

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6186

When Ni Dawei heard this, he felt ashamed.

He really doesn't think highly of Gunbir, what's more, charlie is also a new face who appeared from nowhere. He doesn't believe that charlie has the strength to help him, or to help Gunbir, under the pressure of Burning Angel, return to power. Zhenhua Gang.

However, he had to admit one thing, that is, Gunbir, a young man who was inexperienced in the world, was indeed more courageous than himself.

Although he didn't really believe in charlie's ability, Ni Dawei also had his own worries. If he rejected charlie, he would have no choice but to continue hiding in Tibet, and he would never be able to turn around again in this life. However

, if I cooperate with charlie, there may be a chance to turn around.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but look at Arman aside.

In his opinion, Arman is a great person.

Although he has been bored in this shop cooking roast goose for so many years, he is definitely the smartest person in Chinatown. Since even he believes in charlie, it proves that charlie must be more powerful than he imagined.

So, he made up his mind and said to charlie, "Mr. Wade, I am willing to cooperate with you. Just ask me for anything you need me to do!"

charlie said lightly, "Tell me about the Burning Angel, including the Italians behind them. What are their origins?"

Ni Dawei quickly said, "The Burning Angel is a gang that was just established in the past few years. However, its predecessor was formed by the merger of several small gangs in New York. The main reason for the merger was the Italian Mafia behind it. The Italians are deeply rooted in the United States. After gradually whitening them over the years, they have left the dirty work to the new gangs they support. At least 50% of the profits of these new gangs must be handed over to the Italians." As he spoke, Ni

Dawei He added, "Most Italian mafia in the United States are dominated by families. In the past, the five major families were more famous, but now the strongest one is actually the Zano family outside the five major families. The Burning Angel is loyal to the Zano family."

charlie said, "They have the endorsement of the Zano family, and then divide more than half of the money they earn to the Zano family. Strictly speaking, they specialize in sub-brands for the low-end market, and the Zano family still holds the absolute majority." The major shareholder."

Ni Dawei nodded and said, "Mr. Wade is right to understand this. In fact, there are many such gangs under the Zano family. Most of the members of the Burning Angel are African Americans with relatively low education levels, so they mainly Their business is to grab land and collect protection fees. There are also several organizations that are engaged in some slightly higher-end industries, such as those highly profitable contraband." Arman on the side introduced to charlie, "This generation of the Zano family is responsible for People are very smart. They have divided the business that was originally one-stop into multiple links in detail, and then handed over different links to different organizations, and then the organizations cooperated with each other, checked and balanced each other, and guarded against each other. " charlie raised his eyebrows and said, "Uncle Arman, please give me a detailed introduction."

Arman explained, "My point of view is also based on some information circulated by the outside world and what I have seen and heard when I was here before. The result may not be accurate, but it should not be too biased."

After speaking, Arman said seriously, "Actually, the Zano family's biggest source of income has always been the smuggling and sales of drug gangs. They have a gang dedicated to smuggling, a gang dedicated to sales, and many low-level gangs like the Burning Angels that compete for territory across the United States. "

The basic structure of this organization is to first send out a large number of low-level gangs to continuously expand their sphere of influence across the country. After they choose a neighborhood, they will settle in this neighborhood, and then use violent means to quickly gain absolute occupation rights in this neighborhood. After they complete the occupation, the team specializing in drug sales will expand their business to the newly occupied territory of the low-level gangs and directly monopolize the drug trade in this area. The low-level gangs that first occupied the sphere of influence will also provide Cover for these drug dealers as well as security. “ charlie nodded, smacked his lips and said, “I understand, it is to send robbers to rob a car first. After the robbers ransacked the people and finances in the car, they then drove the car and carried another person. Bo people and drug addicts go to their destinations to sell them to make greater profits. “

Yes.” “Arman said, “However, it’s not just drug dealers who are hitching a ride on this. In addition to monopolizing drug dealers, they also monopolize casinos and flesh and blood businesses within their sphere of influence. Within their monopoly, others are not allowed to open underground casinos. As well as loan sharking; and they will also import a group of prostitutes to monopolize the skin and flesh business in this area. Other skin and flesh organizations or individual practitioners must stop accepting customers. “ charlie couldn’t help but smacked his lips and said, “This kind of gameplay can indeed maximize the utilization of resources, and each link can check and balance each other. It is much more stable than leaving all these businesses to a gang to operate. It seems that this is a complicated business. The Nuo family really has two skills. “

