Worlds wearing sunglasses and masks, one on the left and one on the right, struggled to support Bruce Weinstein, who was hastily wrapped in a bathrobe, and the three of them hurriedly walked out of the room.

Bruce Weinstein's severe pain at the moment had no relief, and he had to walk, so every time he opened his legs, he would feel unprecedented torture, as if countless needles were desperately piercing him.

But he also knew very well that in this situation, no matter how painful it was, he had to endure it, and he must not be pretentious. Otherwise, he would most likely faint here due to the continuous severe pain. If he lost consciousness, these two women would Try not to take responsibility or anger Gustavo, and you will definitely call 911 to find emergency personnel as soon as possible. In that case, even if you barely save your dog's life, you will have no shame in staying in the United States in the future.

At this moment, Bruce Weinstein burst out with unprecedented strong willpower, endured the severe pain, and came to the underground garage with the two Miss Worlds.

Camila got into Bruce Weinstein's car and drove to Manhattan Hospital under his direction.

Ten minutes later, the car finally stopped in front of Manhattan Hospital.

Bruce Weinstein's good friend Mark was also ready at this time, pushing a wheelchair alone and waiting at the door.

Seeing Bruce Weinstein's car approaching, he hurriedly pushed his wheelchair and ran over to open the door.

At this moment, Bruce Weinstein was curled up on the passenger seat, twitching violently in pain and retching. Mark didn't expect the situation to be so serious, so he quickly took him out of the passenger seat.

He saw the outline of Bruce Weinstein through the bathrobe and was stunned for a moment. He subconsciously asked, "Bruce, are you sure this is not a prank?"

Bruce Weinstein broke down and shouted, "Mark, today It's not April Fool's Day, and I'm not in the mood to play a prank on you with my little brother. For God's sake, can you take me to the hospital and find a treatment room to treat me?" Mark came back to his senses

. Come on, he quickly said, "Bruce, I didn't mean that, I just think... I just think this is too scary..."

As he said that, he quickly pushed the wheelchair and ran towards the inside of the hospital.

Three minutes later, when Mark actually saw Bruce Weinstein's injured area, he felt as if he had seen a ghost and muttered, "This... this is impossible to save..." Bruce Weinstein He blurted out, "Are you fucking guaranteed? You said you couldn't keep it, but you are guaranteed!"

" Looking at the weirdly high value, he couldn't help but say, "With your blood pressure so high, did you secretly install a pump somewhere in your body and send all the blood there?" Bruce

Wei Enstein said angrily, "I'm not here to listen to your talk show, Mark! Do something!"

Mark wiped his cold sweat, took out some prepared injections, and said, "I'll inject you with some relief drugs first." Is it effective? I'll do an angiogram on you later to see if any part of the body has formed a blood clot."

As he said that, he opened the injection pillow and tentatively asked Bruce Weinstein, "Can you bear the injection?"

Bruce Weinstein kicked his feet hard on the ground and said hurriedly, "You are inserting needles every second, so hurry up!" Mark noded and quickly injected him with several potions. Unexpectedly, Bruce Weinstein ·Weinstein's whole body was in pain with veins popping out, as if an alien would burst out of his stomach in the next second.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6284

Mark quickly asked him, "Bruce, how do you feel?"

Bruce Weinstein gritted his teeth and said, "It hurts even more now!"

Mark wiped his sweat and warned him, "You have to endure it no matter how painful it is. I have to give it to you first." You finish the examination."

Bruce Weinstein nodded desperately, suppressing the urge to open the window and jump out, and asked Mark to do several examinations for him.

After several examinations, Mark said doubtfully, "There is no blood clot, nothing special. This is too weird."

After that, he looked at Bruce Weinstein and said seriously, "At the moment, it seems that it won't happen for a while." It may be possible to find out the cause, but your current situation is indeed very special. Such high-intensity congestion cannot be controlled, and your tissue already shows signs of hypoxia and necrosis. If it is not cut off as soon as possible, it may cause systemic Severe sepsis can be life-threatening..."

Bruce Weinstein was so angry that he yelled, "Mark, I want you to find a way to cure it and find a way to make him return to normal. You don't have to cut it off as soon as it comes up! Hasn't your hospital ever encountered such a situation?"

Mark said seriously, "Bruce, you have to trust my medical experience. If it's just an ordinary long-term congestion, we have many ways to intervene. But your situation is different. This color means that the tissue has been necrotic. " Well, it's impossible to save necrotic tissue, otherwise there wouldn't be so many amputees. "

As he said, Mark added, "Professional doctors can actually judge the quality of the tissue at a glance, and whether amputation is necessary for treatment and intervention. Many patients are unwilling to accept the reality of needing amputation, so we give them the best treatment at the beginning. When amputation is recommended, they generally don't believe it. Many people will even drag their stumps around among major hospitals, trying to find a miracle. But in this case, almost 90% of patients When he persisted until the end, he had no choice but to accept amputation. “

Bruce Weinstein quickly asked, “What about the remaining 10? Did you experience a medical miracle?

“Medical miracle? ” “Mark shook his head. “The remaining 10 were unwilling to have their limbs amputated, and they really died in the end. Bruce Weinstein asked desperately, “I don’t want it... I can’t accept it... Even if you chop off one of my legs, you might as well chop it off for me!” Mark said helplessly, “

As far as the current situation is concerned, I really have no other good solution. How about I contact relevant experts?” “

As he said, Mark reminded you, “But I want to make it clear to you in advance. At this time, most experts have gone home from work. Even if I can find someone willing to help you with treatment, he will come here. It’s not going too fast, so would you mind letting me take a video? Let them consult with you via video.

Bruce Weinstein covered his face and blurted out, “Hurry up and shoot! ” The more carefully you take the photo, the better! “

Mark quickly took out his mobile phone, took a video and sent it to the experts he knew in the related field.

Soon, he received replies from these experts one after another.

Without exception, every expert replied with the same two parts.

Chapter 1 Part of the content is their amazement at the video content, because none of them have seen this kind of disease in their lives; and the second part of the content is that almost everyone feels that there should be no other option except surgical removal.

