

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6297

At this moment, Charlie could no longer control his emotions, lowered his head and covered his face, crying loudly!

When he was young, his parents were killed. For many years after that, he often felt ashamed of living alone and living alone.

If it weren't for Aunt Li's constant care and guidance for more than ten years, he might have become depressed and distorted, and even ended his life at a certain point in time.

Since he obtained the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures", he has the ability to explore some hidden details of his parents' death. When he knew that the reason why he could grow up safely in an orphanage was all arranged by his father before his death, his feeling of shame doubled instantly.

But now, when he learned that the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" was left by his father for him, even the ascending dragon destiny that he opened the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" was his father who stripped his own destiny and blessed it in his own. When he was wearing it, he was so ashamed that he felt ashamed.

What made Charlie even more tortured was Zhou Liangyun's words just now. He said that stripping away one's fate was the cruelest thing he had ever seen in his life... Seeing Ye

Chen collapse and cry, Zhou Liangyun put his hand on his shoulder. , said with relief, "Master, you don't have to blame yourself for this. This is your father's willing decision. He knows that if he doesn't give you his destiny, he will not be able to escape death, and you will not be able to escape death, and you will have to give up your destiny. After giving it to you, although he is powerless, you will have a chance to survive and defeat Sara..."

Speaking of this, Zhou Liangyun said again, "Now it seems that your father's choice was correct, and you got "Jiu Xuan Tian Jing", given time, you will definitely be able to kill Sara and avenge your parents!"

Charlie nodded heavily while sobbing.

At this moment, he realized that he had been trusted by his father for a long time.

Destroying the Qinghui and killing Sara are the marks that have been engraved on his bones since he was a child!

Only by achieving these two goals can we comfort our parents' spirits in heaven and be worthy of the other dragon destiny given to us by our father!

At the same time, Charlie couldn't help but ask, "Uncle Zhou, were you there when my father separated his fate from me?" "Yes

." Zhou Liangyun nodded and said, "At that time, your father asked me to come here from the United States. , firstly because he was afraid of accidents during the process of stripping off the destiny, and secondly because he wanted to give me the jade pot spring bottle containing the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" after the destiny stripping off, so that I could take it with me overnight. After returning to the United States, I kept the jade pot and spring vase hidden in an unknown place. It wasn't until Mr. Exeor solved your dilemma in the shoal that I took it out and brought it back to China."

Charlie After hesitating for a moment, he asked, "Uncle Zhou, can you tell me how fate is separated? Or, what kind of scene did you see?" Zhou Liangyun hesitated for a moment, shook his head and said, "Master, I don't know fate

. How to peel off the grid? After all, I am not Long Ge, and I have not understood the things written in the "Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface". As for what the scene was at that time, to this day, you no longer need to know this, and I have no intention of telling you. You, I will tell you the hidden secrets and the whole story of the past today. From now on, you should look forward and move forward, and stop looking back at the past."

Charlie murmured, "I just want to know what my father went through back then... "

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said very understandingly, "I understand how you feel, but too many fetters will only become yours. Inner demons and nightmares, aside from other things, even if you let me recall those years again, it will be an unbearable burden for me, so I ask for your forgiveness, young master..." Charlie pursed his lips for a long time and nodded gently

. Zhou Liangyun nodded.

Seeing that he no longer insisted, Zhou Liangyun changed the topic and said, “By the way, young master, I have hidden the Sifang Baozhuang in the same place. After you leave here, you must take it out as soon as possible and bring it back to China as soon as possible.” .

Charlie nodded and asked him, “Uncle Zhou, where did you hide the Sifang Baobang?” “

Zhou Liangyun smiled and said, “The square treasure building is hidden outside the door of the Zhou family’s manor in New Jersey, near New York. “

As he spoke, Zhou Liangyun added, “Outside the gate of my manor, there is a pair of very majestic stone lions. Inside the base of the male lion, there is a hidden compartment. The four-sided treasure building is hidden there. It is not difficult to open the hidden compartment. , just use a small crane or forklift to lift the male lion’s body directly, the base will open, and the hidden compartment will be inside. “

charlie asked in surprise, “Such an important thing has always been placed at your door? “

“yes. “Zhou Liangyun smiled and said, “The Rothschild family has already searched all the properties, all the shops and all the related places of our Zhou family countless times. In my family’s manor, the walls, ceilings and underground are all added up. There are a total of sixteen hidden compartments. They have already used the most professional equipment to dig through them, but they never dreamed that the things were actually in the stone lion at the door. “

As he spoke, Zhou Liangyun added, “By the way, the jade pot spring vase containing the “Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures” has been hidden there for the past twenty years without any changes. The United States is originally a sparsely populated place. Not in the city center, every house is quite large. It is very common to see two stone lions at the entrance of a Chinese manor. Only by hiding here can I ensure maximum safety. Otherwise, no matter where I hide, I will leave traces during my actions. , As long as they follow a little bit, they can find it sooner or later, but if this thing has never left my house, then they won't be able to catch any clues;" "Besides, my house is located in a remote place, and the manor is at the end of a small road. There is no surveillance at the door, and there are no outsiders. The entire process can be kept absolutely confidential. To them, this thing is as if it has disappeared from the world, and the stone will last forever. Not to mention twenty years, even two hundred years will not be given to it. No matter what impact it brings, it can always stand there and keep guarding the secrets inside. "

When charlie heard this, he couldn't help but marvel. Being able to put such an important thing at an undefended door really requires a very strong mentality. It can be seen that Zhou Liangyun himself is also a very courageous and courageous person. You are an awesome person who dares to think and do it.

At this time, Zhou Liangyun reminded charlie again, "By the way, young master, although it has been a few months since the incident happened, it cannot be ruled out that the Rothschild family is still secretly watching my family, but I believe that with your The strength should not be discovered by them. " charlie nodded, "Don't worry, Uncle Zhou, this matter is not a problem for me. After I go out, I will bring the Sifang Baozhu back to China as soon as possible. After I return it to Zhao in its entirety, I will let people Releasing the news made the Rothschild family completely give up. "

As he said, charlie thought of something again and said, "Just letting them give up would be too easy for them. This matter must ruin their reputation. I will find a way to let them send you out personally and give you your freedom. ! "