Arman nodded and said, “The most powerful thing about the Zano family is that they almost never do anything illegal and criminal. On the surface, they have almost no involvement in these illegal and criminal businesses. This is completely different from the previous Italian mafia. “

In the past, when the Italian Mafia killed someone, they would jump out, beat their chests and tell everyone that I killed this person. However, the Zano family’s method was to order the murderer to dump the body in their own house. He then called the police immediately and told the police that someone died at his door. He also took the initiative to hand over all surveillance records to the police. It seemed that he wanted to solve the case as soon as possible than the police. “

charlie asked curiously, “Uncle Arman, are you talking about a real thing, or are you using a metaphor?” “It’s really true.” Arman said, “Last year, the patriarch of another Italian mafia family was killed while waiting at a red light. Four gunmen used submachine guns from two directions to create a hornet’s nest. Then one of the gunmen actually transported the body of the patriarch to the gate of the Zano family’s manor. The Zano family immediately called the police and not only took the initiative to expose the gunman’s death to the outside world. Surveillance video of the corpse even claimed that the Zano family had been framed and offered a reward of one million dollars to help the police catch the murderer;” “

But in fact, that family was the biggest competitor of the Zano family, and the two sides were competing for money from Colombia at the time. The supply of cocaine and the distribution agency rights in New York and even the entire East Coast. If anyone successfully obtains the agency rights, they will make at least hundreds of millions of dollars in profits a year. Therefore, everyone knows that the person must be killed by the Zano family, but they did not expect it. , people from the Zano family would, after killing someone, drag the body to the gate of their manor and sing a play with the other person’s body.”

charlie nodded with a smile, and said lightly, “Since this The Zano family loves singing opera so much, so let’s put on a show for them too!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6188

As charlie spoke, a plan had already formed in his mind.

I’ve been here all this time in New York, so some problems should be solved thoroughly.

Since the Zano family has extended its tentacles to Chinatown and the store that Uncle Arman has worked hard for decades, don’t blame yourself for being rude.

So, he said to Gunbir, “Gunbir, go change into this chef’s clothes and come out with me.” Gunbir looked at the five Burning Angel members and quickly asked, “Mr. Wade, what should they do?” I’ll kill them first! One shot at a time, never waste a bullet!” The five people were trembling with fear. They never expected that the little cook, who was so bullied by them that he didn’t even dare to fart, would now be determined to kill them. Kill all five of you!

Seeing Gunbir's firm expression, Charlie smiled slightly and said, "It's too early to kill them now. Let Uncle Arman and Ni Dawei keep an eye on them first. After they finish their business, it won't be too late to kill them." Arman quickly asked, "Master, you What are your plans? Is there anything you need to do?"

Charlie smiled and said, "No, Uncle Arman, after Gunbir and I leave, you will close the store and wait here for us to come back. If there is anything wrong during this period, if someone with long eyes comes to cause trouble, use these five people as hostages and call Kexin immediately." In New York, there is nothing that Fei Kexin can't handle.

Let alone some gangsters, even the Zano family is nothing in front of Fei Kexin.

But Charlie didn't want Fei Kexin to come forward to help.

Once she comes forward, this matter will not be so interesting.

However, Charlie also knew that he was incapable of doing anything else. If he took Gunbir to see the Zano family, he would have to guard against the roast goose shop being targeted by other members of the Burning Angel.

Arman naturally knew Charlie's intention and nodded lightly.

Charlie asked Ni Dawei again, "You have been living in New York for many years. The Zano family Do you know the specific situation of the tribe? For example, where they live, how many people there are, and the name of the person in charge. "

Ni Dawei said quickly, "The Zano family lives near Long Island. There is a Zano Manor. The mafia is relatively prosperous. The direct family members have a large population. I estimate there are at least ten people. The current patriarch of the Zano family is Antonio. Zano. "

Okay." Charlie nodded and said to Arman, "Uncle Arman, I will take Gunbir to the Zano Manor. If everything goes well, I will be back within two hours." "

Arman said quickly, "Young Master, please be more careful! "

The Zano family from Sicily has been dominant in New York for decades.