Everyone Mark even let Bruce Weinstein see his reply, which made Bruce Weinstein even more desperate. He never dreamed that he just came out to meet Miss World for a while, but he hadn't tasted the taste of Miss World yet. He was about to become a eunuch.

Bruce Weinstein was so broken that he would rather die than choose amputation. Mark had no choice but to say to him, "Generally speaking, tissue necrosis does not occur immediately. Normally speaking, tissue necrosis does not occur immediately." You still have about 24 hours to think about it. When the tissue starts to fester, you will have to make a decision, but I can tell you responsibly that there is really no hope. "

As he spoke, he sighed sincerely, "I used to think that men must be tough, but today it seems that being tough is not a good thing..."

Bruce Weinstein suddenly thought of what Marven said to him today. Those words.

He also said that men are scary if they are not hard, but it is even more scary if they are too hard.

At this time, Bruce Weinstein's eyes lit up, as if he had grasped a life-saving straw, and he whispered, "That man named Wade said that." It's all true. Is there a way to cure him? ! "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6285

When Gustavo used the remaining majesty of the drug lord in exchange for the bed next to Charlie and couldn't wait to get close to Charlie, his pocket The cell phone inside suddenly buzzed.

He quickly took out his cell phone and looked down. The caller turned out to be Warden Bruce Weinstein.

Gustavo was a little surprised.

His first thought was, "Damn it, Bruce Weinstein, a bullshit little guy, dares to call me directly? Does he really think he's a person?" He doesn't know when it started

. Stavo was already visibly resistant to answering the phone.

He dislikes the feeling of answering the phone less and less. He always feels that when others call him, he will have an unpleasant experience. He prefers his subordinates to report to him respectfully in front of him, or to speak to him in a very respectful tone. Send text message.

Of course, when it comes to giving orders, he still prefers to make phone calls because he likes the pleasure of direct output.

Everyone around Gustavo knows that he doesn't like to answer the phone, so under normal circumstances, he will send a message first, and it must start with Dear Mr. Sanchez. Just like Bruce Weinstein, he makes a direct phone call. He has not encountered this situation for several years.

If Gustavo had received his call before today, he would have hung up immediately, but the fact that he was almost killed by Joseph today made him feel a little wary of his surroundings and fear of the unknown, so after thinking about it, Still pressed the answer button.

However, Gustavo's tone was obviously displeased and he asked, "Bruce, I should have told you not to call me. Why can't you send me a message first?"

Bruce Weinstein said painfully. Mr. Sanchez, is Mr. Wade with you today? I have something urgent and I need to ask him for help!"

"Mr. Wade?" Gustavo asked in surprise, "You ask Mr. Wade for help.What? "

When charlie in the bed next door heard this, he sat up from the bed and said to Gustavo, "Come on, give me the phone. Gustavo handed the phone to charlie respectfully.

charlie took the phone and asked with a smile, "Mr. Warden, do you have anything to do with me?" Bruce Weinstein asked anxiously, "Mr. Wade, what you said today, the more terrifying thing about a man being too hard, have you ever encountered it before?" " charlie knew that he must be dying of pain now, but he said calmly, "Of course I have encountered it, but don't you believe it? Why do you care about this matter again? "

"I believe it, I believe it! " "Bruce Weinstein said hurriedly, "Mr. Wade... today... I was indeed a little too self-righteous during the day... I thought what you told me was all alarmist... I won't wait until it really happens to me... I know how ignorant I am..."

As he spoke, he begged with tears in his eyes, "Mr. Wade, please save me no matter what. If you don't save me, I may really be finished!"

charlie pretended to be surprised and asked, "What exactly happened? " You talk slowly. "

Bruce Weinstein sobbed and said, "To be honest, Mr. Wade, Mr. Sanchez arranged two beauties for me tonight, but I don't know if I was too excited or if there was something wrong with my body. The area suddenly swelled. I can't stand it anymore, it's like I swallowed 10,000 fucking Viagra pills. Now the situation is getting worse and worse. The doctor at Manhattan Hospital said that the tissue is going necrotic and the only option is to amputate. I wonder if you can save me..."

charlie smiled. It seemed that things had developed in the direction he planned. Then he said, "Well, this

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6286

... It can be saved, but it needs acupuncture for treatment. I am in prison now, and I have more than enough energy but not enough energy. "

Bruce Weinstein said quickly, "It doesn't matter, as long as you have a way to save me, I will go back to prison now! I can receive your treatment in prison..."

charlie hummed and said, "It's just that this kind of treatment is more troublesome, takes longer, and requires you to be naked. More importantly, you will definitely be accompanied by others during the treatment. With a certain amount of pain, you will definitely be unable to control your yelling. Aren't you afraid that other people in the prison will know? Bruce Weinstein said quickly, "It's simple. I'll ask my most trusted subordinate to take you out of the cell, and then quietly take you to my office. I'll wait for you in the office!" The soundproofing and sealing there are very good, and confidentiality is absolutely guaranteed! "

Because he was too embarrassed to talk about his own situation, Bruce Weinstein subconsciously wanted to keep this secret as much as possible.

He could have had someone vacate a room elsewhere in the prison and let charlie go there. Treat yourself, but after thinking about it, you can't be absolutely safe wherever you go. This is a prison after all, and many places are monitored and patrolled 24 hours a day. If someone discovers your condition and spreads it as gossip, you still have a future. Totally destroyed.

And in the entire prison, the safest place he felt was his office.

After all, there was a highly confidential secret passage behind his office. In order to ensure the safety of this secret passage, the Rothschild family S*x, not only perfectly hid this secret passage behind the bookcase in his office, but also upgraded his office with a high degree of privacy. In his own office, even with the most professional detection equipment, It is also impossible to discover the secret passage hidden in the dark, and it is even less possible for the human eye to see any clues.

He asked charlie came to the office to treat himself, he could keep it completely confidential without having to worry about charlie discovering the secret passage. It was the best of both worlds.

Seeing that his goal was achieved, charlie said happily, "In that case, I don't have any other problems. After Mr. Warden comes back, I can help you with your treatment." Bruce Weinstein suddenly said excitedly "Okay Mr. Wade, you saved me this time, and I will definitely do my best to repay your kindness!"

As he said that, he couldn't wait to say, "Mr. Wade, I'll rush back to the prison now. See you later!"

charlie He said "Okay, see you later."

After hanging up the phone, charlie handed the phone to Gustavo. Gustavo asked curiously, "Mr. Wade, what does that brat Bruce want from you?"

charlie asked with a curious look on his face. Charlie smiled and said, "There is something wrong with his body, and he wants to ask me to treat him."

Gustavo asked in surprise, "What's the problem? Is it really too hard?"

charlie said with a smile, "He said it was like It's like taking 10,000 Viagra pills."

"Damn it!" Gustavo said with a smile, "Then Mr. Wade will definitely take a photo to open my eyes..."

charlie asked curiously, "So you are so good at this. Huh?"

With that, he said to Dean who was not far away, "Dean, Mr. Sanchez has the same hobby as you. From now on, you should serve him well every day. If you dare to slack off in the slightest, I will destroy you and make you a slave for the rest of your life. A zero."

Dean was so frightened that he almost rolled off the bed. Whether he was asked to serve Gustavo or he was asked to be a zero in the future, it was unacceptable torture for him.

Gustavo also panicked and his anus tightened, and he quickly waved his hands and said, "No, no, Mr. Wade, that's not what I meant. I am a standard heterosexual. I only love women all my life. Just treat what I just said as if I didn't say it..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6287

When Bruce Weinstein returned to prison with the help of his friend Mark, he was tortured by severe pain and was about to drink a bullet and commit suicide.

Due to strict prison management, non-staff members are not allowed to enter in principle. In order to avoid unnecessary trouble, Bruce Weinstein asked his confidants to pick him up from outside the prison, while his friend Mark could only temporarily return to the hospital. .

After returning to the office, Bruce Weinstein endured the severe pain and asked his confidants to go to the prison area where charlie was located, preparing to quietly take charlie out of the cell.

The prison guard came to the door of charlie's cell, opened the door, and said, "Who is charlie? Come out."

charlie slowly sat up from the bed, did not speak, and came to the door silently.

The prison guard first locked up the cells, and then whispered to charlie, "The warden is waiting for you in the office. Come with me." charlie nodded and followed the prison guard out of the prison area. The prison guard first took him to The prison's medical department took charlie to the doctor's office while the doctor in the infirmary was off work, handed him a prison guard's uniform, shoes and hats, and whispered, "Change and I'll take you to see the warden."

charlie changed the prison guard's clothes without asking any questions, and the man took out his cell phone and called a colleague.

The prison guard who came in was about the same height and shape as charlie, and the prison guard who brought him here whispered to the new prison guard, "Wait here, don't make any noise, and don't use your mobile phone to contact anyone." , I will lock the door after I go out, and you will wait here for me to come back."

The prison guard nodded and said, "Okay, captain."

The prison guard from before was relieved, took off his hat, handed it to charlie, and said "Put on your hat, let's go. After we go out for a while, remember to keep your head down to avoid being photographed by the surveillance camera."

charlie nodded slightly, put on his hat, and then went with himWalk out of the infirmary together.

After leaving the infirmary, the prison guard swiped his card and took charlie directly to the prison guard's work area.

As he walked away, the prison guard whispered to charlie, "Remember, if anyone asks about tonight's events afterwards, just say that you feel unwell tonight, and I will take you to the infirmary, but the doctor is off duty, so I just I can lock you in the infirmary first, and then go out to help you find some emergency medicines. It took me a long time to find the medicines, but fortunately you felt better after taking them, and then I sent you back to the cell. "

Okay." charlie felt that the other party's method of replacing the civet cat with the prince was reasonable. There were no obvious loopholes. Moreover, he was wearing a prison guard's uniform and a hat. The surveillance cameras could not capture the person's face, so he would not be detained. If you lay down any tangible evidence, it probably won't arouse any suspicion.

The prison guard took charlie to the top floor. After walking through a long corridor, he came to the door of the warden's office. Then he gently knocked on the door three times. Without waiting for a response from inside, he opened the door directly and faced the sofa. Bruce Weinstein, who was in great pain, said, "Warden, people are here."

As if seeing a savior, Bruce Weinstein quickly said to charlie, "Mr. Wade, please come in quickly! Lip, please go out first." ."

The prison guard nodded quickly and closed the heavy soundproof door after charlie entered.

Bruce Weinstein couldn't bear it anymore and wailed loudly, "Mr. Wade, Mr. Wade, you have to save me! If you don't save me, I will become a useless person!"

charlie looked at him and smiled slightly. , I spent so much effort just to come to this office quietly, and this goal was finally achieved.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6288

Then, he looked at Bruce Weinstein and said coldly, "Don't worry, although your little brother is in pain, he won't be broken for a while."

Bruce Wayne Stan said subconsciously, "How could it be? My friend who is a doctor said that it is already dead. If you don't treat it for me, I'm afraid I will have to amputate..." charlie said calmly, "Don't worry, there is spiritual energy here, it wo n't It will be over. As long as you cooperate well, I will cure you."

Bruce Weinstein looked surprised, "Reiki? What is Reiki?"

charlie did not answer his question, but asked coldly, "I asked. You, is there a secret passage in your office? Is Peter Zhou locked under the secret passage by you?!"

Bruce Weinstein seemed to have seen a ghost for a moment, staring at charlie in stunned silence, and murmured, "You ...Who are you?! How do you know about the secret passage and Peter Zhou?"

charlie smiled and said, "I came here just for Peter Zhou."

As he said that, charlie sent a spiritual energy into his brain , commanded in an unquestionable tone, "Answer the question I just asked!"

Bruce Weinstein shuddered, and his brain instantly regarded charlie as someone who obeyed his orders, and quickly said, "There is indeed a secret secret behind my office. The road is an elevator shaft. There is a secret cell under the elevator shaft, and Peter Zhou is locked there."

charlie asked again, "Besides Peter Zhou, who else is there?"

"No more..." Bruce Weinstein said truthfully, "He is the only one down there, locked in a completely closed room. I will bring him food and water once a day." charlie continued to ask, "

Rosschild Why do the Germans keep him here?"

Bruce Weinstein said, "It's becauseStealing things from the Rothschilds for him.