This family has been a mafia for generations, and the family token that the family has kept for decades is a Thompson submachine gun produced during World War II.

It is said that, After the old Zano, who was in charge of the Zano family, sold his assets in Sicily and came to New York, he gradually established a foothold in the American underworld with a Thompson submachine gun. And that submachine gun, known as the Chicago typewriter, became It is said that until the year before the year before last, this submachine gun was hung on the wall of the main hall of Zano Manor at position C. It was not until the new generation of Zano leaders decided to clean up their innocence that they took the gun off the wall. However, taking off the gun did not mean that the Zano family wanted to wash their hands.

On the contrary, they split up all the illegal transactions and gave them to those below who seemed to have nothing to do with the Zano family. After the vest gangs, they secretly continued to promote those gangs to conquer cities in New York and even the entire East Coast, in order to increase their sphere of influence and comprehensively increase their illegal income.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6189

On the surface, the Zano family, under the leadership of Antonio Zano, the leader of this generation, is doing its best to clear its identity and sharpen its head to move closer to the upper class. .

Antonio Zano knew very well that the more powerful the upper class were, the more they needed tools like the Mafia.

However, they are hypocritical and will not allow themselves to cooperate with the mafia openly.

This means that if a mafia family wants to gain their favor, the first thing they need to do is to clean themselves up.

To put it simply, what the upper class now needs is not a shameful chamber pot hidden under the bed. What they need is a toilet that can be placed openly in the toilet, is bright and clean, and does not smell at all.

The traditional Mafia is just a dirty and smelly chamber pot, so Antonio Zano really wants to lead the Zano family to complete the transformation from chamber pots to toilets.

At this time, Antonio Zano was directing his family members and close men in his manor to arrange the manor in a grand manner.

Today, he will receive a distinguished guest from afar at his manor.

In order to welcome this distinguished guest, all members of the Zano family put down their affairs early and rushed home to prepare. The distinguished guest invited this time is extremely important to the next development of the Zano family. If cooperation can be reached, the Zano family Will go to the next level.

In the main hall of Zano Manor, a large dining table more than ten meters long has been set up. The dining table is decorated with flowers flown from France, as well as the best crystal tableware and metal cutlery.

Forty-seven-year-old Antonio watched the maids busy and arranged everything in an orderly manner, with anticipation written on his face.

At this time, his seven or eight brothers and sisters, as well as their children and their children's spouses, were all dressed up and ready. Go up and say hello to Antonio.

Antonio fully plays the role of a patriarch. He greets everyone cordially and is a gentleman.

After almost all the immediate family members lined up to say hello, except for his 22-year-old daughter, Antonio couldn't help but ask his brother beside him, "Marco, where is Julia?"

Marco Zano said quickly, "Brother, I didn't see Julia all night."

"This child!" Antonio said dissatisfied, "She has been obedient all her life, why does she have to go against me this time! Doesn't she realize that I have planned for her? How perfect is life?"

Marco Zano complimented, "Brother, after all, Julia is still young and lacks social experience. Give her a little more time, and she will not only understand your good intentions, but she will even be grateful to you. Endless!"

"Yeah!" Antonio nodded slightly, then he arranged his suit, shirt and bow tie, and asked Marco very conceitedly, "How is it? I look like it now, does it look like "The Godfather"? Feeling?"

"Yes, of course!" Marco praised, "Brother, in the entire United States, and even in the entire Europe and America, no one is closer to Marlon Brando than you!" Antonio nodded slightly, smiled lightly and said, "I, Antonio Zano, will definitely become the most successful godfather in the history of Sicily!"

At this time, Antonio's youngest brother Francisco ran over and said respectfully, "Brother, your distinguished guest's plane has landed at JFK Airport! It is expected to arrive at the manor in forty minutes! "

"Very good!" Antonio couldn't hold back the excitement in his heart, and said loudly, "It depends on tonight whether we can go to the next level!" After that, he carefully smoothed his hair with his palms, and said "You guys keep watching here, I'm going to find Julia!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6190

At the same time.

charlie drove the inconspicuous Chevrolet, carrying the nervous and anxious Gunbir, to the outskirts of Zano Manor.