"Stealing? " charlie frowned and asked, "What is it?" "

"I don't know either. "Bruce Weinstein explained, "I only know that that thing is very important to the Rothschild family, but that week Peter refused to tell the truth even if he was dead or alive. Some time ago, people from the Rothschild family came here to interrogate him every day. , but he has been unable to find out any valuable information, so he asked me to take good care of him for the time being. "

charlie asked coldly, "Can you take me down? "

"able. "Bruce Weinstein nodded without hesitation.

charlie asked again, "If I leave in the afternoon, will the Rothschild family know? "

"Won't. "Bruce Weinstein said, "I am in charge here. I report everything to the Rothschild family. They do not directly monitor this place. "

charlie felt relieved and ordered, "Take me down now! "

Bruce Weinstein respectfully said yes, and then went to the bookcase in his office. He took out a book of "The Gospel of John" from the bookcase, and then completely covered the cover of the book with his palm. Go up.

Something magical happened immediately. After scanning his palm prints and fingerprints, the book immediately made a beeping sound. Then, the back panel behind an empty bookshelf suddenly opened, revealing a set of cameras.

Bruce Weinstein stepped forward and stared at the camera with wide eyes. Immediately afterwards, one of the bookshelves slowly opened, revealing a metal elevator door.

After the disguised door of the bookshelf opened more than 45 degrees, the metal elevator The door also opened automatically, revealing a small and small elevator.

At this time, Bruce Weinstein respectfully said to charlie, "Sir, please come in."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6289

charlie stepped into the narrow car, followed by Bruce Weinstein.

The control panel in this elevator is extremely simple. There is only one green button. Bruce Weinstein pressed the button and said to charlie, "When you are at the bottom, press this button to go up. If you are at the top, press it." Just press it and go down, don't stop in the middle."

charlie nodded. At this time, the car had begun to move downward. He glanced at Bruce Weinstein and asked, "How deep does it go down here?"

Bruce Weinstein Enstein said respectfully, "It's sixty meters deep."

charlie couldn't help but curiously asked, "How did you dig such a deep elevator shaft quietly?" Bruce Weinstein Explained, "Although Brooklyn Prison is still a federal prison on the surface, it has been controlled by the Rothschild family for a long time. A few years ago, the Rothschild family donated a sum of money to renovate the prison. In fact, the money was just It is mainly used to build this elevator shaft and underground fortifications.”

As he spoke, he paused slightly and added, “Although there is only one conventional entrance and exit, there is actually a one-way entrance and exit underground that can be opened from the outside.

charlie was puzzled asked, “The Rothschild family spent so much effort to build such a secret tunnel in Brooklyn Prison. Isn’t it just to detain prisoners with special status?” “

Bruce Weinstein said truthfully, “A big drug lord like Gustavo Sanchez is locked up here because he has reached an in-depth cooperation agreement with the Rothschild family. The Rothschild family must ensure that They are absolutely controllable. If there are special circumstances or force majeure, the Rothschild family can hide the person through this secret passage, or directly and quietly transfer it to other places, and then declare that the prisoner has escaped from prison, or the U.S. court has sentenced The other party is imprisoned for life, but if the Rothschild family negotiates with the other party and wants to release the other party, it will be achieved through this secret passage. This kind of thing has been done several times, and the success rate is 100%.

Charlie nodded and asked, “In other words, a drug lord like Gustavo who has done all kinds of bad things will quietly send people back to Mexico as long as it is beneficial to the Rothschild family?” “

“right. “Bruce Weinstein nodded and said, “They only care about profits and don’t care about justice. “

charlie smiled contemptuously and said lightly, “It’s true that they are rich and unkind. These capitalists pursue profits more than anything else. “

At this time, the elevator slowly stopped at the bottom.

After the car door opened, what came into view was an arched tunnel about two meters wide and two meters high.

There was an iron door at the end of the tunnel, and There are two rooms on both sides of the tunnel. One room has no door and is filled with simple sofas and small tables, while the other room is closed by a solid iron door. Bruce Weinstein pointed to the In the room closed by the iron door, he said to charlie, “Peter Zhou is locked there. “

charlie said coldly, “Go and open the door! “

Bruce Weinstein hurriedly stepped forward and entered a password on the door. Then the iron door bounced outward with a ding. charlie stepped forward hurriedly and pushed Bruce Weinstein aside. He pushed the iron door open vigorously.

At this time, the scene in the room made charlie secretly frightened.

The area of the room was about twenty square meters. There was a space of about six or seven square meters outside without any furniture or objects, and there was only one inside. A toilet, a faucet with a small flow of water, and thisAt that moment, a man with a beard and messy hair covering half of his face was sitting crookedly on the toilet. A strong metal collar was put around his neck, and there was an iron chain as thick as a thumb on the back of the collar. , and the length of this chain is just enough to ensure that no matter how he moves, he cannot reach the six or seven square meters of open space outside, and can only be restricted to one side inside.

There was no place to sit or lie down in the entire room. The ground was damp and cold, and there wasn't even a straw mat, let alone a mattress. The harsh environment forced the man to curl up on the toilet and barely fall asleep.

At this time, the man heard the noise and raised his head feebly. When he met charlie's eyes, his whole body felt as if he had been struck by lightning. His eyes widened and his whole body trembled uncontrollably.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6290

charlie looked at his tortured face and recognized that he was Zhou Liangyun, the manager who worked at Ji Qingtang!

At this moment, charlie had mixed feelings in his heart.

He quickly stepped forward, held Zhou Liangyun's hands in his, and whispered, “Mr. Zhou...oh no, Uncle Zhou, are you okay? I'll take you out of here!”

Zhou Liangyun burst into tears instantly and looked at charlie, Choking up sobs, he said, "Master... you... you know everything?!"

charlie nodded, "I saw a photo of you and my father, so I came to the United States to look for you and found it all the way here."

Zhou Liangyun said with shame. Young Master, not only did I not tell you my identity in Aurous Hill before, but I also framed your father-in-law and made rude remarks to you. Please don't blame me..." charlie said hurriedly, "How could that be? Although I don't know what happened

. I don't know the specific details, but I believe that Uncle Zhou must be doing it for my own good. My ability to obtain the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" must be due to your arrangement. In the final analysis, I want to thank you." Zhou Liangyun quickly shook his head and said, "Master,

I just followed your father's arrangements before his death and brought the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" to Aurous Hill to you. All of this was your father's preparation for you. It is also thanks to your father's support and care that I can live to this day. You don't need to I'm grateful."

charlie was even more horrified. Although he had doubted whether his ability to obtain the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" was related to his father, he had never found direct evidence.

And now, Zhou Liangyun's words confirmed this speculation for himself.

At this time, charlie had countless questions that he couldn't wait to ask Zhou Liangyun clearly. However, seeing the situation in which the two of them were stretched out, and looking at the steel collar around his neck, charlie immediately stepped forward and grabbed it. The neck collar was pulled apart abruptly, and then he helped Zhou Liangyun up and said, "Uncle Zhou, I will take you out first. Don't worry, I will make the Rothschild family pay with blood in the future!" Zhou Liangyun said hurriedly, "Master, this is In the final analysis, it is my fault. I deserve what the Rothschild family did to me, and I can't leave here now. If I leave, the Rothschild family will not let my family go, and I can't implicate them... .."

charlie was startled and asked quickly, "Uncle Zhou, what is the grudge between you and the Rothschild family? I heard from outside that you stole their things?"

Zhou Liangyun smiled bitterly and said, "Yes. I stole their things, but strictly speaking, they also stole their things..."

As he spoke, he looked at Charlie and said seriously, "Master, you must have many questions that have been confusing you for a long time. I have found the answer. Since you have found it here today, I will answer it for you one by one. After I finish answering it for you, I have one more thing to ask you!"

After listening to what Zhou Liangyun said, Charlie said without thinking, "Uncle Zhou, let's go out and talk slowly!" "

No..." Zhou Liangyun shook his head and said firmly, "Master, You and I can chat here."

As he said that, he pointed at Bruce Weinstein who looked dull behind Charlie, and said, "He is the only one who will come here recently. Since he is already under your control, we will be here in a short time. It must be absolutely safe. I have something I want to explain to you as soon as possible."

Charlie hesitated for a moment and nodded lightly, "Okay! I'll help you heal your body first, and then you can tell me slowly. ."

After saying that, he put his fingers on Zhou Liangyun's veins, and a little bit of spiritual energy entered his body, which completely restored his physical condition in an instant and greatly improved it.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6291

Zhou Liangyun felt the earth-shaking changes in himself and said with surprise, "It seems that you have mastered the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures", young master. If your father's spirit in heaven knows this news, he will be very happy!" Because Zhou Liangyun's body has been greatly improved

. , Charlie asked Bruce Weinstein to guard outside the room, and he and Zhou Liangyun simply sat on the floor.

Zhou Liangyun first said, "Master, what do you want to know? Just ask, and I will answer whatever you know."

Charlie said, "Uncle Zhou, let's start with your situation. What is the grudge between you and the Rothschild family?" "What's going on?"

Zhou Liangyun sighed and said, "Our Zhou family has mainly been engaged in the antique business in the West these years, and we focus on Oriental antiques. In the niche field of Oriental antiques It's somewhat famous, which is the premise of the whole thing;"

"So a few months ago, people from the Rothschild family came to me privately and offered me a very high price, asking me to help them restore an oriental antique. A Sifang Baozhuang from the Chinese Tang Dynasty that only exists in unofficial historical records but has never really appeared."

charlie asked curiously, "Baozhuang?"

"Yes." Zhou Liangyun explained, "Baozhuan is a general term for a type of ancient handicrafts with characteristics. It is similar to a smaller version of the pagoda. There are similar antique cultural relics in all dynasties. The most famous one at this stage is probably the Song Dynasty Pearl Relic Tower, but that tower is mainly of religious significance. Although similar in shape to the Rothschild family, this square treasure house of the Tang Dynasty, it is very different. "

As he spoke, Zhou Liangyun added, "In the early years, I collected a lot of Chinese antiques that were scattered overseas, including some documents and materials from various dynasties. There have been records in ancient books. At that time, Emperor Taizong Li Shimin of the Tang Dynasty believed in Buddhism and the Book of Changes. Zang went to India to learn Buddhist scriptures, and also summoned the Zhouyi masters from all over the country to deduce the national destiny in Chang'an City. In order to ensure the stability of the Tang Dynasty, he ordered the best craftsmen in Chang'an City at that time to build a square treasure tower and put this treasure The building was placed in the dragon veins of the Tang Dynasty to ensure the stability of the Tang Dynasty."

charlie asked curiously at this time, "Could it be that this square treasure building is a magical artifact from Zhouyi Feng Shui? "

That's right. " Zhou Liangyun nodded and said, "The unofficial history I saw records that when Huang Chao raised his army, he was fortunately assisted by a Zhouyi master who broke the dragon veins of the Tang Dynasty and took out the four treasure pillars from the dragon veins. However, Huang Chao did not have an emperor. Even if he had the Sifang Baozhuang, he could not escape the fate of failure, so the Sifang Baozhuang later fell into the hands of Zhu Wen. It was a pity that Zhu Wen did not have any capable people who were proficient in the Book of Changes around him, so the Sifang Baozhuang could not do anything in his hands. It exerted its true effect. Since then, the whereabouts of the Sifang Baozhuang have been unknown. “

Speaking of this, Zhou Liangyun paused for a moment and continued, “When the Sifang Baozhuang came out again, it was in the hands of Nurhaci hundreds of years later. According to legend, Nurhaci brought the Sifang Baozhuang to Liaodong, and Nurhaci’s queen was blessed by the Sifang Baozhuang. The take-off of the national fortune coincided with the decline of the Ming Dynasty, and the later Jin Dynasty continued to grow stronger. By the time of Huang Taiji, the country was called the Qing Dynasty, and finally successfully entered the customs and seized the country and the country;”

charlie couldn’t help but ask him, “If you say so, these four treasures The building was in the hands of the Qing royal family and must have been a national treasure. How did it fall into the hands of the Rothschild family? “

Zhou Liangyun sighed and said, “In 1840, the British government launched the Opium War in China and mobilized the whole country to dump opium into China and the entire Southeast Asia. After forcing the Qing government to open the country, the Rothschild family took over the opium business. This chapter of China