The two of them could see from the outside that Zano Manor was very busy at this time. The entire manor was brightly lit, and a large number of mafia members in black suits stood upright on both sides of the door, as if they were waiting for someone important.

charlie saw this from a distance and couldn't help but smile, "It seems we are here today. The Zano family seems to be having some major event.

" He swallowed his saliva and asked charlie, "Mr. Wade, at first glance, there are at least hundreds of people. Do we really want to go in and cause trouble?"

charlie smiled and said, "Didn't I say, I want to put on a show with them ?" Come on, just follow me later. You will do whatever I say, just look at my eyes."

After saying that, charlie added, "But if you are really worried, I can go by myself."

Gunbir said without hesitation He said, "Mr. Wade, I am indeed worried, but I am not afraid! As long as you tell me what to do, I will do it!" "

Okay." charlie nodded and said, "Let's wait for a good time. "

At this moment, in Zano Manor.

Antonio paced to the door of his daughter Julia's room. He paced at the door for a moment, then stepped forward and knocked on the door.

"Julia, it's me, dad."

There was no response in the room.

Antonio had no choice but to patiently say outside the door, "Julia, you have to know that our Sicilian tradition is that everything is for the family. I am sitting in this position today not for my personal honor, disgrace and wealth, but for The future of our Zano family, and I hope you can, like me, always put the interests of the family first!"

In the room, a young girl angrily rebuked, "Everything for the family is just your personal thoughts and wishes. You can't impose your personal thoughts and wishes on me! In that case, I would rather leave this family!" Antonio said angrily,

"Listen to what bastards you are saying! Don't forget that you are a A girl with the blood of Xixi Islanders flowing in her bones! Girls from Xixi Island, even if they get married or change their surname, they must never forget their family!

The imprint of the family is left in the blood and bones of every Xixi Islander
And in the soul!"

"F*ck your family brand!" the girl said angrily. "From today on, I will take my mother's surname! I am no longer Julia Zano! I am Julia Chiricella ! I have long been tired of the surname Zano!"

"How dare you!" Antonio banged the door furiously, furious. He shouted angrily, "Julia, if you insist on confronting me, then I will send you to Sicily overnight, to your cousin's farm, and let you shave wool there for the rest of your life!" in the room

! The girl fell silent for a moment.

Antonio's mood was not calmed down at all. When he saw that his daughter did not respond, he continued to roar aggressively, "Julia, don't think that this matter can get over without talking! I will give you three seconds to think about it. If you are sure you want to If you go against me, then I will arrange for you to go to the airport now!"

After that, he raised his voice a little and shouted, "One! Two!"

The girl in the room shouted nervously, "Okay, okay! I listen to you! I It's all up to you!"

Antonio then calmed down a little and said in a cold voice, "That's more or less the same! Remember! A Sicilian girl will serve her family all her life!" The girl inside said helplessly, "Okay, everything you said is right. Now please leave first, I need some time to dress up!"

Antonio said coldly, "I will give you ten minutes, and I will wait for you here for these ten minutes!"

The girl had to say, "Whatever you want, you have to be willing No one will stop you."

Antonio sneered and reminded, "Julia, I advise you not to try to escape by climbing through the window, because I have already arranged people to watch outside your window. If you climb out of the window, they will catch you and take you directly to the car to take you to the airport!"

The girl was immediately furious, “You bastard!”

Antonio was not angry even after being scolded by his daughter, and said with a smile, “Remember Come on, Julia, a Sicilian girl who will serve her family all her life! If you betray the family, you will bring shame on my face. I would rather let you shear sheep in Sicily for the rest of your life than let you become the shame of the family.” The girl was hysterical . shouted “Antonio Zano! I hate you!”

Antonio said, “You can hate me, Julia, but remember...”

Before Antonio could speak, the girl inside shouted loudly, “A Sicilian girl, spend her whole life for Family! I already know! Don’t say any more!”

Antonio smiled and said, “It’s good that you know!”

Ten minutes later, the door opened, revealing a tall, brown-haired, green-eyed, beautiful woman wearing a white evening gown. The girl walked out of the room.

This girl is Antonio’s daughter, Julia Zano.