Later, they almost controlled the opium business in China and Southeast Asia. From that time on, the Rothschild family began to transport large amounts of opium to China while also transporting China’s gold and silver. , tea, and various precious antiques were transported back to Europe from China;” “

This kind of plundering reached its peak during the Eight-Nation Alliance period. The combined armies of the eight countries, Britain, the United States, France, Germany, Russia, Japan, Austria, and Italy, They burned, killed, looted, and committed all kinds of evil in Yanjing, and countless national treasures of China were stolen or destroyed by them. The two biggest directions of the national treasures stolen were the British government and the Rothschild family.” At this point

, , Zhou Liangyun complained with some indignation, “Today, there are more than 20,000 Chinese cultural relics in the British Museum, which were basically looted from China during that period. Compared with the British Museum, the Chinese cultural relics in the hands of the Rothschild family are... It's just a lot more. I've always heard about this before, but I didn't expect that the legendary Sifang Baozhuang was also in their hands! “

As he spoke, Zhou Liangyun added, “According to historical records, the Four Directions Treasure Tower is the most important geomantic treasure that can protect the country and the country. Your father and I have both studied the Feng Shui of the Book of Changes in depth. According to the records of the Book of Changes, if you want to build this kind of important weapon of the country, The ultimate treasure of Feng Shui requires the blessing of countless Zhouyi masters and countless efforts to complete it. However, the power of these four-sided treasures in Feng Shui will gradually weaken over time. By the end of the Qing Dynasty, its magic power was no longer enough to protect the Qing Dynasty. “

However, this square treasure building has been in the hands of the Rothschild family for at least a hundred years, and their family has flourished and stood out among the others for so many years. I am afraid that it is closely related to this square treasure building;” “Previous paragraph Over time, many cracks appeared in the Sifang Baozhu itself, and the Rothschild family found me, hoping that I could help them restore this cultural relic. They most likely thought that I could not recognize the Sifang Baozhu. After all, there was no information about the Sifang Baozhu on the market. But they didn't expect that I had come into contact with unofficial historical documents about the Sifang Baozhuang, so when I saw the actual object, I recognized this national treasure. In order to confirm my speculation, I secretly made a carbon copy of it. 14 identification can indeed prove that it comes from the Tang Dynasty;”

“After confirming the identity of the Sifang Baozhuang, I checked the news about the Rothschild family during that time and found that they had indeed experienced many minor setbacks in the past few months. There was even a My grandson died in an accident. I guessed that this must be related to the cracks in the Sifang Baozhuang, so I deliberately told the Rothschild family that the Sifangbaozhuang had been around for too long and its materials had deteriorated very seriously, and it was not like the Song Dynasty. The pearl relics are so exquisite and have religious value. The overall value is not too high. I advise them to keep them statically and not to repair them forcibly.” “

However, the Rothschild family is willing to spend tens of millions of dollars for me to restore them. It, so I pretended to be interested in money and agreed, and told them that the restoration would take a long time, at least a few months. The Rothschild family left this square treasure building to me, but every day there were people I came to check on the progress of the restoration, and I also discovered that they had been secretly monitoring me during that period;" "

While I was restoring the Sifang Palace, I felt more and more that this thing should not be left in the Rothschild family's audience, because This itself is a cultural relic of China, and almost all Chinese people do not know the Sifang Baozhuang, or even know its existence, but it is probably the most significant of all the national treasures lost in China's hundreds of years of humiliation since the Opium War. It's important. I have been working hard to send Chinese cultural relics scattered in the West back to China for so many years. If I don't send back these four-square treasure buildings, I may die in peace in my life..." "So, I will take advantage of a few months

. During the restoration time, I made a fake Sifang Baozhu one by one, played a trick of civet cat for prince, and then secretly hid the real Sifang Baozhu and waited for the opportunity to transport it out of the United States;" "But I thought it was fake

. After giving the fake Sifang Baozhu to the Rothschild family, I could at least fool them for a while and win me a chance to transfer. But I didn't expect that after they took the fake Sifang Baozhu back, they immediately did a carbon 14 test. , after realizing that my belongings had been swapped, they wanted to take me away secretly as soon as possible. Fortunately, I guarded against them. When they came to the door, I took the initiative to call the police and surrendered. After the police intervened, the Rothschild family could not If not, I was sent to Brooklyn Prison..."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6293

After hearing this, charlie understood the whole story of Zhou Liangyun being imprisoned in Brooklyn Prison.

He couldn't help but sigh, "I was surprised at first. With the strength of the Rothschild family, if you really stole their things, there was no need for them to resolve it through legal channels. It turned out that you took the initiative to call the police and surrender." "That's right

. "Zhou Liangyun nodded and said helplessly, "In the United States, although the influence of the Rothschild family can be above the law, it must not cause public outrage. It is true that I stole their things, but since I took the initiative to surrender , this matter must go through judicial procedures;"

"In this case, even they cannot arrest me directly. I am also a somewhat famous antique dealer after all, and I know many people in the upper class. If they If they arrest me and abuse lynching, once the news leaks out, the American police will lose all face;" "

So, the Rothschild family can only do the next best thing and let the court lock me up here. , and even if they torture me again, they don't dare to kill me, because I was only sentenced to fifteen years in prison. After fifteen years, I have not walked out of this prison. The Rothschild family cannot give an explanation to the people. ."

charlie said firmly, "Uncle Zhou, I will take you out of here today. As for the Rothschild family, I will go and make it clear to them." "Absolutely not!" Zhou Liangyun blurted out, "Master,

I I am a prisoner in Brooklyn Prison for theft. If you take me away today, the Rothschild family will not only not give up, but will definitely attack my family;" "More importantly, once I leave, If you do, I will become a fugitive!"

"Although the Sifang Mansion originally belonged to China, it was indeed stolen from the Rothschild family by me. The U.S. court ruled I am in prison. I willingly plead guilty and obey the law, but I can never bear the infamy of a fugitive again."

charlie said with some worry, "Uncle Zhou, if the Rothschild family does not get the Sifang Pavilion, they will definitely not. You will give up. If you still have more than ten years in prison, then these ten years will definitely be very difficult." "It does n't matter." Zhou Liangyun smiled slightly and said seriously, "When I did this, I had already considered the consequences. "

Now that this matter has been exposed, the Rothschild family will definitely not and dare not kill me directly. What they want now is to get back the square treasure building;" "So, it's best now The solution is to return the Sifang Treasure Building to China. Once the Sifang Treasure Building is returned to its original owner, no matter how shameless the Rothschild family is, they will never dare to ask China for cultural relics that originally belong to China. When the Rothschild family After the German family realizes that this square treasure can never be returned to their hands, they will no longer think about making a fuss about me;” “

I will serve my sentence honestly, even if the Rothschilds My family continues to make things difficult for me, but they dare not really do anything to me;”

“What’s more, even if they kill me by then, it will be meaningless. Killing me will not allow them to regain the Sifang Treasure Tower.” He said

. , Zhou Liangyun looked at charlie and begged, “Master, I just said that I have something to ask for, that is, you can help bring the Sifang Baozhu back to China, which belongs to the ancestors of China.”The important weapon of the country should return to its homeland and do its part for the country and the country. “

charlie didn’t expect that Zhou Liangyun would be so caring about his homeland overseas. He was moved and couldn’t help but nodded and said, “Uncle Zhou, don’t worry, I will definitely bring the Sifang Baozhu back to China. I have a friend who happens to have a relatively high relationship. , you can donate the Sifang Baozhuang back through him. “

What charlie is thinking about at this moment is one of Lin Wan’er’s adopted sons, Sun Zhidong (Meir).

Since the Sifang Baozhuang is an important weapon of the country, of course he is not qualified to take it as his own. Giving it to China through Sun Zhidong (Meir) is the true meaning of it. The completed jade returned to Zhao.

Zhou Liangyun was also very excited at this moment and said, “I’ll leave everything to you, young master. The Sifang Baozhuang has returned to China. I have served my fifteen-year sentence in the United States. This matter is no longer owed to us.” “ charlie said seriously, “Uncle Zhou, the British and the Rothschild family have robbed so many historical relics from China. Let alone more than a hundred years, even after a thousand years, what they robbed is still what they robbed.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6294

even if a thousand years have passed, the cultural relics that should be Chinese will still belong to China, and sooner or later they will return to China. If the Rothschild family lets you serve your fifteen-year sentence, I, charlie, will be the first. If you don't agree, don't worry, I will find a way to make the Rothschild family give up criminal responsibility for you, let them withdraw the theft case, and give you your freedom. "

Zhou Liangyun said hurriedly, "Young master, you don't have to quarrel with the Rothschild family for this matter about me. What's more, your father and the Rothschild family had some disputes back then. The old and new hatreds will turn out to be the same. I will bring unnecessary trouble to you, young master. " charlie shook his head and said nothing, but he had already made up his mind.

Seeing that charlie no longer responded, Zhou Liangyun couldn't help but sighed, changed the topic and said, "Master, apart from the reason why I went to prison, you must have many questions. May I ask? " charlie nodded and said truthfully, "To be honest, Uncle Zhou, seeing the photo of you and my father, I have countless questions in my heart. What I want to know most is why you came to work at Ji Qingtang. 》 What kind of relationship does it have with you and my father? "

Zhou Liangyun smiled slightly and said, "The reason why I went to Ji Qingtang is because I promised your father that I would deliver the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" to you at the right time. " charlie was shocked. Although this answer shocked him, it was not beyond his expectation.

He had long guessed that his ability to obtain the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" must be related to his father, but he didn't know that his father Why did he arrange a clue that spanned almost twenty years so early?

After all, his father passed away twenty years ago, when he was just eight years old.

And when he got the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture", he was already twenty He was seven years old.

So he couldn't help but ask, "Uncle Zhou, I want to know, was it my father who told you that he would not give me the Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures until I was twenty-seven?" "

"no. "When Zhou Liangyun said this, he could not suppress his inner excitement and said loudly, "What your father told me was that when you trapped the dragon and ascended to heaven, I would definitely send the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" to your hands to help you. The rising dragon rises with the wind in one day and soars up to ninety thousand miles! Nineteen thousand miles! Nine hundred thousand miles! Nine hundred, ninety million miles! "

Zhou Liangyun's passion was like a man possessed, which made Charlie shocked and amazed.

It turned out that my father had already calculated everything and planned everything for himself.

At this time, Zhou Liangyun's eyes were full of excitement. He continued with great excitement, "Since your parents' accident, I have been waiting for the day when you trapped the dragon and ascended to heaven. This wait has been twenty years!"

"Almost five years ago, Mr. Orion Exeor went to Eastcliff. At that time, Mr. Orion set off from the United States, and I was in the United States. When the Wade family's special plane took off from Los Angeles, I Outside the fence at the end of the airport runway, I watched the plane fly into the sky!"

"At that moment I knew that the moment you were trapped in the dragon and ascended to the sky was not far away!"

"After Mr. Orion arrived in Eastcliff, he spent several years and used his lifelong learning to finally break your dilemma in the shoal in Yeling Mountain. The moment I heard the news, I stayed up all night. The next day, I So I flew to China with the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" and used the identity of 'Zhou Liangyun' to apply for the manager position at Jiqingtang, waiting for the most suitable opportunity for you to get the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures"!" Charlie did n't Thinking that all these things are so connected.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6295

So, he thought of something again and asked doubtfully, "Uncle Zhou, Mr. Orion said that I fell into the situation of Longquan Shoal because I got married and settled down in Aurous Hill, but my father was killed and died early. How did he figure out all this before I was eight years old?"

Zhou Liangyun said with a sad expression, "Young Master, Mr. Orion is a Feng Shui master, but he only figured out that you are trapped in the shallows after arriving in Eastcliff, and that At that time, he didn't know how long you had been trapped in the shoal."

After saying that, Zhou Liangyun continued, "Mr. Orion speculated that you were trapped in the shoal after you got married. That's just because the Wade family happened to be that We just found Mr. Orion at that time."

After that, Zhou Liangyun said in a surprising way, "Actually, the reason why your father knew that you were in the Dragon's Bank was not because he knew things like a god, but because when you were eight years old, The moment you left the Wade family and Eastcliff with your parents, you were already a 'Dragon Sleeping Shoal'."> charlie was even more surprised. "When I was eight years old, I was trapped in the shallows?"

"Yes!" Zhou Liangyun nodded heavily and said, "Your parents' decision to leave Eastcliff and go to Aurous Hill was a last resort. If Just like Guan Yu's defeat in Maicheng, the fate of your family of three has also changed from soaring to a sharp decline from that moment on. Therefore, from that moment on, you have been trapped in the shallows until Mr. Orion breaks the situation for you. ."

charlie suddenly realized.

He himself misunderstood the timeline of Mr. Orion Exeor .

Mr. Mr. Orion was invited to Eastcliff by his grandfather four or five years ago. At that time, it happened to be the time when he and Claire got married.

Mr. Orion thought that the Wade family had just been trapped in Longquan Shoal at that time. In fact, at that time, he had been trapped in Longquan Shoal for more than ten years.

He thought for a moment, remembered something important, and quickly asked Zhou Liangyun, “Uncle Zhou, do you know what Shenglongge is? I can always hear Shenglongge, but I don’t know what Shenglongge means. ...”

Zhou Liangyun looked at charlie and said seriously, “Master, the ascending dragon pattern is the unique destiny required for the ascending dragon path. Historical data says that only with the ascending dragon destiny pattern can one enter the ascending dragon path. You My father used to be a dragon like you, but he could only open the “Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface” and could not open the “Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface” because it said in the “Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface” that only the Shenglong destiny can be Only then can you open the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” and step into the path of ascending the dragon;”

charlie was even more confused and asked him, “Uncle Zhou, my father is a dragon, but he cannot open the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures”, and I am also a dragon. Ge, why can I open it?”

Zhou Liangyun stared at charlie with his eyes and said word by word, “Master, you are not Long Ge, you are the real Sheng Long Ge!” “Why?”

charlie asked in confusion. My father is far better than me, and he is not promoted to Longge. Why am I, an eight-year-old orphan who lost my parents, one

Will the son-in-law who was once ridiculed by Quan Aurous Hill be promoted to Longge? I...I don’t understand...”

Zhou Liangyun sighed, and said with a little choked up emotion, “Master...you still don’t know what Shenglongge is. Shenglongge is not a destiny that people are born with, it is acquired. When it comes to changing one’s destiny, people say that a dragon begets a dragon, and a phoenix begets a phoenix. Your father is a dragon, and your highest destiny is a dragon. To ascend to a dragon, you need the two dragons to merge into one...”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6296

At this point

, Zhou Liangyun said with red eyes, “Master, the reason why you are Shenglongge is because your father took away his destiny and gave it to you!

“Your father’s dragon pattern, plus your own dragon pattern, the two dragons are blessing you, and you are the rising dragon pattern!”

“Uncle Zhou...you...what did you just say?!”

At this moment, charlie’s whole body seemed to be struck by thunder, and his heart was filled with turmoil!

He burst into tears unconsciously and asked incomprehensibly, “My...my father...why did he strip his life away from me?!” Zhou Liangyun said with emotion, “Because your father knows that even if he is Long Ge, he cannot be the opponent of Po Qinghui, let alone the opponent of the British Lord, and the British Lord will definitely kill him, kill your mother, Kill you, so your father knew that he was bound to die, so he separated his destiny and gave it to you, and arranged all the escape routes for you. I hope that after you achieve Ascension to the Dragon Rank and escape from the Dragon Trapped Shoal, you can obtain ” “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture”, he will have the opportunity to fight with that heroic master in the future! Either die or leave you a glimmer of life, he will naturally choose the latter without hesitation!” charlie’s eyes at this moment could no longer be controlled

. The tears rolling down.

He never imagined that everything behind him getting the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture” and soaring into the sky would be so cruel!

charlie’s heart was extremely heavy. For a moment, he was already in a trance. Everything about that year was like a slideshow, switching rapidly in his mind. His parents, relatives, and everything about Aurous Hill kept flying in front of his eyes.

At this time, Zhou LiangyunHe then said in an extremely serious tone, “Master, after your father separated his fate from you, he took you and your mother to Aurous Hill. He and your mother had already made up their minds to die. He knew that he did not have Longge’s blessing. There is no way to avoid Po Qinghui’s pursuit. He hopes to use his own death in exchange for PoQinghui’s abandonment and to gain a chance for you to grow up safely.” “So, since your parents took you away from Aurous Hill , A moment ago, you were already destined to be Sheng Long.”

charlie thought of Lin Wan’er’s words and murmured, “No wonder Wan’er said that my father should not be Long Ge, otherwise he would not have been killed by Willie. It turned out to be because, He peeled off his dragon’s destiny and gave it to me...”

Zhou Liangyun said, “If you peel off your destiny, you will have a narrow escape. And in that life, the person who can successfully separate the destiny and successfully bless it to another person is even more rare. Fortunately, your father did it.”

Speaking of this, Zhou Liangyun added, “It was not really your father-in-law who accidentally broke the Yuhuchun vase in Jiqingtang, but because of the Yuhuchun vase. The “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” in the bottle sensed your destiny of ascending the dragon, and struggled to get out of the jade pot spring bottle to recognize its master!” “That day in the VIP room, when I put the box of the jade pot spring bottle When I opened it, it started to vibrate. I asked your father-in-law to take it out. Your father-in-law probably didn’t expect that the bottle would vibrate. He panicked and dropped the bottle on the ground...” “So

, It’s not that Master, you got the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” by chance, but you are the only one in the world who can make the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” come out of the bottle! I arranged this process in Jiqingtang, so that all this can be seen by you It will appear natural and will not be discovered by interested people.”

charlie listened silently, his tears already bursting into tears. After a long time, he suddenly asked, “Uncle Zhou, is it painful to strip away your destiny?”

Zhou Liangyun raised his head and looked at the ceiling, with mist in his eyes. It has condensed into tears, making the light seen by the pupils blurred and mottled.

After a long time, he murmured, “Separating one’s own destiny... is the most painful thing I have ever seen in my life...”
